

*Some Things
Never Change...*

*2004
Pine Knot*

“SOME THINGS NEVER CHANGE” - A PHRASE OFTEN
UTTERED AS YOU WALK DOWN THE STREETS OF GROVE
CITY. IT OFTEN SEEMS THAT TIME STANDS STILL AS THE FAST PACED WORLD CHANGES AROUND US. AS THE CLASS OF 2004 AND FUTURE CLASSES GRADUATE, WE CANNOT HELP BUT REFLECT ON HOW OUR JOURNEY
BEGAN. WE MAY THINK THAT NOTHING HAS CHANGED,
BUT LOOKING AT A TREE CAN REPRESENT THE CHANGE
IN ALL OF US, NOT ONLY AS A CLASS, BUT ALSO AS A SCHOOL. JUST AS THE ROOTS OF A SMALL SAPLING, WE ALL BEGAN OUR LIVES SEPARATE FROM EACH OTHER.
THEN AS THE ROOTS COME TOGETHER CREATING THE TRUNK, WE TOO CAME TOGETHER AS WE BEGAN OUR TWELVE YEARS OF SCHOOL, CREATING MEMORIES AND LIFELONG FRIENDSHIPS. AS THE TRUNK SEPARATES INTO MANY BRANCHES, WE TOO WILL SEPARATE,
FORGING DIFFERENT PATHS AND LIVING DIFFERENT
LIVES. AS ALL THE BRANCHES OF A TREE INTERTWINE
AND OVERLAP, WE TOO WILL OFTEN CROSS ONE
ANOTHER'S PATHS. THEN AS A SEED FALLS TO THE
GROUND, WE START OUR OWN FAMILIES. AS A NEW TREE
GROWS, A NEW JOURNEY BEGINS. INDEED “SOME THINGS NEVER CHANGE,” BUT LOOK AROUND; SOME THINGS DO.

Some THINGS Never

CHANGE

I Know What You Did Last Summer

the sun is shining, the breeze is blowing, the birds are singing,
and the lawn mower is broken."

The Guys at their First Holy Communion

Oh my, look how handsome! They look so cute with their little shirts, ties and slicked hair. This picture is a far cry from playing football and basketball at GCHS. My my how things have changed. Or maybe not.

Mrs. Patterson's Pre-school class, geez, doesn't that seem like a long time ago?

YMCA Preschool!

A Trip to the Zoo!

A field trip to the Pittsburgh Zoo, the best field trip of elementary school! Here are Chris Kemmerer, Ashlee Chutz, Alex DeGroff and Kristen Hughes relaxing on a fence. Chris and Alex look so cute with their little trucker hats. Who would have thought those would have come back in style our senior year? They were trend setters so young.

Awww, weren't these senior girls adorable when they were six. They look so pretty in their party dresses and tights for Emily's birthday. Don't you wish you never had to say goodbye to Barbie and My Little Ponies?

Here is Mrs. Falbo's first grade class performing in their annual Mother's Day play. The class performed "Spread a Little Sunshine" using American Sign Language and a short skit "The Fox and the Grapes."

See if you can guess who all of these kids are!

This is a far cry from black patent leather shoes and tights in the picture above. We thought we were so grown up back in '98 at Jessie's birthday party. Little did we know what was to become.

Captain Pat McElroy

"It was great to be a part of the best team to come through Grove City in a long time. We had good coaches and talented players. Those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not be faint." Isaiah 40:31 "Welcome to Grove City."

Captain Brenden Frisk

"The season came and went way too quick. I wish the best of luck to the boys in the years to come. But always remember, you have unfinished business to take care of, and a tradition to continue."

Captain Dan Wise

"I just want to thank those who supported us this year. Except for a few injuries we did well, but we're disappointed because we could have done better. We plan to fix what needs fixed, and get ready for next year."

The 2003 Fighting Eagles closed out the season with a 5-4 record. The Eagles opened the season with a 61-0 rout of Mercyhurst Prep, only to lose two hard fought battles to Slippery Rock and Greenville in the following weeks. But the team rebounded and began a four game winning streak including the come from behind victory over Akron's St. Vincent/St. Mary's and the first victory over Sharon in 15 years. The season concluded with the eagles dropping their final two games to Hickory and Wilmington respectively. All in all, the boys did well, and the future continues to look bright.

"This was my most memorable XC season, and I'll swear it all over again. I hope next year's team remembers to get low when stretching. I will miss this team a lot after I leave on a jet plane" -Senior Nate Moore

The boys Cross Country team performed well in 2003, finishing off the season with a record of 7-2. They placed 4th at the Mercer County Championships and 11th at the District X Invitational. Despite crucial injuries to seniors D. Holmes and L. Wilson, sophomore T. Lilly, and freshman S. Moore, the team was able to record spreads of under one minute. Seniors J. Bollinger, B. Hensel, and D. Holmes, juniors N. Konchar and D. DeGraaf, and freshmen C. Baer and B. Ballantine rounded out the varsity squad for most of the year. The runners enjoyed their season confined in Memorial Park and expect to return a strong team for the 2004 season.

"This season was, by far, the best ever. The team bonded with the war games, suicide wings (Hensel), and hay mazes. I'm proud of the team's success through all the injuries"

Girls Swimming

The Grove City girls swim team went undefeated. They had an outstanding season. They were under the command of Coach Karen Wendelshafer, and their captain was Sophomore Sonja Jones. The team is only four years old and they are all ready having undefeated seasons. That's pretty awesome! Keep up the hard work girls.

Captain: Sonja Jones

It was a very fun season, we all worked very hard and it paid off. Nice job girls.

Elizabeth Kruck
It involved a lot of water.

Coach: Kearn Wendelshafer

Our girls worked hard this year, put in long hours at the pool but it paid off. I am proud of them and looking forward to next year.

This year both junior and senior girls put on a display that fans and family alike would approve of. To the junior's dismay, the senior team pulled out their second victory in as many years fueled by the superhuman display of football might by the Senior Team's Katie Sonntag. Katie rushed for 662 yards in two Powder Puff appearances and scored 46 points. In true Powder Puff tradition, Brenden Frisk was crowned Powder Puff King. As his reign will continue until next year's crowning, his announcing career will not. Mr. Frisk has served as the game's commentary for the past 4 years. Next year's game, similar to those that came before it, should be better than ever. With a promising Junior Class returning and a respect starved sophomore class upcoming, the fans should be happy to know they will continue receiving more than they paid for.

Even without a winning record the girls track and field season ended successfully. "The stats just don't give justice to all the hard work the girls did this season," said senior Rachel Littlefield. With bad weather conditions early on, it was hard to get the right training in, but it took more than freezing temperatures, wind, and lots of rain to stop them. The individual efforts from all of the girls were outstanding. Sophomore Kat Myer qualified for districts in the 100 and 200 along with freshman Helen Phipps who qualified in the 400 and freshman Jess Parson in the 1600 and 3200. The team also took a 4x4 and 4x8 relay team to the district meet.

Dear Michael, I first want to say that I love you and am so proud of the young man that you have become. What a gift God bestowed on us and everyone who knows you with the way in which you live your life. You are a shining example, so humble in so many ways, so kind and thoughtful. Your strong moral character is always right there with how you present yourself. Always listen to your heart and God will guide you as to where you need to be.

Love, Mom, Case, & Pat

Son, we all marvel at and thank God for the fine young man that you have become. The character traits which define you, loyalty, hard working, kind, humble in victory, gracious in defeat, a leader, persevering, unwavering in your ideals, and strong in your faith, will serve you well through college and beyond. Continue to be an example, a witness, and a friend to all you meet and through all that you do; then surely, the successes that matter most will be yours.

What a gift and a privilege it has been to be your family. May God bless you and keep you in whatever path you take. We love you always,

Dad, Mom, Chelsea, Abby, and Britton

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.

Maria,

"We are, each of us, sisters- born to laugh, and love, and dream." You've accomplished so much in your life already. I can just imagine what will be next. I can't begin to tell you how proud I am of you. Congrats! May you be successful in all that you do.

Love from your big sis, Te

My sweet Maria,

As this stage of your life comes to an end and you begin your journey into adulthood, I pause and reflect on what was and on what is to come. You have steadfastly adhered to your many convictions, and as Papa once called you his little "testa dura," that quality is an exceptional one.

Your beauty is not only seen on the outside, it hails from within you. Continue to be that kind and caring person you've always been. I'm going to miss you terribly as you begin your new life as a college student. I know that your daddy continues to look down and watch over you from above, and that he is smiling at your wondrous accomplishments.

Love you always, Mom

Dear Maria,

Thanks for being my big sister. You are awesome! I will miss you when you go away to college.

Exerpts from Nathan's journal

1/2/04- It's been a while since I've said anything profound or thought provoking, but there is one thing I would like to say. People often say "what's the point of living, if you're just going to die anyway?" I don't know how people can have an attitude like that, when they have been through so much in life. Even though they may not realize it, every trial they go through makes them stronger, and smarter. People that have this theory of "combustion" obviously have been through a whole lot of conflicts and hardships. This means that indirectly they are smarter, and don't really believe it. If they were asked to just die now...most of them would say no. This is because of the joy of living. Everyone is grateful for being alive, and wouldn't sacrifice it for anything. In essence, the point of living is to play the hand you are dealt, and just try your best, because very few things are infinite about life.

Jess Stephen Boozell, Class of '02
Nathan Andrew Boozell, Feb. 12, 1989- Feb. 12, 2004
John Paul Boozell, Class of '04

11/3/03- Don't think lowly of yourself. This can hinder your ability to do the best you can.
-Try not to make enemies out of your potential friends.
-Don't get caught up in things you can't change. Work towards realistic improvements.
-Everyone has something interesting to say, so let them speak.
-Concentrate on only positive things. Negative things will just slow you down.
-Make as many friends as possible. You will have fewer enemies.

Thanks for being more of a friend than I could have ever asked for. RACHEL-You don't even know. I will never forget your crazy phrases, how gullible you are, and all the good times. I know you'll kick butt whatever you do. If not, YOU'RE FIRED! KRISTEN-Strange convos at Nancy's, flat tire in Hermitage, bowling all by ourselves, Samsa's "Nooooooooo!" Katie Sonntag-Loni: We've been best friends for 7 years and counting. There have been many ups and a few downs, but remember that I'll love you forever, even with 2 hours between us. All of the dress shopping outings where I never fail to get lost, The River, boy advice and problems, tricking you into the 8th grade talent show, and calling each others mothers, Mom. We haven't fought throughout high school, amazing isn't it? Thank you for always being there for me and dropping everything you were doing to be with me when I needed you the most. I have a feeling that we won't lose touch with each other, no matter how many miles apart we are. Chad: How is it that you've stuck with me for so long? I haven't figured it out either. Remember throwing outside every Sunday, Six Flags, Scamp running out in front of your truck, Dances (Hey, can we go back and walk across the stage again?), "you are so dead, D-A-D, dead," teaching me to drive a standard, Christmas, endless gymnastics meets, the minor disagreements we get in (haha, the I-can-get-anything-I-want face, calling me whenever I get lost, fire calls, family get-togethers, 459, and many other things that I'm sure I missed. You have to best memory in the universe... when you want to. Haha. Thank you for being there for me. You're the best guy I could have asked for. Sara: Remember the horse back riding, Winter Weekend, Dances (Prom, Homecoming, and Winterfest), Bible Studies, escaping the "back way" in church, and Road Cone Bandits. I know you'll succeed in everything you do. Kristen: My lifting buddy! Think of the good times, like, jet skiing, softball, weight lifting, outfield with Ruley, "HEY, Field your POSITION!" Drivers Ed, Band camp, and Road Cone bandits, and catching (even though you hate it). Good luck with college and everything you do. Dan: I love you, even when you make me angry. Remember dragging the infield at home, climbing trees, the River, snowmobiling, Toby bridge, and all of the dumb ideas I came up with... that you actually had to go through with! Stick to your values, you've done well these past years, you're a respectable guy and everyone, especially me, is very proud of you. Nicole: Band camp, softball bus rides, 14 and under softball team, Dating in the same family, Baseball Stats Club, and cruising in the Blazer. Good luck with everything you do, I know you have everything you need to succeed. Beatty: BEATTY! What are you going to do without Kristen and me to harass you next year?? Remember Band Camp, Drumline, the Clinic for the Blind, and trying to beat me up in the hallways. Softball Girls: This is the best year for me because of the amount of fun we're all able to have as a team. "Chioppini stole the pepper shaker!!!!," The dog in the outfield at New Wilmington, Districts, the fire extinguisher, "Bring It!," Quaker Steak and Lube, Ruley and Denbow's pep talks, "If I offend you by saying this, I'm not sorry!" and many crazy bus rides. Thanks for making this year and all the other ones, memorable. Anyone I missed, I still love you, and thank you for making my senior year, and the other three, very fun-filled. There was never a dull moment!

Chelsey Messer: Mickie- We've had a lot of good times. Going to Marienville just cruising around with nothing much to do. You know I am the only reason that you passed Docs class (you need to get more sleep at night) We had a really great summer together thanks for all the good times I will remember them all!! Justine- Sorry you are stuck in school for another year!! But I already did my time. You're a sweet girl and I love you a lot. Thank you for being my maid of honor I know you will give the part a new meaning. STAY AWAY FROM BOYS!! Ha ha aren't I so sweet. Don't forget me after the wedding. We'll always have Subway (eat fresh) Karrie- You were always so good to me. You know I'm the cutest subway worker!! Don't worry about guys right now focus on your education. Then you can land a real hottie when you go to college one that's smart and makes a lot of money. I am so sorry your related to Dan. Have fun at all the family reunions. Danielle L- we've had our good times and our bad. But we always stuck together you were always a good friend and I hope you keep in touch with me over the years. If you ever need anything you can call anytime. Shannon S- What can I say have a nice 3 more years in high school. You poor poor girl you keep it up it will be another 10. call me some time.

Bethanie Yetso: Amy- A trip on Washington's Trail will never be the same without you Kelly #1- I'm really glad that we don't have to sit around at Y dances and watch the cool girls slow dance with boys any more... we were tomboys, oh well...personally I liked swimming in dirty ponds, scaring away evil dinosaurs...and building bridges. Good times making the TLC/ Paula Abdul dances, Wakkalb, "my friend cut her hand, it hurt her", thinking we actually had a voice like Celine Dion, burying time capsules, visiting Bear Mountain, being called infantile, buddy buddy, Indian givers and everything Amber called us during "Angels" as well as 124867 thousand other things that have happened. Watch out for flying tennis balls, Leesburg falls and those tricky glass doors (sometimes they look like they aren't even there). It's been a fun twelve years! "Make new friends, but keep the old, some are silver while the others gold." I heart you, BFFF haaha Danna- Buss buddy for life. So tell me... is it the whole Pepsi can, just the red part...or the blue part? Emily- If you ever get scared just remember you can always take your rosary beads and hide with them in your closet! Target shoppers forever. Never forget your 8th grade love...and mine too! Fun times in Erie...Take it to the house! Sled riding, final walk, Mr. Yates, abracadabra, Baby one more time, and our first Abercrombie shirts. It's been a good time! muhthh

John- You put theupid in stupid. Magazine sales, glittering 5 million things for prom, getting lost in Erie for 2 hours, and being Simpson champions was a blast. Remember one thing...snowflakes. Jill-Why don't you go take a chunk of the chill pill? Yea. That's what I thought! Kayla-Although we consider you to be Kelly #3...Kelly #1 and I will ALWAYS have more hearts stars and balloons than you. Marsters- I can't wait for the day that I marry Zac. Don't you worry...it will happen! Hanson Fans forever. Maloney-If you ever are in fear of being hit by a basketball you just call me up and I'll be more than happy to help you...You are a true football fan! Haah M Kittay-I have never started a fire in my life...until we were lab partners. Good times with the Bunsen burner and some paper towels. Rach- Two words: Travis and Jimmy. Our shrine, and every other crazy thing we did. The racer x boys, Malcolm, retard jimmy, fazolies, star gazing, 5 minute massages, book reading, selling t shirts,dreading football games, pro practice, Boo, the mall of America, rocky mountains, hit me baby one more time, magical banana pepper pizza, writing in out diaries, cherries, riding around the country, truck stops, "the beach is that way", the rider semi, n' saying sweet dreams every night. We've had some great summers! You are wonderful. "vroom vroom wooo vroom vroom woo!" Rywan Tod -Lemme know if you ever find that toothless sheep you've been looking for Sarah- Spanish Armada, Bathtub parties, and Beaver County. Enough Said Seth- Good times in lunch although you've probably said more than any one of us ever wanted to hear. Have fun...rub a dub dub... Uber-I don't know where I would be if I didn't have you to help me study for Chemistry all the time! I'll be looking forward to see you playing football some day on TV! Anti Foo Foo Clubers- Basketball Cheerleading forever Brandon- go fish and chicken wings forever

Brenden Frisk: All - Every high school student comes to the point in their career where they arrive at the same understanding that hundreds before, and hundreds to come, have arrived at: "You'll miss it when it's gone, but it can't end fast enough." cherish the moments as they come, because they are supposed to be the best times of our lives? Brando- What can I say that hasn't been said? Not every chair inflates, not every story told has something to do with Airsoft, and who know that ENP cuts you off after the 16th cup? Thank you for backing me up, now, then, and tomorrow. You're what I always thought a Best Friend should be Kriz- You're in the same boat with Brando, there isn't much that hasn't happened. Very few times in life do you get to see a person drive head on into a solid support beam, calls in the wee hours of the night asking me about things only I know so much about, and advice, given, taken, and just not taken at all. Thank You, for everything. For the two of you, one word, Pegasus. Carlie- No one knows the road before it is traveled, no one can contest to the bumps, curves, and wrong turns that lie out somewhere before you in the unknown. Thank You for sharing those with me. I will treasure the stories that can't be told, forget those stories that everyone loves to remember, and stash away the rest for a rainy day. Very few people can be so many things to one person, a friend, a significant other, an equal... I love you, always. Yearbook- Good times: quarters, locking people in closets, ceiling tiles, Mr. A's birthday, poor equipment, expensive book, the songs that will last a life time, friendships and double page spreads, nazi editors we don't talk about, and a bagful of memories that continue to build the legacy that is yearbook. Thanx for those times, remember, some things never change... Random- Is there another card game besides presidents? Who uses the passbooks? What day this month will the computer lab be open? Why are the lockers green, AC, or cool toilets...? Oh, the toss up..., guidance... need not say more, Flip flops, bad... Fish Nets, good..., why do the windows open but not open?, Finally, star base, what a beautiful program, only if it worked.
