GROVE CITY AREA HIGH SCHOOL
GROVE CITY, PENNSYLVANIA

FOREWORD

This year has witnessed changes in many aspects of school life in areas of personal attitudes, ideas, courses and dress. The Administration has been more understanding this year than ever before with the expectation of developing fresh and improved views of the teacher-student relationship required for a complete education. Students are becoming more aware of the realm in which they live, with an increasing effort in urging students to participate in community, as well as, high school activities.

We, the Editors and Staff of the 1972 PINE KNOT perceive the changes that have occurred during this past year, and at the same time recognize how the past influences each one of us in many areas. Now with the opening of this book, we hope both joyous and serious memories may once again become vivid in your mind, as we go on to new and different things.

PINE KNOT

Here it is the 1972 PINE KNOT backed by much effort and devotion. Time and cooperation are necessary in the selections of various caption, copy, pictures and the design for the overall book. Much of the time includes evening hours and Saturdays in producing such a book. Pictures are taken, developed, printed and reprinted for better production. Finally late in February the final page goes to the printer and the task is finished. Much of the book's success is due to the direction of Mr. Nial McCamey, Adviser.

GROVER STAR

The GROVER STAR is a paper written for the purpose of informing the GCHS students of the activities of the school community. The paper is published monthly and gives everyone a chance to catch up on the latest news through stories written by students themselves. Under the supervision of Mr. Nial McCamey, staff members have the opportunity to write, and learn basic rules of journalism and the newspaper business. This year the Freedom Foundation at Valley Forge awarded the George Washington Honor Medal for the editorial, "Unification" written by Lee Askham.

EAGLES END SEASON WITH 3 WINS

In his third year as head coach, Joe Youngo and the Fighting Eagles moved into the all new Northwestern Football Conference with a bang. The Eagles captured the opening game against Kennedy Christian 26-0. But here the fire seemed to end. The Eagles then lost a close one to Reynolds 8-6. They snapped back and won two in a row, beating Oil City 20-16 and Hickory 14-0. For the rest of the season the Eagles seemed to coast. They lost successively to Greenville, Warren, Franklin and Sharpsville, and then tied Corry. Corry and Warren were two new teams taken on by Grove City this year in replacement of Meadville and Titusville.
