FOREWORD

With each day filled to capacity with classes and activities, we seldom stop to realize that these years spent at GCHS are four of the best of our lives and will always be remembered. It is with that in mind that we present this lasting record of our school days.

Remember in the Fall when you promised yourself you would do things right this year? Soon you got into the swing of things with football games, Homecoming, assemblies, school breakfasts, and dances after the games. You made new friends, learned new things, and prepared for winter activities.

Christmas came and with that the Junior Class Play, Mrs. McThing, the finally gotten jukebox, the snowfights, basketball games, wrestling matches, wet feet and colds. There was the annual magazine sale with the Juniors trying desperately to sell their quota, the semester changes, and everyone guessing who would be Winter Festival Queen.

There is something special at the coming of spring with its green grass, soft rains, roaring winds, and warm days. In your memories there should be a place for, Arsenic and Old Lace, track meets and golf matches, the PINE KNOT & GROVER STAR, serious faces at Graduation, and finally that last day of school. Past are all the days full of dates, cramming for tests, gulping down lunches, getting to class on time, selling candy, and sitting in the student lounge. With this book we hope you can relive the year of 1973 again and again.

ACTIVITIES

There are many other things to experience in high school besides classes. Through school activities I have developed my social life more fully. I have learned to express my own thoughts and above all just to be myself.

Sue McCoy, Assistant Editor; Ellen Urey, PINE KNOT Editor

Tracy Brown; Assistant Editors Belinda Webster and Linda Fisher

Co-Editors of GROVER STAR—Kathy Alberth and Amy Hodgson

PINE KNOT

Voices of a school, a variety of many sounds, are blended into distinct patterns and tones. The time spent on the PINE KNOT is a world of creativity, of facts, of inspiration, and of plain hard work. Time and individuals must be sacrificially involved to make them worthwhile. This PINE KNOT reflects the spirit of GCHS; its uniqueness caught in words and pictures.

GROVER STAFF

Hours of hard work go into the production of our school newspaper, the GROVER STAR. In spite of an overflowing wastebasket, lack of material, or to much, fighting deadlines, and last minute changes, the GROVER STAR comes out. For the staff there is little time for self congratulations for the next issue must be planned. The GROVER STAR presents an image of our school, a commentary by and for the students.

In preparation for football season, majorettes were busy with washes at the drive-in, street fair, baton clinics, and band camp. They varied numbers by using canes for "The Candy Man," pompons for "Do You Know the Way to San Jose," hoops for "Amen," gloves for "Make Me Smile," sparkle and fire batons for "I Don't Know How to Love Him, and flags for "The Godfather Theme". But maybe majorettes can be remembered for something more than their Friday night performances—maybe for the fun they have had in working to make Grove City High School the best.

"Let's go Eagles, we're right behind you," is the cry of the cheerleaders. These girls devote unlimited time practicing throughout the summer vacation and through the year. They decorate for homecoming, football banquet, and the all sports banquet. Creatively they think of skits and new cheers to present to the student body during pep assemblies. But most important—they're right behind the Eagles.

GROVERS WIND UP SEASON WITH THREE WINS TEN LOSSES

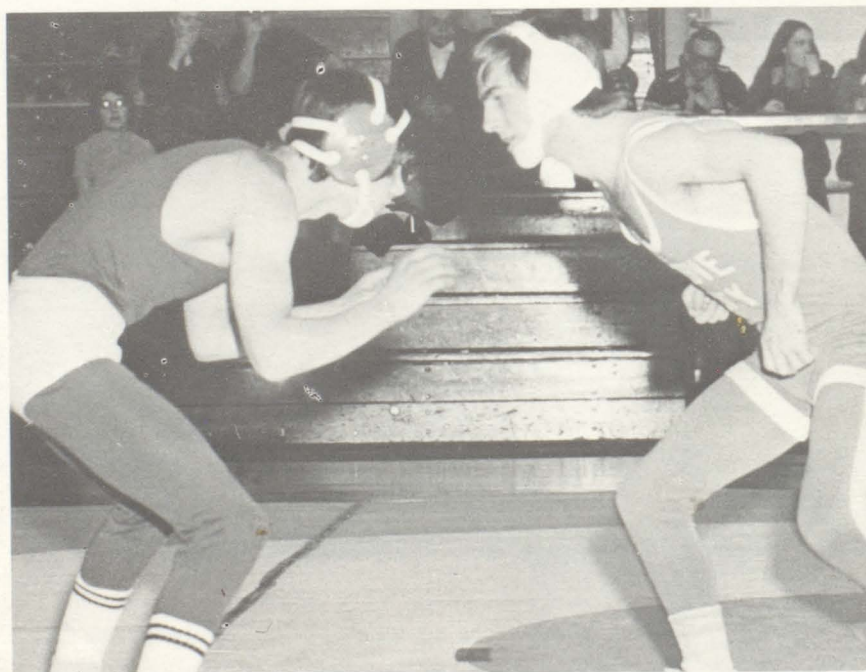

Under new head coach Robert Fehrs and assistant coach James Poole, the Gold and White Grapplers suffered their first losing season since 1970.

Special recognition goes to the senior wrestlers. Dennis O'Neil ended his season with a 6-5-1 match, Jim McCarl 1-4-0. Captain Jeff Bell ended his high school career with a 6-6-0 record. Dan Matuska turned in a 0-8-0 total, John Uber wound up his season with a 6-4-0 total.

1973 proved to be a disappointing year in many ways for the Grover Grapplers, but next year should be better. The team as a whole lacked depth and that little something extra that makes a team a winner; maybe next year that "something extra" will be back at GCHS.

Grovers wrestled 169 matches as a team, with 55 wins, 144 losses, and 1 draw.
