REMEMBERING

Grove City's first touch with stardom. Brad Williamson and B.E. Taylor at the WDVE vs. Grove City basketball game.

Homework is still a large part of school, as much as we wish it wasn't. Squiddy finishes up his in one of those boring study halls.

Health class made interesting. Mrs. Gilson points out a large bicep on Brian Bagnall's well-made arm.

Well, the school year is over and summertime is upon us. The halls and lockers are bare; no more laughing faces, only silence. Students are now working at summer jobs, getting ready for college, or relaxing. Thinking of the school year that flew by in what seems like a few weeks. These memories "Flashes of the Past," are the only reminders of those high school years. These memories of . . .

Basketball, football, cross country, and track
How we wish we could bring them back.

Do you remember graduation,
Springtime craziness, and
Dr. Packard's dedication?

We've got to thank those teachers
Who pulled us through
Long, long years of education.

How could we forget
Fighting sleep with those midnight crams,
And struggling through those final exams?
If only we could keep time in a bottle,
And save all the time forever.

Only one person holds the secret of time.
Until the secret is known to us, we must
Feel the fullness of the past,
And always make the good times last.
So when we look back on the old time craze
We will remember that those were our days!

Our school is now in the great computer age. Jim Brunson shows off the new hardware.

Crazy guys in a crazy mood, anything to pass the time. Keith Lenkner, Steve Barr, Brian Bowers, and Jim Hood ham it up.

A quiet moment with Dr. Packard and Mr. Clarke as the Doctor shows off his new comic book, "Supergirl". We always wondered what he did when he wasn't peeking in our classrooms.

FLASHES OF THE PAST

AIN'T
NO WAY YOU
EAGLES!

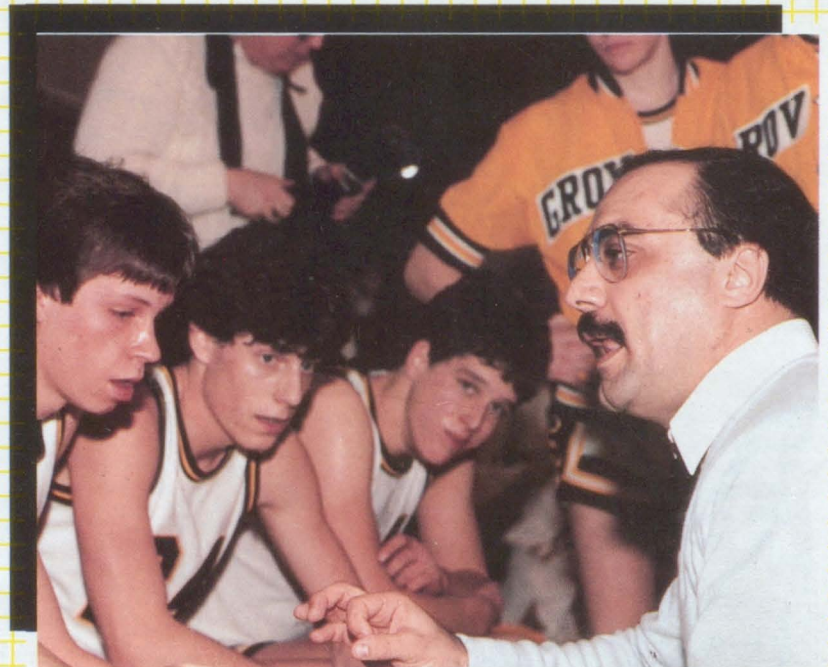

On an autumn morning some four years ago, a group of Freshmen wandered into the crowded temple of learning. A little unsure and wary, they proceeded to try to find their first period room numbers. By late September, as friendships grew, they became more proud and sure of themselves, no longer afraid to enter the social curriculum of the school. On the one hundred eightieth day, Freshmen felt as if they really belonged.

The next bright autumn season, as Sophomores, these students returned to the same school, proud that they no longer were confused Freshmen. "What a relief!" The year progressed quickly, and before long, school had come to an end and they were Juniors.

As juniors, the class felt very different. Now there were new responsibilities and "fun" classes like Health and Chemistry. In the Spring their first prom was held and forever imbedded in their memory.

Our well-worn overworked Eagle mascot has found a new friend, physics whiz, Mr. Deinert.

Grove City Eagles will give an arm and a leg to fire up the screaming fans. Artistic hoop signs always gained the crowd's attention.

At a tense moment in the game, Coach Abraham discusses last-minute strategy with David Gordon, Jim Brunson, and Jeff Mills.

The school cafeteria, an unforgettable experience, is a time of rest and relaxation each day. Scott Maxwell pleads with Scott Knouse for some crumbs, as Duane Carnes spreads his peanut butter . . . with a spoon of course.

Jodi Kiser and Julie Maxwell did a great job in the Guidance Office this year. Here they are taking time out of their busy schedule to pose.

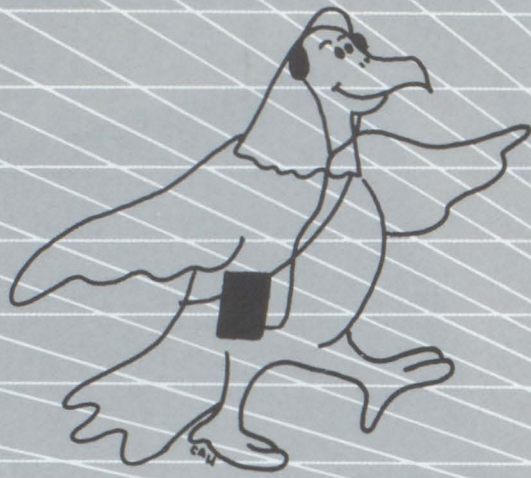

Valentine's Day at G.C.H.S. is known as "Carnation Sales Day." The couples and their tokens of infatuation — Bill Reznor, Charlene Hughes, Amy Mcnickle, and Craig Conner.

Now they returned for a fourth and final time to a new school year. During the past three years in high school, they found out that those days are filled with fun as well as learning. They've shared love, dreams and everlasting friendships. It's hard to believe that they have finally reached the untouchable dream.

"Parting is such sweet sorrow." However the time will come when friends must be left behind. Beyond the classroom lies a world of new horizons. Everyone must take his or her separate road in life. Eventually these roads are met, and it's time to say good-bye to those who have been important during the past four years.

The separate roads taken will differ and the dreams will be special only to the beholder. Nevertheless, wherever these students go or whatever these students do, the memories of high school will be with them forever.

NEW ROYALTY

 * Queen *
 * Charlene Hughes *

Enthusiasm sang through the air; gold and white waved in the breeze as Homecoming of 1984 began. The week was kicked off by the "Kiss An Eagle" contest, won by John Lindh who enthusiastically collected "32 lips." Spirit posters, signed by the classes, decorated the otherwise dull school halls. Finally, Friday was before us. The Homecoming festivities started with the parade, featuring the queen and her court. Sodden fields prevailed Friday night as the Eagle boys took the field against the Tigers from Sharon. Despite hard work and excellent strategy, the Eagles suffered a tragic loss. The exciting week was wound up by the dance held at the "Rec center," Saturday night, starring Street Talk. Despite the loss of the game on Friday, this Homecoming was made special by the enthusiasm and high spirits of everyone involved.

Grove City faced the Sharon Tigers for the Homecoming game. In spite of hard work and excellent strategy, our boys suffered a disappointing loss.

The 1983 Homecoming Queen, Amy Michel, shared an emotional moment when she crowned our New Royalty, Charlene Hughes. Escort, Bill Reznor, looks on with pride.

Wendy Hanna, Senior flute player, prepares to march in the Homecoming parade through downtown Grove City. The marching band did a fine job of providing music and spirit for the parade.

The Freshmen Cheerleading squad (Sarah Barr, Sharin Bonanni, Missy McCracken, Tracie Hennon, Kim McAninch and Lisa Pierro) are pictured here in the annual Homecoming Parade. The cheerleaders added to the festivities by decorating the vehicles in which they rode.

A sea of faces showed different emotions while awaiting the crowning of our new queen. This traditional event always attracts a large crowd.

Women Warriors

The 1984 Powder Puff game was characterized by rain, mud, and high spirits. Star quarterback and MVP Stephanie Dittrich scored two touchdowns early in the game. Charlene Hughes made the two-point conversion, leaving the score 14-0 at the half. The Juniors had a strong comeback, though, in the third quarter when split-end Joanna Reynolds scored a touchdown. Lori Grace went in for the two-point conversion. Then in the final moments of the game Tammy Lovaglio scored a "questionable" touchdown, evening the score, 14-14. Junior coach Scott Wise failed to comment on the event, but Senior coach Pat Cavanaugh stated, "The Senior girls dominated the game in every way; too bad the referees wouldn't let them show it in the score."

Winter Festival

Winter Festival is an annual event held to honor the winter sports program. Ten Junior girls are nominated by their class, and one of these girls is chosen by the student body to be Winter Festival Queen. The ten nominees for Winter Festival 1985 were: Jill Cummings, Rene Cross, Mieke Davis, Valerie Dillaman, Wendy Hedglin, Colleen Kearney, Amy McNickle, Lisa Michel, Joanna Reynolds, and Shonna Trinch. After the nominees were introduced to the student body at an assembly, the students voted. Rene Cross, Wendy Hedglin, and Amy McNickle were chosen to make up the court. The identity of the queen, however, was unknown until halftime of the basketball game on January 25. These three girls were introduced to the public at a wrestling match on January 24 against Greenville. They were escorted by Senior basketball players Scott Knouse, Jim Lapcevic, and Jeff Hatton. Although the wrestlers suffered a loss, spirits were high with the excitement on Winter Festival. Finally, at the basketball game against Reynolds, Amy McNickle was crowned Winter Festival Queen 1985 by Charlene Hughes, the 1984 Winter Festival Queen. Escorts this time were Senior wrestlers, John Lindh, Brian Lewis, and Craig Conner. Charlene was escorted by Senior Class President Jim Taylor. The festivities were topped off by a dance honoring the Queen and her court.

FUN, FADS

"Hey, are you going to that party tomorrow night?"

"Yes, I think so, if I can find something to wear." "Okay, I'll meet you there; bring your headphones."

There was no room for mismatch as students sought out the perfect look to show off at parties, school events, and other social activities. The fashion scene held a variety of styles as students went all-out to get that one good look.

Among the guys' styles were oxford cloth shirts, Izods, and sweaters. Some guys showed up wearing ties, even when they didn't have to. Jeans equivalent to the girls were equally seen on guys.

Popular girls' styles were mini skirts, tie-dyed Tees, fluorescents, and denim jackets.

There was always the more neutral style dress in the "casual style." Students of this nature appreciated jeans by Lee and Levi, topped by various shirts, sweat-shirts, T-shirts and sweaters.

"All dressed up and nowhere to go" was hardly the case as students were always seeking out a good time. School-related functions such as football and basketball games, concerts and dances were just a few of the choices.

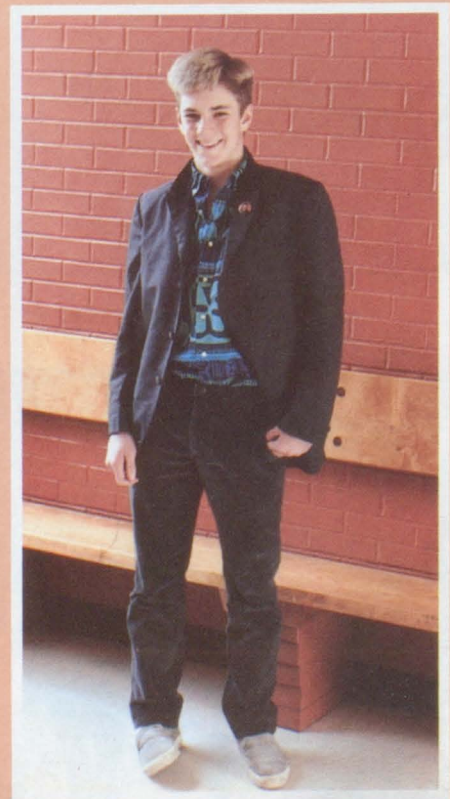

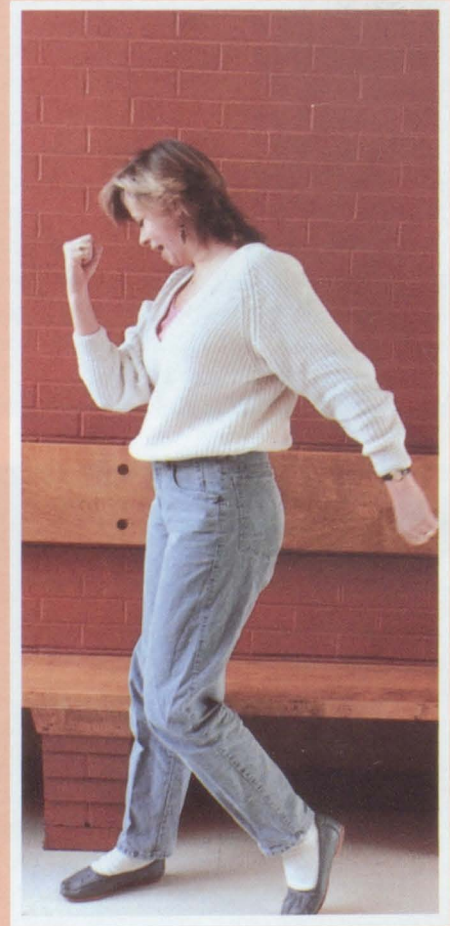

For a little less restricted fun, students attended parties given by family and friends. Parties, by far, were the most favored of planned activities.

When fun became a must, one could not always rely on a party or school event. When this was the case, fads made their way into students' lives.

The game Trivial Pursuit was a fun, yet challenging way to spend free time. This game, with over 6,000 trivia questions supplied a pastime for students as well as teachers.

"Stereo headphones against a tough faculty" proved to be a challenge when the students attempted to smuggle their music into the classroom. With these, students were able to listen to their favorite music be it on the radio or on cassette, depending on the type of unit they had.

Fun, fads and fashion — all made a students' life bearable. In the school and out, student's social life as well as their style of dress, kept the monotony of a nine-month school year from catching up on them.

& FASHIONS

Just before Christmas break, the Yearbook Staff held a survey to find out the student body's favorite song, movie, T.V. show, and musical group. Here are the results. At the top of the charts for the most popular song was "We're Not Gonna Take It." Coming in close second and third were "Born in the U.S.A." by Bruce Springstein and "You're the Inspiration" from Chicago. The most popular movie was Beverly Hills Cop starring Eddie Murphy. Other favorites were Ghost Busters, Revenge of the Nerds, and Terminator. The favorite T.V. show of the G.C.H.S. students was The Bill Cosby Show. Such shows as Miami Vice, Family Ties, and Riptide had many votes too. Finally, the favorite musical group was Van Halen; Chicago, second; and Prince and Ratt tied for third.

The Senior Class of 1985

The Class of '85 has spent four long, but spirit filled years at G.C.H.S. The Seniors have cheered on our Eagle Athletes at pep assemblies and various sporting events. Now as they return to G.C.H.S. sporting events, they can look on with pride.

Congratulations Seniors! We have successfully obtained a high school education. As we make the transition from what has been called "the best time of our lives" to the harsh cruel world of reality, we would do well to remember that life is what we make of it. If we believe in ourselves, the sky's the limit. Best of luck to all of my fellow classmates.

— James Taylor

The flower chosen by the Class of '85 was the Forget-Me-Not. It's delicate yet strong structure will stand as a symbol of our Senior class. Because of our crazy antics, who could ever forget our class?

Emerald and gold were the majestic colors that the Class of '85 chose to cloak themselves in. This special combination has been seen on royalty, and it was no surprise why the reigning Seniors picked these colors as symbols of their unforgettable court.

The motto chosen to express the ambitious drive of this strong-willed Senior class was a Latin phrase: "Invenimus viam aut faciemus." In English it means: "We will find a way, or we will make it." When the Class of '85 is remembered, and it will be, this phrase will ring true.

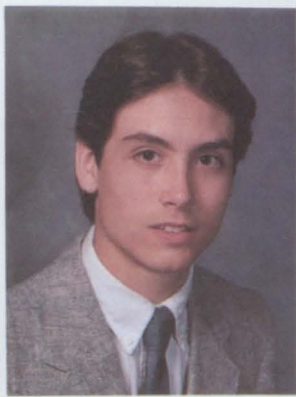

Class Officers

The Class of '85 showed exceptional judgement when they elected the officers who were to represent them. They led us through the perils of our Junior Prom and magazine sales, which netted us an almost record-breaking income. They united us, and because of them, our Senior Class was given the recognition we deserved. They organized our special Senior Banquet and picked out a suitable gift for GCHS that will forever remind them of our undying spirit. These special people were Jim Taylor, Pres., Jeff Hatton, Tres. Karen Garland, Sec., and Bill Reznor, Vice Pres.

SENIOR PERSONALITIES SHINE ON

Class Clowns: Brian Lewis and Missy Eaton could have stolen the show at a Barnum and Bailey Circus

This year, as in past years, the tradition of choosing Senior personalities took place. The Class of '85 selected twenty guys and twenty girls that best represented their class in categories chosen especially for them. These special people gave us laughter and made our school days here at GCHS memorable.

Class Flirts: John Lindh and Kim Becker gave new meaning to the word fickle.

Prettiest Eyes: Mark Alessio and Michele Bortz flashed us their peepers. Marty Feldman and Bette Davis eat your hearts out!!

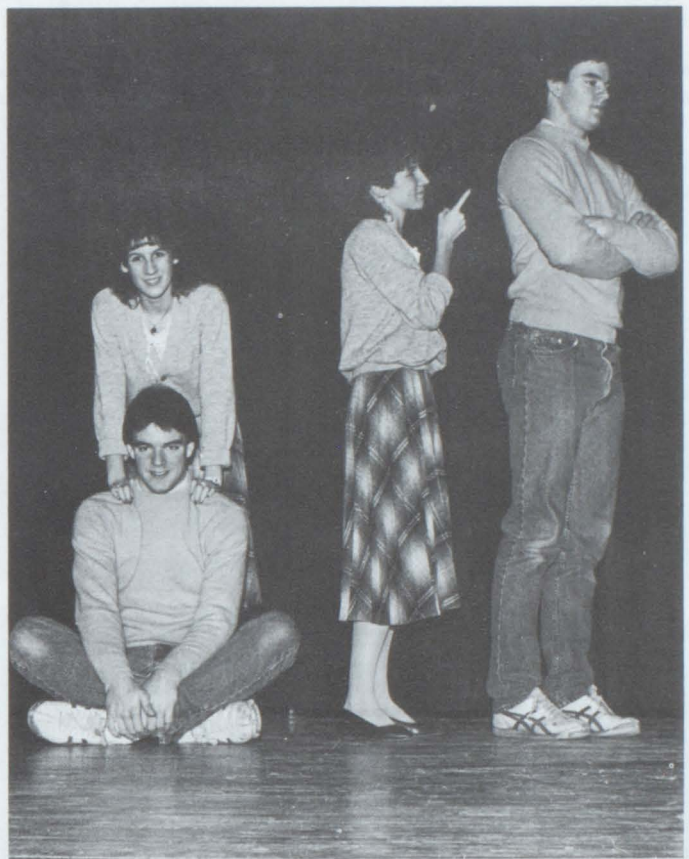

Life of the Party: Scott Knouse and Missy Armstrong would have made Lawrence Welk's bubbles burst.

Nicest Smile: Brad Williamson and Charlene Hughes gave us their impersonation of Donny and Marle Osmond.

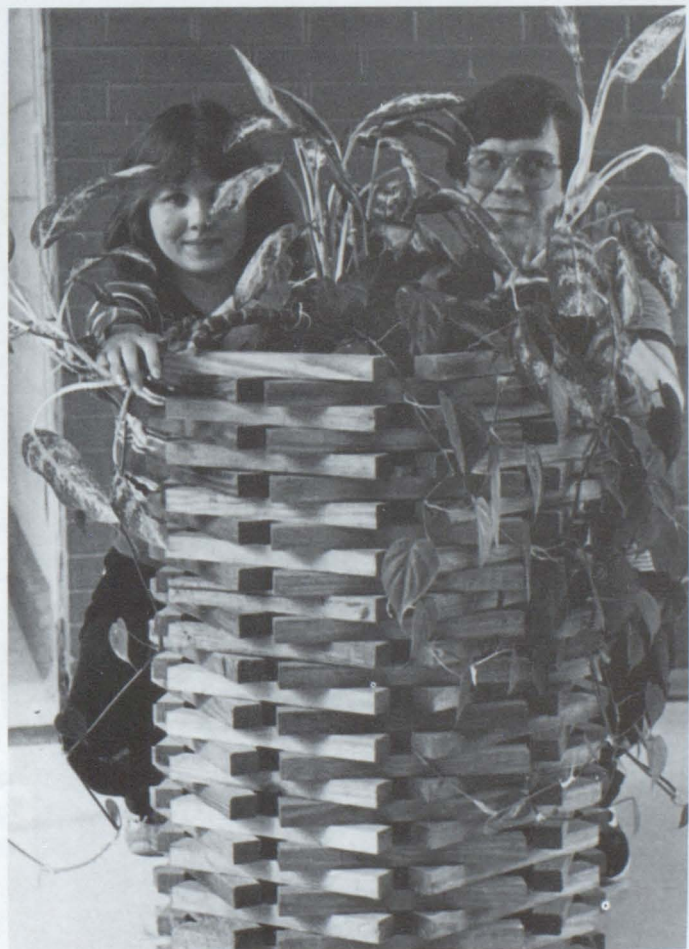

Most Talkative: Jim Lapcevic and Jodi Kiser could have talked circles around Joan Rivers. Can we talk?!

Moodiest: Jeff Hatton and Ann Hunt gave us a whirl-wind of emotions that even Dr. Jekyll could not have equalled.

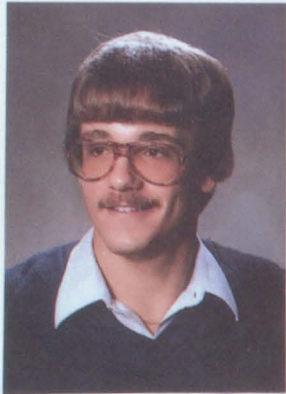

Most Athletic: Pat Cavanaugh showed us his Doug Flutie style while fiery Fiona Kenny flashed us a Mary Lou Retton smile.

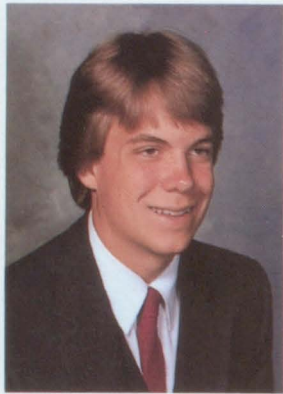

Shyest: Alan Miller and Kim Kotch made the seventh dwarf Bashful look like playboy Hugh Hefner.

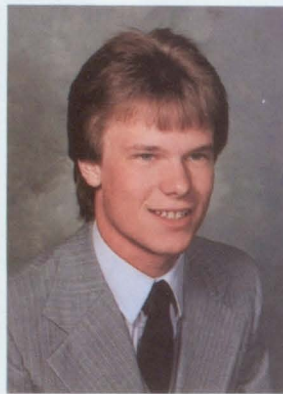

Class Complainers: Tom Mattocks and Jennifer Minor were otherwise known to us as Wendell and Wendy Whiner.

Bruce Timblin

Michael Tinkey

Sean Uber

Kelly VanZandt

Tina Wade

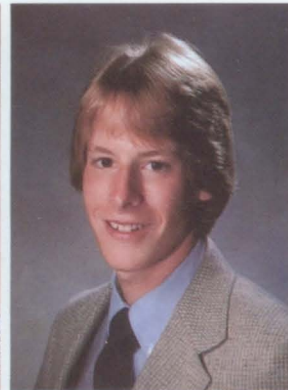

Paula Waugaman

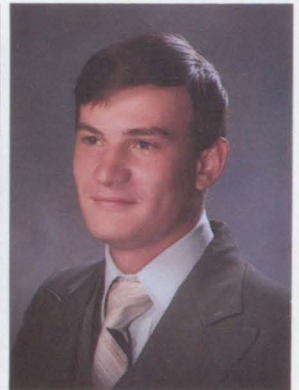

Marie Weis

Lori Williams

Bradley Williamson

Jeffrey Winkler

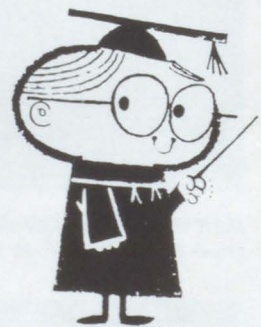

The rebellious class of '85 shows its spirit with a bit of a twist - or turn around shall we say!

Best Personality: Ty Thompson and Jennifer Jez displayed niceness over and above the call of duty.

Most School Spirited: John Graham and Marlene Burdick electrified us with the Eagle pride they showed in our school.

Best Actor/Actress: Dean Davis and Lisa Harris tried their hands at commercial advertising. Pizza anyone?

Most Artistic: Bill Geary and Stephanie Ditrch displayed DeVinci's talent during their years at GCHS.

Most Likely to Succeed: Jim Taylor and Kiran Mehta had the business sense to take them to the top. Lookout Wall Street!

Best Dressed: Bill Reznor flashed us his Gucci style while Kristen Puntureri exposed her Halston side.

Best Buns: Jim Saunders and Terry Curren displayed their backsides in a shot that would have made Calvin Klein blush.

Most Gullible: Doug Thompson and Marni McCutcheon would have bought swamp land in Florida if it had been offered to them. Believe it!!

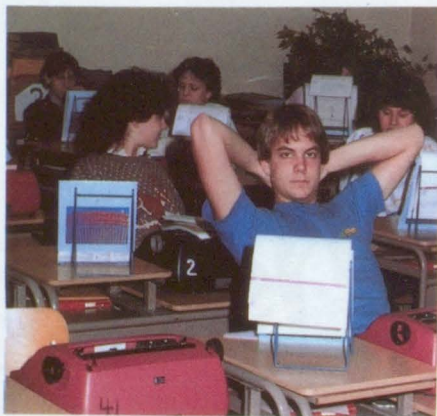

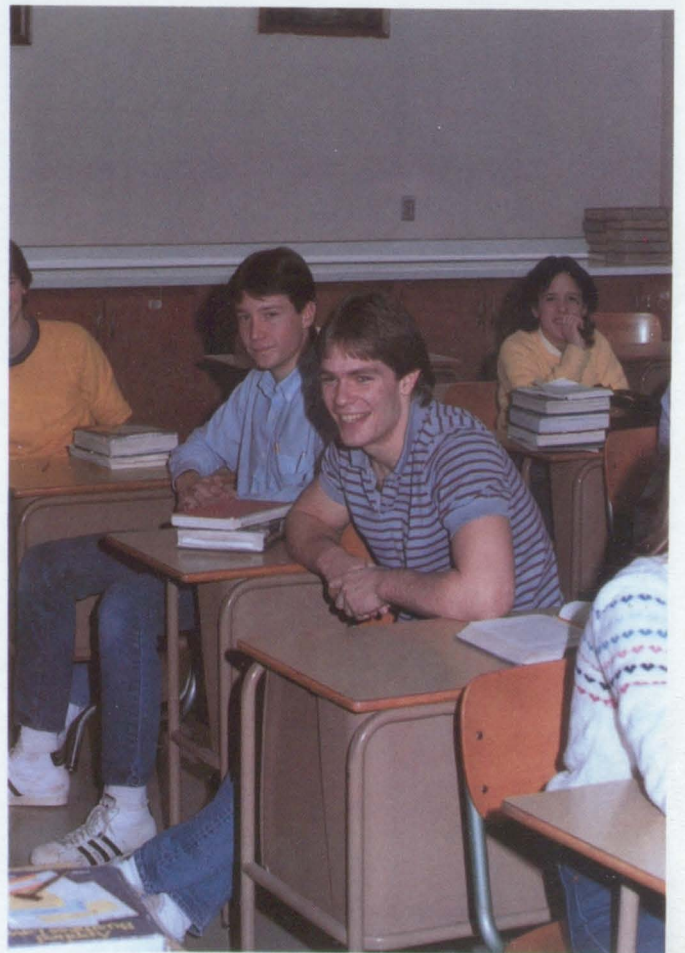

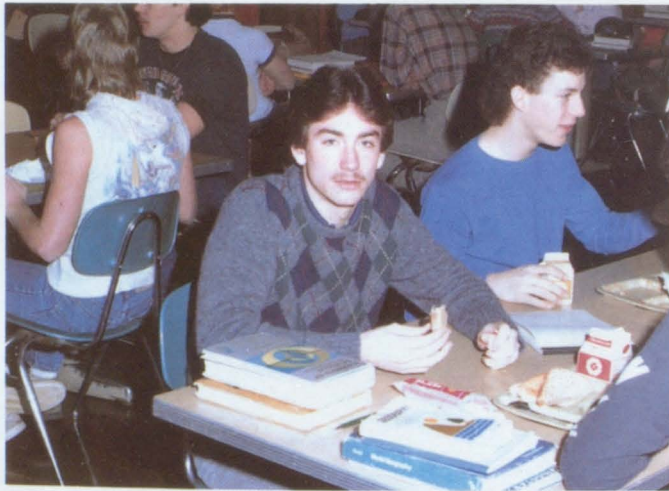

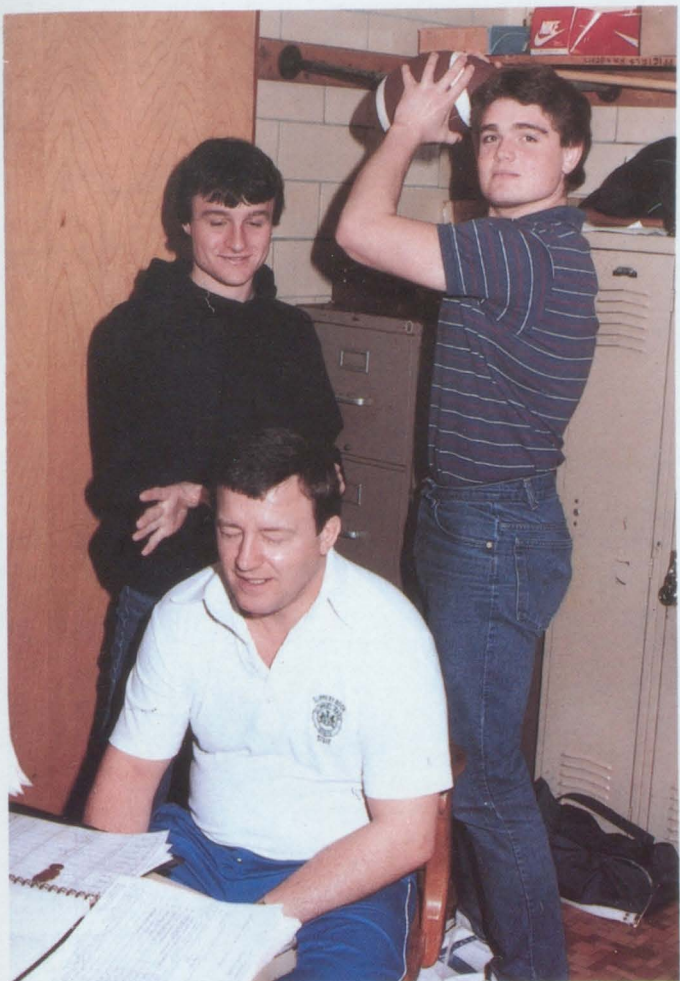

Friendliest: Lance Reeher and Paula Broad made everyone feel comfortable, and the sound of their "hellos" can still be heard.

Most Musical: Tim Zenobi and Marie Weis filled everyone's ears with the sweet sounds of harmony.

Flashes Of The Past . . .

*And now, as the end nears,
we study faces,
names, and moments;
Committing each to memory,
for in time,
We will need to remember,
Flashes of the Past!*

Dittrich Breaks Freshmen Record

Every ounce of weight was put to the test. Muscles were sore and sometimes fatigued. Constant practicing and workouts before and after school were time consuming, but necessary. Although all the effort didn't pay off as well as they had hoped, the team concluded with a record of 8-8 overall. Season highlights included superior performances from Deven Dittrich and Sam Asplotis, who were the only successful Eagle Graplers out of nine to advance beyond sections. Deven with 18 wins, broke the freshman record formerly held by Bobby Grace. Even though the season record was 8-8. Coach Ruley was very proud of all his wrestlers and hoped that the underclassmen would return next year with the intention of going all the way.

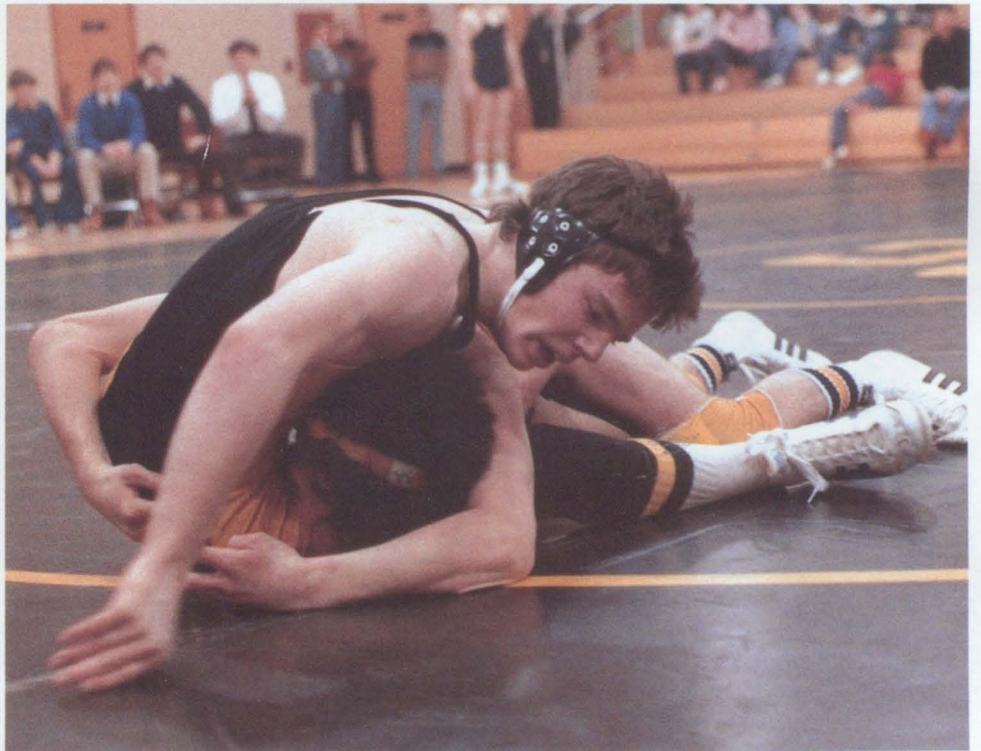

Chris Harvey sets up to Grandy. Dedication and hard work made it possible for this Freshmen to start regulary.

Scott Wise aides his team mates with moral support. Encouragement from team mates was a valuable part of team spirit.

John Lindh's cheered for another victory. This Senior wrestler evidenced a successful season with a 19-10 record.

Deven Dittrich works for another takedown. His victory in this match was one more in his quest for an undefeated season.

Hot Legs and Fast Women

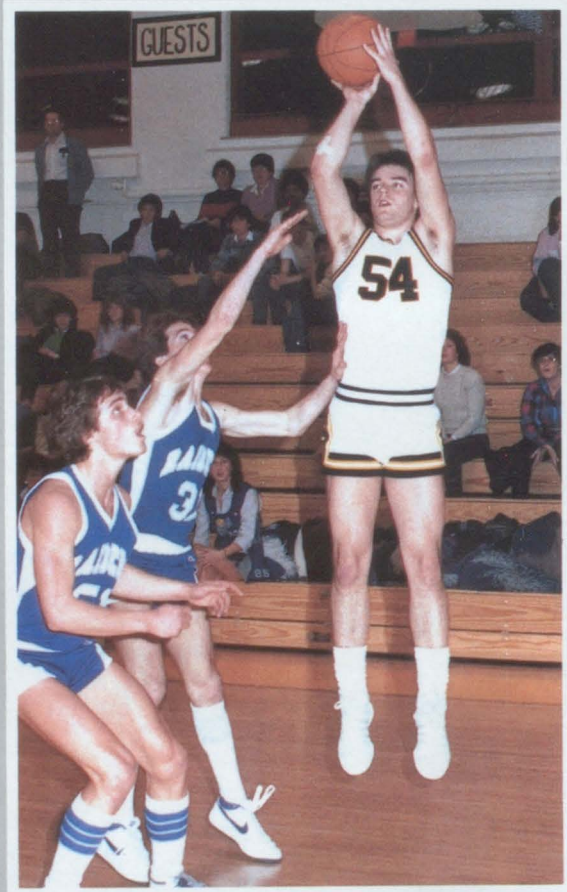

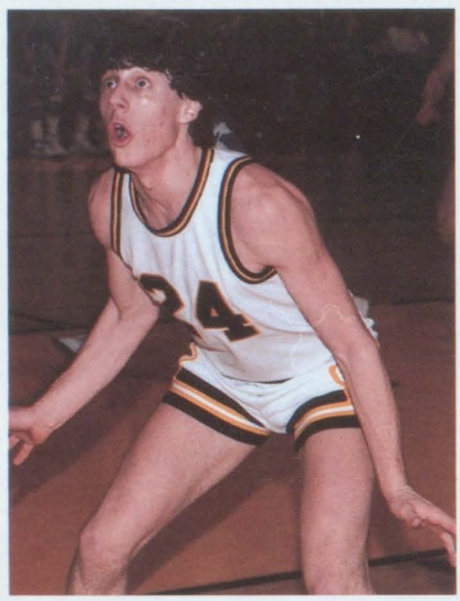

The 1984 Cross Country team raced to a successful season. Led by seniors Penn Barger, Sam Goncz, Darrin Powell and Lance Reeher, the boys' Varsity finished with an 8-2 dual meet record, second place in Mercer County, and fifth place in District 10. Individual runners, Penn and Lance, qualified for states. Against a field of 287 runners at states, Penn led all county participants with 34th place, and Lance placed 55th. Both of these performances made fine finishes to these seniors' high school running careers.

A host of Junior Varsity runners will be joining and challenging the returning Varsity runners: Jim Highland, Jason Reeher, Ken Ryan, and Joe Sample. Many slightly frayed, but very big, shoes have to be filled.

The distaff side was led by seniors Coleen Murdock and Fiona Kenny. Supported by Michelle Hibbard, Darlene Laughner, Sue McCommon, and Patti McWilliams, the girls formed a competitive team when they raced. This great team of underclass runners will do well in the upcoming season.

Next year, both girls' and boys' teams will be the most competitive squads of the last several seasons. With good fortune, the surviving Varsity runners will earn the distinction of being the fastest runners in 1985.

Eagles Never Say Die

The year 1985 was to be a rebuilding year for the Varsity Boys Basketball team under the direction of newly-appointed head coach George Abraham. After losing four Senior starters no one thought the Eagles could repeat the winning season of 1984; No one except the Eagles. Senior team captains, and first string starters, Jim Brunson, Pat Cavanaugh, Jeff Hatton and Scott Knouse led the way with superior playing and extraordinary spirit. In fact the entire team was soon swept away with a "Winners-never-quit-never-say-die" attitude. Although losing a couple of pivotal games, the Eagles still finished Mercer County League Runner-up and advanced to the first round of the playoffs. The team lost a heart-breaker to Erie Academy, 71-69, in overtime, finishing up with a seventeen and seven record. The 1985 Eagles never quit and will be emulated in years to come for their fierce pride and determined spirit.

Senior point guard Pat Cavanaugh, leading scorer of the team, and hailed the best player in the Mercer County League, adds two more points to his 21 plus points tally in the game against Sharpville.

TEAMWORK KEY TO SEASON

Not only were they winners, they were big winners. With a 14-6 overall record, the Lady Eagles finished second in the Mercer County league and managed to make it to the second round of the PIAA Inter-District playoffs. Although they were defeated by North Catholic, they played well. The teamwork displayed in this last game characterized the teamwork displayed throughout the year.

In addition to recognizing quality teamwork, it is also essential that several individual players be recognized. Freshman Kirsten Ellison was leading scorer with 235 points and also leading rebounder with 324 returns. Senior Stephanie Dittrich was another strong asset with 228 points and 144 rebounds. Other outstanding players; Sophomore Marya Louise with 212 points and 106 rebounds, Senior Karen Garland with 203 points and 119 rebounds and Freshman Michelle Steigerwald with 150 points and 109 rebounds.

When evaluating the team's potential for next year, Coach Flynn is very optimistic. Although four Seniors; Stephanie Dittrich, Karen Garland, Fiona Kenny, and Jody Kiser will be lost to graduation, the rest of the team is extremely talented. With so many young talented players returning next year, Grove City can look ahead to another winning season from the girl's basketball team.

Dribbling With Determination

If points in a basketball game were given for hard work, patience, and hustle, the Eagles would have been in first place in the conference. Unfortunately, points are only given when the ball goes through the net. The Eagles ended the season with a very respectable 11-9 record. The first game of the season wasn't very successful, but because of the team's determination, they hammered out five consecutive wins before a heartbreaking two point loss to Kennedy Christian. Later, in the season's most exciting contest, the Eagles came back to defeat Kennedy with outstanding performances by Mike Brunson and Doug Simmons. Coach Benz was very pleased with the teams performance and looks ahead to next season.

Tight defense of the Raiders could not hold Doug Simmons back as he drives to score two.

Mike Brunson helped the Eagles dribble to a win against the Reynolds Raiders.

Eagles Face Tough Opponents

Cool fall air with cries such as ... "Come on Cavanaugh!" ... "Hold 'em, hold 'em!" "What the *!@#% is the matter with those guys?" ... along with the aroma of hot dogs and popcorn signal the beginning of Varsity football season.

Unfortunately the 1984 season was not the season for the Eagles to fly high. They were plucked seven times and consequently finished the season 3-7. Not many realize, however, that the Eagles had to make their way through an extremely tough schedule. Four seniors, Pat Cavanaugh, Scott Knouse, Brian Lewis, and Sean Uber, were keys to the effort and team spirit of the Eagles.

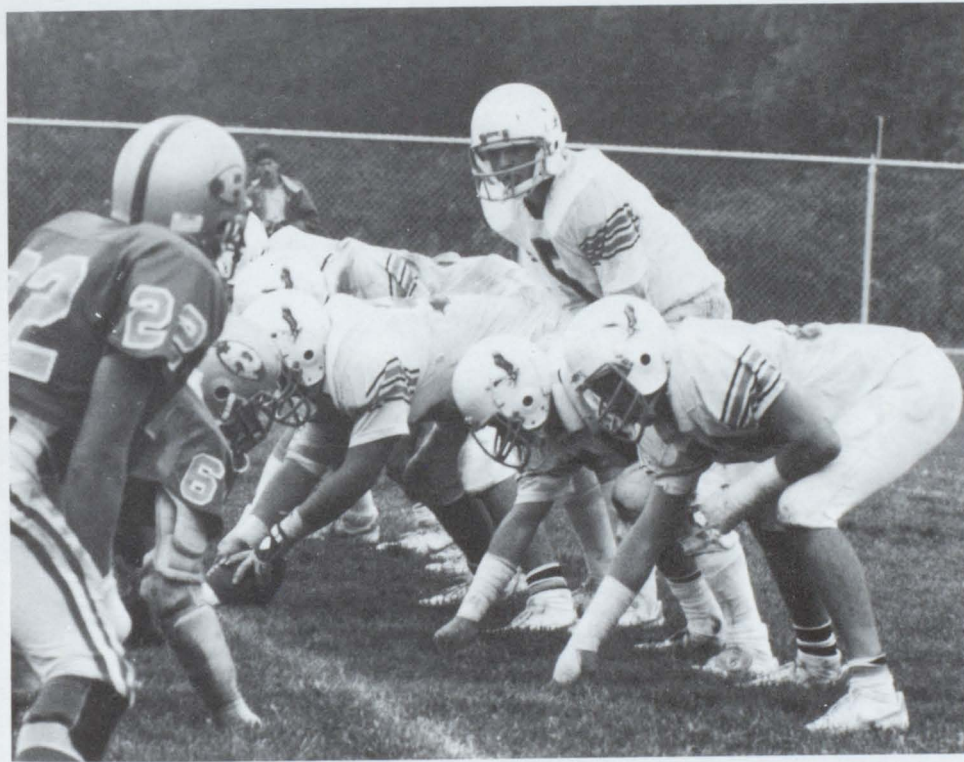

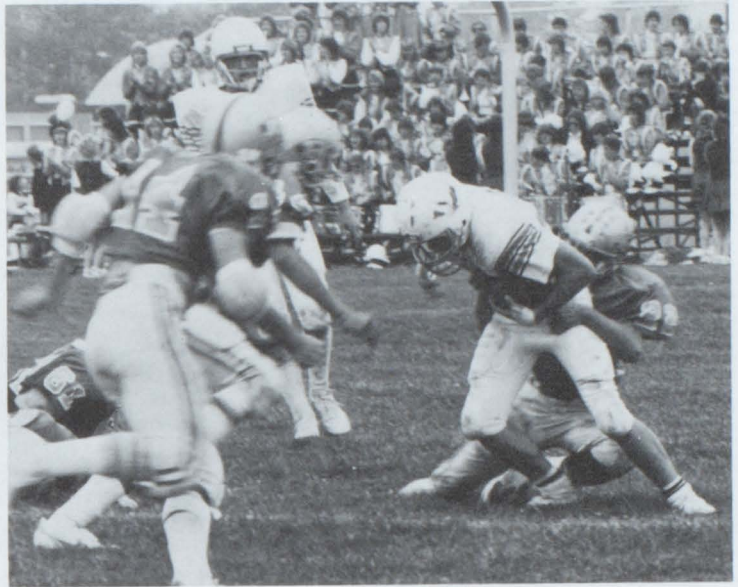

"Looking back on a 3-7 year," Sean Uber commented, is not as disappointing as most would expect. It was the most exciting season of football that I have played. All of the guys on the team put out 100% at all times, but we just didn't get the breaks that Reynolds got when they beat us 7-6. It seemed all of the other teams had the luck and we didn't. I enjoyed very much being associated with all the players on the team. It was a year that I will never forget."

On the way to the Varsity locker room, the last cries of the season and the familiar smells slowly faded away. Scott Knouse summed up the season perfectly by saying, "Actually looking back on a high school football team's record is trivial. Whether one's record is 3-7 or 11-0 fades into one's memory as the years go by. The fun of reflecting on the football season is to know you were an integral part of forty other people's lives for two hours every day. All our differences were forgotten when we put on the pads. To say we were unlucky is false. Luck is relative; it is what you yourself make happen. The best teams have the best luck and vice versa. I will always have fond memories of my last high school football season and team."

Calling out the signals, Senior QB Pat Cavanaugh leads his team to another first down. Despite many returning seniors, the Eagles had a disappointing 3-7 season.

Watching from the sidelines, concern is evident in Jim Saunders' face. Enthusiasm and spirit were important ingredients in the 1984 team.

Runners Maiden Voyage

The 1985 year was an exciting one for Grove City running enthusiasts. Not only did they have cross-country and track to participate in, they also had indoor track. The indoor track program consisted of conditioning practices four to five times a week and meets throughout the tri-state area. The program was highly successful and many participants predict it will become one of the more highly touted sports teams. In fact, one Senior commented, "I'd rather run and lose than wrestle and win."

After the end of the race Junior Greg Ifft looks as if he could drop. Greg along with Jim Highland will lead the way next year for the indoor track program.

Lance Reeser and Darin Powell were neck and neck as they streaked toward the finish line.

Senior Sam Goncz was deep in thought as he prepared himself for an important meet. The meet which was held at West Virginia University found Eagle runners placing high.

Although the 1984 season started off with a loss to Kennedy Christian, the Eagle Golfers persevered, ending the season with a respectable 6-6 record and total team average of 88.9.

Brad Williamson, who is low man on the team with an average of 82.75, had this to say about the '84 season and his four years on the team, "Our record for the season was surprising to me because I didn't think we would win many. Over the four years that I played, I made many friends from the other schools, which was very rewarding."

The top four Eagle Golfers were Brad Williamson, Alan Miller, John Hormell, and Mike Tinkey. These men made it to districts where each played respectably.

Summarizing the season, Coach Clarke commented, "I was personally satisfied with the effort and performance of our team. More importantly, I am pleased with the kind of young men they are."

No caddies assist the Eagle Golfers. Brad Williamson and Sam Trinch make their way to the first tee.

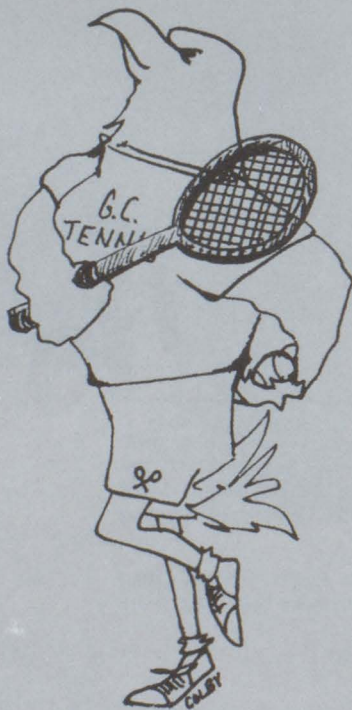

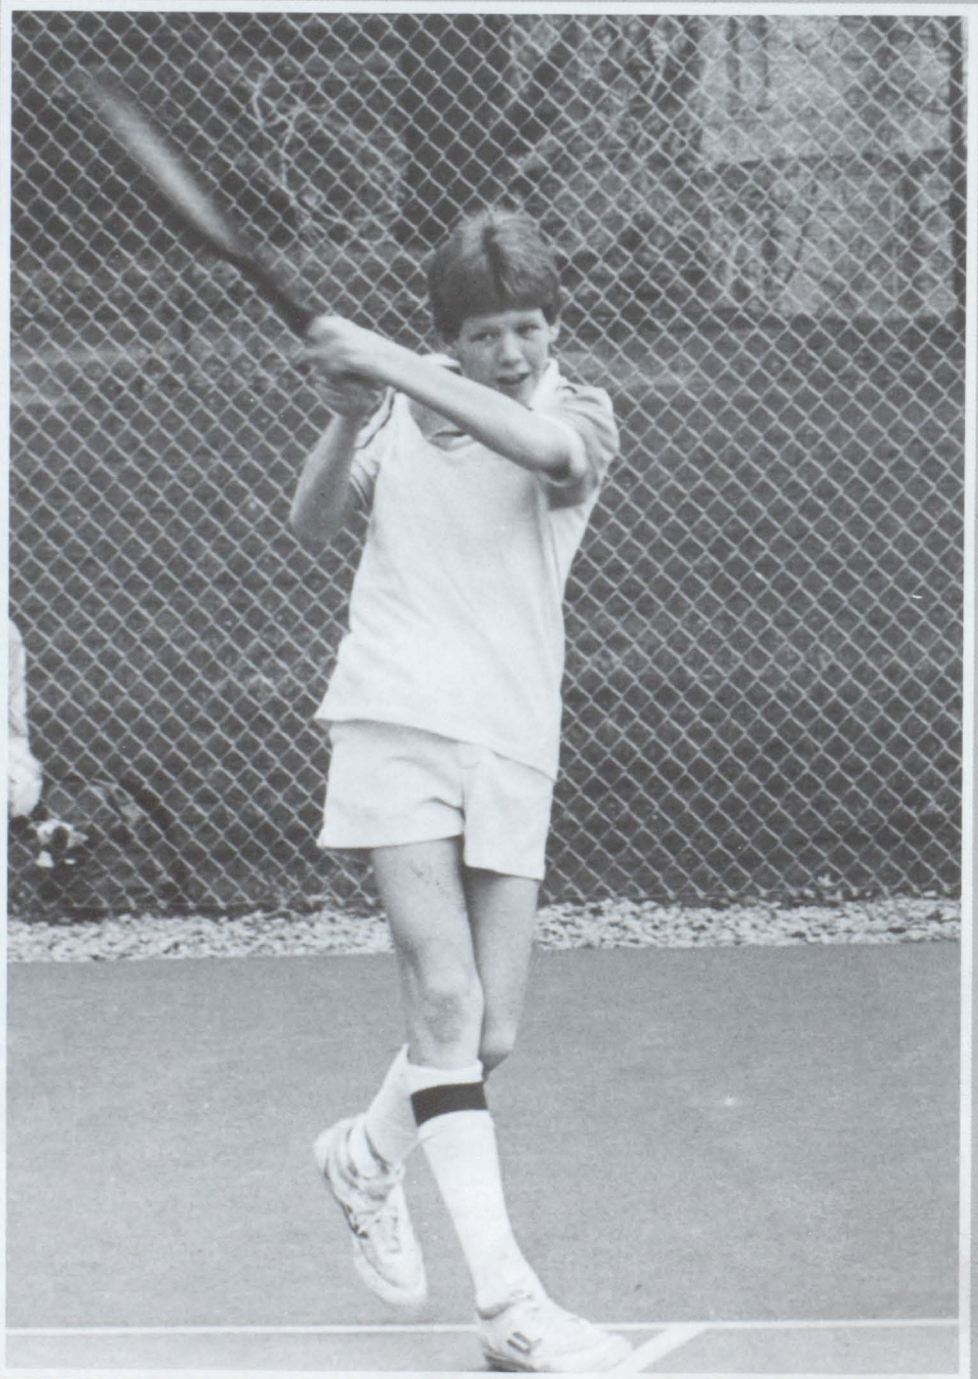

Ready, Willing And Able

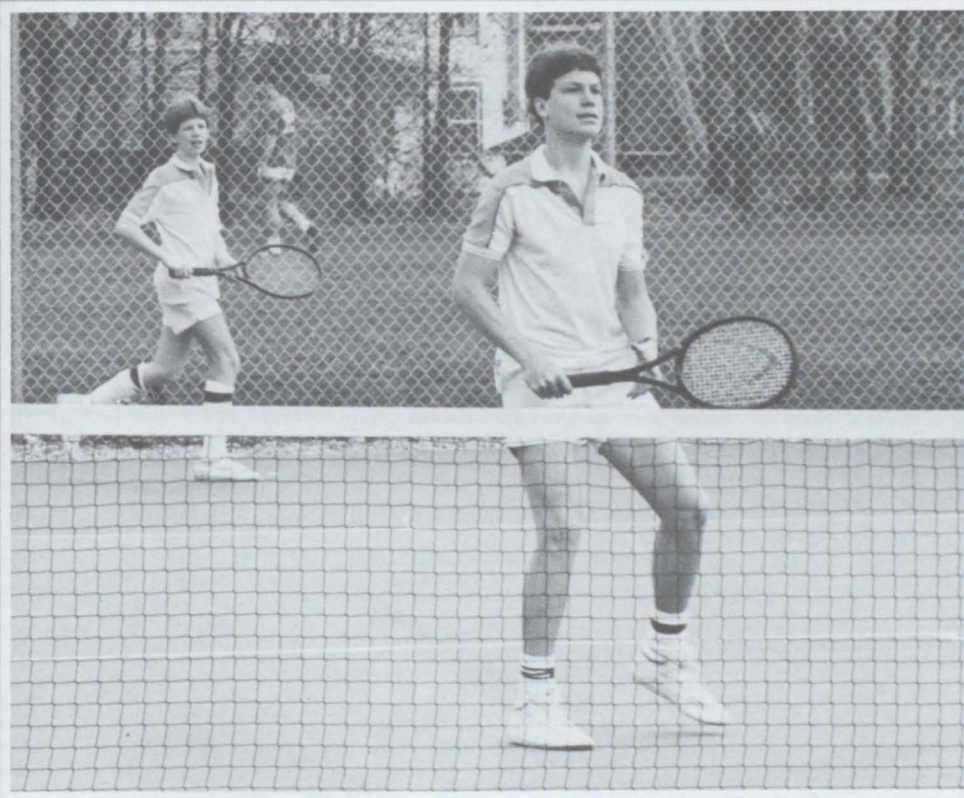

The tennis players were ready, willing, and able to chalk up a winning record. Long hours of practice and maximum effort enabled the Grove City netters to emerge victorious from most of their matches.

While most students were skiing or sledding in mid-winter, this group of tennis nuts braved the cold winds and sub-arctic temperatures to drive to Sharon to practice indoor at the Buhl Club. The players somehow survived the journey with the help of a walkman and junk food. In fact, some industrious students managed to do HOMEWORK!

Coached by Lorraine Gilson, there were many individual triumphs during the year. Proper techniques especially on the serve were stressed as well as other fundamentals.

Being a young team, next year will certainly be a year to watch the gutsy, determined Grove City High School Tennis team.

With runners like Penn Barger, Lance Reeher and Traci Kelly, the teams had strength in long distance runs. Doug Simmons and Liz Lacass provided the support in the hurdles. Glenn Cunningham and Marya Louise, with their speed, took control in the shorter races. Toughest meets were against Mercer, known for its speed, and Greenville, who is always tough to beat. Mr. Reeher and Mrs. McKenzie were very pleased with the overall record and were especially pleased with the eight girls and fourteen guys who went to district qualifiers.

Junior, Eric McCool takes another chance at the high bar and makes it over with ease.

Against Lakeview, Doug Simmons wins the 110 hurdles with a time of 15.2.

Full of determination, Senior Jennifer Minor attacks the finish line for first place.

TOP SENIOR ATHLETES REWARDED

Starting in 1965 and continuing each year, Grove City High School athletes have voted to honor the athlete that possesses the following characteristics: leadership, compatability, sportsmanship, and unselfishness. The athletes from the ten interscholastic sports in which the high school supports, vote by secret ballot to honor the memory of another outstanding Grove City High School athlete, Frank "Jiggs" Wolford.

On October 19, 1935 Grove City played host to arch-rival Sharon. Having led the interference for a teammate who had just completed a 70 yard touchdown run, Wolford fell dead at the goal line. The cause of death was diagnosed as a heart attack. The tragedy was announced at half-time and the game was discontinued.

A newspaper account stated, "Frank was more than an excellent football player, he was a pal of every student and of every resident. He was known most for his extreme modesty." The recipient of the "Jiggs" award is said to be the embodiment of all the qualities Frank Wolford enjoyed.

Mr. Noel, Grove City High School Athletic Director, commented "Although all of the sports teams were not successful in a win-lose fashion, the athletes represented the school well. In addition, the coaching staff was very cooperative and were totally involved in helping the athletes on and off the field. He also thanked the 1985 Pine Knot Staff for covering the All-Sports Banquet/Jiggs Wolford Award for the first time.

A Sad Farewell To A New Beginning

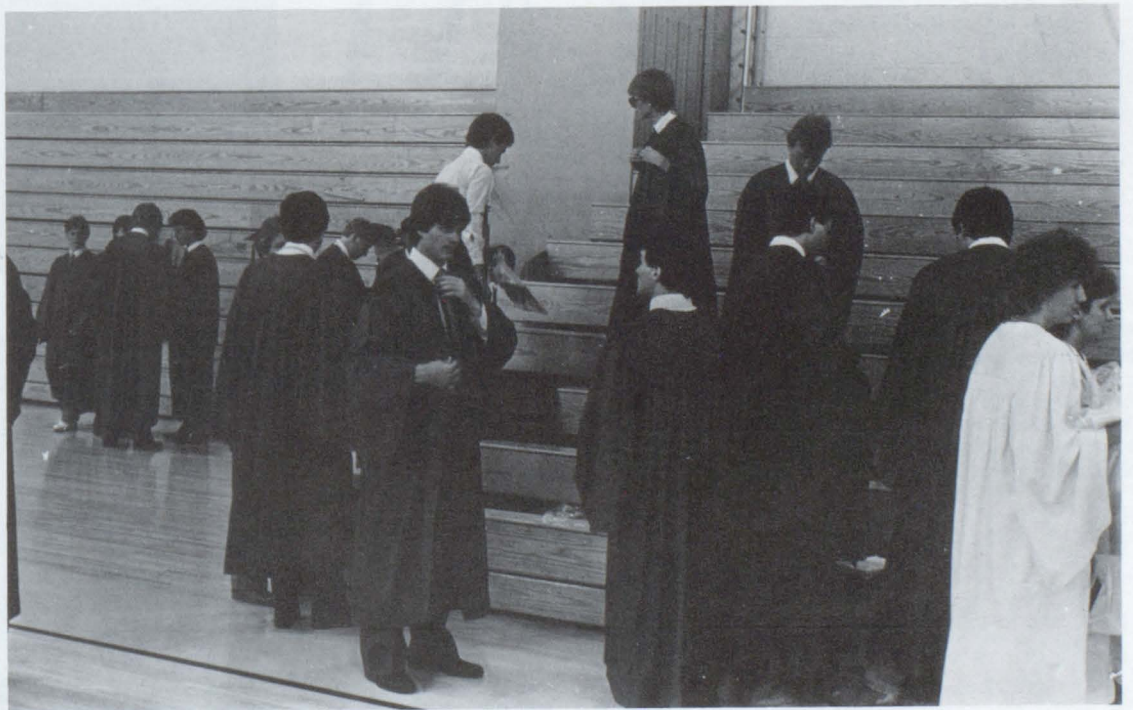

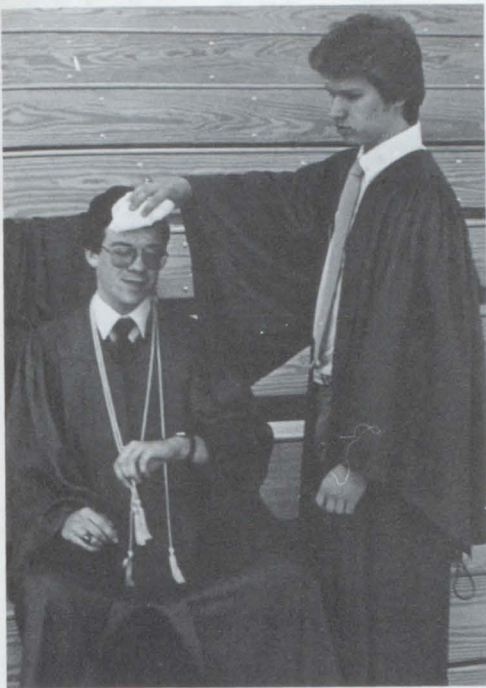

It's graduation day! A day of celebration! Of warm embraces from family and friends . . . of heartfelt farewells to friends . . . of parting words and congratulatory handshakes.

Yet, there is a tinge of sadness to this day. Because it is an ending. These farewells might just be forever. It's hard to keep in touch with people, they move to a different state or marry and change their names.

And there is some uncertainty to this day as well. Once the cap and gown are turned in - then what? No one knows what the future will bring . . . what dreams will be realized, what disappointments will be faced. We leave behind the familiar now to step out into the unknown - both an exhilarating and terrifying prospect.

And so we meet on this graduating day with mixed emotions. Glad to see it come, sad to see it go. But oh, so good to have diploma in hand.

THE BAT

Two diverse forms of theatre were produced on stage that provided an interesting and challenging year for our Drama students. A mystery entitled "The Bat" by Mary Roberts Rinehart was performed in November with Lisa Harris as the protagonist, Cornelia Van Gorder, a maiden lady of sixty, that rents the summer home of a New York banker who had been reported dead in Colorado some months before. She is warned that mysterious things are happening around the house, but she refuses to move. About this time it is discovered that a large sum of money is missing from the dead banker's bank. Immediately the suspicion is aroused that is far from being dead, he has stolen the money, hidden it in a secret chamber in his house, and is waiting for a good chance to sneak back and get it. Four different people are after the money - the bank cashier, wrongfully accused of stealing it; a detective engaged by Miss Van Gorder to clear up the mystery; a doctor friend and supposed confederate of the missing banker; and The Bat, a notorious thief who has long eluded the police. There are mysterious murders, shivery rappings, and many false leads for the audience to follow before the mystery is finally cleared.

Girls Of The Garden Club

Seniors Lisa Harris and Kim Ondo portray middle age women with startling realism.

Ondo, Leo, Hamilton and Parenti display a wide variety of emotions during a pivotal scene.

In April, the Spring production was "The Girls of the Garden Club" a hilarious comedy by John Patrick dealt with the indomitable ladies whose lives evolved around the often outlandish doings of the local garden club. The lead role of Rhonda Greenleaf was portrayed by Kim Ondo. For Rhonda Greenleaf gardening is all, and the presidency of the garden club her highest goal. But standing in her way is the incumbent, Lillybelle, played by Wendy Hanna, who peppers her speech with French phrases and is a general pain in the neck. How to oust Lillybelle and install herself as president becomes Rhonda's obsession - with husband, children and home all pushed aside she pursues her quest. Despite help from other club members Rhonda is stalled, until her daughter's boyfriend comes up with a novel idea - he slips a voice box into Rhonda's prize plant, turning it into the worlds only talking flower. As it has been agreed to have the presidency of the garden club go to whomever wins first prize in the Flower Show, Rhonda appears to be a shoo-in. But then, as fate would have it, complications arise. Rhonda's plant apparently dies; it miraculously comes back to life; Rhonda wins first prize. Lillybelle cries foul play; the "plant" gives Lillybelle a few choice words: and shaken Lillybelle retires to defeat. To make matters perfect Rhonda's husband finally agrees to buy her a greenhouse.

HAWAIIAN LUAU

The class of '86 offered the class of '85 one of the most elaborate proms ever seen at Grove City High School. Planning was extensive, work was arduous, and hours were long, for the Juniors wanted nothing less than to create an evening of astonishing long-term memories for the Seniors.

In March the question was, "What do we do?" The answer was form committees, find a theme, and make money. After a poll they decided on "Hawaiian Luau" as the theme. The Junior class magazine sales provided funds. Then Scott Wise, the Junior class president, met with the other class officers to organize the committees.

John Meyers led the talented building committee, which converted the ideas of an 18 foot volcano and a 15 foot Tiki god into realities. John Meyers directed the imaginative art committee, which transformed gymnasium walls into tropical skies, Hawaiian villages and a cannibal. Wendy Hedglin spirited the omniscient favors committee, which not only covered everything that didn't move with paper mache, but managed to find 50 coconuts and 50 pineapples the morning of the prom.

In April, the question was, "How do we do it?" The answer was work. For three nights a week as well as Saturday mornings, the building committee invaded the metal shop and the art committee occupied the halls. By mid-April the favors committee joined in as work moved to the gym and sessions were held nightly.

By noon of April 26, the prom committee's question was, "Why did we do it?" The answer, "Because we are the prom."

Elegantly dressed in black and white, Kristen Puntureri and Brad Williamson made a striking couple.

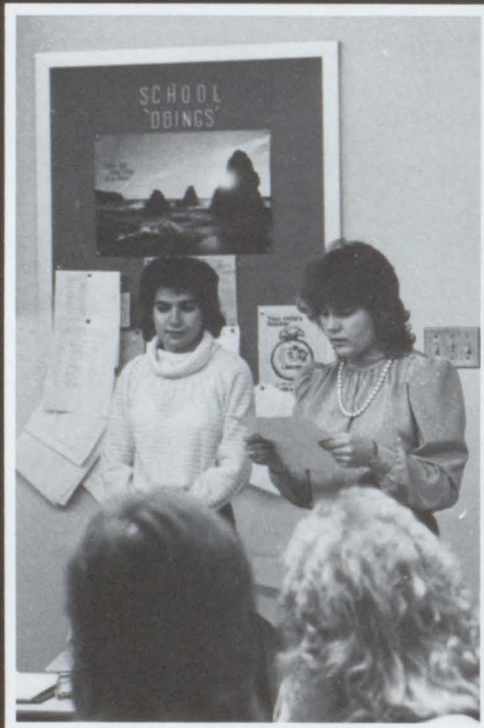

The female pages were an integral part of the prom by escorting and serving refreshments.

The enchanted couples danced to the music of "Tight End" in the tropical setting of the gym.

Kevin Woods and Terry Curren shared a romantic evening at the Hawaiian Luau.

HITTING, SLOPES

Those cold winter nights at Mount Pleasant were memorable times for the G.C.H.S. Ski Club. The partying and fun began at 4 p.m. as the bus took off for Mount Pleasant. The fun ended when the bus would pull into the G.C.H.S. parking lot around midnight. There were six trips scheduled for Thursday nights. This year Mr. Miller and Mrs. Moore were the supervisors of the rowdy club. The trips were full of laughter and amazement when one survived that incredible crash.

Four wild Ski Club members were huddled together to discuss who had the best wipeout.

After a hard night of skiing, Mimi Bortz, kicks back to enjoy the warmth of the ski lodge.

Ski Club members anxiously awaited for the bus to arrive.

Going For The Big "G"

The players hard work has finally paid off. The time has come for them to receive letters for participating in sports events at G.C.H.S. The club consists of guys who are active in football, basketball, golf, tennis, cross country, and track. The members of the club also sponsor a car wash in order to help raise money for their jackets. The primary project of Monogram Club is to purchase letter jackets for those who earn them.

The Key To Service

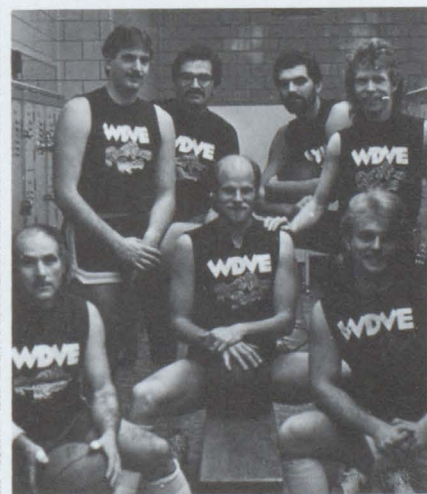

Key Club is an organization which provides many services for the community and for the school. The club is affiliated with the Grove City Kiwanis Club. Each year the members help the Kiwanis in many activities. This year Key Club sponsored a basketball game between B. E. Taylor and students from our school. They raised three hundred dollars for the Food Pantry. The members also helped the Kiwanis Club in serving the annual pancake dinner. Key Club also sponsors a blood drive for the Red Cross and also raise money each year for the Salvation Army. The club advisor is Mr. Adams. Key Club is a very helpful organization in our school and community.

Stevie, B. E. Taylor, and friends were No. 1, over three hundred dollars was raised for the Community Food Pantry.

"Too Tall" Thompson went for it all. Despite his effort, the Grove City team fell to the B. E. Taylor Team.

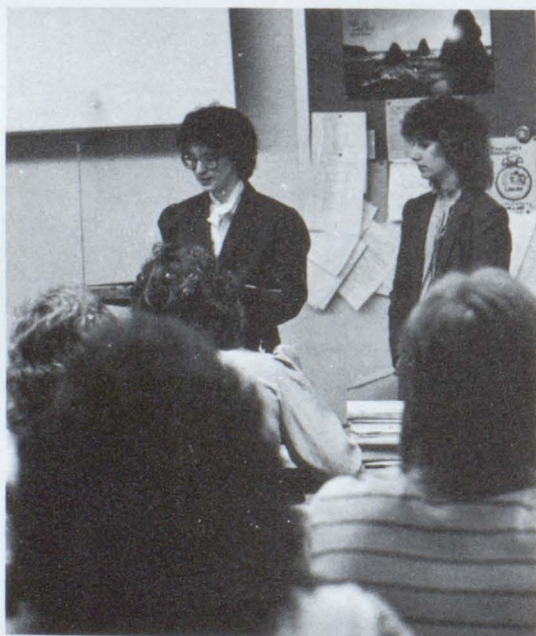

FBLA — All-Time Winners

FBLA stands for Future Business Leaders of America. This group participated in many activities throughout the 1984-85 school year. The members started the year by attending the Regional Leadership Workshop at West Middlesex in October. They ended the month with a "sweet tooth" when they presented every GCHS student with a lollipop to show their Halloween spirit. The IFS Jewelry Sale was an excellent fundraiser for the club. Cystic-Fibrosis "Bowl-for-Breath" was their State FBLA Project held in February. Jennifer Perry received a trophy for collecting the most money in the Muscular Dystrophy "Flashtype" Typing Contest. Trophy winners for highest speeds with accuracy were Tammy Blom, Deb Raper, and Regan Stokes. Highlighting the spring activities was the Regional leadership Conference held at Cranberry High School where members competed for awards. The year was brought to a close in May with the annual Parent/Businesspersons Banquet. FBLA, as you can see, is an active and interesting vocational organization.

Miss Tyson gave the group a few ideas to get their creative minds working.

Two of the club officers, Nancy Ebel and Tammy Blom informed the club of their future activities.

Everyone gets the impression that FFA is an organization only for those who are planning on being farmers. It is much more. The GCHS Chapter of the Future Farmers of America is part of a nationwide organization for those students who are studying agriculture.

At the beginning of the year, FFA held a citrus fruit sale and also seed sale. January 7-11 was the State Farm Show and FFA Mid-Winter Convention. February 16-23 was National FFA Week. In March they had a Parent-Member Banquet. The members of FFA participated in many contests throughout the year. FFA is an important organization led by Mr. Boyer.

Education, Work and Fun

Occupational Education is basically a closed club. Membership is for O.E. students. It helps them to develop understanding of parliamentary procedures and to develop self-confidence.

Fund raising is part of the program. Apple cider was sold to help pay for their Halloween and Christmas parties. Other projects took place throughout the year. Mr. McPherson has been the key advisor of the club and their activities.

Council Organizes Projects

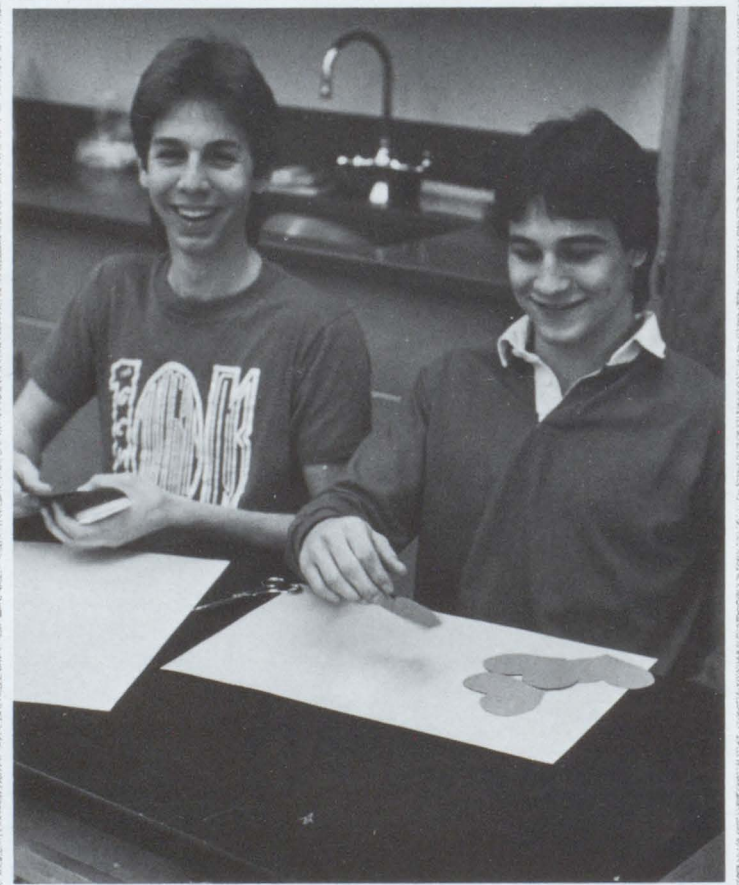

Student Council is a student organization. Five students from each class are elected by their classmates to represent them in student affairs. Student Council arranged and financed many activities during the year. The kick-off for the year was "Meet the Eagles." During the month of December, they held a T-shirt campaign to raise money for the different activities they sponsor. Homecoming and Winter Festival are two of these activities. They are also responsible for getting Parent Nights together. They were in charge of the Carnation sale held on Valentine's Day.

Through these and other activities, the student government enabled students to express themselves, thus improving the school itself along with the individuals who participated.

Scholars of G.C.H.S.

Scholarship, Character, Leadership and Service are four of the many characteristics that each person in this group possesses. National Honor Society is a group of the school's top academic achievers. Each spring an assembly is held where the top 5% of the Sophomore class is admitted into the society. By fall, 10% of the Junior class and 15% of the Senior class have been inducted. Membership is based on grades, participation in extracurricular activities, and teacher recommendations.

National Honor Society members help out within the school. Kiran Mehta was in charge of the tutoring program. This program gave high school students the opportunity to get extra help with courses in which they were having problems. The Society also had a Christmas College Invitation Day. Alumni from G.C.H.S. came back and talked about some of the changes they went through when they went away to college. Mr. Matuk and Mr. Clarke, are the advisors for National Honor Society.

Just inducted, Shonna Trinch and Jamie Young lead the other members to the cafeteria for the banquet.

Margo Young and Paula Waugaman patiently waited for dinner to be served at the banquet following the Winter Induction Ceremony.

The Show Begins

It all started when auditions were held, and 20 people were chosen to be Show Choir members. They sang mostly pop music or show tunes. Dancing was added to their performance, which really made an entertaining show. Show Choir has performed for many service organizations. A few of these were the Lions' Club, the Kiwanis, and the Rotary. They also performed at the District V Chorus Festival. Mr. Barron brought out the musical ability in all of Show Choir's members.

Pre-show jitters escaped while Show Choir members rehearsed for a show at the Country Club.

Show Choir members had as much fun dancing and singing as the audience had listening to them.

Cathy Rosettsky and Ken Ryan performed excellently together when they performed at the Knights Of Columbus.

Concert choir was a group of 85 members that sounded as if they were meant to sing as one. Twice a year, at Christmas and in the Spring, they put on concerts for the school and the public. At Christmas time a special performance was held at the Mercer County Court House. The music they sang ranged from the classical style to the modern-day pop. Director of the choir was Mr. David Barron.

Anything Goes

The music started on August 20th when the G.C.H.S. Band met at the high school for Band camp. The G.C.H.S. Band spent the last two weeks of August getting ready for the 1984 season.

The Band was dedicated to arousing the spirit of the fans. Each week new tunes were prepared to help the boys achieve victory. Drum majors, Colleen Kearney and Mike Tinkey, were under the supervision of Mr. Tony Naples. These three individuals did an excellent job. They put together a wide variety of elaborate formations and up-to-beat routines. Some of the rhythmic songs they played included "She Works Hard For The Money", "Jeremiah Was A Bullfrog", "Putting On The Ritz", "My Love", "Hello", and the crowd arouser "Anything Goes". The 1984 Band helped make the year a very memorable and musical time.

GRIP

Stage Crew is composed of students who were responsible for making the backstage operations run properly and smoothly. They were responsible for running the lights and all the other special effects for the special programs and assemblies. They also handled the preparations for getting the stage ready for plays. The students were under the supervision of Mr. William Snyder. The Stage Crew always did an excellent job in adding that extra touch to the viewer's eye.

Library Lovers

Library Club is a group of people who enjoyed promoting interest in books and reading. It is a service club which assisted the staff and the students in the use of the library and its resources. Students became familiar with the classification and arrangement of books and magazines. They learned how to use the various reference materials and how to follow standard library procedures. Club advisor Miss Davis established a proper behavioral system while the students were in the library.

Dancing Damsels

Golden Girls are a group of young ladies who participated in the half time entertainment shows during the football games and the community parades. The group was a subdivision of the marching band, always adding an extra something to the beat of the music. They prepared various routines to the songs "Gold & White", "Power of Gold", "Baddest Band", "Joy to the World", "Anything Goes", and "Puttin on the Ritz." The colorful uniforms the Golden Girls wore lit up the night when they hit the field. Belinda Webster and Julie Jordan were responsible for teaching and helping the girls prepare their routines. Mr. Naples also deserves a special thank you for being the girls' advisor.

As the music started to play Lisa Harris was right on step.

Proud of her dancing, Debbie McWilliams added that extra "boom-boom" to the routine.

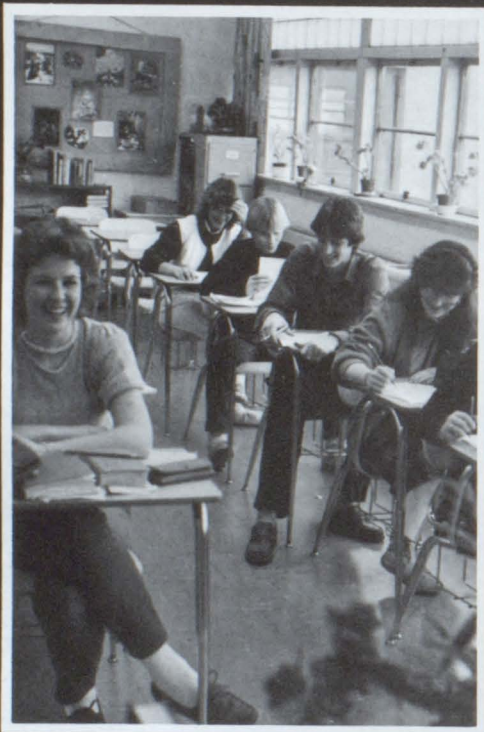

Amy Rice took her hat off to the crowd at the end of the performance.

Underclass Presidents Speak Out

To me being a Junior means there is a lot to do. Taking health and literature is the start of it. Then the magazine sale rolls around, and selling becomes a part of your life for the next three weeks, just to make sure we have a prom. Although we as Juniors have a lot to do, we love to spend a little time roughing up the underclassmen. We have a lot of fun all year; but at the end, college becomes our major priority. Sometimes we just want to push all the books away and try not to think about college, but we know we have to strive to do our best. I'm in the middle of a group of people. Perhaps the best part is being a member of the class of '86.

- Scott Wise

To me being a Sophomore means: Having only three more years to go; being able to drive. Ruling over the incoming Freshmen. Shuddering at the thought of the up-coming PSAT and SAT Tests. Graduating in "1987". Participating in pep assemblies. Being able to go to the Prom in one more year. Going to activities, movies, parties, etc. Enjoying long conversations on the phone when I should be doing homework. Thinking of a college I might like to attend, and how far away I'd like to go from Grove City! Not being a Freshman! And finally, feeling proud to be a member of Grove City High School by wearing our school's name and colors in sports, band, cheerleading, or any other extra-curricular activity.

- Gigi Highland

To me being a freshman means . . . going last in the lunch line, running errands for Seniors, putting up with all the teasing from Seniors, letting Seniors run into you in the hall, having Miss Stuck for English, having three more years of school, not doing the cheers at pep assemblies, having Mr. Christy for Science, always getting your locker stacked, trying to make friends with the upperclassmen, wanting to learn how to drive because you're tired of walking everywhere, and wishing you were back in the easy Jr. High.

- Jeff Mills

Juniors

The energetic, outgoing class of 1986 added spirit, creativity, and personality throughout the halls of Grove City and contributed greatly to a successful school year.

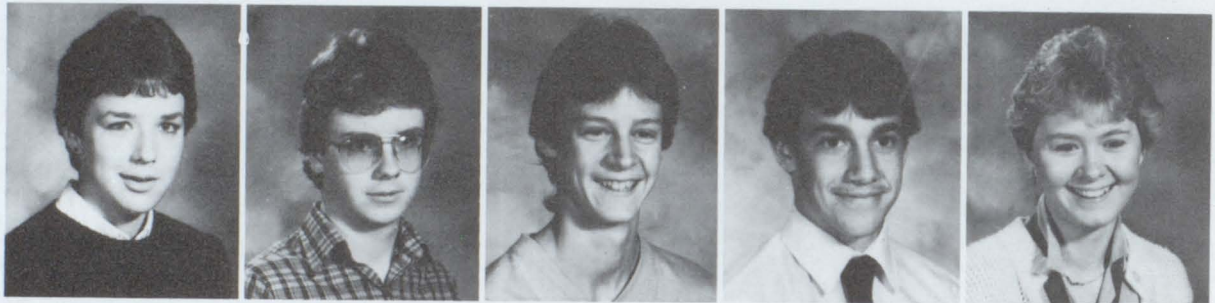

Led by president Scott Wise, vice president John Hormell, secretary John Myers, and treasurer Wendy Hedglin, the juniors participated in various activities and accumulated a large sum of money for the 1984-85 prom.

Entering the school year with new ideas and goals, many college-bound juniors opted to schedule a heavy academic load. When asked what it took to be a junior, Ann Schall simply stated, "patience, and the ability to stand firm knowing that there is only one more year of discipline left."

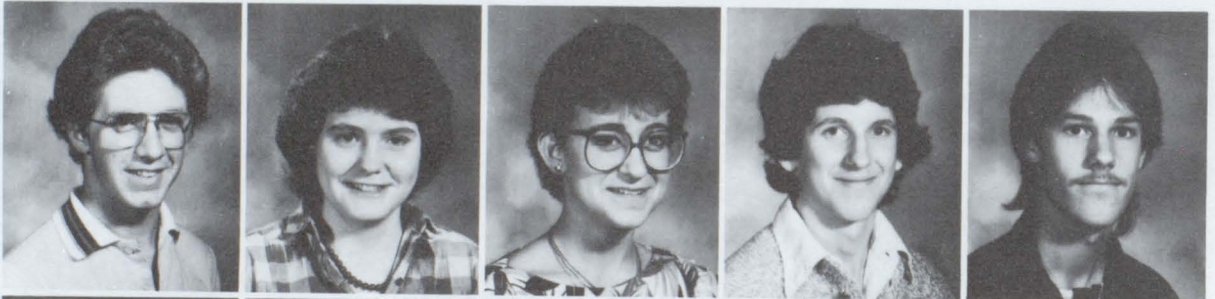

The class of 1986 was a unique influence at Grove City and as the year progressed looked forward to someday holding the title of senior.

The Sophomore Class of 1987 helped make the year a success. They contributed spirit, style, creativity, and excitement to clubs, pep assemblies, athletic events, and various other activities that occurred throughout the year. Led by Class President Gigi Highland, Vice President Vicki Reide, Treasurer Teresa Roach, and Secretary Bobbi Jo Gargas, they disproved their stereotype of giddy youth. Not number one, and not the last,
With new ideas and points of view.
Status as freshman is now in the past,
Showing maturity is now what we do.
Working hard, trying to pass,
And finish two years out of four.
We are proud to be part of this class
And be acknowledged as a sophomore.

Freshmen

Atending Sr. High School was a new experience for every freshman. They found there was more to becoming a high school student than just going to a new school. Their teachers and older peers, who tended to ignore them, expected them to become more mature. Under the leadership of President, Jeff Mills, Vice-President, Nathan Hughes, Secretary, Sarah Barr, and Treasurer, Paula Lapcevic, the freshmen finished their first year of high school with a "fresh" outlook and came one step closer to graduation.

The first day we walked in
We didn't know what to expect.
We were the youngest again,
The insignificant freshmen.
We walked through the halls,
Getting lost at first.
The way upperclassmen treated us
It made us wonder, "What could be worse?"
But soon we caught on,
Gaining confidence each day,
Knowing seniors wouldn't be seniors
Without taking the steps we took each day.

Administration Gets A Face-lift

As the 1984-85 school year came around, there were a few new faces in the administration. Although Dr. Packard has remained our Principal, Mr. McClelland, who was Acting Asst. Principal last year, returned to his original position as the Graphic Arts teacher. In his place, Mr. Matuk was hired. Mr. Matuk is formerly from Southington High School in Southington, Ohio, where he was Principal for grades seven through twelve.

Another new face is Dr. Zuhlke, our new Asst. Superintendent. Dr. Zuhlke was formerly from Ohio where he served as Asst. Director at Ohio State University for a program called School Study Council of Ohio. He was also Asst. Superintendent at Buckeye Valley Local Schools in Ohio. This is the first time Dr. Zuhlke has lived in Pennsylvania.

Also new to our administration is Mr. Vensel, Business Manager. Mr. Vensel is formerly from Carnes City. After Graduating from Carnes City High School, Mr. Vensel attended Grove City College. He graduated from GCC in 1980 and then returned to Carnes City where he was Business Manager.

Mr. Orsillo gets down, while teaching his Spanish class to Cha-Cha! Marc Winder, Dave Foster, and the gang are following in his foot steps.

Cha - Cha - Cha!

While most students were taking notes and listening to lectures, Mr. Orsillo was letting his Spanish classes unwind and learn a little more than just what's in the books. He was teaching them the Cha-Cha. Mr. Orsillo said that he teaches this dance and others, like the Rumba and the Tango, to the students because it is part of the culture and behavioral pattern of the Spanish people. To Tracie Hennon, a G.C.H.S. Freshman, learning the Cha-Cha "was fun to watch the other kids, but I felt a little foolish, myself." On the other hand, Jeff Hatton, a G.C.H.S. Senior said, "Dancing the Cha-Cha was really interesting and was also a great learning experience."

An Apple For The Students

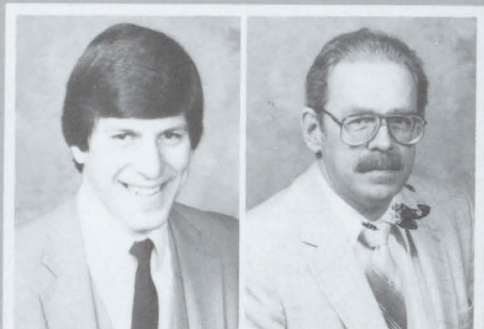

As the Computer age continues to expand and broaden its horizons, so do the G.C.H.S. computer science classes. With the arrival of twelve new Apple Computers, G.C.H.S. now has a total of 22 computers, five printers, and two large screen TV hook-ups, which make classroom teaching easier and more convenient. Classes now being offered to G.C.H.S. students are: Computer Literacy - for grade nine, Introduction to Computer Programming in BASIC - for grades ten, eleven, and twelve, and Advanced Programming in BASIC - for grades eleven and twelve.

Mr. Dzuricko points out to Senior, Jim Richardson, that using a REM statement in his graphics program will aid him if he has to correct errors

"Cutting" In Class

In late fall Mrs. Gilson's Senior Anatomy class learned the fine art of dissecting. They used the skills they learned throughout the rest of the year. Mrs. Gilson has the students do this because it interrelates with the unit the class is currently studying. The Seniors will have studied the bone structure, muscle tissue, ligaments, cartilage, and internal organs by the end of the year.

This experience was a stomach-turning gruesome task for some and a real learning observation for others. The students first dissected lambs eyeballs, and after learning their skills, they then dissected fetal pigs. Each student had to compile a bag containing their surgical equipment including: a pair of rubber gloves, razor blades, dissecting scissors, a scalpel, a petri dish, tweezers, and an old shirt to serve as a lab coat. To Lisa Meals "Dissecting the fetal pigs was a great help in relating what you were learning on paper to what it actually was."

Mr. Adams - Safety/Drivers Education

Mrs. Denbow - Physical Education
Mrs. Garton - School Nurse

Mrs. Gilson - Health, Anatomy
Mr. Ruley - Physical Education

Mrs. Gilson assists Karen Garland in the dissection of her fetal pig and gives a few pointers; while behind them, Tom Hamil works busily on.

Processing Prepares

Business classes At G.C.H.S. aren't just shorthand and typing anymore. Just as everything else advances, so does our Business Department. G.C.H.S. has offered Data Processing for several years, but the nature of the course has changed to keep pace with technological advances. Last year a semester course in Word Processing was added in response to increasing demand for such knowledge. Computer use is also being integrated into other Business classes such as Accounting, Typing, Office Procedures, and Introduction to Business.

Word Processing is a system that changes ideas to readable communication by coordinating people, machines, procedures, and environments. Word Processing deals mainly with the learning of terminology and procedures the first part of the course, while learning how to use Apple Writer software. The second part of the course every student is involved in a simulated insurance company project.

Data Processing is the transformation of facts into useful information. In Data Processing, some introduction to programming is taught. The class also deals with term familiarity, software use, and some microcomputer work. Some of these class activities include simulated payrolls, purchase orders, and several other basic business applications. Next year a new Business class will be offered called Keyboarding, which will concentrate on the development of data entry skills. Mrs. Bisbee, Data/Word Processing teacher said some of the advantages to taking these courses are that the students are better prepared for college, have more background and work with the computers, and are better prepared for work in an office.

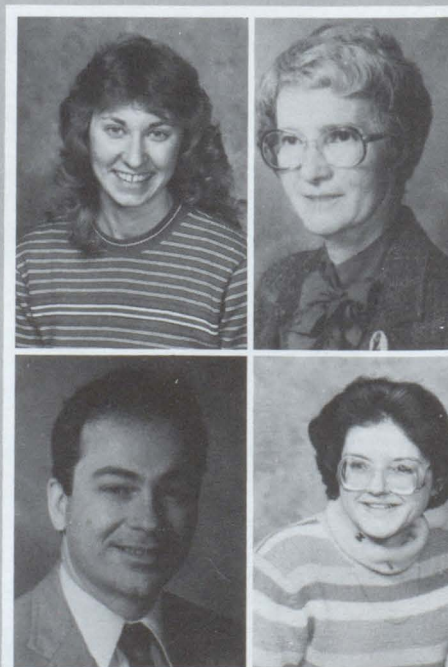

Mrs. Bisbee - Shorthand,
Data/Word Processing
Miss Foster - Typing I & II

Mr. Mattocks - Accounting I &
II, Business Law
Miss Tyson - Introduction to Business

Mrs. Bisbee helps Lisa Burckle with her insurance company project, which simulates actual business procedures and problems.

Work Experience

The Occupational Educational program in our school is geared on a work learning process. The O.E. work program consists of two main parts. The first is in-school work. This program is offered to Sophomore O.E. students. The program is as stated, working within the school system. An example of some of the jobs these students would have are class aides, custodians, or cafeteria helper. The in-school work system is to prepare the students for work with an employer.

In the Junior and Senior years, the O.E. work program is expanded to out-of-school work. This means the student will then go to school for half a day and work for an employer the other half of the day.

This past year there were two students in the out-of-school program, one at Rax's and the other at Howe's. Several more were involved on the in-school program. Mr. McPherson, O.E. teacher, said that most of the students who complete this program are successful.

A Touch Of History

For the second time, G.C.H.S. participated in History Day, an exciting, voluntary program that encourages young people to explore a historical subject related to a yearly theme. This year's theme was "Triumphs and Tragedies in History." There were forty students who participated this year. Students could choose one of six categories which included papers, projects, presentations, and performances. They could also team up to work in groups. Students were awarded with trophies, monetary awards, and medals. More importantly, students were rewarded with new knowledge acquired through their personal efforts. Those participating that won on our own local level were:

Faculty "Coaches" Students

The faculty really showed us some style and spirit when they donned their team sweatshirts to tell us who's who. A Cultural Beginning

New ground was broken this year in the way of cultural events. GCHS displayed its worldly character by launching new ventures in the art world. On the nights that the successful play "The Girls of the Garden Club" was produced, GCHS staged its first art show. The idea for the show was formed several years ago and was finally organized this year by Mr. Schubert and the Art Department. Many forms of art were presented. Exhibits included drawings, prints, paintings, and some sculptures. All twelve grades throughout the School District were represented. It was exciting to view some excellent pieces of artwork that our very own students created. The possibility for holding another show are extremely high since many people commented very favorably on the show.

The Secretaries of G.C.H.S.

Mrs. Brown- Secretary to Library

Mrs Butler - Secretary to Asst. Principal

Miss Kaveney - Payroll clerk/Computer Installation Manager

Mrs. Lamont - Secretary to Transportation Supervisor

Mrs. Lindey - Guidance Secretary

Mrs. McGinnis - Secretary to Principal

Miss Royle - Receptionist/Secretary to Psychologist

Mrs. Sankey - Secretary to Asst Superintendent

Miss Urey - Asst. Business Manager/Secretary to Business Manager

Mrs. Walter - Secretary to Superintendent.

Since everyone thinks that the administrators keep things rolling at GCHS, the 1985 Pine Knot Staff would like to clarify this mistake. We know the truth thanks to some investigative reporting. The truth of the matter is that it is the secretaries who keep matters from becoming complete chaos. GCHS has secretaries who are unseen, too. These dedicated ladies work in the business offices at Highland School.

Leading the pack with the most years of service are our library's own Mrs. Brown and the ever-cheerful Mrs. McGinnis, who keeps our leader Dr. Packard in line. Both have been faithful to GCHS for 21 years. Following in second place is Mrs. Lamont who is the secretary to the Transportation Supervisor. She's been keeping traffic flowing for 19 years. Trailing in a close third place are Miss Urey, the finance handler, and our own ever-popular Mrs. Butler, our attendance coach, both having been at their jobs for 18 years. Coming in at fourth is Mrs. Walters who also has had a big job keeping our superintendents on their toes for 16 years. Having worked a hard 13 years is the Guidance Office's own Mrs. Lindey. She is the coach of everyone's coach. Last, but certainly not least, are the newcomers to our happy family: Miss Kavney, 4 ½ years; Miss Royle, 3½ years; and Mrs. Sankey, 2 years. We, the 1985 Pine Knot Staff, would like to pay tribute and to thank these wonderful women for their loyalty and hard years of service.

Cleaning Up The Aftermath

Did you ever think about what happened to that gum wrapper you nonchantantly threw on the floor this past year? Maybe someone came along and picked it up, but more than likely one of the custodians cleaned it up. Our custodians not only kept our school clean, but they also took care of the maintenance and various other jobs. When we had a basketball game for example, the custodians had to sweep the gym floor, open the bleachers, put up the railing on the bleachers, dust the bleachers, and then put the bleachers back away again when the game was over. They also had to keep the P.A. system in working order. Custodians were always being chased down in the winter months to fix thermostats and heater vents that were blowing cold air. In the spring they were being hunted down again, but this time because of a window that wouldn't open. No matter when or what the job was, our custodians always cleaned up the aftermath and kept our school looking good.

The broom brigade, Bill Arblaster, Dave Labor, and Edna Ruley, day custodians.

One of the members of the night patrol, Mr. Tinkey, night custodian, sweeps the front hall by the office.

C. Messer and E. Ruley take a short break before tackling the tedious task of waxing the hallways.

Mrs. Mary Who???

The name Mary Ryder probably doesn't mean much to most of the students at G.C.H.S., but after reading this, you'll find out just how important Mrs. Ryder was to us. Mrs. Ryder was the manager of our cafeteria. She worked in the cafeteria for thirty and a half years and was food manager for twenty-one and a half years. A food manager has the job of making up the menus, ordering the food, supervising the nutrition of the meals, and transporting the food to each of the schools as needed. Mrs. Ryder said that her years at G.C.H.S. were all very enjoyable. Her favorite part of her job was the kids, she enjoyed them immensely. Her one pet peeve was the cancellation of school. She said it was such a problem because she had to redo the menus, and occasionally the cafeteria wouldn't get its food shipments on time if they were supposed to come on the day of the cancellation. Mrs. Ryder also supervised the cooking for the French IV dinners during the fourteen years they were held. She said that they were very enjoyable and that she wished they would have continued them even after the retirement of the French IV advisor, Mrs. Christie. Mrs. Ryder plans to not only travel after her retirement, but also to relax and play with her new grandson.

Mrs. Ryder takes one last look over the kitchen in which she had worked for thirty and a half years.

Sitting: S. Oili, E. McFadden, S. Tunstall, M. Ryder. Standing: N. Breese, P. Blakley, D. Millham, S. Weber, P. Garland, P. Shoup, L. Brown, P. Louise, S. DeSue, S. Uber, M. Porkolob

P. Louise and S. Tunstall work busily away to prepare salads for over 700 students and teachers.

Senior Awards Day ... A Day For Recognition

One day each year many Seniors are acknowledged for their academic, artistic, and athletic achievements. Their awards include savings bonds, money, plaques, medallions, and scholarships. Awards are presented by community businesses, private parties, and school groups. Freshmen and Sophomores attended the ceremony for the first time ever. Previously it was attended only by Juniors and Seniors. The reason the underclassmen attended was to give them an opportunity to set their goals for achievement and to strive for them.

A black and white photograph of a large Marion crane at a mining site. The crane is a lattice boom crawler crane, positioned on a steep, rocky slope. The boom extends diagonally upwards towards the top right of the frame. The name 'MARION' is visible on the side of the boom. The background shows a vast, open-pit mine with steep, rocky walls. The sky is overcast and grey.

The Yearbook

This year the Pine Knot Staff has worked diligently to present the student body with a yearbook to be proud of. The staff met every day and worked through the headaches of drawing layouts, writing copy, and cropping pictures to give the students an exciting book that is full of memories of the 1984-85 school year.

We want to give special thanks to Mr. McClelland, our advisor, and Debbie Plummer, the editor. They both did a wonderful job of getting things organized, put in a lot of extra hours, and overall, were patient with us. We couldn't have done it without them.

Staff

A yearbook is a history book. A part of all our lives is contained in it. Good or bad, the memories remain. When you look back and dream of those high school years, you'll thank the Grove City Pine Knot Yearbook Staff for preserving those good old "flashes of the Past."

Flashes Of The Past

The end of a long road that seemed so far away and so much of a dream has now been reached. As graduation day neared, there were thoughts of the future, leaving friends, and being alone in a world of unknown tomorrows.

Through the years, there will always be flashes of the past filled with happy yesterdays to remember. Though the sun has set, there will be new horizons to challenge and accomplish; but to reach them it will be necessary to break away and face reality through the eyes of the future.

With these memories, good-byes won't be easier to say but it will keep the special friends in one's life forever.

Colophon

Five-hundred and fifty copies of the 1985 Pine Knot were printed by Walsworth Publishing Company of Marceline, MO.

The approximate cost of the "Flashes of the Past" edition was 12,000 dollars.

The yearbook was published by the 1985 Pine Knot staff.

Mr. Bernard Magirl, our yearbook representative, deserves a special thanks for his assistance and advice.

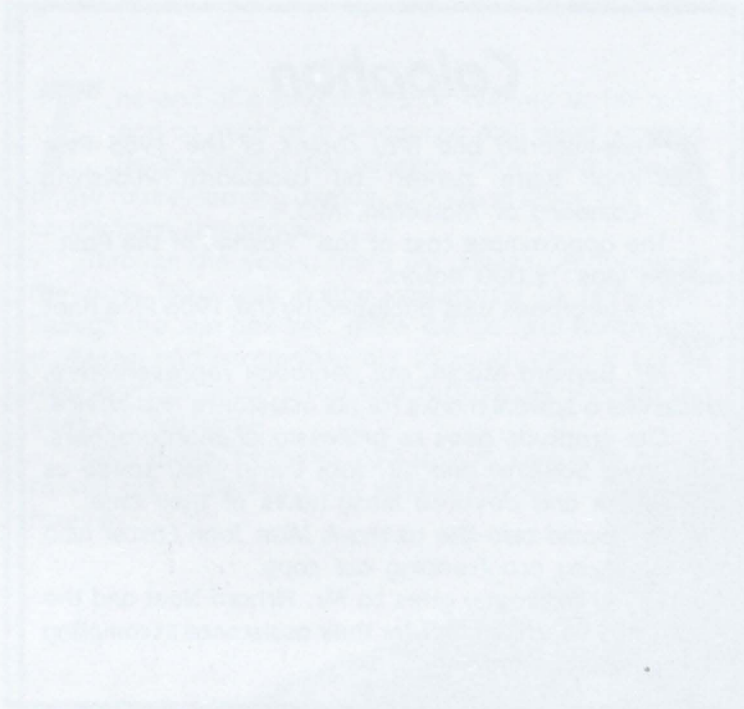

Our gratitude goes to professional photographers, Mr. David Schuster and Mr. Jack Curry. They saved us much work and devoted many hours of their time.

We would also like to thank Miss Joan Foster who helped us by proofreading our copy.

A final thank you goes to Mr. Richard Noel and the rest of the coaching staff for their assistance in compiling correct sports information.
