Happy September!

Please join us at our one-day-only Used Book Sale at Memorial Park on Saturday, September 9 from 9-3. There will be food trucks and raffle baskets, as well as books, DVDs, CDs. Prices are $5/bag and $10/tote (bags and totes will be provided).

We will accept used book donations through September 8 provided we still have storage space available; please call in advance to verify that we are still accepting donations. We won't accept used book donations September 9-October 8. You may drop off used books again starting Monday, October 9.

Our yearly basket raffles will be on display starting September 9 at the Used Book Sale. The baskets will continue to be on display through December 8 at the library. Stop by to see a great selection of baskets sure to appeal to everyone.

Our fall bake sale will take place on Saturday, September 16 starting at 10 am at the library. There will be a large selection of baked goods available, including gluten free, sugar free, and dairy free choices. Come early for the best selections!

Mark your calendars for our annual fall SOUP-ER fundraiser, Friday, November 10. We will again feature a variety of homemade soups with a chicken croissant sandwich and sides for your enjoyment.

We look forward to seeing you this fall at Grove City Community Library!

A Walk in the Woods* by Bill Bryson

"Back in America after twenty years in Britain, Bill Bryson decided to reacquaint himself with his native country by walking the 2,100-mile Appalachian Trail, which stretches from Georgia to Maine. The AT offers an astonishing landscape of silent forests and sparkling lakes—and to a writer with the comic genius of Bill Bryson, it also provides endless opportunities to witness the majestic silliness of his fellow human beings. For a start there's the gloriously out-of-shape Stephen Katz, a buddy from Iowa along for the walk. But A Walk in the Woods is more than just a laugh-out-loud hike. Bryson's acute eye is a wise witness to this beautiful but fragile trail, and as he tells its fascinating history, he makes a moving plea for the conservation of America's last great wilderness. An adventure, a comedy, and a celebration, A Walk in the Woods is a modern classic of travel literature"--Penguinrandomhouse.com.

No registration required, but please read the book ahead of time.

Contact the library if you need a copy of the book and to receive a Zoom invitation if you prefer to attend over Zoom.

Make a Difference Knitting & Crochet Club

Thursday, September 14
1:30-3 pm
Registration is not required.

- This casual group is open to all-- any age, gender or ability!
- Members gather to make items that can be donated to various local agencies, including Mercer County Aware, or work on projects for family and friends. You bring your yarn and needles.
- This is not a teaching class, but if you are working on a project and have a question, group members are happy to help.

Come and kick back with your needles, hooks, and yarn and make a difference in our community!

Display Your Special Collections

Do you have a collection you'd like others to see? The display case in the library entrance is a great way to showcase your collection.

Our (locked) display case has featured teapots, cross-stitch, coin collections, stuffed animals, LEGO, and political memorabilia. We're always open to new ideas and new collections.

If you have a collection to share, please contact Sean at the library to sign up.
