FRIENDSHIPLINES

KIM, JUNE, RACHEL, AND MELISSA: You think of the things you have done together, the things you have said, your proudest memories and the times you have failed. Through it all, it is your friends who are beside you, your friends who encourage, your friends that give you a shoulder to cry on. I guess the only thing to say to the people who have touched your lives in the way you have touched mine is, Thank You!!

PAULA NEY

Flugle and Zeen,

Star Wars, Mr.Plaid Man, Perkins, Penguins, Pirates, HCJ, Shawn, Steve (and the others), malls, many movies, French(ce pas...), tears, secrets, dreams, laughter.. Together we've made it. Thanks. Friends FOR-EV-ER!!!! God bless. And Paula...welcome to the family.

Kimberly Duda

Separate Ways

Thanks for the laughter
Thanks for the tears,
I'll never forget you
the rest of my years.
I'll hold onto the memories
while we're apart,
the friendships we've built
will live in my heart.
Our paths divide here
these roads we must take but what's in our hearts
time can't separate.
The mysteries of life
will slowly unfold
as we grow wiser,
and we grow old.
Let's look to the future
and blink back the tears,
It's Him who will guide us,
calm all our fears.
Live life and don't worry
about what's in store,
with God by our sides
we have won this war.
So seek first the Kingdom
and all shall be added,
the Lord will find ways to make our hearts gladdened.

To all of my friends: Mere words cannot express what your friendships have meant to me..however,
I gave it a shot anyway.

Mandy Snyder

KIM AND REGINA,

The geographic miles between us may be many next year, but in my mind and heart we will always be close. I wish you both the best and I will be happy to call you my friends always because you're the best a person could ask for in friends.

-WENDY

To all of the teachers and students that have become friends to me, I would like to say thanks for showing me that there is a different side to this thing we call life. I thought I would have problems here with racism, by my being black and most of the community being white. By being here I've learned to close my eyes and see with my mind. When I close my eyes, I can't see brown skin, I can't see blue eyes, I can't see if a person is handi-capped or not. I can only feel the vibes that I get from people, and from there I form a beautiful picture of nothing. So those of you who have become close to me- stay that way, even though these are our last days. Our time is short, but our memories will last forever.

-Andre Reeves

Lisa, Nicole, Meredith, Mandy, Holly: All of our great memories and many laughs. I wish the best for you all. I love you guys!!
Michael: my phone number. I will still need your advice. by the way, have I told you thanks?! Best of luck. You're the greatest!!
Marty Lynn: Many thanks for everything. Take care of yourself. Remember..."Put on a happy face."

Breaking Out

The years spent in the halls and classrooms of Grove City High School came to a sudden stop on June 7, 1994. Parents, friends and remaining students came to bid farewell to their friends, peers, idols and enemies.

Not knowing what awaited on the road ahead the Seniors left the doors of Grove City High School as students for the last time. The world outside will never be the same after these Seniors break out.

"We shape the joy or fear
Of which the coming life
is made,
And fill our future's
atmosphere
With sunshine or with shade.

"The tissues of the life to be
We weave with colors all
our own,
And in the field of destiny
We reap as we have sown."

-John Greenleaf Whittier

1993

Once again, Brandy Bonanni reigned over Grove City High School, this time as the 1993 Homecoming Queen. Brandy was chosen Queen, by the student body, out of a group of ten nominees. Brandy's fellow nominees were Maria Bellizia, Lisa Darcangelo, Kimberly Duda, Niki Chieffe, Jenny Cummings, LouAnn Miller, Meredith McKnight, Erin Seward, and Mandy Snyder. From these ten girls the student body elected Princesses Maria Bellizia, Lisa Darcangelo, Kimberly Duda, LouAnn Miller, and, of course, Queen Brandy Bonanni.

Beauty is Power; a smile is it's sword

-Charles Reade

On October 15, 1993, Brandy was crowned Queen by 1992 Homecoming Queen, Leigh Sawyer. The football team crushed the Erie East Warriors, with a final score of 14 to 0. Fortunately, the weather was gorgeous with a clear sky and mild temperature. The evening was a success for spectators, fans, players, and the Homecoming Court alike.

Homecoming Dance 1994

The Homecoming Dance held Saturday October 16, 1993, was the grand finale of Homecoming Week. After a week filled with theme days like Sign Day, Flannel Day, Hat Day, and Spirit Day and a Homecoming victory from the football team over Erie East, students closed the week with the Homecoming Dance. Couples danced "Under the Sea" and enjoyed a magical night in the transformed cafeteria. Vivid decorations, delicious food, and great music helped make the night an unforgettable one.

Winter Dance 1994

This year the Winter Dance was held on January 15th at the Grove City Country Club. The evening began as couples mingled, then settled in for a romantic dinner. Once everyone was well-nourished, they headed directly for the dancefloor. The evening was exciting as well as entertaining as Mr. Struble sang his now famous rendition of "Queen of My Double Wide Trailer." A fabulous time was had by all who attended.

Winter Festival Court

As a time honored tradition at Grove City High school, the student body chose their Winterfestival Queen, Wendy Lingle out of a group of ten nominees. Wendy's fellow nominees were Anna Bestwick, Laura Gatica, Michele Hanby, Michelle Purich, Christine Rath, Emily Rubin, Kelly Snyder, Heather Wagner, and Shannan Weber. From these ten girls the student body elected Princesses Michele Hanby and Christine Rath.

On February 18, 1994, Wendy was crowned Queen by 1993 Winterfestival Queen, Brandi Bonanni.

Going into the season, the 1993 Grove City Eagles were underdogs. In fact, one radio announcer predicted that their only victory would be against West Middlesex. He predicted wrong. Their impressive record of 8-2, the best since 1982, make this the fourth consecutive winning season in a row.

The Eagle defense was number one in Mercer county. Anchored by middle linebackers Chad Chisholm and Brad Trezona, the defense played not only with strength, but with heart. Members of the defense included tight-end Andre Reeves, tackles Chris Dye and Omahr Issac, outside linebackers Marty Aloisio and Tom Parenti, defensive end Eugene Miller, defensive backs Craig Saylor and Jeff McElroy, and safety Jeremy Chisholm.

The Eagle offense also had reason to boast. Junior quarterback Tim Cashdollar became the third best in Mercer County history with 1,576 yards. He completed 108 of 223 passes and threw for 20 touchdowns. Cashdollar also set a school record by throwing six touchdown passes in the last game against Oil City. Marty Aloisio and Jeremy Chisholm were the team's leading receivers while Craig Saylor centered the rushing attack.

Captain Brad Trezona was named Division I MVP. First-team selections for offense included Marty Aloisio, wide receiver, Chad Chisholm, guard, Eugene Miller, center, Tim Cashdollar, quarterback, and Craig Saylor, running back. Those named to the first-team defense were Andre Reeves, lineman, Trezona and Aloisio, linebackers, and Jeremy Chisholm and Saylor, defensive backs.

There's a lot to say about the Fighting Eagles of 1993. They were surprising, strong, and determined. Perhaps the most appropriate word would be unforgettable.

The football team's biggest fans, this year's Varsity Cheerleading squad, worked to generate school spirit. Rain or shine, their beaming faces and loud voices could be seen and heard at every game. Frequent pep assemblies played a major role in promoting enthusiasm, as well as the numerous spirit signs displayed around the hall.

During the summer months, the Varsity, Junior Varsity, and 9th Grade squads prepared for the upcoming season. Not only did the cheerleaders participate in their own camps, but they also held a mini-camp for grades K-6. The profits were used toward new and much needed uniforms. The Varsity squad, led by captains Meredith McKnight and Mandy Snyder, took part in Kennywood Competition and the Shenango Valley Mall Spirit Competition, which was judged on crowd participation.

This year's squad was unique in that not only were they the best around, but the best of friends.

POWDERPUFF

This year the traditional Powder Puff game between the junior and senior girls was played on October 23. Both teams worked hard learning plays and running drills during daily practices three weeks prior to the game. Emotions were running high on game day as the crowd prepared to cheer on their favorite team. The tension mounted as the senior cheerleaders ruthlessly attacked any junior on the senior side of the field, which seemed the trend for the game as well. The seniors walked away with an incredible victory, trouncing the juniors 50 to nothing. Powder Puff King Marty Aloisio and his court reigned over the days activities.

LISA DARCANGELO MODELS her spirited senior pants as she waits anxiously to return to the field.

THE JUNIOR GIRLS are ready for more football after breaking from their huddle.

The 1993 Cross Country season was successful for all. The season started with a new coach and high hopes. Mr. "Sweet" Lou Marriotti took over the job and lead both the boys and girls teams to winning seasons. The times and strategies were always carefully calculated by Mr. Marriotti. However, perhaps the most important lesson learned from Coach Marriotti was the sense of unity. Many lasting friendships were formed through the grueling 3.2 mile races.

"We cheer for each other because we love and support each other. Each race becomes a personal victory." (Senior Ann Laird). Memories of McDonald's Run's, creek workouts, Women of Steel and overall "punishment" will linger forever in the minds of each GC runner. Despite "swamping" and other such initiations the friendships gained still grew beyond everyday acquaintance. "The team pulled together like a family." (Freshman Amy McCoy). The seniors led the whole team toward an ultimate goal--a strong winning season.

CHRIS RATH, BRIJETTE Morris, and Erin Dessy show their uncontrollable enthusiasm for the upcoming run.

A Step Ahead...

SOCCER

"Intensity, team, victory", soccer fans may recognize these frequently spoken words as huddle breaks, but they also describe this year's soccer team. The team got off to a slow start. However, they won five of their next six games to re-enter the playoff chase. Due to a rocky finish, the team did not advance to playoffs, but they did provide their fans with excitement and memories of a great season. A favorite memory of many is the spirit of a group of fans who braved the elements by attending several games bare-chested and painted. The "Spirit Flag," an old silkline flag which is used to create excitement, made its first appearance ever at a soccer game this year.

And who could forget the thunderstorm which forced a quick end to the Kennedy Christian game. Overall, this season was filled with hard work, good friends, and great memories. On behalf of all the "dedicated fans," thanks for a great season!

KEVIN BOWERSOX, JUNIOR, eagerly awaits the return of the ball to the playing field.

GRAVITY IS NOT a factor for Senior Luke Mason as he passes the ball to a teammate.

The 1993 volleyball season was an outstanding and memorable season for all. The team was led by seniors Ebony Brooks (captain), Brandy Bonanni (captain), and Nicole Flynn. Juniors Anna Bestwick, Allison Biberich, and Liz Sparks were also starting members of the team.

During the season, not one game was lost. The team's record was 15-0, an achievement that hasn't happened in the past six years. The Lady Eagles were also undefeated at both the Wilmington and Iroquis Tournaments.

Due to all of the hard work and enthusiasm, the mighty Lady Eagles clinched the MCAC Award. At Districts, the team defeated Oil City to become District 10 Champs for the second consecutive year. The Lady Eagles were then on their way to States which were held at Shippensburg University. This is where they completed their season. The final record for the outstanding Lady Eagles was 21-2. The Junior Varsity team ended their eventful season with an amazing 14-1 record. Congratulations Lady Eagles for making our Volleyball team something to be proud of!

This year the Grove City Eagles golf team suffered through their toughest season ever with 14 defeats and 0 victories. "A strong league and inexperience were the main reasons for our problems, this year," states Coach Len Clarke.

The golf team will lose senior Adam Jack and Rusty Bett next year, both of whom were valuable players. The rest of the team consisted of 1 junior, 7 sophomores, and 4 freshman, all of which are looking forward to a rewarding 1994 season. GOOD LUCK EAGLES!

Once again, this year's boys basketball team excelled. With a record of 24-4, the Eagles can boast of an unbelievably successful season. The team beat Hickory to claim the title of MCAC champs and went on to be District 10 runner-up. The Eagles were also ranked sixth in the state.

It was the seniors that led the team to success. MVP Mike Lyle scored a total of 1284 points in his four years of ball and earned the title of second all-time leading scorer at GCHS. First team players Marty Aloisio and Josh Ellison were also key assets to the team. Adam Jack stepped up to play point guard and Nate Jenny and Ken Rumbaugh also aided in the success of the team.

This talented group has achieved everything but a state title. They are a team that will be remembered and missed.

It was a year of fun for all squads as they cheered on another successful winter season. Each squad showed enthusiasm at the matches or games, and pep assemblies. Because of past experience each of the Varsity squads performed well and impressed the fans with their abilities. Yet, behind the scenes there were grueling practices, hard work, and a lot of extra time put into these performances. That hard work paid off though when the crowd cheered our teams to victory. # ABOVE AND BEYOND

Basketball

The 1993-1994 Varsity girls basketball squad began their season with high hopes for a triumphant year. After losing three seniors last year, the girls were still confident with their two returning letterman Jessica Rice and Rita Culp. The girls kept the competition and pressure to a minimum by also strengthening their friendships. The girls knew that it was important to function as individuals, but most importantly as a team. Practices were tough and long, but positive attitudes were displayed as the thoughts of winning filled the squad's heads. The Lady Eagles were hindered by the loss of senior Jessica Rice midseason due to a broken hand, yet still strived to reach the play-offs. After reaching their goal, the team had a disappointing loss in the first round. When asked how they felt about the year in general, some members felt that there were games that should have been won that weren't, but they said the strong friendships that were formed will last a lifetime.

"WE WERE NOT expected to do well, but the boys worked as hard as possible to achieve the tasks set before them..." were Coach Ruley's sentiments. And achieve they certainly did. The Eagle wrestlers finished the regular season with an impressive record of nine wins and four losses.

In the post-season the Eagles soared once again, advancing seven wrestlers to sectionals, when the team placed third. At district competition, Coach Ruley was voted District X AAA Coach of the year. Five Eagle matmen advanced to regionals, the most in GCHS history. Continuing were Mike Alderson, Jason Slagle, Jeremy Cook, Jonathan Churchill, and Omahr Isaac. # BALLS

Not only do Grove City High School students think, act, sing, draw, run, and dance, they also participate in three intramural sports. Mrs. Gilson heads the intramural tennis team during the fall. To beat the winter blahs, Mr. McPherson provides bowling at the local Ace of Clubs. And in the spring, Mrs. Denbow heads intramural volleyball, where the faculty team was crushed once again. Intramurals is a time for all students, regardless of athletic ability, to have some fun.

When it comes to having a good time, the Grove City High School tennis team tops them all. Not only are they good, but they also have fun doing it. Attitude is a part of every sport and they have a great positive attitude. When I asked junior, Mike Shipton what he thought of the tennis team this year he responded, "We didn't expect to do that good this year, but the team didn't listen to the conventional wisdom and we had a spectacular season. We are a young team so there's definitely room for improvement. Probably the most positive thing I came away with this year would be our team camaraderie." The tennis team finished out the season with a 10-2 record. They are definitely a team to be proud of. THANKS TEAM!

With the loss of several key individuals from last year's team, a season full of unexpectedness lay ahead of the boys track team.

Head Coach Dave Labor was handed a large number of freshman at the beginning of the season, making the team very inexperienced. However, with the leadership of Seniors Marty Aloisio and Craig Murdock, the jumpers and throwers carried the team through the competitive meets. At the District X meet at Erie McDowell, Marty placed second in the triple jump, and Craig captured the District championship in the discus. when Musical Impact was selected to go to States in

Hershey. They were the only High School Show Choir to be invited on this great escapade. It truly was an experience never to be forgotten.

Leading this years group were seniors Nicole Flynn, Holly

Folkertsma, Heather Hartle, Allison Post, Jason Bibza,

Andrew Neff, Brian Heverly, and Kevin Patterson. Because of past experience these seniors contributed a great deal of talent and prestige to Show Choir, continuing the tradition of fun.

A lot of hard work and dedication created an eventful year for singing with Musical Impact.

Concentrating hard, Johanna Rossi and Jason Bibza work on their deadline.

From b to f: Jason Bibza, Mr. Youngs, Heather Hartle, Craig Murdock, Justin Brink, Sloan MacRae, Seth Burdick, Karen Reed, (middle) Ann Laird, Jody Hancox, Gwen Buchanan, Jen Brown, Luke Mason, Matt Hodges, Sara Mason, Jana Townly, (front) June Horchler, Erin Dessy, Mary McCoy, Kate Perna, and Johanna Rossi.

Chief editor, Mary McCoy, concentrates on her revision duties.

Providing guidance and support, Mr. Youngs offers some suggestions.

The Award winning Talon newspaper has spent long

Grueling hours in order to produce a quality piece of journalism for all to enjoy. The paper is published once a month, with the staff working three hard weeks before it is sent to the printers in Ellwood City. The staff also devotes one Saturday a month for last minute touch-ups, known to them as Production Saturday. The officers of the staff are Mary McCoy as Editor-in-Chief, Kate Perna as Managing Editor, Heather Hartle as News Editor, Ann Laird as Features Editor, and Luke Mason as Sports Editor. These leaders are the threads that hold the crew together. Their long hours all pay off in the end when they see the student body enjoying the finished product.

Communication is very important when working as a team. Heather Hartle, Kate Perna, and Ann Laird are perfecting this theory.

This years Student Council led the school with dances theme days, and various other activities. Homecoming, food drives, carnation sales, Winter Festival, a talent show, and assemblies, are just a few of the examples in which these elected

STUDENTS influence school activities.

Student Council meetings TAKE place during club periods, as well as spending time together outside of school.

As a group, they make decisions based on the student bodies will. Their behind the scenes decisions effect all. Elected to take CHARGE of the council, are the four chosen officers.

Fame! We're gonna live forever! We're gonna learn how to fly! As the cast of the fall play took the stage, Hearts were racing in anticipation of the crowd's laughter, applause and tears. The story begins at the scene of an audition for acceptance into the School of Performing Arts. As the applicants walk down the aisles of the auditorium, their anxiety and wonderment are evident. "Fame" shows us the joy felt by the accepted students as well as the defeat and humiliation of the students who were turned away. As the next four years of school progress, the characters change; some for better and some for worse. The play ends with a summary of the lives of the main characters after graduation.

The audience enjoyed the production, but only the actors and backstage crew can fully understand everything that has gone into this production. During the week before opening night, practices often went as late as ten o'clock. This left little time for homework, a social life, or anything else. Because of this constant time together, the cast and crew formed close relationships that resembled that of a large family. The friendships made through the Theatre will last a lifetime.

Into the Woods...

On April 14, 1994, the Grove City High School Drama Department made theater history on the opening night of Into the Woods. It was described by many as the best production ever at Grove City High School.

The cast and crew worked diligently for eight weeks to pull together one of the most difficult musicals ever. Each Saturday, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., the construction, make-up, costumes, lighting and sound crews were hard at work to perfect the show in front of and behind the curtain. The actors practiced everyday to prepare for a long-awaited audience. Finally the big day came, and after a preliminary performance for the Junior High, opening night had arrived.

The charm and ingenuity of the script pulled the audience "Into the Woods."

But, perhaps the most successful aspect of the play was the love and unity formed backstage. With Miss Shirley Berkey as the acting director and Mr. Baron as the music director, the magic of theater truly came through.

Cinderella's Prince charms the Baker's Wife as they share a moment in the woods

RAPUNZEL COWERS IN fear as the witch tears away her freedom.

THE BAKER, HIS wife the Witch, Jack and his mother feed the cow in hopes that they might break the spell.

JACK, HIS MOTHER the Baker and his wife and Little Red and her Granny sing of the many dangers in the woods.

THE CHARMING PRINCES sing of their great agony over their far off maidens.

THE ROYAL FAMILY lives happily ever after...maybe.

LITTLE RED RIDING Hood and Cinderella protect the Baker's son from the giant

CREATING THE BUBBLE

Senior editors Kim Duda and Holly Folkertsma take time out of their schedules for a crazy picture.

At the start of this year, the yearbook staff was unsure about the quality of the yearbook, as we were off to a slow start. Through hard work and dedication, however, the staff was able to produce a quality yearbook which we believe is better than any before. The staff hopes the book is enjoyed by all, and that the memories will last forever.

Yearbook is a time for hard work and fun as demonstrated by Kelly Snyder, blowing bubbles, and Holly Folkertsma and Megan Chanadet, staring down the computers. With the stress of deadlines building up the entire staff took a day off to burst the bubble.

What a bubble!!!!

Fooling around like usual Meredith McKnight and Allie Brubaker blow some peewee bubbles.

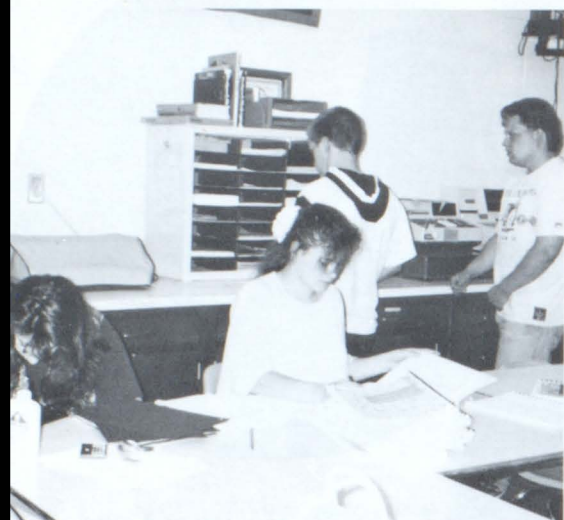

Sara Kennedy spends another day fighting with the computer.

Blowing their bubbles, the entire yearbook staff takes five.

LISA MILLIRON, CATHY Dosch, and Shawn Hockey are all hard at work in their Business and Marketing Technology class.

EACH DAY AT 12:35 a bell rings to signal the arrival of the Vo-Tech bus. Forty one Grove City High School students board the bus which transports them to the Mercer County Vo-Tech for their afternoon classes.

Vo-Tech is a unique program which provides local students with the opportunity to learn specialized skills while attending classes during the regular school day. The areas in which classes are offered include Diesel Mechanics, Cosmetology, and Restaurant management.

Lessons learned at Vo-Tech are applied after high school either by directly entering the work force or continuing on with post-secondary education.

Students attending Vo-Tech are:

Steve Hassel, Michael Adams, John Bissell, Mike Bonanni, Richard Champney, Lucas Fussell, Patrick Jackson, Steven Miller, James Reed, Travis Thompson, Tammie Hamilton, Keith Heckathorn, Kenneth Hedglin, Gregory Studebaker, Scott Rhoades, Paul Rodgers, Heather DeLong, Kimberly Hamilton, Cherine Reeder, Jason Badger, Randy Bartolone, Catherine Dosch, Shawn Hawkey, Holly Mackall, Lisa Milliron, Angela Ryhal, Jennifer Wheeler, April Boyd, Michelle Irión, Patrick McConnell, Andre Reeves, Antoine Reeves, Bonnie Thompson, Jean Russell, Brenton Billig, Timothy Craig, Richard Hockenberry, Jennifer Allen, Stacy Baker, and Christina Thomas.

SENIOR COSMETOLOGY STUDENT Cherine Reeder expertly pulls hair through a highlighting cap.

WORKING DILIGENTLY IN the greenhouse are Tammy Hamilton, Greg Studebaker, and Keith Heckathorn. During the year the students learn various ways to successfully cultivate a variety of plants.

THE MERCER COUNTY Vo-Tech sign is a familiar sight for many GCHS students.

..AND THE WINNERS are, Lisa Milliron, Holly Mackall, and Cathy Dosch. The three competed in the DECA competition, which is a competition for Vo-Tech students. Lisa and Cathy each earned a fourth place finish, Lisa for Hospitality and Tourism and Cathy for Full Service Restaraunt and Management. Holly earned three second place medallions for her efforts.

SENIOR JASON BADGER learns the ins and outs of a diesel engine.

The road to recovery shouldn't take you far from home.

After all, the last thing you want is a long drive when you're not feeling well. Chances are the treatment or therapy you need is available right here where you want it at United Community Hospital.

Our facility is close to home, so there's no long drive. The professionals caring for you are people you know and trust, and they are using the latest in medical technology to make you feel better.

So drive over to United Community and discover the difference for yourself. We can help you make the road to recovery a short one.
