

GROVE CITY WRITERS' GROUP

Monday, May 6th

Plot Writing Prompts

Take the following words and construct a story plot around them. Use them in any order. Describe a short plot summary. Try to add something: Characters, locations, subplots, details, twists. The more you add, the more colorful your story will become. The only rule is that you must use all of the words. Slashes mean you can pick between words.

Writing Prompt 1:

Suitcase – traffic jam – star – contract – drug – celebration – stairs/piano/autograph – beggar – apple

Writing Prompt 2:

Library – rodent – love/hobby/fanatic – magic – flowers – legend/fairy tale/rumor – birthday pie – clock

Writing Prompt 3:

Monastery/Brewery/Pet shop – breeding – tears – wheel – green – rebel – friend – cozy/thick/dirty

Writing Prompt 4:

Cigar – anger – policeman – pill – polite – celebrate/encourage/humiliate – husband – double-edged

Ages 18 & Up / Word Count 500

Grove City Writers' Group

Plot Writing Prompt

Monday, May 6th

A package arrived on my doorstep.
It was addressed to...
I decided to open it.
I was shocked to see what was inside!
What was inside the box and what did you do with it?

You have 500 words to tell your story.

