Dedication

MISS GENEVIEVE McMULLEN

Grove City High School indeed lost a valued friend and teacher, one who was loved by all—student and teacher alike—when Miss Genevieve McMullen passed away suddenly, January 5, while vacationing in California.

Miss McMullen, with her guidance and constant companionship, served as an inspiration for those students who were fortunate enough to be taught by her.

In 1923, Miss McMullen joined the teaching staff of the high school and taught French, English and Spanish, and sponsored a French and a Spanish Club.

Shortly prior to her death, she had resumed teaching at the high school after a leave of absence of 18 months, due to a heart condition.

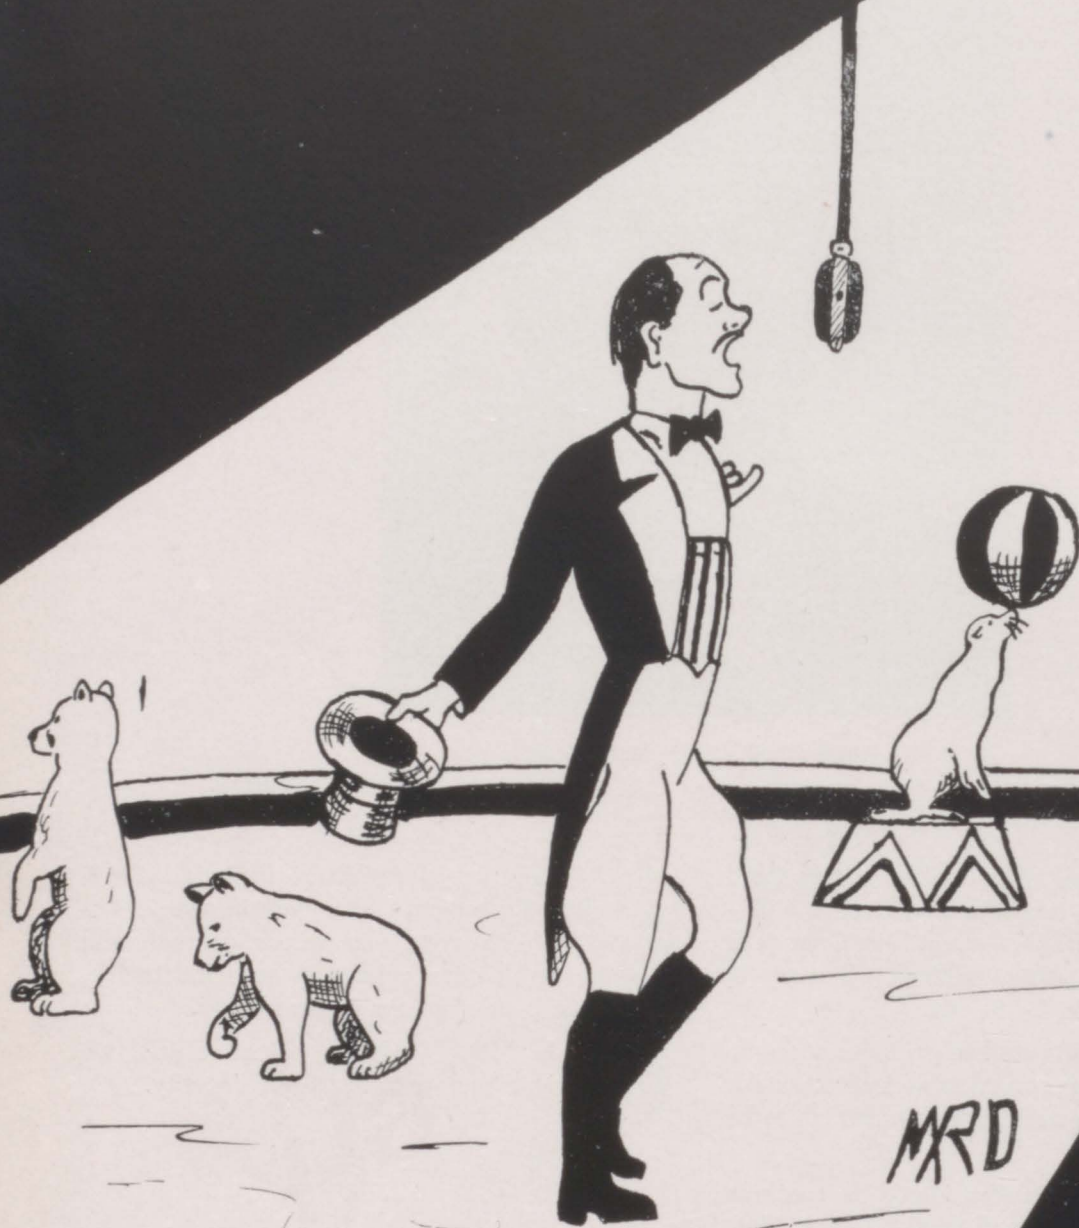

Not long may last the memory of this volume, but the memory of a woman whose sincerity and kindness, one whose courage and valiance, which was evident in her fight for life, will be imbedded in our minds forever.

So, to Miss McMullen, friend of all, we dedicate this book with heart-felt sincerity.

*"Fading away like the stars of the morning,
Losing their light in the glow of the sun,
Thus would we pass from the earth
And its toiling
Only remembered by what we have done."*

RINGMASTERS

Administration

THIS year when we came to school, we found new faces in the two G. C. H. S. offices. Mr. H. J. Surrena was elected principal succeeding Mr. G. H. Crowther, and Dr. J. Nelson Mowls was chosen Superintendent of Schools succeeding Dr. H. W. Traister.

These two men have done wonders in their new offices and we, the class of "47", wish them all the luck in the world in guiding our "alma mater" through the following years.

We also saw some new faces this year in our teaching staff. These teachers soon caught the feeling of the kind of school life we have in G. C. H. S. and joined right in with our old stand-bys in waving the "hickory stick" at the little angels of our dear old school. We wish to thank our teachers for all they have done for us the past years, and know we will look back in the future and be grateful for this.

Goals for the New Day

Dr. J. Nelson Mowls
Superintendent

Your superintendent is grateful to the Pine Knot Staff and the faculty sponsor for this privilege of presenting a few new goals for Grove City High School. In keeping with your chosen theme, "The Circus", the following goals may be considered "new rings" in your menagerie.

As your school aims to meet the needs of the new day, greater stress should be placed on certain subjects and courses.

Because of the vital importance of these courses, many more juniors and seniors should elect French, Spanish, trigonometry, solid geometry, and advanced algebra.

Since it is of paramount importance to foster the highest type of citizenship during the high school experience, all senior students should complete at least one unit of problems of democracy.

Mrs. Betty Hummel

In order to comply with the requirements of the State Department, all ninth grade pupils should enroll for at least one period of art and one period of music each week.

Because of the immeasurable vocational importance of these subjects, courses in junior business training, clothing, automobile mechanics, and vocational agriculture should be offered.

To develop strong bodies and to improve the general health of the students, greater stress should be placed on dental service, physical education, and health instruction. To reach this goal, new lockers and other essential equipment must be provided. In this connection, greater respect for school property should be fostered.

In order to encourage the fine arts and to prepare the students to become socially efficient, greater stress should be placed on debate, forensic, and music contests.

To place the proper emphasis on character, scholarship, leadership, and service, a local chapter of the National Honor Society should be established.

Finally, in order that the graduates may receive the proper recognition by the colleges of the land, Grove City High School should be placed on the accredited list of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

If these "new rings" can be added to "The Circus", the students of this school will be prepared to live more abundant lives.

J. Nelson Mowls

Mr. Harland J. Surrena
Principal

In the Community

As graduation time approaches, your Staff has requested a few words from the Principal. As I have observed the Grover Star and Pine Knot Staffs at work I am certain this publication merits our congratulations.

This book will serve as a reminder of our classmates, activities, and school life throughout years to follow.

The pages of the Pine Knot give testimony to everyone that practice in schools is planned to promote the development of the capacities of the pupils to appreciate beauty in literature, art, music, and nature

A most gratifying change in social attitude toward our schools appears to be taking place. Big business, for instance, seems to be realizing that our schools are the creative agencies of our social life. We no longer feel that it is ridiculous or visionary to think of our school in connection with social reconstruction, preserving democracy, or making the world safe against revolution, intolerance, and atomic destruction. In other words, we have come to believe in our schools and this assures schools and teachers a great future.

Congratulations to the class of 1947 for your democratic ideals, your cooperative spirit, your good character, your fine record and your social living that has done much to receive the high esteem of your faculty and your community.

Your helpfulness, cooperation and loyalty have been greatly appreciated by me.

Harland J. Surrena

Board of Education

*I*O have a safe and successful circus we must have a main prop.

The main prop of our school life is our school board.

This fine group of men from our community meets the first Monday of each month to discuss finances, supplies, buildings, grounds, and curriculum of the school.

These men donate their time so that the high standing of our schools is preserved among the best schools of Pennsylvania.

We, the editors of the yearbook, wish to say "thanks" for the hard work and effort these men have put forth in our behalf, during our four years in G. C. H. S.

Second row—Mr. P. N. Carpenter, Mr. A. M. Winder, Mr. H. G. Cunningham.

Third row—Mr. N. S. Crill, Mr. F. H. Elliott, Mr. Floyd McClymonds.

It's Not All Play

1. They learn by experience.    2. Caesar conquers all!    3. Watch it, that's tough work!
4. Our Little busy-bodies.    5. A funny book might be better.    6. Loafing? No, just resting.
7. Live and learn.

SLACK WIRE

ARTISTS

ONCE again another group prepares to leave Grove City High School. The Seniors will miss the joys, thrills, excitements, and the work that have been theirs. For four years they have been a vital part of the school and have derived the benefits of both contributing and receiving. Their efforts toward making our school a better one have been appreciated and should be considered as a measure of extreme satisfaction. May they always have the same courage, enthusiasm, and industry which they have manifested in G. C. H. S.

The Juniors have completed three-fourths of their high school life. They predict a bright future for themselves as seniors with great expectations for success and little fear of failure in the light of past history.

Two down and two to go! The Sophomores have become well acquainted with the ways of the high school world, and have contributed generously from their talents and abilities toward all things that are worthwhile to school life.

The Freshmen have just started up the ladder of high school life. They have worked hard to make this year a success for they know that an active freshman class means a good program for future years in school.

Class Alphabet

A—is for Lillian Adams who shows that she's keen,
When she's playing on the basketball team.

B—is for Brocken, "Mary" for short,
She is a girl of a lovable sort.

C—is for Caponi, Helen we mean;
That she is happy is plain to be seen.

D—is for DeMarsh, we all like LaVonne;
The up and up she is always on.

E—is for Elliott, Betty Lou the rest;
When she's with "Buck" she's at her best.

F—is for Forker, our coach of course;
Gene has led us with a courageous force.

G—is for Gray, Pauline so sweet;
Her smile is the kind that's hard to be beat.

H—is for Hassel, a friendly young lass;
Her friendship means much to this senior class.

I—is for Ifft, a jolly young man;
Bob's always willing to help, if he can.

J—is for Jones, Bob so small;
Whom some day we'd like to see tall.

K—is for Kreidle, we all like John;
Because he's so gentle and likewise so calm.

L—is for Louise Coulter, so demure;
That she is well liked we're all sure.

M—is for Macom, Dick's the one;
Whose laughter causes merriment and fun.

N—is for Nagel, Wilma so fair;
She and Janet Pearce are a friendly pair.

O—is for Orr, Emmett whose way
Is good, happy and gay.

P—is for Porkolab, Agnes, whose smile
Is pleasing to us and always worth while.

Q—is for Quiet, that's what we try to be;
Just go to the auditorium and this you will see.

R—is for Robertson, Mike, our sports writer, you can bet;
He worked and sighed until the Star's Sports were all set.

S—is for Shellito, Shirley's a friend;
The kind on whom you can always depend.

T—is for Teachers, whom we all know well;
There are a lot of nice things about them to tell.

U—is for Us, this senior class;
From these friendly halls we do hate to pass.

V—is for Virginia Eakin, a girl full of fun;
Who always keeps your blues on the run.

W—is for Widing, Janet her name;
Her typing has brought her fame.

X—is for those who are not included;
They are not forgotten, even though eluded.

Y—is for you, your love for G. C. High;
Her memory is dear and we leave with a sigh.

Z—is for Zero, a mark so petite;
It is one we do not like to meet.

Can You Imagine

Jay Barnes six feet tall?
Gordon Atkinson saying, "I don't know?"
A football game without "Spotty" the dog?
Sue Griffith with long hair?
Jack Jordan without a sense of humor?
Dale Craft without his freckles?
Curly Wright with a mustache?
Benny Brown without his horn?
Nancy Linnen with straight hair?
Ellen Nimaroff not talking to somebody?
Sally Adams being a wall flower?
Bob Paxton doing what he's told?
Gayle Jordan without a joke?
Dick Jones with his Latin done?
Donna McClellan at school?
Mary Grace Sloan with black hair?

Side Show

WHAT day is this? Why this is Wednesday. It's club day. We have Literary Club today. Or is it Pine Knot?

Learning to work and co-operate with one another is a prominent task in the clubs of our school. Clubs give the students an opportunity to develop themselves in the characteristics of a well-rounded life.

The mental, physical, and spiritual training comes naturally with the programs that are presented.

Game and sports, along with Bible study and guest speakers, make the clubs an outstanding part of our school life.

These organizations will teach us to accept individual responsibilities and carry them through to the best of our respective abilities in the future.

LITERARY CLUB—This year Literary Club got off to a flying start by celebrating Christmas in October. Old St. Nick came as a surprise bringing presents for each member. This party was one of the many events which typifies Literary Club and makes it a club of fun and laughter. At Christmas time in December the club went caroling and then got warmed up at a supper at a local restaurant.

As an annual event, Literary Club honors its senior members at graduation with a party. Literary Club also sponsors the Farewell Dance each spring and Sadie Hawkins Week ending with a dance.

Under the able leadership of Miss Anna Belle Hamilton, the club tries to improve its literary tastes. At its meetings, time is devoted to book reviews, skits, and impromptues.

New members this year were required to give an oral short story review and a joke combining intellect and humor. Usually only freshman may enter, but occasionally sophomore, junior, and senior vacancies may be filled.

THE ART CLUB—There are thirty-three members in the Art Club this year. They meet on alternate Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 8:30 in the Physics Lab, under the leadership of Mr. Robert Hill.

The purpose of the club is to promote interest in the art of drawing, painting, and sketching, as well as in social activities. Two of these were the Christmas Dance and the trip to Pittsburgh in February, to visit an Art Exhibit at Carnegie Art Institute.

Through the year the Art Club was called upon many times to make posters for school activities. At Thanksgiving they made posters for the Youth Center; during National Education Week an Art Exhibit was placed in the window of Sloan and Bailey's hardware store; at the beginning of the year several projects were entered in an art exhibit at New Castle.

In April there was an exhibit in the high school representing grade and high school work for the past years, during which time there were no exhibits. There were also photographs of the grade school children at their work. It has thus been one of the most active clubs in the school.

Star Music Entertainers

*B*OYS' CHORUS—If you should happen to walk by the band room during the 11:10 period and hear some hair raising noises, just relax; it's only the tenors reaching for some high notes. Boys' Chorus, which is made up of fellows who enjoy singing, meets that period. Of course there are no Sinatras or Crosbys but when the members get together, they really sound like a male chorus.

This year the chorus is again under the direction of Mr. B. F. Marshall, who recently has returned from the service. Mr. Marshall has won favor with the boys by his patience and good direction.

The only requirements of the chorus are an ability to read music and a reasonable singing voice. The music for the chorus is of good quality and not hard to read.

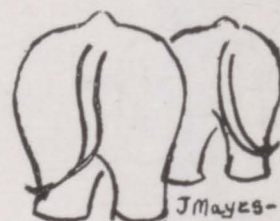

Again this year the Boys' Chorus has a large membership. In the past few years the chorus has attracted a large number of boys who like to sing.

The program for this year's chorus is quite complete. Members participated in the annual Christmas Concert. In this Concert the Boys' Chorus sang with the Girls' Chorus, and also had a few numbers of their own. Every Christmas the members take their best girl friends caroling. Each year a few fellows are selected to attend the Midwestern Chorus. This is quite an event for the ones selected.

Parade Leaders

HIGH SCHOOL BAND—"The men will cheer, the boys will shout . . ."

. . . As the High School Band passes in parade. Gleaming gold coats . . . black trousers . . . plumes dancing merrily in the breeze . . . the sound of drums . . . a lively march . . . that's Grove City High School's Band.

They really look "sharp" in their new uniforms, for which they have strived for several years. With the support of the community, it was possible to get them.

The band is again under the baton of Ben F. Marshall after a military leave-of-absence. Mr. Marshall served three years in the United States Navy and upon being discharged, resumed his former position as director.

Home football games were preceded by a parade through town, and at halftime the band performed drills, column and squad movements, and other marching formations.

Due to the large number in the band this year and the inadequate space in the orchestra pit, the 70 members were divided into the "Gold" and the "White" bands which played alternately at home basketball games.

This year Genette Brocken, clarinet; John Kreidle, trombone; Carl Barber, French Horn; Edwina Burton, bassoon; and Benedict Brown, cornet, were selected to represent Grove City High School in the Mid-Western band held at Greenville February 13-14-15, which consists of musicians from high schools in Mid-Western Pennsylvania.

DRAMATIC CLUB—The aim of the Dramatic Club is to bring out and develop the dramatic talent in each member. This is done by having the members present plays, monologues, pantomimes and other dramatic productions, both in club meetings and in chapels. The new sponsor of the club this year is Miss Jean McCoy, who took over Miss Maud Jamison's duties.

New members are taken into Dramatic Club at the beginning of each new semester. This year, as in the previous two years of the club, those students who wish to become members gave a reading, monologue, or short skit before the Membership Committee. These new members then gave a party for the old members and were duly initiated.

As you would imagine from its name, the Dramatic Club has to do chiefly with dramatic productions of all kinds. Committees were sent to all the College plays, and each person on the committee gave his opinion and criticism of the play. Also, in the club periods short plays are often given, and such things as make-up, lighting, and direction of productions are discussed.

The activities of the club make the members of both the club and the school more conscious of the value of the study of drama.

*J*UNIOR SCIENCE CLUB—Junior Science Club of 1946 and 1947 had 39 members. At chapel period on November 5, the club sponsored an illustrated lecture on astronomy by Dr. Ralph Waldron of Slippery Rock State Teachers College. The club sold tickets for the Senior Play, "Seven Sisters" and went over the top by selling 475 tickets for the school.

The club purchased Audubon bird records and built an electrical chart for identification of various trees, birds, and animals. Experiments, movies, projects and special speakers made the programs varied and interesting. Among social events the Science Club participated in were the school carnival and its annual picnic at Grove City Park.

Music Makers

ORCHESTRA—The orchestra of Grove City High School is made up of twenty-two members under the direction of Miss Selkirk Burgess. The orchestra plays for such things as the Senior Play and the Operetta. Although few in number, the eagerness and ability to work together makes up for the lack in number. Members of the orchestra are trying to build it up so that in later years we will have a bigger and better orchestra, as there has been in past years.

The following people are members: First violin—Jane Bishop, Joyce Carson, Miriam Shellito, Marilyn Glessner, Rebecca Gregg, and Alma

Lee Ray. Second violin—Peggy Bettinger, Roma Vincent, Janet Peden, and Marjorie Ritchey. Viola—Mary Webster. Cello—Jane McMichael. String bass—Ward Williamson. Flute—Carolyn Shellito and Marilyn Shellito. Oboe—Rebecca Ritchey. Bassoon—Edwina Burton. Clarinet—Genette Brocken, Richard Macom, and Roger Clark. Trumpet—Benedict Brown. Piano—William Knause.

GIRLS' ENSEMBLE—It is 3:30 on any Friday afternoon. The dismissal gong has just rung and most students have eagerly rushed out of the school. If you happen to be near Room 18 you notice twelve girls who have not left, but are starting a practice which will last an hour or more. These girls are members of Girls' Ensemble, a group made up of five first sopranos, four second sopranos, and three altos.

The girls, identically dressed in their long, white gowns, are kept busy singing in chapel, at different churches, for community organizations, and for the Christmas Concert. They all work hard to achieve the perfection of former Ensembles. However, they give all credit to their director, Miss Selkirk Burgess.

Because there are only twelve girls in Ensemble, the qualifications for membership are rather strict. First, a member of Ensemble must also be a member of Girls' Chorus; second, her voice must blend with the voices of the remaining members of last year's Ensemble; third, she must have a fine, upright character.

At the beginning of each school term, new girls are chosen to take the places of the girls who graduated the year before. They must have the necessary qualifications before their names are submitted by the remaining members. These girls are usually sophomores or juniors.

It has always been the tradition to have a better Ensemble each year and this will probably be the tradition for many more years.

FRESHMAN TRI-HI-Y—The Tri-Hi-Y is a state organization, striving to fulfill the purpose of our club, which is "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The club colors are red, white, and blue and symbolize "Sacrifice, Purity, and Loyalty." They are exemplified in the Triangle, Torch, and Circle.

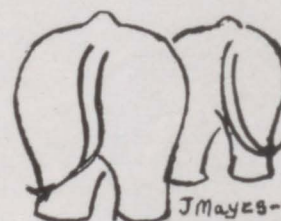

The object of the club is to have every girl accept the purpose of the club, and to be helpful to others in the school, home, and community.

Tri-Hi-Y has different committees to help with the activities throughout the year.

Tri-Hi-Y is a very interesting club to belong to while in high school. Some events continue all year, such as Tri-Hi-Y training camps, district rallies, state bible study and state Tri-Hi-Y council.

SOPHOMORE TRI-HI-Y—Having as our purpose “To create, maintain and extend higher standards of Christian fellowships throughout the school and community”, we, with our sponsor Miss Thelma Smith, join together in forming the sophomore group of Tri-Hi-Y.

During the past year we have strived to make the club really mean something to its members. We had an “Initiation Party” for the freshmen, making them official members of Tri-Hi-Y.

Then there was the scavenger hunt, where the Sophomore Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y went together. And we also had a booth at the fall carnival.

Along with our social affairs, parties, and fun, we keep in mind that we are part of a state-wide Christian organization and try to live up to this fact.

At our meetings held in Room 14, after our formal opening, we had entertainment of different kinds which we all enjoyed. To be better organized we had committees appointed, who took charge of special events.

We are hoping that when we leave, there will be many girls coming in. We are sure they will all find it a wonderful organization.

THE GROVER STAR—This year's Grover Star staff is one of the smallest in the history of the paper and deserves credit for the fine work it has done in making the Star, "The voice of the student."

William Knause, the Editor-in-Chief, and Earl Richards, Managing Editor, with the advice of E. B. Elder, the Star's supervisor, assign stories and beats for coverage by the staff, arrange the page make-up, and are responsible for the publication of the paper.

On the Business Staff, Stanley Rostas, the Business Manager, and Allen Wright, Advertising Manager, have the financial part of publishing the paper. Richard Macom is the Circulation Manager and is in charge of the distribution of the Star.

We don't know how, but they do it! We mean the Society (?) Editors, Jeanne Thompson and Virginia Arblaster. From "The Observation Tower" on a clear day they can even see what's going on at the Youth Center!

In the Athletic Department this year are the Sports Editors, Robert Jones and Michael Robertson. Mike and Bob, besides covering football and basketball games, commented on different sporting events in their columns, "Long Shots" and "Sports Slants."

Janet Pearce, Feature Editor, specialized in wit and humor and wrote such features as, "Will Men Replace Women in the Home," "Vote for G. C. High," and "Freshmen are Amusing."

Keeping up with the latest styles in her column, "Teen Togs," is Rosemarie Gregory, the Fashion Editor; Phyllis Gililand, the Exchange Editor, keeps us informed on what other schools are doing.

Two features used this year are "Colonel's Club Corner," edited by William Miller, and "All Outdoors" by John Watso. "Coot" specializes in his two great loves—hunting and fishing.

Each issue a different member of the staff serves as special news editor. This gives an opportunity for each member to experience the responsibility of that position.

"Seven Sisters"

A Hungarian comedy in three acts was presented November 8, as the senior class's annual production. Gayle Jordan and Dick Jones were chosen to play the leads with a supporting cast of twelve members.

The plot centers around the poor Gyurkovics family and the devilish fourth sister, Mitzi, who was expelled from a convent for misbehavior, and who recently has fallen in love with Lieutenant Horkoy. Before she can marry, the oldest sister must be married off. The play centers around getting the sisters married off, a promise which Lieutenant Horkoy made to Mitzi. In return she has promised him three kisses, which he collects at the end of the play.

Love letters hidden in the vase on the mantel, a jealous lover, little white lies, eternal love triangles, soldiers hiding in the pantry and under the family washing, the antics of Janko, and the arrival of the real Toni Teleki tend to complicate the plot and build the play up to its dramatic climax in which Mitzi's three older sisters are all married and Lieutenant Horkoy gets Mitzi and his debt of three kisses.

The play was directed by Miss Jean McCoy and Miss Janice Crawford, assisted by the following: Prompter, Frances Campbell; costumes, Evelyn Sopher and Geraldine Knauff; properties, Sue Griffith and Lois Joan Stuck; publicity, Wilma Waren, Marilyn Glessner, Anna Louise Uber, Theresa Ziccardi, Esther Kalajainen, and Priscilla Goff; lights, Dale Sloan; stage crew, Ward Williamson, James Rice, Dave Stevenson, and Bob Ifft.

Standing—Edmund Thompson, Marie Crill, Emmett Orr, Edward Dresh, Polly Spears, Franchard Christie, Marjorie Woods, Louise Coulter, Robert McClymonds.

Choristers

GIRLS' CHORUS—Girls' Chorus meets the fourth period every day except Wednesday, and sings everything from spirituals to lullabys. It is under the direction of Miss Patricia White, a former member of the chorus and ensemble.

Girls' Chorus took part in the Christmas concert and sang for numerous programs. This year the Chorus appeared several times in the Tuesday chapel programs. The members liked singing with the Boys' Chorus.

Fourth Row—Miss White, Nancy Linnen, Evelyn Darcangelo, Shirley Gilliland, Louise Coulter, Norma Batley, Geraldine Knauff, Polly Spears, Frances Campbell, Grace Ormond, Lillian Adams, Gayle Jordon, Treysur Clark, Susan Schaffer, Marjorie Woods, Nancy Kelly.

This year there were about sixty members in the Chorus. A girl must have a voice of pleasing quality, be able to read music, and try out before Miss S. Burgess. The girls must be dependable and are not excused from any special practice unless it is due to sickness or death in the family.

The executives for the year were:

Secretaries—Lois Joan Stuck, Nancy Harry, and Mary Webster.

Librarians—Frances Campbell and Sara Adams.

Sisters of the Big Top

SENIOR TRI-HI-Y—Yes, everyone of these girls stand for self-improvement, Christian fellowship, and pure actions because they have joined the Senior Tri-Hi-Y. They are always striving to seek, to find, and to share.

It's said that all work and no play makes Jill a dull girl. These girls will never be dull. They can really buckle down to hard work, but when it is done, they throw themselves just as wholeheartedly into fun, as evidenced by the Get Acquainted party held at the first of the year so that all the members could get better acquainted.

At each meeting, held in Room 11, there are stunts or guest speakers. The club isn't just an indoor affair, either. What about the winter picnic and the caroling done at Christmas time?

 First Row—Ellen Nimaroff, Mary Villella, Nancy Fryman, Virginia Matuszewski, Joan Bestwick, Virginia Eakin, Hilda Shaw, Ruth Warner, Irene McCann, Geraldine Jones, Helen Caponi.
 Second Row—Violet Sicilian, Dorothy Sepik, Virginia Arblaster, Donna Wherry, Roberta Uber, Shirley Kerr, June Davis, Shirley Reiser, Marilyn Amberson, Lois Beatty, Gertrude Sankey.
 Fourth Row—Betty Uber, Marilyn Hilliard, Priscilla Goff, Dorothy Snyder, Nora Martin, Donna Winger, Edith Buccini, Miss Waterman.

The meetings are conducted formally. First the devotions are read. This part of the meeting is planned ahead by the chairman of the Devotions Committee. Then, of course, comes the business end of the meeting. The secretary reads the minutes and calls the roll, the president brings up the old and new business, and the speaker is introduced or the Program committee chairman introduces a new game. Too soon the bell rings, and the meeting is adjourned until the next "Group B clubs" meet.

Back Stage Bulletins

*J*UNIOR STAR STAFF—Members of the Junior Star staff spent most of their time this year learning how to perform the jobs that they will hold next year when they will put out the "Star".

The first semester was spent studying different types of literature such as poetry, essays, and autobiographies, this being required. Then in the second semester they really got into journalism. On each department of the text, which has 17, they spent one week, studying in three steps—first reading the text, next reading examples in newspapers, and last writing their own. The last week of the year was spent editing the last issue of the "Grover Star" which is done to give them a preview of their work for next year.

Journalism is a popular subject in the high school because it gives the students a chance to "learn by doing." It gives him (or her for quite a few girls take journalism) a chance to get out and mix with people which gives him poise and confidence, and also teaches him to write better and more accurately.

Interest in journalism has grown by leaps and bounds in the last fifteen years and now more than twenty-four thousand schools publish papers, so journalism must have something interesting in it. Although very few high school journalism students will ever make journalism their profession, they take journalism because they learn useful things, have a lot of fun, and give news and interesting information to their fellow students.

STUDENT COUNCIL—Ever hear of self-government? Why, sure! Well, that's where the Student Council comes into your school life. The members of Student Council are the fellow classmates whom you elected to help govern your school. Maybe you forgot all about them after the election was over, but once they started to work, you couldn't overlook them very long.

It's their job to find out just what the student body wants and help solve the problems. But that's not all they do. The annual carnival is also sponsored by Student Council. The carnival has a two-fold purpose. First, it helps everyone to get acquainted and have a grand time together, and second, it gives the clubs a chance to earn some money for a fresh start in the new school year.

This year the Council has welcomed Mr. Surrena to his new post as principal and their advisor. They've also helped in the chapel programs, hall-duty, and lots of other ways.

SENIOR SCIENCE CLUB—Today we see around us the ever-growing need of science because every phase of our life seems to hinge upon one of its teachings. From the time it was first founded, the Science Club has steadily grown until it has become one of the leading organizations in our school. Its purpose is to cultivate and create our scientific interests.

During the past year it has contributed stage crews for many of our school productions. The club also purchased a new projector for the school out of their own funds. Also it has provided good entertainment for the students by showing movies in chapel.

For some of its members, the Science Club has created an interest in the motion picture field. Everyone in the club has a chance to operate the projector, and a few have even become licensed operators of standard machines after they have obtained the required experience.

The club meets every other Wednesday in Room 22. Club sponsors are Mr. S. A. Bowers and Mr. John Turner. The program for each week is taken care of by two students previously chosen, which gives everyone a chance to help participate in club affairs.

This year the Science Club is composed of boys, but is open to all students of the junior and senior classes who have sufficient grades to meet the necessary requirements.

Live Wire Performers

ATHLETIC COUNCIL—is an organization consisting of girls who are outstanding in athletics. Under the leadership of Miss Margaret Hummel, these girls have proven a success.

Athletic Council aims to promote health, sportsmanship, and loyalty among the students, and to create a more active interest in the various girls' sports.

This club brings about the spirit of unity. Last year the girls had formed basketball and volleyball teams, in order to play invitation teams. They sponsored the Thanksgiving Dance, conducted the Homecoming Day elections and helped to make it successful. Last year at the half of the Homecoming game, the girls entertained the audience by playing a mock football game.

The incoming members of the club must have an average of at least C in gym class, and a minimum of thirty-five points.

Each year new rules have been added as their need was discovered, and have proven highly workable and beneficial.

Through the co-operation of the students and officers, a successful year has been completed and the aims of the club forwarded.

Scribblers of the Act

THE PINE KNOT—Step right up, ladies and gentlemen, and see the greatest little show on earth. We have in person today the people who made this show possible—the Pine Knot Staff.

The first ring of our seven ring circus includes our editor, Ward Williamson, and the associate editor, Evelyn Sopher. They are the ones who are responsible for the introduction and the layout of our book. Working with them and the rest of the staff is our advisor, Mr. E. B. Elder, with his long whip and curling black mustache, keeping our noses to the grindstone.

From there we step over to the second ring and here we see our senior class editors, Marie Crill, Joyce Carson, and Jo Anne Mayes, behind bars. Gracious! That must have been from making sure all the senior proofs were turned in on time.

Move a little to the right and there we have our third ring, the features. Isn't that Mona Lee Miles and Louise Coulter in clown outfits? They worked so hard thinking of clever things to say in the feature section and clever poses for pictures that they still think they're funny. Haywire, you know.

From here we go to the fourth ring. This is where the juggling, tightrope artists and all other activities that have to do with sports. If you look carefully you can see B. J. McClymonds, Ken Stevenson, and Meade D'Amore hanging on one of those trapezes.

Turn to your left and we come upon the fifth ring. There are the club editors, Margaret Filer, and Norma Crawford. Their animal training act is quite good, isn't it? They worked hard identifying all the clubs and their members.

Next to ring five is number six which contains our photographers, Richard Gilson and Edison Black. Usually you will find them taking pictures around the high school for the staff and then developing them in the new dark room.

Our last ring over there has the underclass editors, Joanne Carlson, Sally Adams, and Nancy McMillin. They identified all the underclassmen and if you don't think that was a job, see if you know everyone in the high school and can spell their name.

Outside the big top over there in the ticket booth sit Sue Griffith and James Hawes, our business staff. They took care of the subscriptions and ads so that we would have money to publish our book. It was quite a problem at times.

Well, our circus is closing down for this year. Back to our summer quarters where we will rest up and get ready for next year's season. It was fun in our circus, wasn't it? So long till next time.

JUNIOR HI-Y—The Junior Hi-Y is an organization consisting of boys in the freshman and sophomore classes under the supervision of Mr. Dan Remley. Members of the club try to be better citizens and help others to be citizens of the world of tomorrow. The club platform consists of four main points: Clean speech, clean sport, clean scholarship, and clean living.

Initiation was held during the week of October 14. New members were required to report with their initiation card every day to one of the old members.

A swimming party was held at the college swimming pool November 15 for all members. Later in the year a scavenger hunt was held with the Jr. Tri-Hi-Y as guests. Both parties were enjoyed by all who attended.

At the meetings, devotions are held at the beginning, consisting of a scripture reading, repeating of the Lord's Prayer and the salute to the flag. After devotions, the roll is called and all business taken care of followed by a program arranged by a committee.

Three Rings of Sport

Ladies and Gentlemen! Come one, come all to the greatest show on earth! Step this way and see for yourself the fascinating triumvirate of sport as it is carried on in Grove City High School. Turn this page of your Pine Knot and relive the many thrills of athletic events held in the past year. Find a seat and prepare to enjoy the many memories we shall endeavor to bring to you in our "Three Rings of Sport"—Football, Basketball, and Wrestling.

In the first ring we see our football team, complete with new lights and a veteran coach, Mr. Eugene Forker, back from the Navy. Although the record of our team was not too good this season, we are all proud of the fighting spirit it showed at all times and we are sure that with the experience gained this year, next season's team will be back on top.

Following the spotlight to the next ring we see a new face as ring master, Mr. Kenneth Westlake, basketball coach. In his first year as cage mentor, Mr. Westlake turned out a strong Eagle cage quintet.

After a wartime lapse of four years, wrestling has returned as a varsity sport. As usual, Mr. Forker produced a strong group of matmen.

Along with the two coaches already mentioned are Mr. Wade Skelton and Mr. Glenn Miller. Both of these men are familiar to us as an assistant coach in football and basketball and the faculty manager of athletics.

Gridiron Gorillas

Football . . . a three ring circus in itself! Many changes were made on the local gridiron scene this year. Coach "Gene" Forker, back from the wars, took charge of the squad once more. The field was spotlighted under the bright glare of the new lights. Last, and probably most important, we had a practically new team.

With only three regular holdovers from last year, Coach Forker was faced with the task of finding new material to fill up the empty slots. Quite a few underclassmen were used, gaining valuable experience for a strong Eagle eleven next Autumn. Mr. Forker was ably assisted by Mr. Kenneth Westlake in charge of the second team and Mr. Wade Skelton, who took over the up-and-coming freshmen team.

Scoring for the season was led by McClymonds, the regular tailback, who made 24 points, followed by Winland with 12, Riddle, McClure, DeRubies, McCracken, and Gehring all had six, while Ewing got one.

The team was led by the co-captains Ewing, McClymonds, and D'Amore. At the conclusion of the season, three seniors were selected by the coaches of Mercer County to play in the All-Star game at Sharon. They were McCracken, Ewing, and McClymonds.

Erie Tech—A green Eagle team opened up their 1946-47 season playing host to Erie Tech who downed the Grovers 18-0. The Eagles gained valuable experience much needed in later games.

Oil City—A tie was the best that the Hi-Grovers could muster against a strong Oiler eleven. It was another home game under the new lights before an overflowing crowd.

Franklin—The Eagles traveled to Franklin for one of their two afternoon games of the season the next Saturday. After outplaying the Nurseryites the entire contest, the Grovers went down to defeat as Franklin completed two long touchdown passes.

DuBois—Grove City returned to the local field the following week to meet the DuBois aggregation in another night game. The Eagles put up a good showing, scoring a fourth quarter touchdown but the visitors' lead was too much and the Grovers chalked up another loss.

Greenville—The Eagles broke into the win column for the first time when they met their traditional rivals, the Penn-Hi Trojans of Greenville, in the annual Homecoming Game. Behind at halftime, Grove City came roaring back in the final portion of the contest to win 13-6.

St. Marys—Playing abroad again the next week, the Grovers traveled to Warren, Ohio, to meet a newcomer on their schedule, St. Marys. The gridiron was a sea of mud but it didn't stop the Eagles as they went on to win 24-0.

Sharpsville—The Blue Devils of Sharpsville proved too much for the Eagles as they rolled to a 19-7 victory over the Grovers. The game was played on the local field in the last home game of the year for Grove City.

Meadville—The Bulldogs handed the locals their worst defeat of the season. Superior weight and speed came through in the home stretch wearing the Eagles down to the tune of twenty-six points.

Butler—In the last game of the year, the Golden Tornadoes of Butler defeated the Eagles for the third straight season. A Grover bid for victory in the final period was cut short by the end of the game and the season.

A new face was at the helm guiding the Eagles on the basketball court this season, Coach Kenneth Westlake.

Beginning with only three lettermen, Coach Westlake started his new career at GCHS. Winning four out of the first five games, the Grovers looked forward to an excellent season.

Then several defeats took the heart of the Eagles as they dropped games by one and two points with only seconds to go. Playing many good games, the locals just couldn't seem to hit a consistent winning streak and at the end of the season the count stood at eleven losses against nine wins.

Six members of the squad, Jones, Robertson, McClymonds, Ifft, Magee, and McCracken, were seniors. Winland, Tinkey, McClure, Penman, White, Hollingsworth, and Shelley will be returning to play one more year.

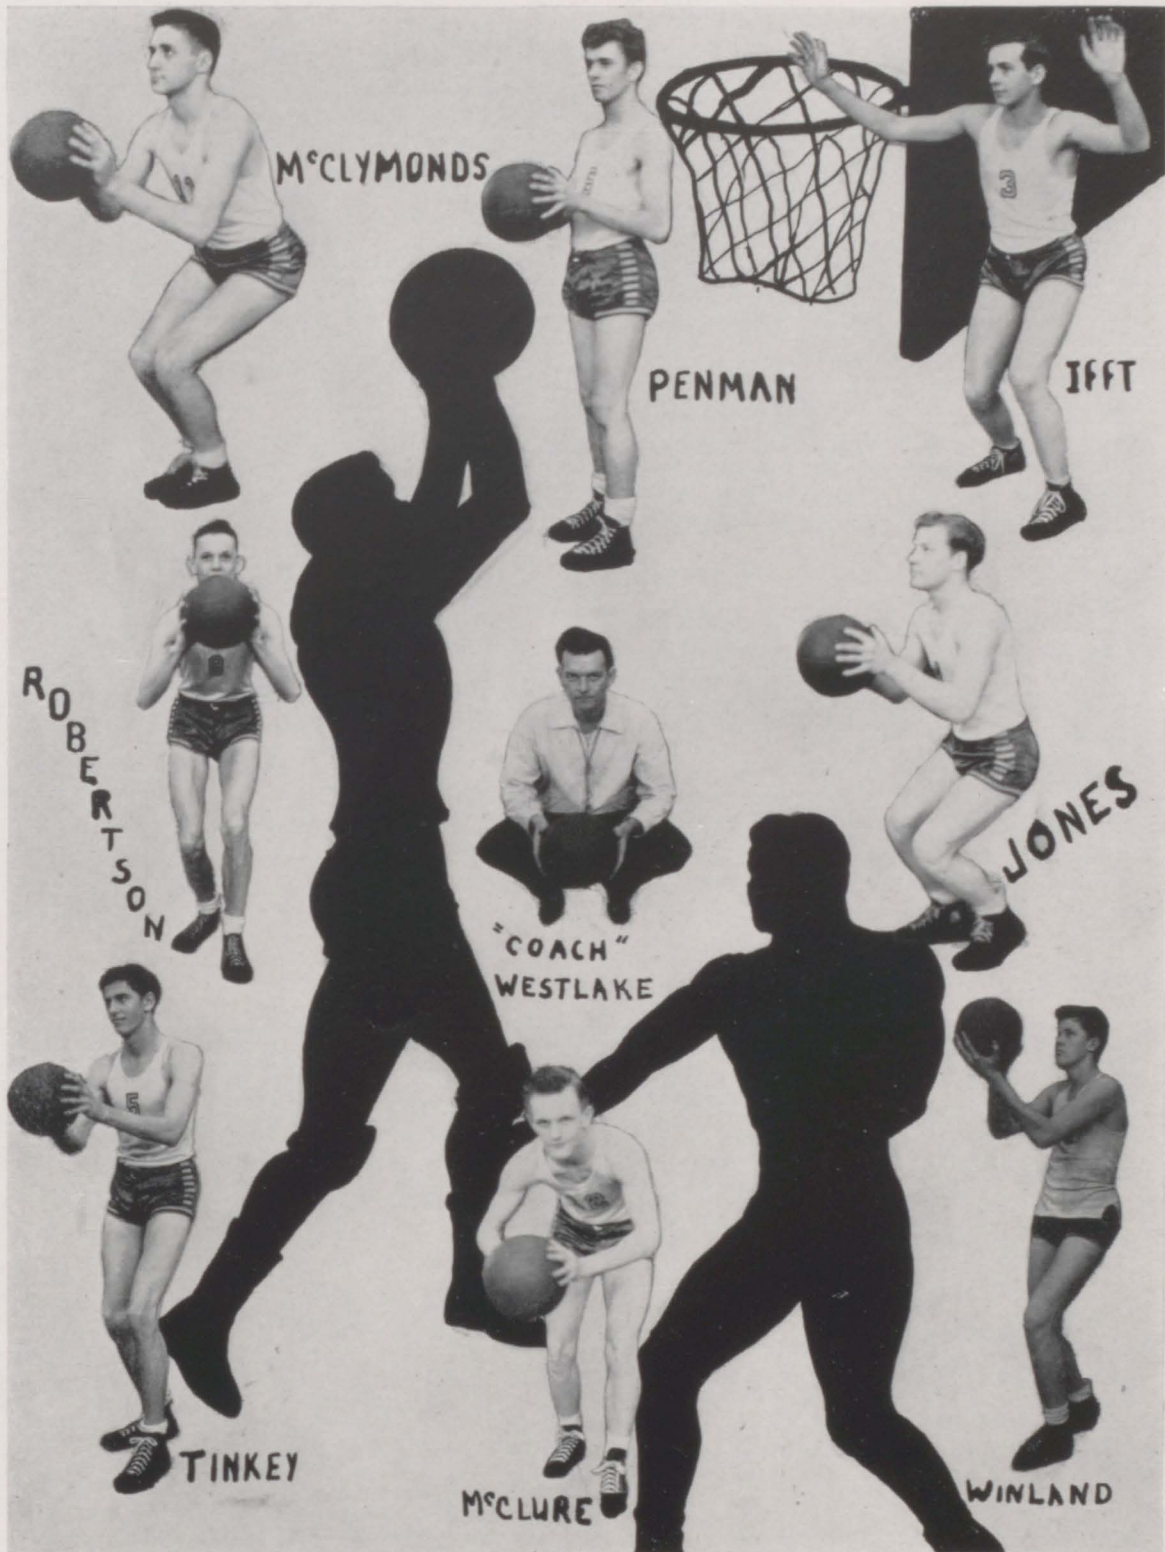

Standing out for the Grovers were the performances of the co-captains, Bob Jones and Mike Robertson. These two were chosen by their teammates to play in the annual All-Star game in Greenville at the conclusion of the campaign.

High scorer for the season was Robertson with a total of 227 points. In order after that were Jones with 159; McClymonds with 98; Winland, 79; Tinkey, 70; McClure, 39; Penman, 21; Ifft, 14; White, 7; Magee, 5; McCracken, 3; Hollingsworth, 2 and Shelley, 1.

Second row—Coach Westlake, McClymonds, Winland, Tinkey, Robertson, Magee, McCracken.

Grove City 40

The Eagles recovered from their slump to win this game over the Bulldogs. Mike Robertson set the high scoring mark for the season with twenty-three points.

Grove City 37

Butler repeated their former victory over the Eagles to win their second meeting of the season. This was the first loss in the Grovers' longest streak without a win, five games.

Grove City 34

On their home court, the Blue Devils took an early lead and held it throughout the game to register their second victory of the season over Grove City.

Grove City 29

Redhot, the Hickory five raced to a decisive victory over the Grovers on the local floor. The Eagles matched the Hornets point for point in the first and last periods but fell far behind in the second and third.

Grove City 25

Out-scored in every quarter but the last, Grove City fell victim to the Oilers on their home floor. The Oil City quintet established an early lead and held it the entire game.

Grove City 36

Perhaps the most exciting contest of the year, the game at Franklin was a thriller from start to finish. The clock was ticking the final seconds away when McClure broke down the floor and scored with two seconds left to play.

Grove City 28

A much improved Trojan five romped to victory despite all the Grovers' efforts to prevent them from doing so. It was the second win of the season over Grove City for Penn-Hi.

Grove City 42

The Eagles triumphed over the Alumni team in their next-to-the-last game of the season. In the preliminary game, the high school girls defeated an Alumnae squad of girls.

Grove City 63

Ending up their season with a bang, the Eagles rocketed to a smashing victory over the Cochranon Cardinals. Six seniors played their last game of basketball for Grove City High School—Jones, McClymonds, Robertson, Ifft, McCracken, and Magee.

Muscular Matmen

Wrestling returned to Grove City High School as a major sport this winter after a wartime lapse of four years. Coach Eugene Forker turned out a strong group of grapplers which won three matches out of six, gained high recognition in the District 10 tournament, and produced one District champion.

The Eagles held six bouts with other schools during the season. From these they emerged victorious three times, defeating Oil City twice and Erie Tech once. They dropped matches to Greenville twice and Erie Academy once. Besides this, Coach Forker entered his charges in the District 10 tournament in Erie at the close of the season.

In this meet the Grovers made a strong showing, with Puntureri, Perry, D'Augustino, Atwell, White, Riddle, and Bob Thompson all winning a place for themselves in the semi-finals. Of these seven, Puntureri, Perry, DeAugustino, and Riddle started into the final matches. DeAugustino was the only one of this group to win a district crown.

The highlight of the season came when DeAugustino made the trip to Kingston College to enter the State tournament. He was eliminated, however, in the preliminary bouts.

With most of the men on the squad underclassmen, Grove City can look forward to strong teams in future years. Scores for the season were:
