SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Class of '34, of Grove City High School, in Grove City, County of Mercer, State of Pennsylvania, of the United States of America, do hereby bequeath these, our earthly belongings, to our fellow students and teachers.

Item 1. To the faculty, who have put forth a valiant effort to equip us with the knowledge standing revealed today, the satisfaction that what we absorbed was enough to give us an excuse to leave G. C. H. S.

Item 2. To the janitors we give thanks for making the building hang together while we were in it.

Item 3. Various members of the class wish to give you something to remember them by:

1. Rita Rider leaves the waves in her hair to Lois Moore.
2. Hazel Rainey leaves her big sense of humor to Leonard.
3. Dorothy Styers bequeaths her small feet to Sally Soppitt.
4. Bill Brown leaves his divine dancing and many broken hearts behind him.
5. Louise Bigler bequeaths her figure to Miss Johnston. Slenderine did it.
6. Al Taylor leaves his wisdom to the Freshmen.
7. Don McGill moans and entrusts his position as football manager to less competent hands.
8. Marian Manny leaves nothing. She's taking Pete with her.
9. Dorothy Stevenson leaves her job on the Pine Knott staff to the next unfortunate editor.
10. Don Thompson wills his height to Dominick.
11. Irvin Muir leaves for home in his model "T."
12. Dodie Cookson leaves his marks to anyone who wants them.
13. Dot Cookson sadly leaves school, but then there's always Friday night.
14. Roberta Robinson leaves her gum under the seat in Room 16. Juniors desiring same may apply early. The flavor lasts.
15. Howard Walters leaves his knowledge of French to all those who are foolish enough to take it.
16. Jim Lary and Myrna Surrena leave their red tresses to be equally divided between Mr. Crowther and Mr. Lehn.
17. It would be an imposition to ask Charles Reynolds to leave anything. He needs all he's got.
18. Fred Thomas leaves his popularity and his presidency to Frank Patterson.
19. John Calderwood leaves his old jokes to the Odd Fellows' Home.
20. Ted Hinds is satisfied just to leave school.
21. Dick McClelland bequeaths his oratorical ability to Music-Literary contestants of the future.

Item 4. To every member of Grove City High School, the class of 1934 leaves hearty wishes for success and happiness in all undertakings.

SOPHOMORE PROPHECY

We, the members of the Sophomore class, are looking forward to a bright and happy future. We will produce the leaders of industry, literature, and commerce. From our class will come the greatest statesmen of all times. A member of our class is destined to surpass Einstein. One of us will make Lindbergh's flight look small, indeed, and the greatest inventions of the future will be made by us. A criminal, more notorious than Capone, an actress greater than Garbo, a man more radical than Hitler, and a crooner more heart-moving than Crosby will be found among the budding geniuses of the class of 1936.

DRAMATICS

The Senior Class has been active in dramatics during the school year. Contrary to the customs of other years, the Thanksgiving and Christmas plays were presented by members of the Senior Public Speaking classes.

"The Boston Tea Party", a play based on the historical event of that name, was presented at Thanksgiving time and had to do with a young crippled boy, who cleverly detained two "red-coats" in a country inn, while the tea was being thrown overboard.

Dick Hamford—A crippled boy	Clifford McDougall
Tom—the landlord of the Inn	Lloyd McCurdy
British Lieutenants	Carl Richards, Walter Horsman
American Patriots	Irvin Muir, John Paxton, Herman Rodgers

The Music-Literary Contest play was a Domestic Comedy. A young architect and his wife thought they had lost a fortune, because their stupid maid had neglected mailing an important letter. However, everything ended happily.

Jeffrey Baldwin	Herman Rodgers
Mrs. Baldwin	Mary Lou Caywood
Hilda, the maid	Muriel Burton

A story of paganism versus Christianity was told in the presentation of the Christmas play, "For Unto You is Born." Some poor peasants, distracted by famine and the threatened sacrifice of their son, learn of the true religion and become Christians, thus saving their son.

Micha, an aged woodsman	James Lary
Anna, his wife	Ruth Montgomery
Etsel, their son	Andrew Bardelcik
Bonaface, a Christian priest	Richard Fithian
Hogan, a Druid priest	William Ryhal

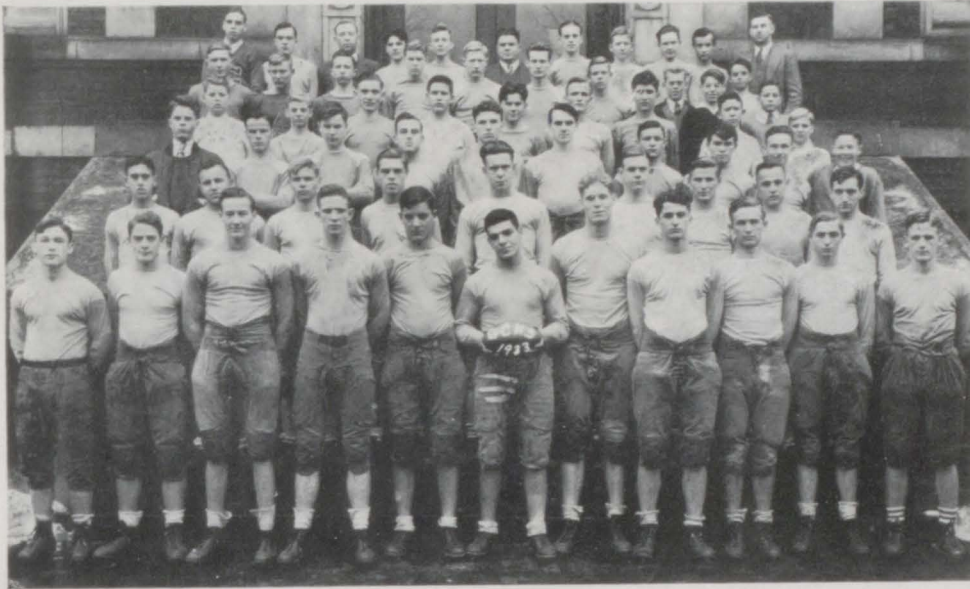

The Senior Class play "As the Clock Strikes," was presented to a full house on the evening of March 1. The play was a mystery as well as a comedy. A valuable necklace was stolen from one of the guests of a house party, and after every one had been accused of the deed, the real thief, who was really not a thief at all, was found.

Nick Bolton—host of the house party	Thomas Throckmorton
Sam Randolph	Andy Bardelcik
Nancy Arnold—engaged to Nick	Jean Williamson
Alec Manchester—playwright	Charles Pearson
William—the butler	Harold Kays
Mrs. Randolph—a nice old lady	Margaret Racz
Madge Keating	June Joyner
Jim Keating	John Dyko
Lucius Dreer—a stranger	William Ryhal

The following one-act plays were given in chapel as Senior Productions: "Between Trains," "Who Says Can't," "Poor Sam," "The Valiant," "Thank You Doctor," and "Red Carnations."

During the latter part of February, a dramatic club was formed, which is sponsored by Misses Genevieve Hunter and Leila Gilliland. The club meets every Wednesday evening.

COUNTY CHAMPS

On the night of September 15 the Golden Tornado of Grove City High went into action against the powerful Meadville eleven. It was the Grovers' first game, but they fought their heavy opponents on even terms until the closing minutes of the game when the greater weight of the Meadville Club allowed them to push over the only score of the game. The game ended 7 to 0, Meadville.

A week later on September 25, the Grovers defeated a fighting Sandy Lake team 42 to 0.

The next game was played at New Brighton on September 30. The game resulted in a Gold and White victory which was due mostly to a flashy passing attack. The score, 13 to 6.

On October 6th, we had a county game with Greenville. In the first quarter the Grovers let up and Greenville scored, but the Golden Tornado came back and scored twice before the half ended. After that, Grove City's fast charging, hard-hitting line stopped the Greenville running attack dead. The game ended Grove City 14, Greenville 6.

On Saturday, October 14, the Grovers defeated Union Township with the reserves playing the greater part of the game. The score, 27 to 19.

Then on October 21 came THE GAME with Sharon. Sharon was favored to win by at least two touchdowns but again Grove City's great forward wall came through and refused to allow Sharon a single first down and at the same time paved the way for the only touchdown of the game. In this game the line proved themselves to be equal to any that ever played for the Gold and White. The game ended 7 to 0, Grove City.

The next Friday night we played Farrell. Farrell made a touchdown in the first quarter, but once more the Golden Tornado came back and, by means of a bewildering passing attack and classy backfield running, won the game 14 to 8.

On November 4 the Grovers had little trouble defeating Oil City 41 to 11.

Now for the climax, "THE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME" with Sharpville. Playing on an inferior field, which was covered with a half foot of snow, our Golden clad warriors out-played, out-fought, and finally defeated their opponents 6 to 0.

We congratulate you county champions of 1933!

"WINGS CLIPPED"

Grove City High started their basketball season this year with high hopes of a successful season. With only one first string man missing from their championship team of '33, our "golden eagles" were expected by everyone to bring another championship home to their "nest."

They opened their season by losing two tough battles to the strong Butler and Oil City quintets, after which they came back to win four straight games. Hickory was the first victim, then a revenge victory over Butler followed by easy wins at Franklin and Hickory.

In the next two encounters our "golden eagles" had their wings clipped by two defeats at the hands of their fighting county rivals, Sharpsville and Greenville.

Smarting under their two recent set-backs the somewhat sobered eagles began another four game win streak by defeating Titusville and Mercer on their home courts, following these by a win over Franklin and a decisive victory at Oil City.

Then on February second in the Sharon High gymnasium was played one of the fastest, hardest fought basketball games ever witnessed in the county. The lead changed hands three times in the last two minutes of play, and with only three seconds to go one of Sharon's stellar guards dropped in a lift shot from the foul line to give Sharon a one point victory.

In their next game the Grovers defeated Mercer in a slow game at the county seat. On February ninth the "eagles" invaded Farrell only to be defeated in the last quarter after leading during the first three periods. The next Tuesday the "eagles," weakened by the loss of one their first string men, suffered another defeat at the hands of their old rival, Sharon.

Again the Grovers came out of their slump and were able to complete their schedule with easy victories over the Alumni, Titusville, and three county rivals, Greenville, Sharpsville, and Farrell.

In the first round of the county tournament our "golden eagles" suffered an unexpected set-back at the hands of the new county champions, Greenville. It was a bitter dose to take, but it is only the old story of the defeat of the champion by an under dog fighting its way up the ladder of fame.

 But how you played the game.
