We Dedicate

the 1948 Pine Knot to Miss Rebekah and Miss Margaret Washabaugh . . . . . teachers of many and friends of all. For many years they have contributed more than their share to our knowledge and memories. Miss Rebekah Washabaugh is still a prominent member of our faculty, teaching Latin I and Algebra I. Before her resignation in 1945, Miss Margaret Washabaugh taught Latin II and civics. For the trouble and provocations we caused them, we offer our humble apology; for the learning and unfailing guidance we received from them, we offer our humble appreciation. What can we say to express our true feelings toward these two outstanding figures? Through them we learned the real meaning of disco, discis, discit; to them we fondly dedicate this book.

*W*HOM did you go to when you couldn't understand your assignment? Who gave you advice and often helped to pull you out of an awful rut? Yes, it was the teachers.

They worked many hours just for our benefit. They cooperated with us whenever we needed their assistance.

You may look far and near, but you'll never find a better faculty than Grove City High School's. The following pages show our leaders during the "Best Years of Our Life".

The person who said, "Teachers also are human," must have known ours. Thanks, faculty, for everything.

Board of Education

THE first Monday night of every month the Board of Education meets to discuss the many problems that confront every school—the problems of appropriations and curricula, of the care of the building and grounds, of taxes and school books. In general, their job is to see that Grove City schools maintain their high standing among the schools of Pennsylvania.

The doorway you see at the top of this page leads to many things. Education is only one; you will also find many social activities and friendships.

Together, the school and the school board give us what is necessary for building our future lives. Both are a necessity wherever a good school is a part of a town. We have them, so let's help to make ours a good school.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

First row (left to right)—Dr. J. Nelson Mowls, Dr. W. F. Rossman, Mr. V. H. Fleck.

Second row—Mr. P. N. Carpenter, Mr. A. M. Winder, Mr. H. G. Cunningham.

Third row—Mr. N. S. Crill, Mr. F. H. Elliott, Mr. Floyd McClymonds.

Dr. J. Nelson Mowls
Superintendent

Mr. H. J. Surrena
Principal

As superintendent of Grove City schools you will find a man with a cheerful personality and a ready smile for all he meets. Dr. J. Nelson Mowls is not only interested in school life but also he has many ideas for the betterment of the community. Dr. Mowls is interested in each individual in Grove City High School. This fact may be verified by his frequent consultations with the students.

Our superintendent is socially and athletically minded also. His encouragement to the student body to participate in school activities is admired by all.

Mrs. Betty Hummel, the superintendent's able secretary, is likewise always willing to offer a helping hand.

Mr. Harland J. Surrena, our principal, is another industrious man. His work is directed toward our benefit, and the fact that he is interested in our progress may be readily seen. Mr. Surrena spends many hours arranging schedules and keeping the school looking attractive. Although this is only his second year as principal, he has quickly grasped the idea of his job, and he has responded willingly.

His spirit in school activities is noticed and enjoyed by the entire student body.

Working with Mr. Surrena is his capable secretary, Mrs. Mabel Northcott. She is another person who is always willing to cooperate with us.

Mrs. Betty Hummel

*A*LREADY the seniors are thinking back over their past years in high school. One of the things they remember best is the "old gang." Whether it be the gang from Brooklyn Hill or the one from the Boulevard, you'll find it in the following pages. To your left are our class officers: President, Meade D'Amore; vice president, Seaton Shelley; secretary, Sally Adams; treasurer, Russell White. The class chose the carnation as its class flower and dusty rose and white as its class colors.

Next come the juniors with their new, shiny class rings. They have enough pep to turn the school upside down.

After the juniors come the sophomores. Although they may be a little more shy, they certainly are a bunch of swell kids to know.

Last but not least come the freshmen. It's true they are a little "green", but they have often been the subject of our conversation, and the cause of many of our laughs.

Last Will and Testament

We, the students of THE SENIOR CLASS of 1948, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following legacies to our successors, the seniors of 1949.

We expect these legacies to be held and treated with due respect by the fore-mentioned class.

SECTION I

ARTICLE I: I, Jenna Adams, name as my sole heir, Marybelle Buchanan. I give to her my sense of humor and trust her to use it wisely.

ARTICLE II: We four, Marilyn Amberson, Dauna Hassel, and the Toderello sisters, name as our sole heirs anybody who will use to its best advantage, our love and ability to play basketball.

ARTICLE III: I, Gordon Atkinson, leave my position on the "Star Staff" with a sigh of relief.

SECTION II

ARTICLE I: I, Eleanor Baker, entrust my beautiful green eyes to any Irishman who wants them.

ARTICLE II: I, Willard Baker, leave my art of quietly starting a small brawl in any and every place to the only two whom I feel could do such an art justice, Sam Williamson and George Carson.

ARTICLE III: I, Jay Barnes, leave Virginia Filer with this note attached, 'HANDLE WITH CARE'. (He refuses to name an heir.)

ARTICLE IV: Miriam Shellito and Jane Bishop leave their fiddling ability to the future violinist of G. C. H. S.

ARTICLE V: I, Betty Lou Bridges, leave my beautifully soft and sweet singing voice to Shirley Lucas, hoping she'll always use it, not only for her own enjoyment, but for the enjoyment of others.

SECTION III

ARTICLE I: I, Merle Campbell, name as my sole heirs the would-be-dreamers in the high school band. I do endow thee, O faithful slaves, with my drum and drumsticks and pity on thee in your further years of enslavement.

ARTICLE II: I, Richard Cookson, name as my sole heir Bob Stevenson. I leave to him that characteristic name Elmer that forever keeps presenting itself.

ARTICLE III: I, Norma Crawford, name as my heir the person who can do justice to my sweet nature and soothing manner.

ARTICLE IV: I, Carmen Crooks, name as my sole heir, Joan Hollingsworth. I do endow her with artistic ability, paints and paint brushes.

SECTION IV

ARTICLE I: I, Meade D'Amore, do endow thee Eddie Bridges, with my winning smile and hope that it does for you as much as it has done for me.

ARTICLE II: I, Dorothy Dawson, name as my sole heir, Billy Armstrong, to whom I leave my naturally curly hair.

ARTICLE III: I, Kirk Drennen, leave my little brother Allan, hoping that he succeeds as I have in studies and friendships.

SECTION V

ARTICLE I: We three; Chuck Ekas, Jim Tinkey and Dave Winland, leave before we get so tall we can't.

ARTICLE II: I, Lynn McDougall, haven't decided whether to leave or not. My sole possession is my sports page. I don't know whether I want this mangled by some female or not.

SECTION VI

ARTICLE I: I, Helen Fisher, name as my sole heir, Marv Lou Black. To her I leave my long walks up Brooklyn Hill, to and from school.

ARTICLE II: I, Nancy Fleck, praise allah that I'm out.

ARTICLE III: I, Nancy Fryman, name as my sole heir, Dolores Eakin, to whom I leave my sweet and appealing manners.

ARTICLE IV: I, Jim Gibson, leave taking with me the headaches I gave Mr. McClelland and any other teachers.

ARTICLE V: I, Vaughn Graham, leave my trumpet to whomever can treat it with proper respect.

SECTION VII

ARTICLE I: I, Nancy Harv, do endow thee, Mae Buxton, with my pretty blond hair, trusting you will give it the proper care and always have it looking extra nice, as I do mine.

ARTICLE II: I, Joe Hodøsen, name as my sole heir my little brother, Keith. I give to him my charming manner and ever-ready grin.

ARTICLE III: I, Jim Hollingsworth, leave to thee, Bob Dunn, my shy and lazy-like nature. Above all don't over work it, it tires easily.

ARTICLE IV: I, Dolores Jarrot, leave my arguments for future Democracy classes to survey and see how sensible they really are.

SECTION VIII

ARTICLE I: I, Nancy Kelly, leave G. C. H. S. and feel lucky after riding with one of the Blvd. boys (not mentioning any names.)

ARTICLE II: I, Theo Karfes, leave to my sole heir, Mary Esther Candee, my sweet and charming personality and for 'Cryin' Out Loud' (favorite saying) use it on the right people.

ARTICLE III: I, Doris Kennedy, leave my red hair, blue eyes, and ever ready smile to Bonnie Dunlap, who will put them to the best advantage.

ARTICLE IV: I, Shirley Kerr, leave to Betty Kerr, my surname, and easy blush.

ARTICLE V: I, Barbara Lynn, leave to Eleanore McCarthy, my peppy cheering ability.

SECTION IX

ARTICLE I: I, Joanne Manos, name as my sole heirs, Fontene Page and Gaylord Kohlmeyer, that they may keep the keyboard warm and in an everlasting state of exercise.

ARTICLE II: I, Nora Martin, leave my nice smile and dimples to Louise Brown. Use them to convey good will and to give the word 'humor' a good workout.

ARTICLE III: I, Nancy McArthur, leave my soft spoken manner and pleasant voice to the many girls in the forthcoming Senior Class who possess this quality.

ARTICLE IV: I, Clifford McCandless, do endow thee, John Miles, my serious manner and quiet nature.

ARTICLE V: I, Irene McCann, name as my sole heir Sue Porter. I give to you my petiteness and a bottle of vitamin pills, so that some day you might have the chance to be a nice big girl.

ARTICLE VI: Ruth McCullen leaves the memory of her infectious smile along with her pretty face, in the halls of G. C. H. S., so that no one will forget her nor her sweet personality.

ARTICLE VII: I, Willis Miller, leave my brush cut to all those fellows who have trouble keeping their locks intact.

SECTION X

ARTICLE I: I, Grace Ormond, leave my excess knowledge for those poor students who may need some sort of reference in difficult times.

ARTICLE II: Gus Page leaves his argumentative ability and self-assurance to future debaters, in hopes that they will use these things to the best advantage as he has.

ARTICLE III: I, Robert Penman, name as my sole heir, Leonard DeAugustino. I give to him my never-ending chuckling and infectious grin.

ARTICLE IV: Ozzie Place leaves that healthy look to Fred Hassel. (Honest kids it's juicy morsels such as—apples, not rouge, that makes us look that way.)

ARTICLE V: I, Betty Lou Royle, do endow one, and only one of my natural blonde hairs to all those girls who so admire what naturally comes to me.

ARTICLE VI: Walter Rust and Dorothy Schlict just leave, happy to be together.

ARTICLE I: Seaton Shelley just passes out from the shock of receiving his diploma and is very happy to do so.

ARTICLE II: I, Jack Stowe, do endow to thee, o brawny one, an extra set of muscles to carry around my heavy horn. (This refers to the future alto sax player.)

SECTION XI

ARTICLE III: I, Wilda Stull, have carefully tucked away my baton in moth balls etc. for the future majorettes of G. C. H. S.

ARTICLE IV: I, John Taylor, will just grab my diploma and run.

ARTICLE V: Mary Thomas leaves her loveliness and quiet manner to Donna Crowell. May you treat it in the proper manner.

SECTION XII

ARTICLE I: I, Mary Walsh, leave my willingness to help in any and all situations, to my little sister, Pat. She, like I, will do justice to all problems that present themselves.

ARTICLE II: I, Ruth Warner, just want to go home and rest for the summer. It's too much effort to leave anything.

ARTICLE III: Shirley Weber leaves all those traits that characterize her—such as, her nice smile, pretty eyes and hair, willingness and capability, and many others, to her sister, Doris.

ARTICLE IV: I, Donna Wherry, do entrust in your care, Shirley Dickson, my love to laugh at anything and everything. There are very few of us 'Gigglers', but I know we are appreciated every once in a while.

ARTICLE V: Emily White leaves to Ruth Ryhal, her lovely curly hair.

ARTICLE VI: I, Dorothy Williamson, name as my sole heir, Shirley Curry. To her I give that delicate and so becoming fragile look. Use it with the grace for which it was intended.

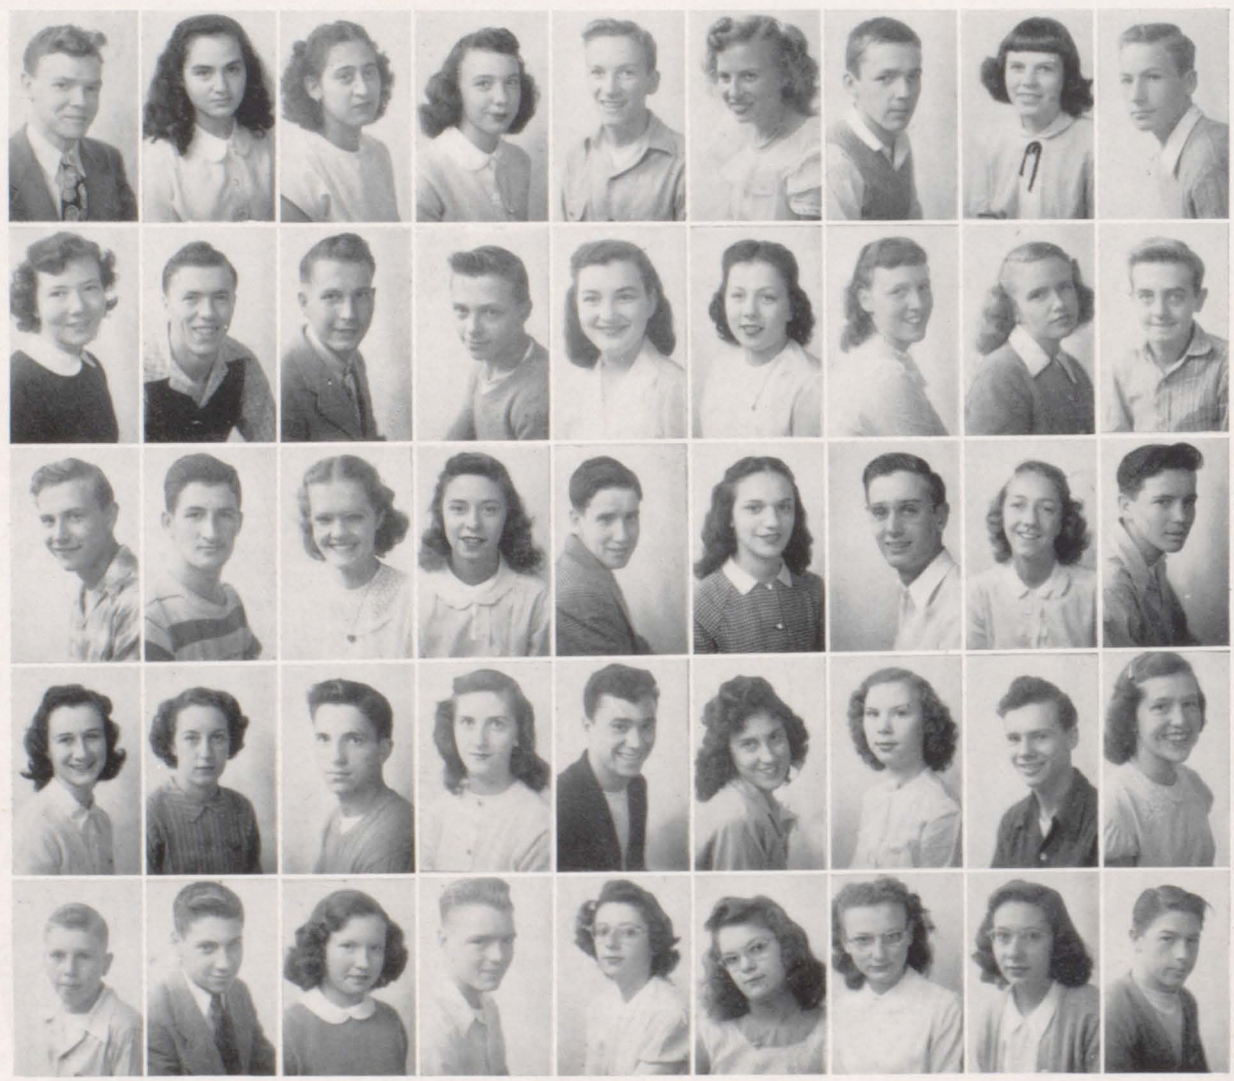

ARTICLE VIII: Donna Winger leaves her poise to Joy Reznor, with this request, 'treat it sweet and gentle.'

*T*HE calendar says, "Wednesday," so that means clubs the first period. Let's see, it must be A clubs this week since we had Student Council last Wednesday.

No matter what's on the agenda for club period we always have fun. After the business part is over, we either plan for our dance or just sit back and watch a program.

It sure is wonderful how the kids take over and make each Wednesday count from 8:40 to 9:20.

Dramatic Club

THE Dramatic Club was organized in order that the students who are interested in dramatics may show their talents. This is done by having the members present plays, monologues, pantomimes, and other dramatic productions in both club meetings and in chapel.

New members are admitted into the club by the way they present their talents. This year, as in the past three years, students who wished to become members of the club gave a reading, a short skit, or a monologue before the membership committee.

The club's main purpose is to help the members be at ease before an audience. The activities of the club make the members and the school more conscious of the value in the study in drama.

Miss Jean McCoy, sponsor of the Dramatic Club, gave suggestions to help the members see more clearly the importance of dramatic talent.

Literary Club

THE main purposes of Literary Club are to help its members appreciate literature and to increase the use of the library. The sponsor of this club is our own librarian, Miss Anna Belle Hamilton. Not only do they keep up on the latest literature, but a program committee is appointed for the entire year. This committee arranges an entertaining program for each week the club meets. A special Christmas program was put on this year with the members of Dramatic Club as guests.

Literary Club goes all-out for good times, and their parties are something well remembered by each member. The first party this year was a Christmas party for the new members in the club.

The evening started off with dancing, followed by the playing of a variety of games. Refreshments were served and a present was given to each member. The evening of fun ended with the singing of carols. This is just one of the many social events that was planned for Literary Club, where there is never a dull moment.

Literary Club has charge of a chapel program once a year. This year the chapel program was a "Revue of 1948."

Jr. Tri-Hi-Y

“JO create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character.” This is the purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y.

The Freshmen and Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y have combined to form the Jr. Tri-Hi-Y. Together these groups have worked out a worthwhile program.

A token initiation was a part of the Hal-lowe'en party. The dues received from each member went toward having this party. The selling of telegrams at the carnival proved to be a great success. Candy and chewing gum sold at the basketball games brought large dividends.

At the December meeting the installation of officers and induction of new members was followed by a Christmas party. A Christmas box was sent to a needy southern family. The remainder of the program for the year included a swimming party, discussion groups, church visits, a Mother and Daughter tea, and a sweater hop.

By following this program, which included various other activities, we feel that we have made some progress in the achievement of our purpose.

Sr. Tri-Hi-Y

YES, these girls belong to Sr. Tri-Hi-Y. Each one of them is a member that any club would be proud to have. They are always willing to co-operate when there is hard work to be done. As evidence of this, one of the committees spent weeks of their spare time planning the chapel program. The title of the program was My Diary and everyone had a lot of fun reminiscing with the girls as they acted out the highlights of four years in Grove City High School.

On the days that the B Clubs met you could always distinguish these girls from the other students by their red, white, or blue sweaters with the Tri-Hi-Y emblems on them. Every member purchased an emblem for herself this year.

The meetings, which were held in Room 11, were opened with devotions. Then the president conducted the business of the club. For the remainder of the period they had a speaker or some form of entertainment provided by the program committee. One meeting that the girls liked especially was a Truth or Consequences program.

Belonging to this club doesn't mean all work, though. They had their social events, too. The party the girls always look forward to is held in the spring in honor of the senior girls.

These girls do their best to carry out the purpose of the club which is to "Create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character."

Girls' Chorus

THE Girls' Chorus meets every day the fourth period to sing songs enjoyed by everyone. It is under the direction of Miss Patricia White, a former member of the chorus and ensemble, who is well liked by all the members.

This year Girls' Chorus took part in the Christmas Concert which involved a lot of hard work on the part of the Chorus and directors.

There are 50 members in the Girls' Chorus. A girl must have a voice of pleasing quality, be able to read music, and have a vocal try-out as to tone and quality before Miss S. Burgess. If these requirements are met she becomes a member of the Chorus. The girls must be dependable and are not excused from any special practices unless it is due to illness.

Orchestra

THE orchestra of Grove City High School is made up of 25 members. They are as follows: First violin—Jane Bishop, Miriam Shellito, Rebecca Gregg, Alma Ray, Janet Peden, Margaret Graham. Second violin—Roma Vincent, Marjorie Ritchey, Jean Dick, Lenore Watso, Martha Sterrett. Cello—Jane McMichael, Ruth Benshoff. String bass—Gaylord Kohlmeyer, Vergene Carlson. Clarinet—Roger Clarke, Ann Morrow, Joyce Surrena. Flute—Carolyn Shellito, Marilyn Shellito. French horn—Carl Barber. Trumpet—Glenn Thompson. Officers of the orchestra are: Concert mistress, Jane Bishop; secretary, Miriam Shellito; librarian, Rebecca Gregg.

The orchestra plays for such events as the senior play and the operetta. Members of the orchestra are trying to build it up to the standing that it has had in past years. The ability of the members and their eagerness make up for the lack in number.

Junior Science Club

JHE Junior Science Club of 1947-1948 had 45 members. At the first meeting the officers and sponsors planned the club activities for the coming year. It was decided that pupils with C average or above in either science or biology could join. The dues were set for 50c a year or 25c a semester.

On October 20, James Sterrett spoke to the club on his trip to France and was enjoyed very much by every member.

For the next few meetings we found out the ideas of the members and how they wanted to spend the meetings. We found that several members had hobbies, so they had charge of meetings for awhile.

On February 4, Captain Alice Montgomery, who is Miss Elizabeth Montgomery's sister, spoke to us and showed pictures of the Aleutian Islands.

The club had charge of selling the football programs at all home games under the direction of Mr. Elder. The club also participated at the annual school carnival.

Senior Science Club

*W*E will always feel that the years we have spent in the Senior Science Club have not been wasted. The projects and experiments we have worked will be with us for quite some time. We are living in an age of scientific achievements beyond the wildest dreams of any man. For this reason, we are sure the club will continue to grow as students begin to realize that science will play an important part in the world of tomorrow.

The club meets every other Wednesday in the physics laboratory under the supervision of Mr. John Turner.

The club was divided into groups of special interest at the beginning of the school term. Each group has two to four members under a leader. These groups specialize in biology, aeronautics, radio, electric motors, and chemistry. The groups work on their projects in the chemistry laboratory under the watchful eyes of Mr. S. A. Bowers and Mr. Turner.

This year the club is composed of all boys for the second consecutive year although membership is open to all juniors and seniors who have grades high enough to meet the necessary requirements.

Aside from special projects, the club sponsored the Christmas dance.

Junior Star Staff

MOST of the time this year was spent by the members in learning to perform the jobs they will hold next year when they will publish the school paper, the "Grover Star".

During the first semester, the members of the Junior Star Staff studied the lives and works of great statesmen, poets, novelists, essayists, and journalists of many periods in history. Their study included Shakespeare's Macbeth and Tennyson's Idyll's of the King. Also included were biographies, drama, romantic poetry, victorian poetry, the familiar essay, and the American novel. As they read these famous works, they studied the form and style used in each.

During the second semester, the group worked on the fundamentals of newspaper writing. Their study consisted of 17 different parts, including special types of writing. This study proved their ability to become the journalists of tomorrow.

This is the first time in the school's history that the Junior Star Staff was composed of girls only. It is also the smallest on record, being composed of 12 members.

It is the aim and hope of this class to become as good as those publishing the "Grover Star" this year.

Grover Star Staff

FOR the ninth straight year the senior journalism class of Grove City High School published the official school paper, the "Grover Star."

Working on the paper teaches responsibility and management besides some idea of how a newspaper is published. Since the Star is an entirely self-supporting organization, all expenses must be paid for through subscription campaigns and by selling advertising space to local businessmen.

Ken Stevenson headed the staff in his position as editor-in-chief. He was ably assisted by Gordon Atkinson who carried the title of managing editor.

In the business department, Joe Hodgson was head man. Richard Cookson was responsible for getting all those ads, and working with him were Barbara Lynn and Robert McBride.

Columns were handled by Jenna Adams (Exchange), Shirley Grandy (Clubs), Theo Karfes (Fashions), and last but not least, those two prying eyes, JoAnne Mayes and Nancy Linnen.

The sports were handled by the sports editor, Lynn McDougall, along with Merle Campbell, James Gibson, Ronald Hoffman, and Dauna Hassell.

Other positions on the staff were filled by circulation manager, Jay Barnes; feature editors, June Baker and Carmen Crooks; photographer, Vaughn Graham; head copyreader, Eleanor Baker; headline editor, Allan Spencer; and finally, E. B. Elder, advisor.

Junior Hi-Y

THIS is an organization consisting of boys from the freshman and sophomore classes and again remains under the able supervision of Mr. Dan Remley. Members of this club are to live up to the points of the club platform which consists of: Clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living. This Christian club has a fine influence on boys entering and beginning their high school course.

Jr. Hi-Y had its meetings every other week at which time devotions were held consisting of a scripture reading, the Lord's Prayer and the salute to the flag. Roll was then called and all business was taken care of. Following this was an entertaining program arranged by a committee appointed for this purpose.

The organization entered into the activities of the high school by planning a program for assembly and also by having a booth at the annual carnival.

The purpose of this club is: "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character," which is fine guidance for any boy.

Fourth Row—William Thompson, Raymond Jones, David Cook, Norman Turner, Gale Christy, Allen Drennen, Theodore Elder, Joseph Shaffer, Ralph Gurly, Mr. Remley.

Senior Hi-Y

ONE of the purposes of the Hi-Y is to make the boys better citizens and to help them to understand the proper attitude of youth. The club meets twice a month on Wednesday morning so that out-of-town students can attend. This year the club is under the direction of Mr. McClelland.

In the spring the club holds its annual clean-up day. The townspeople are asked to put out any unwanted trash and the members of the club are excused to pick it up in trucks.

Another duty of the organization is to sponsor the March of Dimes in the high school. A member is assigned to each room.

The Hi-Y also takes part in the Bible Study Program sponsored by the state, and the members really cooperate to put it across. Other of their activities are programs, discussions, lectures and basketball. Each week two of the members have charge of the program. This gives them all an equal opportunity to find out more about the purposes of the club.

By their participation in different activities, the club inspires young men physically, morally, mentally, and spiritually.

Art Club

UNDER the able leadership of Mr. Robert L. Hill, the Art Club endeavors to combine the social life of the students with numerous fine art activities. It justifies its existence in the belief that there is no true appreciation without participation. Therefore, each member is encouraged to participate in creative art work of various media during the evening drawing periods throughout the school year. Students create with oils, water color, pastel, clay, and inks at these meetings.

The membership of the club is 36. Every year the club is called upon to make posters for different activities.

For one of its social events, the club chartered a bus which took them to Pittsburgh to see Kaufman's Art Exhibit and the operetta "Student Prince."

This spring, they revived the Art Exhibit which was held for the public. The club also sponsored the "April Showers Dance." For these reasons, the Art Club is one of the most active and popular clubs in the school.

Athletic Council

THE purpose of this, the Athletic Council, is to arouse and promote interest in athletics not only in the club itself, but also throughout the school.

All members must have average grades and be active in sports. Each member is expected to co-operate, show leadership, accept responsibility, and conduct herself in a sportsmanlike manner.

An outstanding event of G. C. H. S. sponsored by Athletic Council is electing a Homecoming Queen and her attendants to reign over the Homecoming football game and dance. The Queen is presented with a white football signed by all the football players.

Throughout the year the club goes swimming, bowling, caroling, and plays basketball.

Above all the shrieks and laughter at the annual carnival came the joyous cries from fellow students and teachers, "Oh, look what I got!" "It's gorgeous!" "My, but you were lucky!" Where were they coming from? Why, the White Elephant sponsored by Athletic Council.

With the help of Miss Hummel, the girls will continue to go far.

Girls' Ensemble

THE Girls' Ensemble of Grove City High School is an organization made up of twelve girls. This group of girls includes five sopranos, four second sopranos, and three altos. They work hard all through the year preparing for their appearances at the Christmas Concert, in chapel, and at meetings of community organizations. However, the girls give all the credit of their artistic work to their director, Miss Selkirk Burgess.

Since the number of members is limited to twelve, the qualifications for membership in the Ensemble are rather strict.

1. A candidate for Ensemble must be a member in good standing of Girls' Chorus.
2. Her voice must blend with the voices of the remaining members of the last year's Ensemble.

3. She must have a fine, upright character.

At the beginning of each new year the new girls are chosen to take the places of those girls who graduated the year before. They must fill all the requirements to be eligible. When the new girls have been chosen, the complete group begins work on their music. Every girl works hard because she knows it is her duty as a member of the Ensemble. Since it is tradition to have a better Ensemble every year, everyone works and cooperates with the other Ensemble members throughout the year to keep up that tradition.

Boys' Chorus

BOYS' Chorus again this year is under the able direction of Mr. B. F. Marshall. To be a member of this chorus the applicant must be interested in music and have an acceptable singing voice.

Perhaps you have passed the band room during the 11:10 period and heard some moaning and groaning. Don't be alarmed—that was only the Boys' Chorus going through their regular routine to become better musicians.

This year there are not as many boys in this organization as in previous years. This is because the voices of the boys are not evenly distributed over the four parts of the male chorus. Even with this handicap, the boys work hard together and put out some mighty fine music.

During the year, the Chorus sang in the Annual Christmas Concert. Also in this concert they formed a mixed chorus with Girls' Chorus for several of the numbers under the baton of Miss Burgess.

Honor Society

LAST year the Grover Chapter of the National Honor Society was organized in our school. It is composed of fifteen per cent of the seniors and five per cent of the juniors; those qualifying must be in the upper third of their class. These students are chosen for outstanding scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The purpose of the organization is to create a motive for a well-rounded education. It is hoped through the National Honor Society to raise the scholarship standing of the high school.

Debate Team

THE subject for the debaters this year was "Resolved: That the Federal Government should require arbitration of labor disputes in all basic American industries."

The debate teams debated with Franklin, Oil City, Butler, Greenville, and at the end of the year they traveled to Allegheny College in Meadville, to debate with other teams.

Every Wednesday night the teams would be found hard at work in the school library, improving their speeches, finding new rebuttle, and the Affirmative team arguing with the Negative.

In February the debate team sponsored a movie in chapel, using the proceeds to pay for their trips.

At the first of the year the teams and the debate coaches went to the University of Pittsburgh to hear other high school teams debate.

Band

*H*AVE you heard those sweet sounds that float through the halls of Grove City High School every Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday? Who makes them? Why, none other than the Grove City High School Band.

The Band is always doing something, but just in case you've forgotten some of the things they've done in the past year, do you remember football season? The Band, which included seven snappy majorettes in their new uniforms, was there in full force. And do you remember the last game when they spread multi-colored confetti on the ground to form a pine tree with 1947 on either side?

With the end of football season the brass section's music changed to Christmas hymns which were played at the Christmas Concert.

Immediately following that came basketball season. During the half the majorettes performed with their new lighted batons.

While basketball season was going on, the Band practiced furiously to ready themselves for the Senior Concert which was presented in May.

This year James Hawes, tenor saxophone, and Carl Barber, French horn, were chosen to represent Grove City High School in the Mid-Western Band held at Ambridge, January 8, 9, and 10.

“Old Doc”

OLD Doc, a three act comedy-drama, was presented by the Senior Class November 20-21 in the high school auditorium.

The plot revolves about “Old Doc”, a country doctor who has spent fifty years of his life in a tireless effort to heal both the mental and physical ills of a small country town. He looks forward to the day when Bob, his son, will come home to practice with him.

Unknown to Old Doc, Bob is torn between an offer by Dr. Edmond Brand of Boston, giving him social position and wealth, and his obligation to his father. Realizing this, Margaret, Doc’s nurse and Bob’s fiance, and Ma and Pa, Doc’s closest friends, try to conceal it from him.

Upon discovering the truth, Doc has a fatal stroke but, because of a forged telegram, dies in the belief that Bob has changed his mind and will continue the practice.

When Bob comes back to clear up his father’s affairs, Ma confesses that she was the one who wrote the telegram. This and a number of other things, the most important of which are the records of Old Doc’s five decades of service to humanity, convinces Bob that he should become the next Doc Hillary of Mason County.

Due to the illness of one of the members of the cast, the part of Lois was taken by Audrey Hoffman and the part of Margaret by Nancy McMillin.

Student Council

WHAT is Student Council? What does it do? For how long are the members elected? These and a dozen other questions must be running through your mind. Putting first things first, let's go back to the first question.

Student Council acts as an inner man between the school officials and the student body. At its meetings the members bring up wants and problems of the students. These are discussed and suggestions are made and tried.

Now, for the second question: Student Council sponsors the annual carnival. Its purpose is to help freshmen and upperclassmen get acquainted, to have a wonderful time, and to raise money for the various clubs. This club also takes care of many other things such as hall duty, chapel programs, and keeping our school clean.

Each member is elected by his fellow classmates to serve for two years. Mr. H. J. Surrena, principal, serves as advisor to the Council. He considers carefully the Councils' opinions and carries through many of their suggestions for the betterment of the school.

The Pine

SIGH—It's done and we hope it meets your approval. Putting out this book was a lot of hard work but with the help of our editor, Nancy McMillin, and our advisor, Mr. Elder, we have finally succeeded.

The Pine Knot Staff is made up of members from the junior and senior class. These members were chosen in the spring of 1947 and immediately started their work on the 1948 year book.

Introducing our staff we have our editor,

Nancy McMillin, and her helper, the assistant editor, Sara Adams.

The credit for all of those snapshots taken at the game or that particular play or just where ever you might have seen our camera men goes to our chief photographer, Edison Black, and his helper from the junior class, George Carson.

Next we would like to introduce our feature writers, Jo Anne Mayes, Joyce Holstein, and Sam Williamson. Their job was getting the pictures of the popular seniors and also writing the last will and testament.

Knot

Staff

The Pine Knot is divided into sections. First, those ever popular and dependable seniors. This work was taken care of by Joyce Carson, Carolyn Armstrong, and Sue Porter.

The underclass editors shall be given some credit at this point. They are Sara Adams, Mae Buxton, and Marybelle Buchanan. The girls had the almost endless job of identifying and placing each student in alphabetical order. Next comes the sportswriters, who are Ken Stevenson and Meade D'Amore. The fellows sure did a swell job.

Another section of the Pine Knot was devoted to Clubs and was well taken care of by Norma Crawford and a big junior and a small junior who you all know, Joan Hollingsworth and Virginia Filer.

Last but not least is our business manager, who did a swell job of carrying the staff through financially, Homer Hawes.

WHAT would school be like without football, basketball, and wrestling? It's hard to imagine, isn't it?

Our football team was tops this year. What running! What blocking! What passing! What kicking! What a swell bunch of boys!

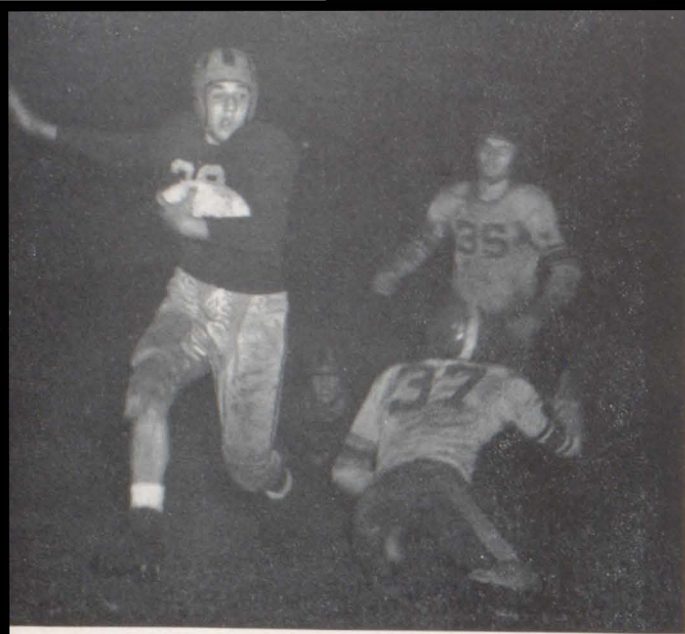

The basketball team was really something, too. They showed real spirit and enthusiasm.

Those matmen were super. Although wrestling doesn't hold first place in G. C. H. S., it certainly is creeping up.

But what would these teams be like without the experienced guidance of the coaches—Mr. Eugene Forker, Mr. Kenneth Westlake, and Mr. Wade Skelton; and the faculty manager—Mr. Glenn Miller?

No sir! We'll never forget the athletics.

Grove City—26

Union Twp.—0

Every man in uniform for the Eagles played in the opening contest against a heavier Union Twp. team. It marked a strong beginning for the locals which was to carry on throughout the rest of the season.

Grove City—15

Oil City—6

Meeting the strongest Oil City team in several years, the Grovers continued to remain in the winning column. Behind 6-2 at half-time, the Eagles came through to win.

Grove City—26

Franklin—6

A vaunted Nurseryite passing attack was squelched by Grove City on the home field. Leading all the way, the Eagles won by a comfortable margin.

Grove City—32

Kittanning—12

Playing on a strange gridiron for the second time during the season, the Grovers scored an impressive victory over the home team. McClure raced 70 yards on the opening play of the game for a touchdown.

Grove City—0

Greenville—24

The Trojans of Penn High were the first team to beat the Eagles. Working out of a T-formation, Greenville passed and plunged their way to victory.

Grove City—37

St. Mary's—6

For the second time in as many years the Grovers defeated the Saints of Warren, Ohio. This game was also played at home.

● Hurrah for our side

● Get him, Russ

Grove City—18

Butler—12

The high spot of the season for the Eagles was their defeat of the Golden Tornadoes of Butler. The locals came through against the heavier team for the first Grove City victory over Butler in four years.

Grove City—14

Sharpsville—33

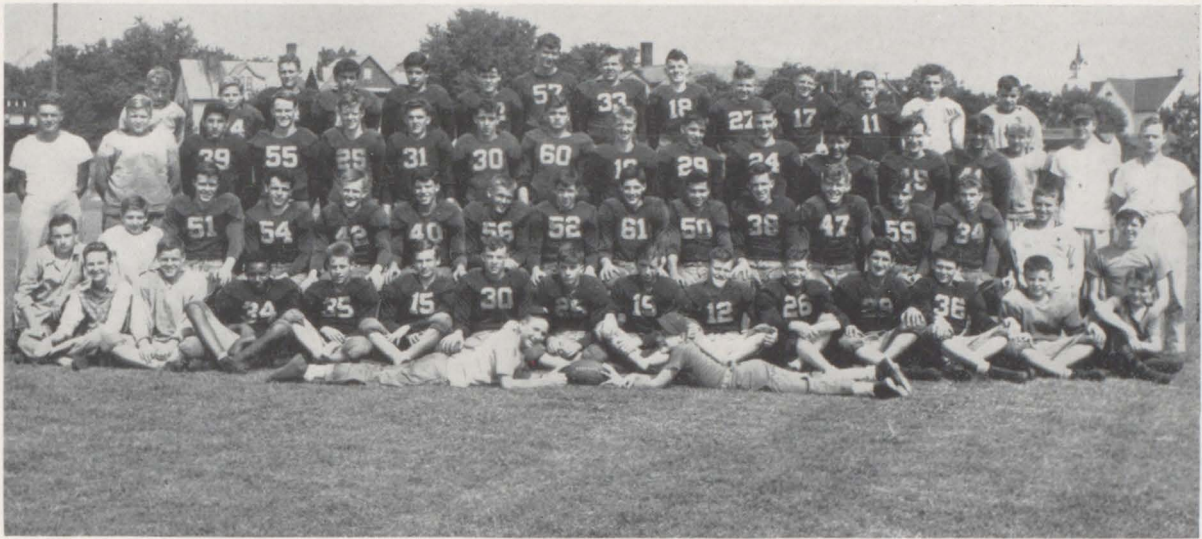

In their last away game of the season, Coach Forker's squad was defeated by a powerful Sharpsville eleven. It was a hard-fought battle all the way with weight and speed paying off for the Blue Devils.

Grove City—24

Hickory—34

In the first meeting between these two teams the Hornets came out with the big end of the score. It was the Homecoming Game for Grove City and the finale of the 1947 season.

Football

A much improved Eagle team took to the gridiron this season to bring prestige once more to Grove City. Following a poor season the year before, the Grovers faced nine opponents this year and came out on the big end of the score six times.

Although the locals won no titles or crowns, they built up an impressive string of victories, winning over such teams as Union Township, Oil City, Franklin, Kittanning, Butler, and St. Mary's of Warren, Ohio. Their three losses came at the hands of Greenville, Sharpsville, and Hickory.

Altogether the Eagles piled up a total of 192 points against an opponent's total of 133. High man for Grove City was John McClure with 72 points. Next in line was Louis DeRubies with 48; Bob Penman with 48; David "Firp" Winland with 14; Seaton Shelley with seven; and Russell White with two.

In the homecoming game with Hickory, 13 senior lettermen played their last game for GCHS. They were Winland, Miller, D'Amore, White, Baker, Penman, McClure, DeRubies, Shelley, Miles, Place, Jordan, and Ballantine. Meade D'Amore captained the team throughout the season.

Adding much color to the season was the Homecoming game with Hickory. Queen VII was Sally Adams. Her aides were Shirley Grandy and Mary Thomas.

Basketball

BASKETBALL of Grove City High School, as always, remained one of the major attractions of the school year. Despite the fact that the Eagles won only 6 contests out of a twenty-two game schedule, interest in the sport stayed at a high level.

The Grovers started off toward what looked like a successful season by trouncing Oil City in the opening game. But the locals ran into a losing streak which caused them no end of trouble.

Our nomination for the "thriller of the year" would go to the first game with Mercer, played at home. After leading a highly touted Mustang quintet for three quarters, Grove City dropped the decision by a scant three points, 55-52.

Towards the end of the season, the Eagles began to pick up momentum. Scoring many points in all games, they were a far cry from that mediocre ball club in the middle of the season.

Eight seniors played their last game for GCHS this year: Winland, Penman, McClure, Ekas, Tinkey, White, and Hollingsworth. At the end of the regular schedule, "Firp" Winland and Johnny McClure were selected by their teammates to represent Grove City in the annual all-star game played at Greenville.

The Grovers rolled up a total of 794 points against 957 for their opponents. Leading the squad in individual scoring was Winland with 238 points, third man in Mercer county; McClure, 162; Penman, 141; Reeves, 22; Hall, 12; Hodgson, 8; Carson, 1; Hollingsworth, 1.

Several innovations were noted this year. The majorettes twirled lighted batons at half-times while a new electric scoreboard added much to the average fan's enthusiasm.

Wrestling

THE Grover grapplers, making a good showing in all their meets, set up an impressive string of victories in the 1948 season.

Winning six of their eight matches and losing only twice to Greenville, the Grove City wrestlers are again on their way back to the prestige they enjoyed in District 10 before the war.

Wrestling, which has been on Grove City High's program of sports since 1934, was temporarily suspended while Mr. Forker, the wrestling coach, served in the Navy. However, upon Coach Forker's return, this sport began a rapid comeback. Throughout the past three years, the Grover wrestling squads have been steadily improving. They are now one of the strongest wrestling teams in the region.

The Grove City wrestling squad placed second at the district tournament held at Erie. They were edged out by their close rival, Greenville. Grove City placed seven men in the finals. They were: Nick Midey, Ken Smith, Albert Puntureri, Leonard DeAugustino, Richard Perry, Robert Thompson, and Robert Riddle. Of these, DeAugustino, Perry, and Riddle emerged as district champions, and went to the state tournament held at Kingston. Although these boys did not win any state championships, all three will be back wrestling again next season.

The Grove City wrestling team, with eleven of this year's lettermen returning next year, is looking forward to an even more successful season on the mats in 1949.

Memorandum

1958

April 6 In my recent stay at Paris, France, I met Shirley Arrow. We had quite a long talk which enlightened me greatly. She is there as a welfare worker and is giving many talks to young French students concerning her work.

April 30 Miss June Baker, world famous journalist, is writing an 'Advice to the Lovelorn' column for the Grove City Reporter Herald.

While I'm on the subject, Allen Spencer is their newly appointed Editor. Kenneth Stevenson, the ex-editor, has such severe attacks of lumbago that he's been forced to retire to Florida with his wife, the former Joan Bestwick.

May 13 FLASH! Hollywood—(found this news item in the Pittsburgh-Press.) The well-known Ballentine-Hamelly Comedy Team will make a personal appearance on Thursday at the Nixen Theatre. Manager Harold Eakin stated that ropes would be placed in different sections to restrain crowds.

June 2 Ran into Bernice Hancox representing the Farm Loan Association in Central Africa.

June 25 Lena Morgan, beauty expert, is traveling around the country demonstrating and giving talks on 'the effects of different make-up.'

July 19 Clarence Williamson will soon be bringing his much-spoken-of 'Flea Circus' to the nearby city of Franklin.

August 10 Hot Lips Barber with his Jiving Five—Homer Hawes, Jack Stowe, Merle Campbell, Marilyn Hillard, and Vaughn Graham—will make a personal appearance in Philadelphia on Friday. Their vocalist, the former Nancy Harry, is soon to make a fifth attempt at marriage. This time it's to her first husband, the all-star basketball player, James Tinkey.

August 20 During my stay in Detroit I looked up both Betty Lou Ferguson and Doris Fobes. Defying all warnings, they are both successful housewives and career women.

September 30 That all-famous man model, Ronnie McFarland, is giving talks to young high school boys on 'How to Keep Yourselves Alluringly Sweet.' William Miles, his ex-understudy, is now the topnotch male model in the New York area.

October 1 Professor Glenn McIntire, of Harvard University, took the prize in forgetfulness, in the long line of absent-minded professors, when he thought his toupee was his hat and gallantly tipped it to a young lady on the street.

November 7 Shirley Fitzgerald, librarian from San Francisco, states that she and Virginia Matuszewski will make an attempt to establish an English library in Hong Kong, to educate the natives in the finer things of life.

December 25 While we are blissfully going on our ways during this joyful season, Donald Beightol, the notorious game hunter, is fighting for his life. His pet bear gave him a playful hug.

January 31 Just found out that Howard Paxton has taken to raising sheep in Australia.

February 17 Your news commentator, Fred Miller, told us today that Mary Soday, a mere nurse, has saved an entire town during a great flu epidemic.

Before starting a new section of the thoughts that remain in our memories, I believe we ought to all stop and remember those teachers, who by their tireless efforts, helped to mold our characters and make us what we are today. We wish to thank each of you for your patience and understanding in every and all situations. May we always remain in your memory as you will in ours.

The Senior Class of 1948

FROSH

The Best Years

On the fifth day of September, in 1944,
 We, as "green freshmen" entered the school house door.
 The seniors seemed so dignified; the juniors awfully cockey,
 The sophomores looked like angels, and we just looked plain gawky.

The carnival was the first big thing.
 Then the Y. C.'s lights were lit.
 Lit. Club gave their gay-review
 Which was a smashing hit.

Our sophomore year was twice as nice,
 That angelic look was ours.
 We strutted up and down the halls
 Exhibiting our powers.

We won the football championship
 At Sharpville one brisk night,
 The whole town cheered the fellows on
 Until they won the fight.

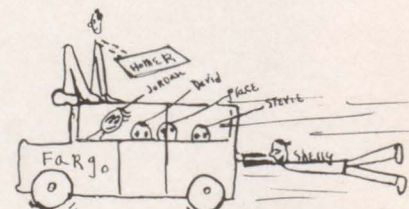

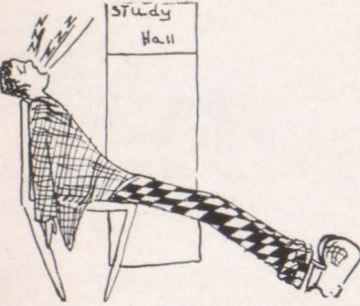

A party and two carnivals were also held that year;
 These and many others were our cause to shed no tear.
 Many volunteered their services to publish this "Pine Knot",
 After due consideration, nine were the chosen lot.

Next year we thought we knew it all
 Like each junior class before;
 We wasted away our study halls,
 And considered school a bore.

The new superintendent and principal
 Began their work in the fall.
 Together with our new officers,
 They were strictly on the ball.

We saw the 'Fargo' every day,
 The year it was owned by Jack;
 The boulevard boys would all pile in
 And wonder if they'd ever get back.

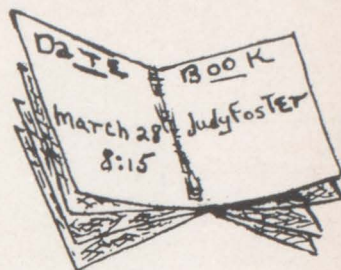

Becoming a junior meant getting your ring,
 And we know you'll all agree
 That the price was high and the wait was long,
 But they were really something to see.

Going at Mad pace of 30 mph.

Of Our Lives

In order to help finance the prom,
We had 'A Date With Judy'.
'Cause of hard work and lots of study
No one went away moody.

The banquet and prom were really swell,
The program was one you'll remember.
The plans were made and work began
Shortly after December.

Tee Ross played the music;
We danced on and on;
The time passed too quickly,
And the evening soon was gone.

One hundred and seventy-three seniors are we
On whom dignity has descended.
We've worked, had fun, and now are sad
'Cause our best year has ended.

'Queen Sal', with Shirley, and Mary
Brought us a lot of fame
Even though we lost to Hickory
Whei we played the Homecoming Game.

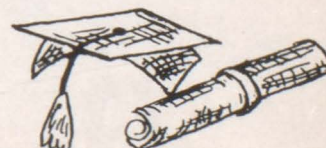

We went to Town and Country
To have our pictures taken.
We've seen some very nice ones,
But ours have left us shaken.

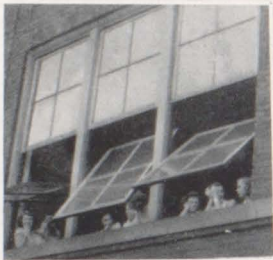

The ones so inclined for that sort of work
Gave 'Old Doc' for their senior play.
Later in the year we again came forth,
And gave what is called 'Class Day'.

The name cards and announcements
Helped do the final trick.
Most dads said very pleadingly,
"Stop! Money's not that thick."

Graduation and Baccalaureate
Seemed to spell the end.
We're grownups now,
And should try hard our titles to defend.

1. School Daze.      2. Hubba! Hubba!      3. Watch the birdie      4. Noon hour girls.
 5. Pep rally (See Hawes)      6. Industrious coming back??      7. Some of Fargo gang.

Jest for Jun

"May I see you tonight?"
"Remember mother turns the lights out at ten."
"All right, I'll be there at ten sharp."

DeRubies—"Did you hear that someone discovered Columbus' bones?"

McClelland—"I didn't know he was a gambling man."

Dauna Hassel—"When I was a freshman I was so green I even took my books to class."

Mr. McClelland—"I'm almost tempted to assign two chapters instead of one."

Gus Page—"Yield not to temptation."

Teacher—"How would you punctuate this sentence: 'I saw a pretty girl go down the street.'"

Olin—"I would make a dash after (the) girl."

D'Amore—"She has the prettiest mouth in the world."

K. Stevenson—"Oh, I don't know, I'd put mine up against it any time."

Mr. Grandy (upstairs)—"It's time for that young man to go home."

Russell—"Your father is a crank."

Mr. G. (overhearing)—"Well when you don't have a self-starter, a crank comes in mighty handy."

Elder Berry—"Say, Luke, how would you like to have one of these suffragettes for a wife, all the time hangin' 'round the polls?"

Luke Warm—"I'll tell ya, Elder, I wouldn't let my wife hang around a Pole or any other foreigner."

Fleck—"Why doesn't Jack take you to the theater any more?"

Kelly—"Well, you see, one night it rained and we couldn't go so we sat in the parlor. But anyway, I think theaters are an awful bore, don't you?"

She—"Can you drive a car with one hand?"

He—"No, but I can stop."

A Junior was escorting a young lady home, when she said, "Now don't you tell anybody you took me home." "Don't be afraid," he replied, "I am as much ashamed of it as you are."

Peggy P.—"See the dancing snow flakes."

Marilyn H.—"Practicing for the snow ball, I suppose."

Linnen—"What do you think of my last poem?"

E. B.—"Well, I'm glad to hear you call it your last."

M. Dunmire—"Is he very bashful?"

S. Kerr—"When he took me on the roller-coaster, he told me to hold tight to the bar or I'd fall out."
