To G. H. Crowther, Principal and Idealist

In his letter of resignation, Principal G. H. Crowther listed some "Hopes for the Future," in which he presented a number of his theories of education. These theories have grown out of his wide experience in the field of education and we feel they should be permanently recorded. His letter, in part, follows.

May I venture the hope and express the wish that soon our School may have a well equipped and lighted Athletic Field, a Department of Agriculture, and a Junior High School plant.

In addition to these material improvements I hope there may be more of something that is other than material. I refer to what is commonly known as EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES. In such activities as Athletics, Clubs, and Student Council, pupils try out co-operative ventures for themselves. They not only study about something, but they help plan and do something, under the guidance of counselors. You know the story of the honor graduate from a swimming school in the course of the theory of swimming. When he received his honors he went home, put on his new swimming suit, dived into a pool and—drowned.

The day of considering young people educated simply because they have mastered books—factual knowledge ALONE—is passing. Unless we can furnish youth with lifelike situations where they can practice cooperative give-and-take ventures, alone with acquiring of factual book knowledge, they are only partly educated.

We, the older generation, have added factual knowledge to factual knowledge until we know how to make fine automobiles, airplanes, trains, ships, chemicals, and what not. But—what do we do with them? Instead of cooperatively working in peace for the good of ourselves and others, we use them—for what? To fight each other, to destroy each others property, and to kill one another.

Let's give our boys and girls opportunities to practice getting along with each other—co-operative efforts—so that they may be able not only to make automobiles and airplanes but that they may acquire the HABIT of cooperating—of using their products FOR each other, instead of AGAINST each other. One way of accomplishing this is to give more and more of them what many now call EXTRA CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES. And let's make most of them CURRICULAR as we already have done in the case of band, orchestra and choruses.

Then we can give the pupils credit for such activities—credit they can apply toward a diploma. By so doing we may encourage and help them to acquire the HABIT of cooperative effort. In the process of acquiring this habit they learn to respect and tolerate one another. And people who respect and tolerate each other are less likely as capitalists and laborers to get into situations of distrust which result in deplorable strikes.

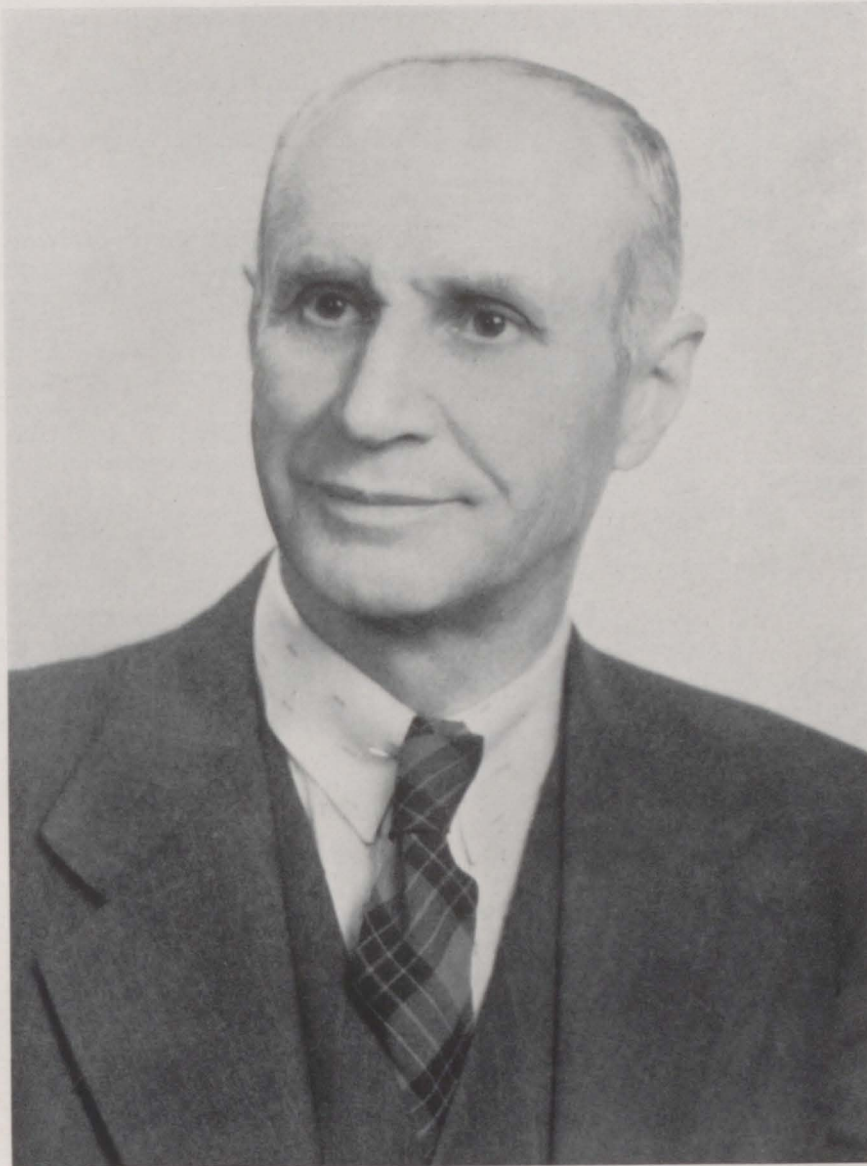

Some object to trying to get every pupil to take up some ACTIVITY on the assumption that it interferes with, and detracts from, the real work of the school, as they term it—the acquiring of factual knowledge in class work.

On the contrary, our experience leads us to believe that the moderate and proper use of ACTIVITIES results in pupils doing better work in their class room subjects than when school, for them, consists wholly of class room work without ACTIVITIES.

One of the chief reasons for poor marks in subjects is a poor ATTITUDE TOWARD SCHOOL. If to the bread of class work, we add the seasoning and the vitamins of proper ACTIVITIES we have a healthier attitude toward school. In some cases pupils who were about to drop out of school remained because they liked some activity. One such stated he remained in school a year longer than he expected to remain because he liked being a member of the stage crew.

In conclusion, our experience leads us to state that

Factual knowledge plus the habit of cooperative work in ACTIVITIES equal greater success and happiness in school and in after life.

G. H. CROWTHER

*F*OR 41 years principal of our high school, Mr Crowther has announced his resignation effective at the close of this school term. Although we will miss him greatly, his work and inspiration will stay on in Grove City High School.

Through the many years he served as principal, Grove City High School grew from a three-year, two-teacher school to a four-year, thirty-eight teacher school; from a one course school with no elective subjects, to one of four courses with thirty-seven electives. This development of education, remarkable for its all-around success, would not have continuously increased if it had not been for the patience and administrative powers that distinguish Mr. Crowther. His abilities to inspire students to put forth their best efforts and exercise their democratic ideals as co-workers, are outstanding.

So to Mr. Crowther, our friend, a man of sincerity and kindness, a figure of tolerance and unselfishness, who will forever illuminate our school with his ideals we fondly dedicate this book.

"Geel! But they've gone fast"

These last four years at G. C. H. S. Many times we seniors have marvelled at that fact, as our last year draws to a close. Happy . . . sad . . . brilliant . . . melancholy . . . sentimental years . . . Yes, they have been all of that and more. They have been the most important years of our lives in helping us to determine just what we may hope to make out of that bewildering and almost intangible thing . . . our future.

From the moment we walk out through those brightly painted doors of the little red brick building, all the events of the last four years will be just . . . memories.

REMEMBER

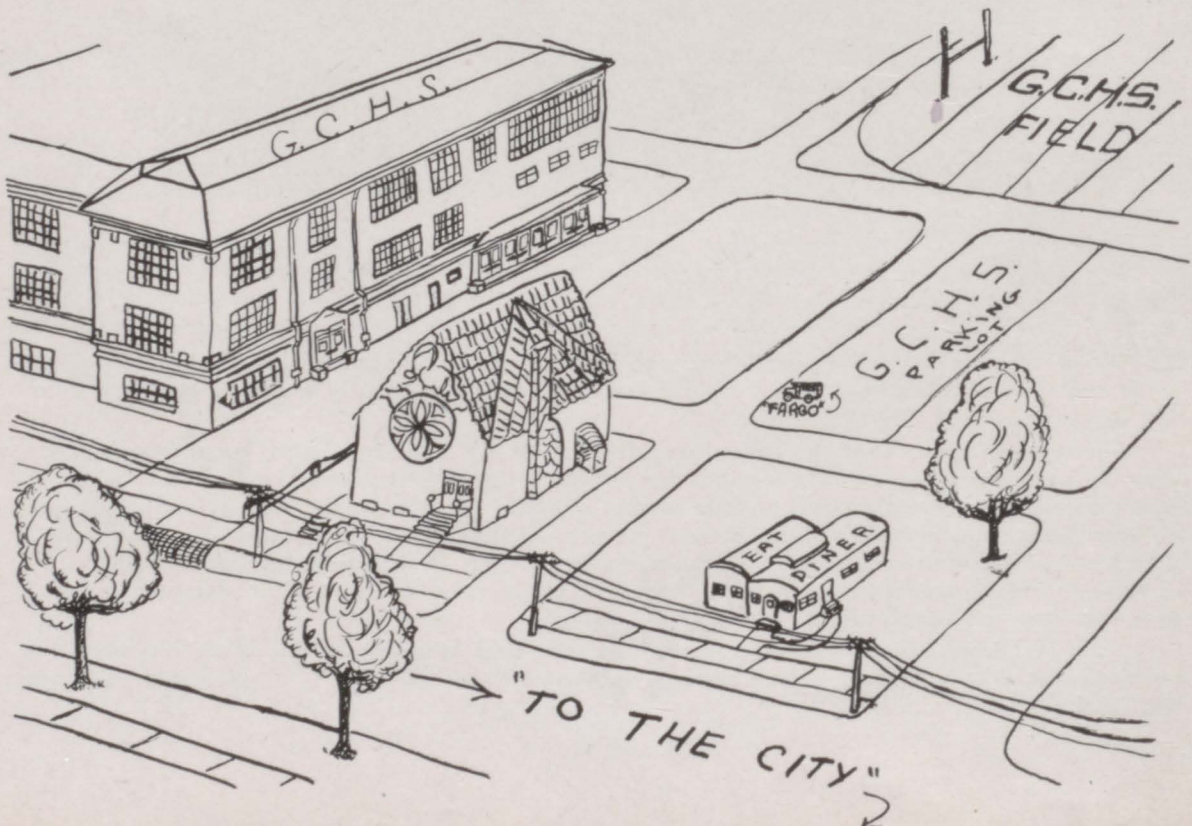

How that look of bliss spread across Crowther's face, when he first tried the Public Address system in the auditorium . . . How "Red" Skelton used to dash for the "funnies" every morning, and finish in a dead heat with Mr. Surrena . . . How "Smitty" struggled and strived, usually in vain, to gather Virgil class under control, without cracking a smile. They, and all the rest, were some of our best friends, even though we might not have known it when they taught us. But the longer we're out the more we'll realize it.

How well Dave Workman could fall up and down stairs on the way to class . . . How Molly the Queen was followed here and there by her male harem . . . How proud Henry was when he finally got his deer . . . How those hideous noises came out of that human mechanism named Dick Barnes . . . How "Hedy Hamilton" used to fuss and fume in Lit. Club and usually came out on top in arguments . . . How "Dave" sat back in Sr. Hi-Y meetings, sighed and resigned himself to his fate . . . How we enjoyed all the clubs.

How, in the Titusville game, when that bad center went over Billy Nix's head into the end zone, and the crowd hollered "Get it out of there Nix!" and he turned to the fans behind the goal line and said, "I'll try", before running it out to the ten yard line . . . How excited "lil" Bill McCarthy was when he squirmed to his touchdown in the Sharpsville game—Whatta game . . . How lanky Mike Robertson and shorty Bob Jones poured the points through the hoop on the basketball court.

These things helped to make the past year what it was, and they shall remain cradled in their own little corner in our memories for a long time to come.

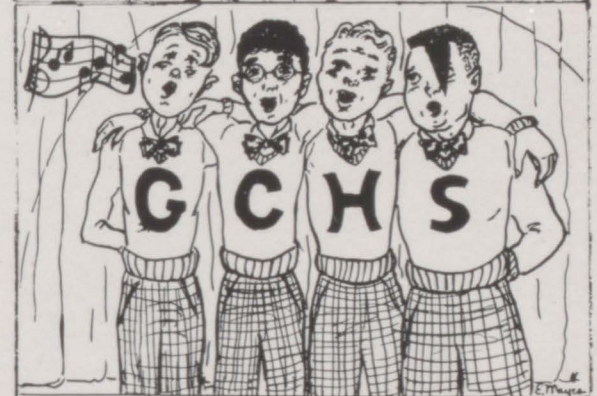

CONTENTS

We, as students of G.C.H.S., will always remember and appreciate the quality of the administration and instruction we received here. We realize that, although, our facilities may be outclassed and outmoded, our board and faculty rank among the best to be found in any high school.

The most important memories we will take with us, when we leave this building, will be of our friends. What a wonderful group of "swell eggs" they are. A student body you can be proud of anywhere, a student body that makes you give that little extra on the gridiron or on the hardwood court, a student body that will make you glad to look back on while reminiscing.

The clubs, to which we belonged, and the committees on which we served, will furnish other enjoyable memories. For it was due to these little bits of play and leisure that we were able to sum up our nerve and continue cramming for that 'snap' Algebra test or reviewing that Spanish lesson.

Who could ever forget that G.C.H.S. had another championship football team, and a basketball team that burned up the courts! And surely no one will forget the magnificent job turned in by our athletic instructors. No, the coaches nor the teams will not be forgotten—to say the least.

*S*OMEDAY—possibly in the not too distant future—we are going to find ourselves reminiscing. Undoubtedly, when we do, we will probably wonder why we thought Miss So and So was such an old goat or why we thought Mr. Such and Such was so merciless.

Yes, we will all realize, maybe for the first time, just what the men and women of our faculty and school board have done for us. We will be more able to understand the trials and tribulations of our administrative staff. We will think of them more as friends than as teachers and advisers.

We will also realize and appreciate the fact that we were lucky to have had the privilege of attending the little high school of Grove City, Pennsylvania.

Administration

SUPERINTENDENT

H. W. Traister

Grove City High School students are very fortunate to be educated under such a fine high rating staff of teachers. We also have for a Board of Education, a group of men who are leaders in all the life of our community.

Again we are fortunate in the fact that we have as a mediator between the board and the faculty, Dr. H. W. Traister. A superintendent who is strictly on the ball! The ease with which he helps us even with our biggest problems makes them seemingly vanish in the air.

Since he has been here, Dr. Traister has installed several new policies. All of them have worked out to the pupils' advantage. He is largely responsible for the obtaining of the public address system installed in the auditorium this year. Dr. Traister is one of the most modern superintendents of this district; if a new idea comes out it does not take him very long to examine it and decide whether it is worth having or not.

Our superintendent is also in favor of extra-curricular subjects. He is very socially and athletically minded. He encourages constructively minded parties and dances. He especially encourages our rugged football and basketball teams.

In Dr. Traister's office helping the superintendent with the statistics and various other problems is Miss Betty Hassell, herself a recent student of Grove City High School. She has taken over and is filling the shoes of Miss Phame Atwell, the former secretary. Miss Hassell is now doing as adequate a job as a secretary as she did when she was a student here.

Miss Betty Hassell

G. H. Crowther

PRINCIPAL

One of the characteristics which stands highest in our high school is the spirit of cooperation that Mr. G. H. Crowther, our affable principal, has injected into the faculty and student body. With this essential spirit, our high school has grown from a place of individuality to a school laden with advantageous clubs and activities.

Mr. Crowther served as principal of Grove City High School when many of our parents attended here and the ideals of education which aided them are now adding to our intelligence.

Perhaps the success of the high school is due to the patience and self control that Mr. Crowther, himself, puts forth.

Through many years he has been striving to build up larger bridges of friendship between the students themselves. "Social life must have its place in the high school, too," states Professor Crowther. To make this sentence a motto to be carried out by our school, he has seen to it that our school now has many organizations. Many of our alumni can tell you just how much benefit a student receives in later life, merely by becoming a member of some club and getting acquainted with other students.

Another mark of character that Professor Crowther stands for is good sportsmanship. To each new student coming into the high school, a fair chance is given.

Mr. Crowther is assisted by his secretary, Mrs. Mabel Northcott. Liked by everyone, she is always on hand to aid anyone and to give advice.

Mrs. Mabel Northcott

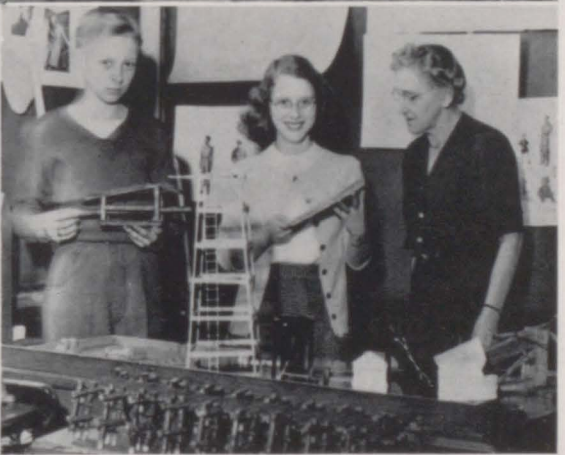

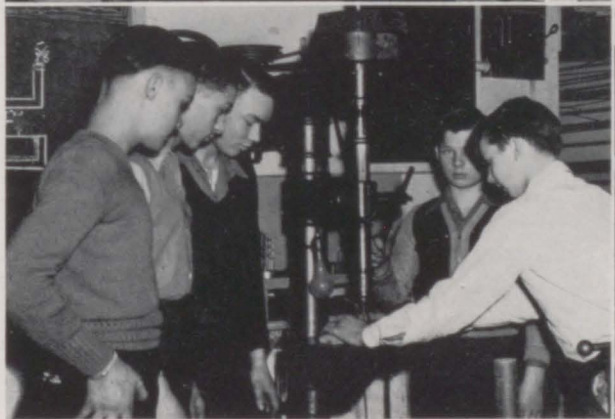

BOARD OF EDUCATION

*A*S we look back, we remember the parties and dances we had, but how many remember and are grateful for the many things our Board of Education did for us?

These men met the first Monday in every month to discuss finances, supplies, buildings, grounds, and curriculum of the school. In general, their duty was to see that G. C. H. S. maintained its high standing among the schools of Pennsylvania.

CLASSROOM SCENES

1. The law intrudes. 2. That's a wicked typewriter you run. 3. Senior Secretaries. 4. Future draftsmen. 5. What's cooking, kids? 6. We fix 'em. 7. Careful with that drill press! 8. Our Latin exhibit.

*W*HEN our first day in college is ended and we sit in our rooms and, bewildered, try to figure it all out—when our first day's work is completed and we crawl wearily up to bed—or when our first day in the army is over and we lay in the barracks and rest . . . then is when we will look back on our happy, carefree, irresponsible days in G. C. H. S. and earnestly wish that we were right back in the middle of our freshman year.

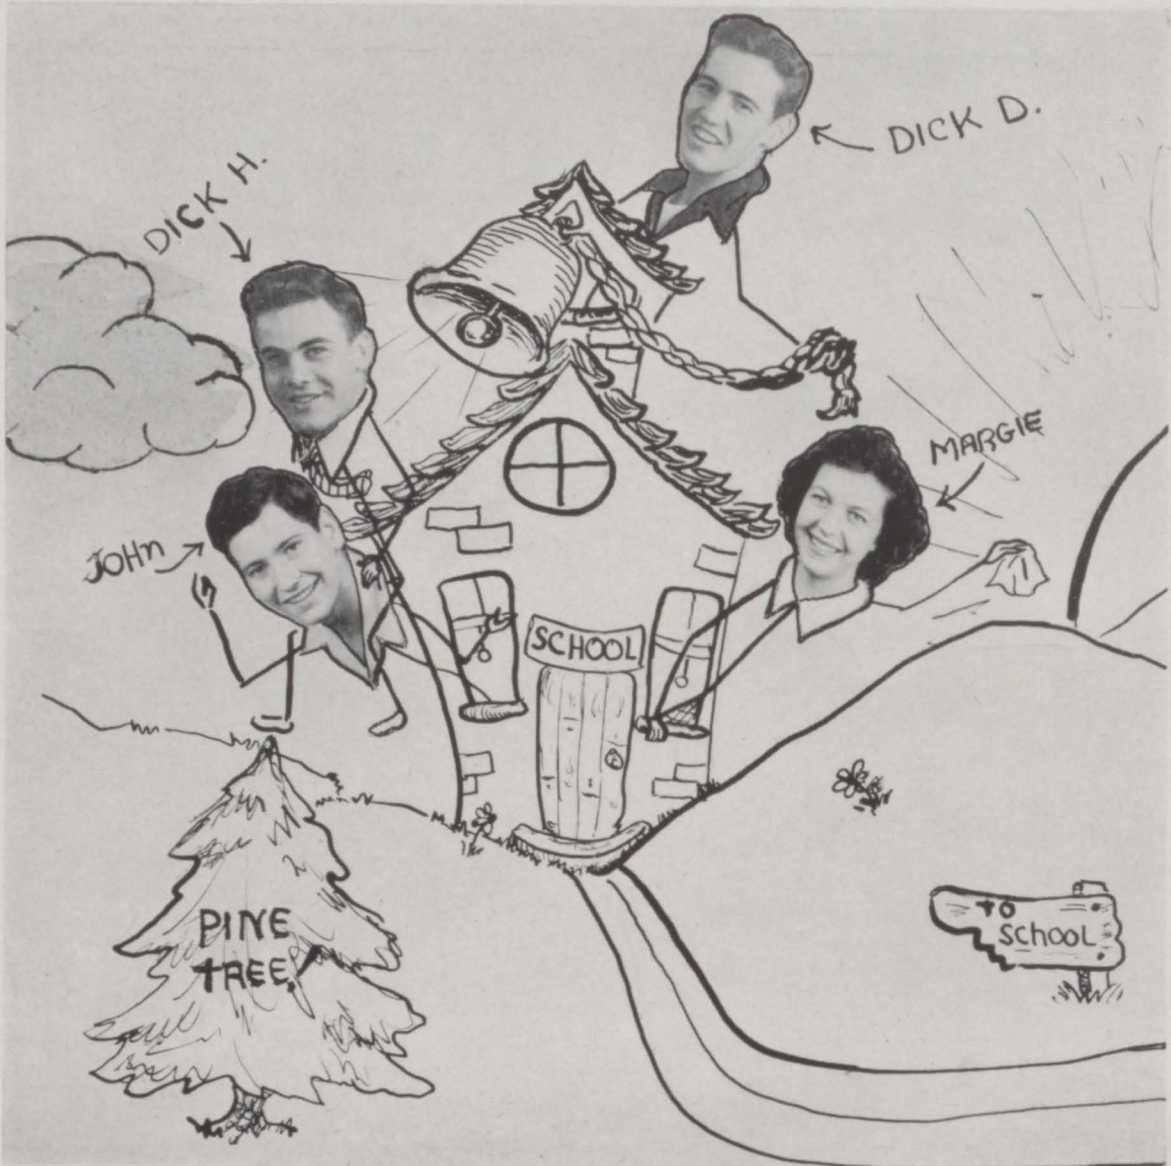

We will remember how we used to loaf away valuable study periods and then take our books home to study for that chemistry or algebra test and gripe like the dickens cuz we missed a show or basketball game.

But, most of all, we will remember that those four years in G. C. H. S. gave us the happiest and most wonderful days of our lives.

CLASS WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of '46, being of unsound mind after four years of lurking in the halls of G. C. H. S., leave all of our properties and goods to those Seniors who will occupy our seats next year.

We leave the books, desks, and halls of good old G. C. H. S. to the coming Seniors.

To Miss Hood we leave all the empty band chairs heretofore occupied by the Seniors.

Bob Sopher leaves his camera, which has taken quite a few pictures around G. C. H. S., to Dick Gilson. (If he ever learns to use it.)

To Professor Crowther we bequeath a case of hair tonic—if that doesn't work, a wash rag.

Sam McClelland's ability to mind other people's business to Eddie Dresch.

Chester Young leaves the last seat in the room to Theresa Ziccardi.

Jim Parkes leaves, which is very thoughtful of him.

Dick Dickson leaves his infectious smile to Dick Jones.

Molly Jean Husband leaves her sweetness and attractiveness to Ruth Christy.

To "Curly" Wright we leave some of Dave Workman's bashfulness. He needs it.

Evelyn Bennett, taking a well deserved rest after looking after her column in the Grover Star, leaves it to the next willful victim.

Hank and Fish, Tom and Lee, and Harry and Jean Ann leave their love affairs to Ward and Marie, Louise and B. J. and Sue and Byrd.

Shirley and Betty Mae leave the Gold and White megaphone to next year's cheerleaders.

Pat, Alice, Dolores, and Mary Jo leave ensemble, hoping next year's will be as good.

Mary Y. Hulbert leaves her dramatic ability to Marjorie Woods.

The Editor of the G. S. leaves his desk and comfortable chair to the next editor.

Spokes and Hummel leave their basketball uniforms to Bob Jones and Mike Robertson.

Tony Issaco leaves his curly hair to Jack Ewing.

We leave Betty Campbell's gift of gab to Polly Spears.

We leave tears in the eyes of those who will no longer see the "Fargo".

To Gayle Jordan we leave some of Lee Kelly's pep.

Dot Fitzgerald leaves her oboe to Rebecca Ritchey.

WAY BACK WHEN — !

Talking about football always brings up Dickson and Hummel. Two of our All Stars, they really played football this year! They were recognized by their numbers 27 and 54.

Height comes in handy on a basketball floor and Jim Tinkey has plenty of it. He also uses it to an advantage on the football team as an end and is really going places!

Ever notice a very small whirlwind going through the halls? Look again and you will find that it's Sue Griffith. Sue is a junior and hails from Room 25. She is also one of our peppy cheerleaders and yells herself hoarse at every game.

Some people can't figure out why, but B. J. McClymonds will tell you he likes his hair that way. B. J. is plenty tough in both football and basketball. He is very popular with all his classmates. "B. J." is a junior in Room 19 this year.

Easy on the eyes and destined to go places is Mary Webster. Mary is one of our freshmen this year but that doesn't mean she'll be a mere "freshie" always. She is often seen in the company of Roma Vincent.

One among many is Bob Jones. Playing basketball with Tinkey and Robertson doesn't bother him at all. Bob is short and dynamic and really racks up the points. Bob is usually seen with Dick Jones, who is our only boy cheerleader.

Under all the rest of the rooms doesn't mean a thing to the fellows from Room 9. With their teacher, Mr. Hoffman, they're quite a gang. Although they're sometimes late for classes, they don't mind walking so far.

Running around in a seemingly sublime world of his own, Tom Olin doesn't seem to let anything bother him. He is quite a card and keeps the Vergil class in a good humor all the time. Miss Smith threatens all sorts of things but never carries them out and Olin goes happily on.

Making a violin play and being a member of Student Council and Dramatic Club takes up a good bit of Joyce Carson's time; but she still finds enough to be cheerful and friendly.

Every time you hear an extra high note, you can almost be sure it's Pinky Hilgar. Pinky has brown eyes and very red hair. Pinky has an excellent tenor voice and journeyed to Mid-Western Chorus this year along with Byrd McCracken, Dave Kearney, Franchard Christie, Richard Gilson, and Bob Paxton.

Making an accordion go through its paces is nothing to Genette Brocken. Genette also plays clarinet in the band and orchestra and seems destined to go far in the music department of Grove City High School.

Often in Candyland you'll see Tom Manos, affectionately called "Deadhorse" by his friends. "Deadhorse" is a member of the Vergil class and can talk to you all day about baseball. When "Deadhorse" and Ed Dresch get together you'd better watch out!

Robert Sterrett was junior football manager and it looks like he'll fill Vince Puntureri's shoes next year. Bob was hypnotized and created quite a stir trying to sell mousetraps to the audience.

If you ever need a girl trumpet player, look up Norma Crawford. Norma is a member of Room 4 and hails from the town of Leesburg, but she doesn't like to be razzed about that teeming metropolis.

leanor Mayes is a peppy senior with a cheerful smile whom everyone likes. She was an aid to the Homecoming Queen this year. Her "little sister", JoAnne, was a drum majorette this year and was quite an addition to the band.

Some girls seem to get flustered, but Gayle Jordan takes everything in stride. She is a junior in Room 19 this year and no one has ever seen her when she was excited. Come on, Gayle, how about breaking down?

DIARY OF

"Our life is a glimmer, a flutter
A memory, fading, yet sweet!"

—William Crouston Lawton

September 3, 1942

Dear Diary:

Today I was enrolled as a freshman in Grove City High School. Along with 239 greenhorns, I entered the building that is to be my abode during my four years of high school life. The halls were crowded with "buzzing bees" and I am still too confused to know much about my new life.

October 9

Dear Diary:

It is over a month since I first came here. My most serious problem is gathering golden bits of knowledge. In spite of this, however, I think I might like the place. Chapel Tuesday mornings, with the band playing and everyone singing, makes me feel like I could conquer the world.

November 6

Dear Diary:

I have very little to say. The football squad has won the District 10 Championship, but I have not won my teachers.

February 12, 1943

Dear Diary:

The first semester has closed—time surely goes fast. I'm beginning to appreciate the students of G. C. H. S. now. It's really all right around here.

May 7

Dear Diary:

Well, it won't be long 'til vacation. The seniors are getting ready to leave. I sorta' hate to see them go. Oh well, I have to think about myself—I'm going to be a Sophomore next year!

September 7, 1943

Dear Diary:

After a much enjoyed summer vacation, I am now settling down to "life as a sophomore" in G. C. H. S. I don't feel so "green" this year and it really feels good to order the freshman around.

November 12

Dear Diary:

The other night I went to the carnival and oh, what fun!! If I thought I met a lot of kids last year, you should see me now.

Tonight the Sr. Speech Class is presenting a play, "Mr. and Mrs. North". They say it's going to be good.

A SENIOR

February 25, 1944

Dear Diary:

The Jr. Tri-Hi-Y presented a minstrel show in chapel last Tuesday. Shirley Thomas was Mr. Interlocutor, and Lee Kelly and Norma Fisher were a couple of end men. It got a lot of laughs.

April 21

Dear Diary:

If my last report comes out all right, I think I might be a junior next year. Just think, then I'll be able to wear a class ring and attend the prom.

October 2, 1944

Dear Diary:

I am back at G. C. H. S. again—this time, as a junior. This is going to be my best year so far. I have fully established myself as a student here, and right now, I can think of nothing but work.

November 27

Dear Diary:

I said about a month ago that I could think of nothing but work. I was wrong—I have met a certain somebody.

February 16, 1945

Dear Diary:

This is an eventful month. The Literary Club presented a Gay Nineties Revue in chapel. We also elected our class officers for next year. Dick Dickson was elected president and Dick Hummel, vice-president. Next year senior offices ought to be handled well.

March 2

Dear Diary:

We received our class rings last week. Now I surely feel like a junior. The Prom is coming up soon, too. Two more months and school will be out.

September 4, 1945

Dear Diary:

Today I start back to school. This means I will have to assume the role of an important and dignified senior. I wonder what this year will bring?

December 10

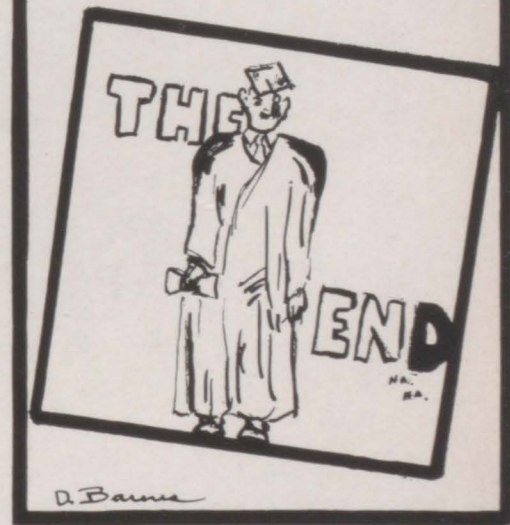

Dear Diary:

Well it's almost Christmas. There's going to be a Christmas dance this Saturday. The Senior Speech class is going to present "When the Little Angel Sang," as their Christmas play.

May 23, 1946

Dear Diary:

Tonight I graduated from Grove City High School. I felt a pang in my heart as I received my diploma. As I leave the high school, I can truthfully say I enjoyed my life at G. C. H. S. My most deeplyfelt hope is that our being here has not been in vain, and that in the years to come the echoes of our lives will be heard.

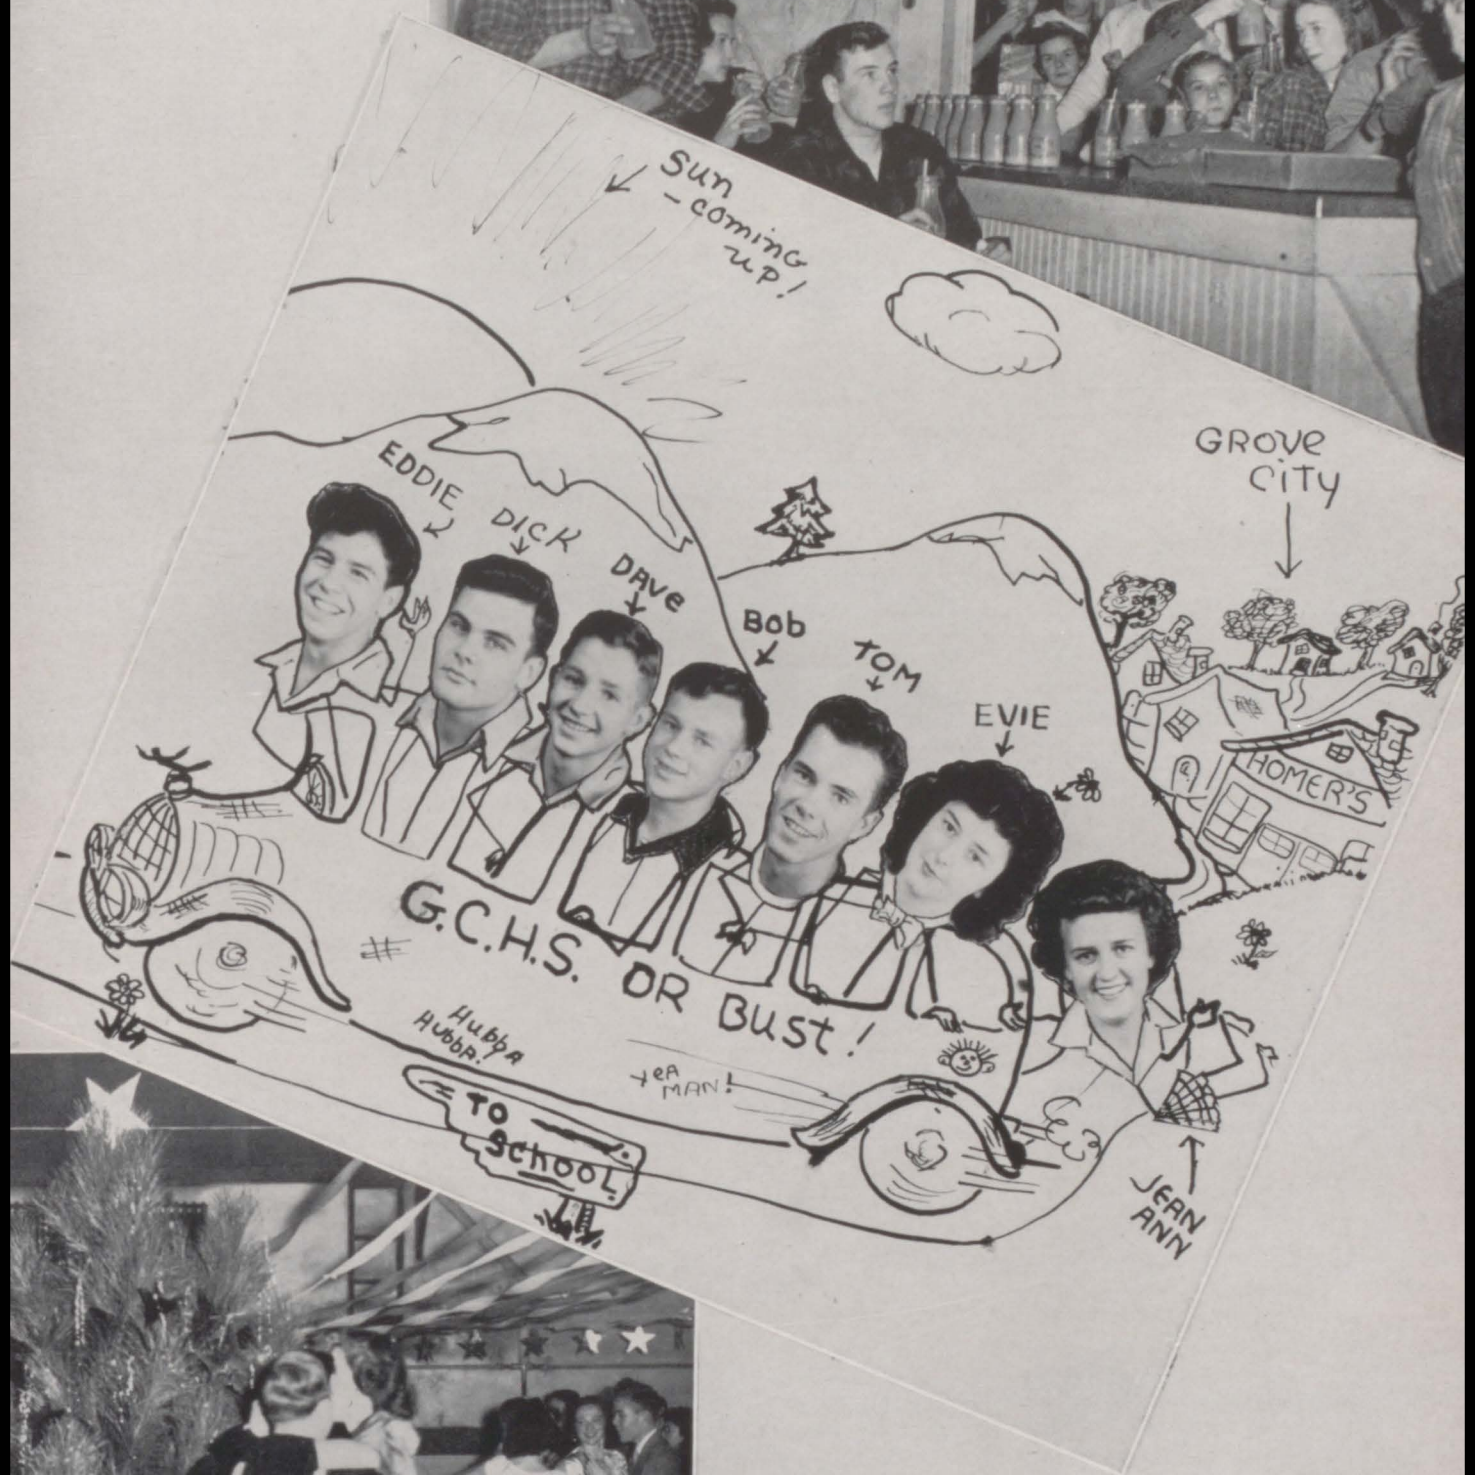

SAY—remember those frequent days, when we sat in our third period classes and worried, and scowled, and wished we had our trig. or civics done for the next period? Then came the inspiration . . . Why this is Wednesday! Now let's see . . . Oh yes Lit. Club today—or is it A. C.—Oh well, we can ask!

The important thing was that this was the day on which our special club period had been set. No matter which group's turn it was, the Wednesday club periods always brought something novel and interesting. Remember?

Yes, the clubs of our school certainly added a lot to the making of a well rounded school-life. Our organizations taught us to accept our individual responsibilities and carry them through to the best of our respective abilities. This will be a fine trait for all of us to have in our future lives.

The sophomore group of the Tri-Hi-Y and its sponsor, Miss Thelma Smith, are still proving to be a big help in social activities. Do you remember at the Fall Carnival that down in the lower gym there were a couple of dart boards and some candy bars? That was the sophomore additions to the fun. Do you remember hearing a lot of carolers around Christmas? One of those groups was the sophies again.

Then there was the formal initiation for freshmen. Also our "Little Kids" party in January where we all dressed in kid's clothes and played games like "Ring Around the Rosy". At our weekly meetings in Room 14 we had programs like stunts, singing, and sometimes we just planned our future activities. All this, of course, was after we had devotions, for the Tri-Hi-Y is a state-wide, religious organization.

To be eligible for membership, a girl must have average grades and be willing to cooperate with the standards of the club. She must participate in the activities for which the club is known.

FRESHMAN TRI-HI-Y

The Tri-Hi-Y is a wonderful group of girls. We strive to live up to the high standards of Christianity, and we hope the girls will put the information learned to use in the future.

We have a large organization and different committees to help with our many activities. This year we were asked to go with several other clubs to get a plaque in honor of our service men. We also had several other projects in mind.

This year for the carnival we decided to have a fortune telling booth. The girls who graciously consented to take part were kept very busy most of the evening trying to tell the fortunes of,—ah,—should we say, the great students of Grove City High School.

We hope that all those girls who join the Tri-Hi-Y this coming year will find as much enjoyment, and to this year's girls we say—congratulations.

SENIOR HI-Y

The Hi-Y, a branch of a national organization, the Y. M. C. A., is primarily religious. Its aim is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character. Along with religion, the Hi-Y endeavors to promote social and civic activities.

This year the Senior Hi-Y was under the direction of Mr. D. M. McClelland replacing Mr. H. P. Smith, former English teacher at Grove City High School, who led the club for four years.

Membership of the club is open to junior and senior boys who endeavor to live up to the high standards of the club. The boys have readily taken part in the Hi-Y's various activities.

The club, along with the other Tri-Hi's and Hi-Y's clubs, contributed to the service flags for the lobby of the auditorium.

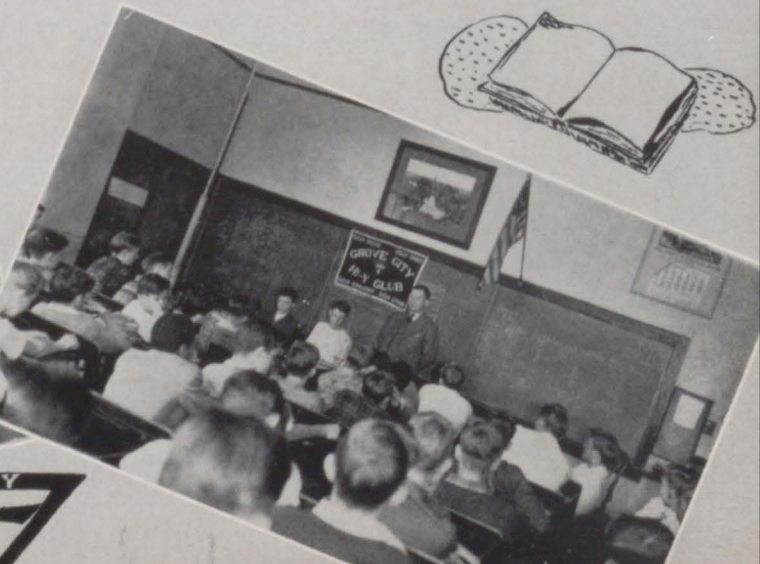

The training the boys receive in the club better fits them for the activities of the world of tomorrow in which each citizen will be called upon to do his share.

JR. HI-Y

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout school and community high standards of Christian character." This is the purpose of the Jr. Hi-Y, a club consisting of freshmen and sophomore students. The members of the club try to be better citizens and to help others be better citizens in the world of tomorrow. The platform of the club is clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship and clean living.

This year, under the supervision of Mrs. Mary Webster, the Jr. Hi-Y got off to a fine start and continued in the same manner throughout the rest of the year.

The Jr. Hi-Y began the project of a war memorial for the High School and the club donated money for a plaque for the front hall. A book, Bible of Graphic, was purchased by the club. An active part was also taken in the carnival.

Several of the meetings consisted of talks by C. W. Sholtzborger, Secretary of the Y.M.C.A., and Captain James Griffith, who told of his experiences during the war. The Jr. Hi-Y has had an influence on the boys of the club and this year has had an even greater influence toward its members.

SR. TRI-HI-Y

If you are ever looking for a good sport, a bright cheery personality, a timid, sweet thing, and yes, even a witty character—you'll find them all in Sr. Tri-Hi-Y. This club is composed of girls from Junior and Senior classes who have combined for the purpose of creating, maintaining and extending throughout the school and community higher standards of Christian fellowship.

The club is active in many fields. This year social events were held every month. They consisted of a fall hayride, a winter hike, and various other delightful activities that took the members outdoors. In December, the club held a magazine subscription contest, which lasted for ten days. With the profits from their sales the girls bought a service flag to designate the boys from the community who had given their lives in World War II. A donation was given toward the public address system that was installed in the auditorium this season.

A girl from the Sr. Tri-Hi-Y represented the club at the United Presbyterian church for the annual Young People's Conference. Members of the club also traveled away from home last summer to attend an annual conference in West Virginia. Many exciting tales were related by the girls when they returned.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

You really haven't seen G. C. H. S. until you've seen the Athletic Council in action. Requirements to become a member: the girl is to be a junior or senior, and is to have an average of A in gym.

These girls are skilled in most sports known to mankind—basketball, swimming, bowling and a new sport this year, volley ball. You never saw an event in which the A. C. girls were not taking part.

Their interest is not only in sports but they also stand out in their social activities. One of the outstanding things they sponsored was the annual Homecoming dance in honor of the Homecoming Queen and her attendants. The Semi-formal Christmas dance was another outstanding event. It was beautifully decorated and full of Christmas spirit, too.

They worked long and hard and their success was due largely to Miss Margaret Hummel, their sponsor, and her endless patience and supervision.

SENIOR SCIENCE CLUB

Since its beginning over ten years ago, the Senior Science Club has been one of the most successful organizations in the high school. Strictly devoted to science, this group meets every other Wednesday to discuss scientific things and to indulge in interesting research.

Among the worthy contributions credited to the Senior Science Club are those connected with the stage productions of the school year. During every year since its existence, the Science Club has had some of its members serving on the stage crew for these plays.

Besides this, in eight years, the Science Club has contributed $1,900 to Grove City High School's visual program and has added to the library of books and magazines for the school.

If you are one of those students who looks upon physics and chemistry class as a bore, you are just the person for whom the Science Club is looking, because their chief aim is to broaden the student's mind in the field of science. The program for each meeting is planned by two or more members who have been previously chosen. This gives everyone a chance to participate in the club's program.

The Science Club is composed of boys and girls from the Junior and Senior classes. They must have good enough grades to meet necessary requirements.

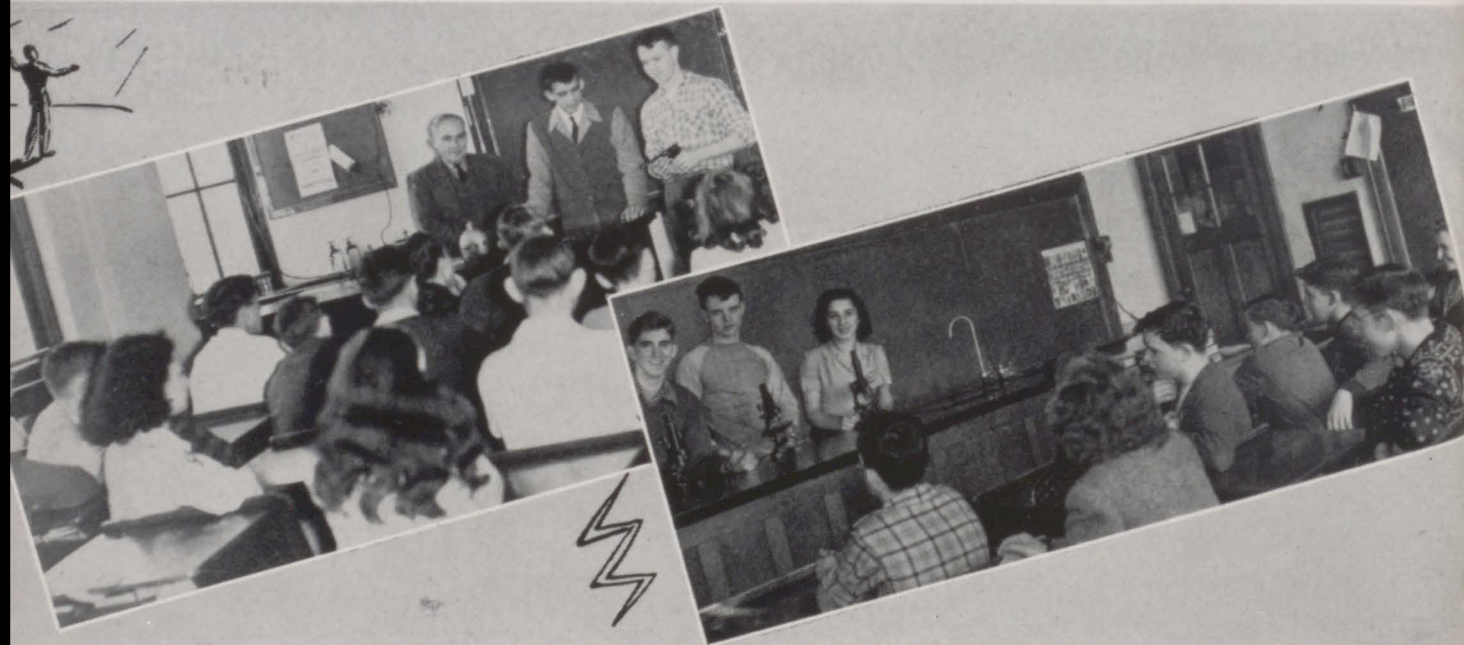

Harland J. Surrena is the club's advisor.

JUNIOR SCIENCE CLUB

The Junior Science Club is composed of Freshmen and Sophomores who, for the sake of science alone, wrack their mighty brains to solve unsolvable problems. These "geniuses" hold their meetings in room 24. The two club sponsors are Miss E. Montgomery and Mrs. R. Shellito, both science teachers. Club president is Constantine Page, sophomore from room 8, who keeps the wheels of the club running smoothly.

Work in this club is done by groups, which are: Radio, Microscope, Airplanes, and Chemistry. The leaders of these groups are: Radio—James Sterrett, Chemistry—Gordon Atkinson, Microscope—Joseph Hodgson, and Airplanes—Robert McBride. These "wizards" undertake the most difficult work of the groups, the explaining and experimenting part.

Programs have been made very interesting by having speakers. One of the many interesting programs was a movie presented by Frank Murphy. It was a movie about his trip to New York City and Niagara Falls. Other interesting talks were given by Roger Tinkey, ex-airman, and Major Kinter McClelland of the First Marine Division. The former related his war experience as tail gunner on a B-17 based in England during the battle for Germany. The latter gave interesting talks about the Australian people and their customs.

This club has benefited the school in many ways. A movie entitled, "Know Your Money" was presented in a chapel program. It has raised money by presenting movies at the annual carnival, and also by selling tickets for the Senior Class Play. Part of the money which the club earned has helped to pay for the public address system. In the future the club is planning to present more movies and to help buy school equipment.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club, which was organized last year, is under the supervision of Miss Maude Jamison. Twenty members remained in the club from last year and twenty new members were admitted by tryout.

The club programs give an opportunity for dramatic practice for the members and help them have ease when appearing before an audience. At these programs, critics are appointed to tell the participants how they might have bettered their productions. These criticisms prove very helpful. Dramatic Club also has presented several plays in chapel programs.

Miss Jamison gives many helpful suggestions to the club members concerning dramatics, make-up, and stage production. Dramatic Club, among other things, tries to create more interest in dramatics among the pupils.

LITERARY CLUB

Fun, Fellowship and Action—combine these three and many others, add creamy Freshman, salty Sophomores, jaunty Juniors and highly seasoned Seniors. Mix thoroughly, together with parties, dances and laughter. Bake well with the warmth of friendship and the results are terrific! You've guessed it—Literary Club.

Yes, during the course of the year, Literary Club has had many lively parties and has sponsored colorful dances such as the one for Sadie Hawkins Week and Senior Farewell. Another event which takes place yearly for the members of the club is the "Little Kid Party". Also at Christmas time the club went caroling and then to one of the local restaurants for a spaghetti supper. The Senior members are honored every spring by a party given by the other members of the club.

New members were taken in at the first of the year. This year, students wishing to become members of Literary Club had to give an oral book report and two jokes. Usually only freshman are admitted to the club but occasionally vacancies in Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes may be filled.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Meet the fellows and girls whom you have elected to serve as members of the Student Council. They act as a medium between the student body and the administration. As such, their chief job is to solve the problems of the student body.

But don't get the impression that they are always serious minded Einsteins. Remember the carnival last fall? This annual event is sponsored by the Student Council and serves as an opportunity for everyone to find out who the other fella or girl is, as well as being loads of fun for all.

Throughout the year they have sponsored various events, such as pep rallies, dances, and stamp and bond drives. This hard-working group brought several speakers to the student body who had as their topics, timely and interesting subjects. As one of their projects, they purchased and displayed a set of posters depicting the value your high school education would be in your later life.

Yes, our Student Council is one of which to be proud. Typical students from each class are elected to serve for two years, during which they carry the desires of the student body to their meetings. Under their able supervisor, Prof. G. H. Crowther, they have served us well. Theirs is an organization to be proud of and admired in the successful way it has carried on its duties in the past, and the way it will continue to do so in the future.

By request, membership in the club was limited this year to twenty students who have pronounced artistic ability. Those wishing to join were asked to submit original drawings which were judged by members.

The purpose of the club is to promote interest in the art of drawing, painting, and sketching. The meetings are held every other Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the Physics Lab.

This year the Art Club sponsored the Thanksgiving Dance and took a trip to Pittsburgh in February to visit the Art Exhibit.

The Club members drew the posters appearing in the halls advertising the dances that were held, football games in the fall, and basketball games in the season, and were asked many times during the school year to illustrate the need for the sale of bonds and stamps. Of particular interest was the lifesize replica of the ten-year old picture on the tuberculosis seal. It was used in the tuberculosis drive. During the Christmas season, the members made Christmas cards for use in the schools.

GIRLS' CHORUS

When walking to and from school you may have heard some singing—"screeching" to some music lovers—and you may have wondered who and what all the noise was about. Well, it seems as though the questions and answers are left up to the Girls' Chorus, who were always trying to perfect a new song, so everyone will have to bear with them. It really wasn't TOO bad, now, was it?

Everyday, the fourth period, the girls go down to Chorus and after a little gossip finally line up and fill the auditorium with the lyrics of lullabys and hymns.

The Girls' Chorus took part in the Christmas Concert and proved to us that they had quality as well as quantity which helped to make the Chorus one of the finest. The chorus also took part in the Armistice Day program.

This year there were 70 members in Girls' Chorus. A girl must have a voice of pleasing quality, be able to read music, and try out for a part, either soprano, second soprano, or alto, before she can be a member of the Chorus. The girls must be dependable and are not excused from any special practices unless it is due to sickness.

Librarians: Patricia Black, Frances Campbell, Sally Adams, Joy Reznor.

Secretaries: Mary Jo Schlicht, Rebecca Ritchey, Grace Ormond, Helen Hamilton.

BOYS CHORUS

This year the Boys' Chorus is proud to announce that it is more than doubled its membership of last year, with forty-six fellows taking part in its activities. Under the capable and (the boys said) enjoyable direction of Miss Rachel Hood, they have taken part in many programs.

The first event of this year in which the chorus took part was the community sing held in the High School auditorium and directed by Miss Hood. About 650 Grove Cityans came to spend an evening of fun singing all the old favorites. The boys sang several numbers, among them "The Animal Fair" which proved to be one of the most popular numbers ever presented at the High School.

Another community sing was held on December 13, when a large audience enjoyed singing Christmas carols and the traditional Christmas songs. Again the boys presented several numbers. Miss Hood directed these two sings and was assisted by Miss Helen Francis, director of music of the schools in Mercer.

On December 17 the Chorus went caroling, as they have done in years past, tramping all over town through the snow, singing as they went. The boys also took part in the Christmas Concert, presenting several numbers themselves, and joining with the girls' chorus for several numbers.

In the spring the chorus presented a Minstrel Show which, as was everything the chorus did, was a success.

This year the chorus sent six representatives to the Mid-Western Chorus held at Ellwood City. Judging from the reports of the fellows, it was quite an experience. The boys were: Franchard Christie, Robert Paxton, Richard Gilson, Byrd McCracken, David Kearney, and Jim Hilgar.

BAND

Who creates those soft, sweet sounds that float through the halls every Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday? What organization is present at every occasion of major importance? What would G. C. H. S. be like without the band?

The band is always doing something; but just in case you've forgotten some of the things they've done this past year, do you remember football season? Sure, the band was there! Three home games and the Greenville and Sharpsville games away, and every one a real exhibition of marching and playing skill. Hardly had the band gotten the football season under way when the members decided they wanted new uniforms. As a result, Homecoming Day was also declared Tag Day and enterprising band members sold tags at the high school and down town. Total receipts amounted to $537. Records showed Patty Sproull came out on top with the greatest amount of tags sold. Patty was head majorette and led the band through all the fancy maneuvers at the football games.

With the football season out of the way and a tidy sum set up for new uniforms, the band's music changed and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" was played at the Christmas concert. Of course, the band was right back with their snappy marches for basketball season.

The winter concert was a great success, both musically and financially, netting $350. With this splendid success it was decided to hold the spring concert two nights—May 10 and 13. This was the first occasion the band's new uniforms were worn and they looked quite snappy in their gold and black outfits.

JUNIOR STAR STAFF

Subjects may come and subjects may go, but in old G. C. H. S. Journalism is one subject that will give you a warm feeling of pride. Especially when after a year's hard work, you put out your first edition of the "Grover Star", a real accomplishment at last.

Journalism is a fine experience whether you intend to go on to a journalism school and make a career of writing or not; for grammar rules and a better knowledge of the classics will always be helpful.

Working under the pressure of meeting deadlines will cause everybody to work together for the common good of putting out the paper, thus encouraging good citizenship and cooperation, things which will always be useful.

The first semester was spent in the study of literature and the styles of various authors; the second was devoted to learning the fundamentals of journalism and the operation of a newspaper.

This staff is somewhat smaller than last year's and the set-up for the output of the paper differs slightly. There will be standing positions on the staff and everyone will get his chance to be news editor, thus taking the full responsibility of the paper for that issue.

By this plan, the editor will supervise the work while the staff members do the work of preparing the paper, thus gaining valuable experience. Naturally, each news editor will want to put out a better paper than the preceding one, so by working under strong competition, the paper ought to be up to par.

SENIOR STAR STAFF

International First Place has been awarded to the Grover Star for the last five years as a result of the efforts of the staff members; this year's staff hopes to, again, achieve this reward. Each year several staff members are awarded the Quill and Scroll, an honorary high school journalism organization.

Subscription this year soared high above any previous year with thirteen rooms subscribing 100%. The Grover Star is sent to servicemen who have graduated or left from the high school. Many of these servicemen have written to the staff and expressed their appreciation and the enjoyment they receive from the paper.

A dark room has just been recently acquired by the staff and now enables pictures to be handled immediately. Graduating journalism classes are permitted to publish an issue of the city's local paper, The Reporter Herald.

Francis Shaffer is this year's editor-in-chief and is responsible for the publication of the paper. William Hulbert, managing editor, and each issue's special news editor work on the make-up of the paper. Frank Murphy, sports editor, is ably assisted by Lee Kelly, columnist for girls sports, Richard Spence, and Thomas Manos, sports reporters.

Those two vacuum cleaners, Shirley Adams and Betty Campbell—so-called because they pick up all the dirt—write the society column. Evelyn Bennett writes the variety column, Grace Moretti, the fashion column, Jean Ann Buchanan, the exchange column, Dorothy Spaulding and Rowena Cornelius have a column on servicemen activities.

Shirley McMichael and Robert Seippel are the feature writers. James Parkes and David Kearney are the business managers. Benny Phillips is in charge of distribution and Robert Sopher is the staff photographer.

A special head copyreader is appointed each issue in order that each staff member will have the opportunity for experience in that job. The staff is under the supervision of E. B. Elder.

● Perfection

● Embryonic

S-I-G-H—it's done and we hope you like it. It wasn't easy, but with a little push now and then from Tom Olin our editor and Mr. Elder our advisor, we are able to present you with our production, which we hope will bring you many a joyous hour of—"Memories".

Work on the year book began just after the publishing of last year's book. The staff was selected by the 1945 staff and consists of juniors and seniors.

During the summer, several members of the staff got together to begin work on the Pine Knot. Of course, many good times were had during these meetings. Maybe that's why they were willing to work so hard all winter long.

The staff found it difficult for everyone to meet at once with all other activities meeting at the same time, so the staff was divided. Tom Olin had charge of one meeting and Patsy Lawrence had charge of the other.

Introducing our staff we have Tom Olin, our Editor-in-Chief with his little helper (or should we say BIG help) our Assistant Editor, Patsy Lawrence.

Next we wish to introduce our Feature writers, Sue Griffith, Francis Shaffer, and Richard Gilson, whose job was to get all those snappy shots on the popularity of the Senior class and to write the last will and testament.

Speaking of snap shots—that new camera and dark room certainly came in handy this year. Along with the Grover Star staff, the Pine Knot staff pitched in and helped pay for all that equipment. Bob Sopher, our chief photographer, Dick Gilson, and E. B. Elder were always scheduled for a pose of one kind or another. But it was a job well done and a money saver in the end.

The Pine Knot has been divided into sections and devoted to several topics. The first section deals with the administration. Second, with honorable mention, we have the seniors. This book will possibly mean more to them than to any other class. This section was taken care of by Molly Husband, Betty Seaton, and Eleanor Mayes. Eleanor, we might add, did a very nice job with all those fancy cartoons and jib jabs. If there is ever anything you would like to know about any of the seniors just ask one of these girls.

Another section of the Pine Knot was devoted to clubs and was well taken care of by three spry juniors—Evelyn Sopher, Margaret Filer, and Louise Coulter. The job for these girls started after the pictures were taken, identifying each person in the picture.

The underclass editors might well be given their credit at this point. They are Mona Lee Miles, Marie Crill, and Joanne Carlson. These girls had the gruesome task of identifying and placing every student in each class in alphabetical order. We have Edward McBride and David Workman to thank for all those wonderful sports write-ups.

Last, but not least, we have that hard working, hard fighting business staff. This department consisted of Frank Murphy, Jean Ann Buchanan, and Ward Williamson. Their job was selling the Pine Knot at the first of the year and to get patron's page advertisements from stores down town.

GIRLS' ENSEMBLE

If you should happen to be staying after school any Friday night from 3:30 to 4:30 you would hear voices, some might call them angelic voices, raised in song from room 18. These voices belong to the Girls' Ensemble, a group of twelve girls including five sopranos, four second sopranos, and three altos.

Since there are only twelve girls in the group, the requirements for membership are strict. First, she must be a member in good standing of Girls' Chorus; second, she must have a voice that blends well with the remaining members of last year's Ensemble; and third, she must have a fine, upright character.

As the members do not have county, district, and state contests to prepare for, they are kept busy participating in church programs and Commercial Organization programs. They also sing with the other musical organizations of the school at the Christmas Concert. This year, three members attended the Mid-Western Music Festival at Ellwood City in February.

The girls work very hard but they give the credit to Miss M. Selkirk Burgess. They are satisfied with nothing less than perfection. If one member is absent when a performance is scheduled, the group does not sing, as one voice makes a lot of difference in the quality of singing.

At the beginning of the school term, new girls are chosen to take the places of the girls who have graduated. They must come up to the standards and are usually Sophomores or Juniors. To have a better Ensemble each year has been the tradition and it will be the tradition for years to come.

JUNE MAD

A comedy of youth, "June Mad," was presented December 7 by the senior class as their annual production. Mary Yvonne Hulbert and Bill Hassler had the leading roles, with a supporting cast of eleven members.

The play begins with Penny Wood, a not-quite-grown-up, fifteen year old girl bickering with Chuck Harris, the-boy-who-lives-next-door. Penny's uncle arrives from college to spend a week-end bringing with him a handsome, polished, well-to-do man of the world, Roger Van Vleck. Penny imagines herself in love with him and Roger strings her along until Chuck's older sister, Julie, arrives. A very humorous situation arises from Penny's desire for a sophisticated party dress. Finally she realizes that it is Chuck she really likes and everything ends happily.

Due to the illness of one of the members of the cast, the play, which was originally scheduled for November 30, was presented a week later. The play was directed by Miss Maude Jamison and Miss Jean McCoy.

● A snack between acts

● "Oh, thank you, Roger, you're so kind to me."

● Don't move!

J HERE goes the whistle! Hooray! The championship is ours! Remember that beautiful game over in Sharpsville on that cold Saturday night? Remember how deflated we were when that speedy Sharpsville back ran through our entire team in the first minute of the game? Gee—how our boys came back and finally skinned Sharpsville! Remember what a wild crowd that was after the game?

We sure had a fine basketball team, too—and all in one year. Remember the way the boys played their heads off and still dropped a couple of those heartbreaking games? Yes sir, those boys really knew their way around a basketball court.

And certainly we will remember the two men responsible for our teams' fine showing in both of those major sports—Coach "Bob" Smiley and Coach "Red" Skelton. Yes, these two stalwarts really put their shoulders to their task early in the fall and carried the job through to spring in splendid shape.

Their boys have a lot for which to thank the coaches. They not only taught them how to work together but have helped in giving them the self confidence that will make them better citizens in the 'World of Tomorrow.'

SPORTS MEMOIRS

Let's see now . . . What was it that we were so interested in the first of the year? Oh yes, the football games. Do you remember some of them?

Do you remember . . . the first game of the season at New Castle? That wasn't so good, so let's think of some more . . . after the Titusville game they told us we were dropping out of the league? I wonder why . . . the DuBois game where it was so foggy you could hardly see across the field . . . how Hank Limberg and Ewing always wore their pants at half mast? . . . Hummel's 90-yard run in the Butler game? . . . how wet it was at Oil City? Even mud and water didn't stop our team . . . the homecoming game and the queen elect, Molly Husband, and her attendants, Margie Evans and Eleanor Mayes? And remember that same game with Butler when Bill McCarthy got his nose broken? . . . Dickson, Hummel, Nix, and Sopher, the four fellows who played in the All-Star game? . . . the last thrilling game at Sharpville when the Grovers took the District 10 championship? Maybe you can't remember how many points each player made so here they are: Hummel took the lead with 66 points, Dickson running second with 37, McCarthy next with 12, McClymonds and Olin tied with 6 each, and Dunnie with 1, making a total of 128 points against the opponents' 89.

New Castle—The inexperienced Grover eleven, gaining eleven first downs to the Red Hurricanes' five and outplaying them during the entire game, lost the game on pass interceptions. Final score: 26-0.

Oil City—Traveling to Oil City for their second struggle, the Smileymen bowled over the Oilers for their first win of the season despite heavy rain and mud. Final score: 20-6.

Franklin—Grove City had a clear, sunny Saturday afternoon for their first encounter at home. After a thrilling game, the Nurseryites lost to a stronger Eagle eleven. Final score: 25-20.

DuBois—On the road again, the Grover eleven played an evenly matched DuBois eleven in an exciting tie game. Final score: 0-0.

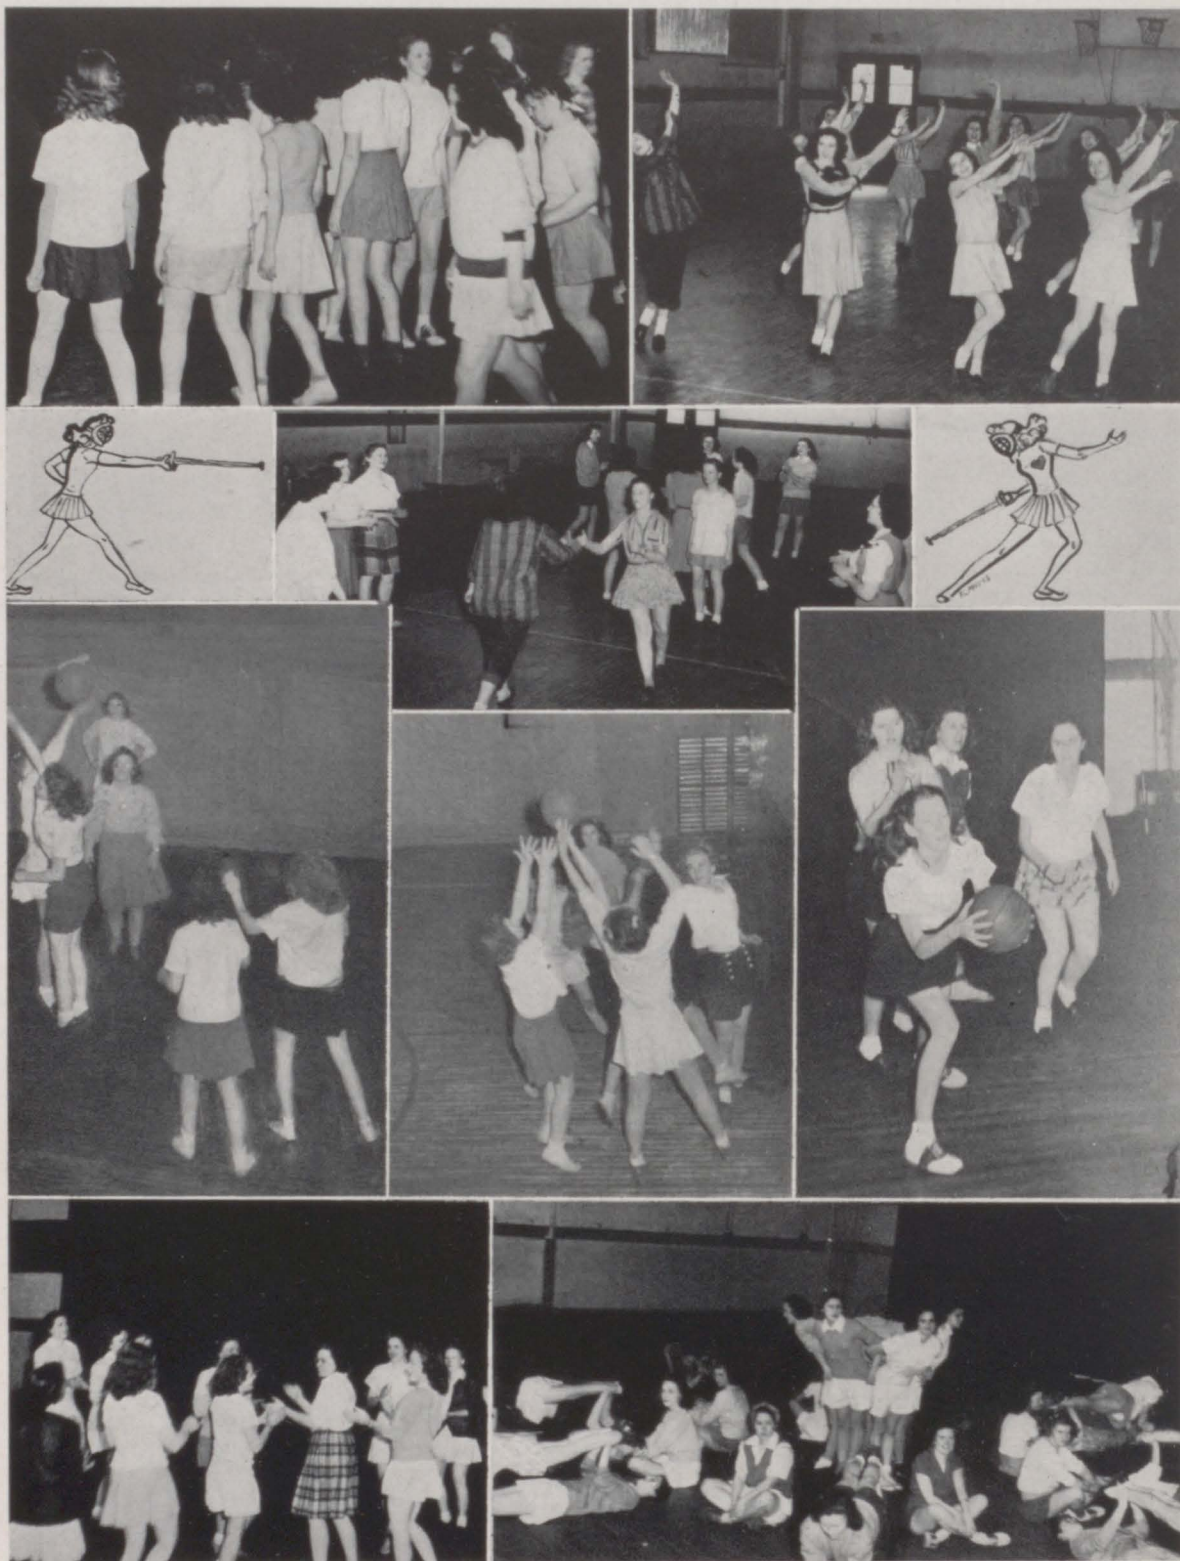

Greenville—Meeting the Trojans on their own field, the Eagles scored in the second and fourth periods downing Greenville 13-6.

Titusville—Grove City win their third game in the District 10 contest by upsetting Titusville. Scoring twice in the first quarter and once in each of the three remaining periods, a stronger Grover eleven overcame Titusville, 33-6.

Butler—Before a large home-coming crowd, Grove City played an exciting game, but bowed to a more experienced and out-of-class Butler eleven. Final score: 18-12.

Sharpville—Traveling to Sharpville for the final game of the season, the Eagles bounced back from the Butler defeat to win the District 10 Championship from the Blue Devils. Scoring in every period, the Grovers won by a wide score, 25-7.

Remember how . . . Coach Bob Smiley, with the assistance of Wade Skelton, helped the Grovers to hold second place in the county race to be topped only by Sharpsville. The Eagles led their opponents in the total of points 730 to 672. Mike Robertson led as high scorer for the Grovers with Ken Spencer close behind. They won 10 out of 19 games.

We were glad to have Eugene Forker, our ex-Navy coach, back with us to see the last few games. We would also like to take our hats off to the alumni cagers who gave our Grovers quite a fight in a fast moving contest,—And to climax the season three of our seniors—Hummel, Dickson, and Spencer, played on the all-star quintet for Mercer County. No wonder the Shenango all star fell victims to Mercer County 44-39.

THIRD ROW—Hall, Robeson, Ballantine, Miles, J. Riddle, Dresch, Black, Gilson, Gehring, Forker.

Wrestling in Grove City High School was resumed soon after Mr. Eugene Forker's return to teaching. There were no bouts this year since the boys were inexperienced and the season was almost over before the squad got under way. The time this year was spent drilling on fundamentals and getting the fellows in line for the coming years.

This is the first wrestling squad Grove City High School has had since Coach Forker joined the navy. The last squad was in 1943, having six Grovers in the finals with four coming out victorious.

1. Champs? Those are our boys—but naturally! 2. A. C. turns out full force for an old-clothes party.
 3. Did you make it? 4. Those homecoming gals again. 5. Tragedy strikes!
 6. Hey—This is fun! Yes, Buck? 7. Olin, the villain, pays up.
