PRESENTED BY THE STUDENTS OF GROVE CITY HIGH SCHOOL

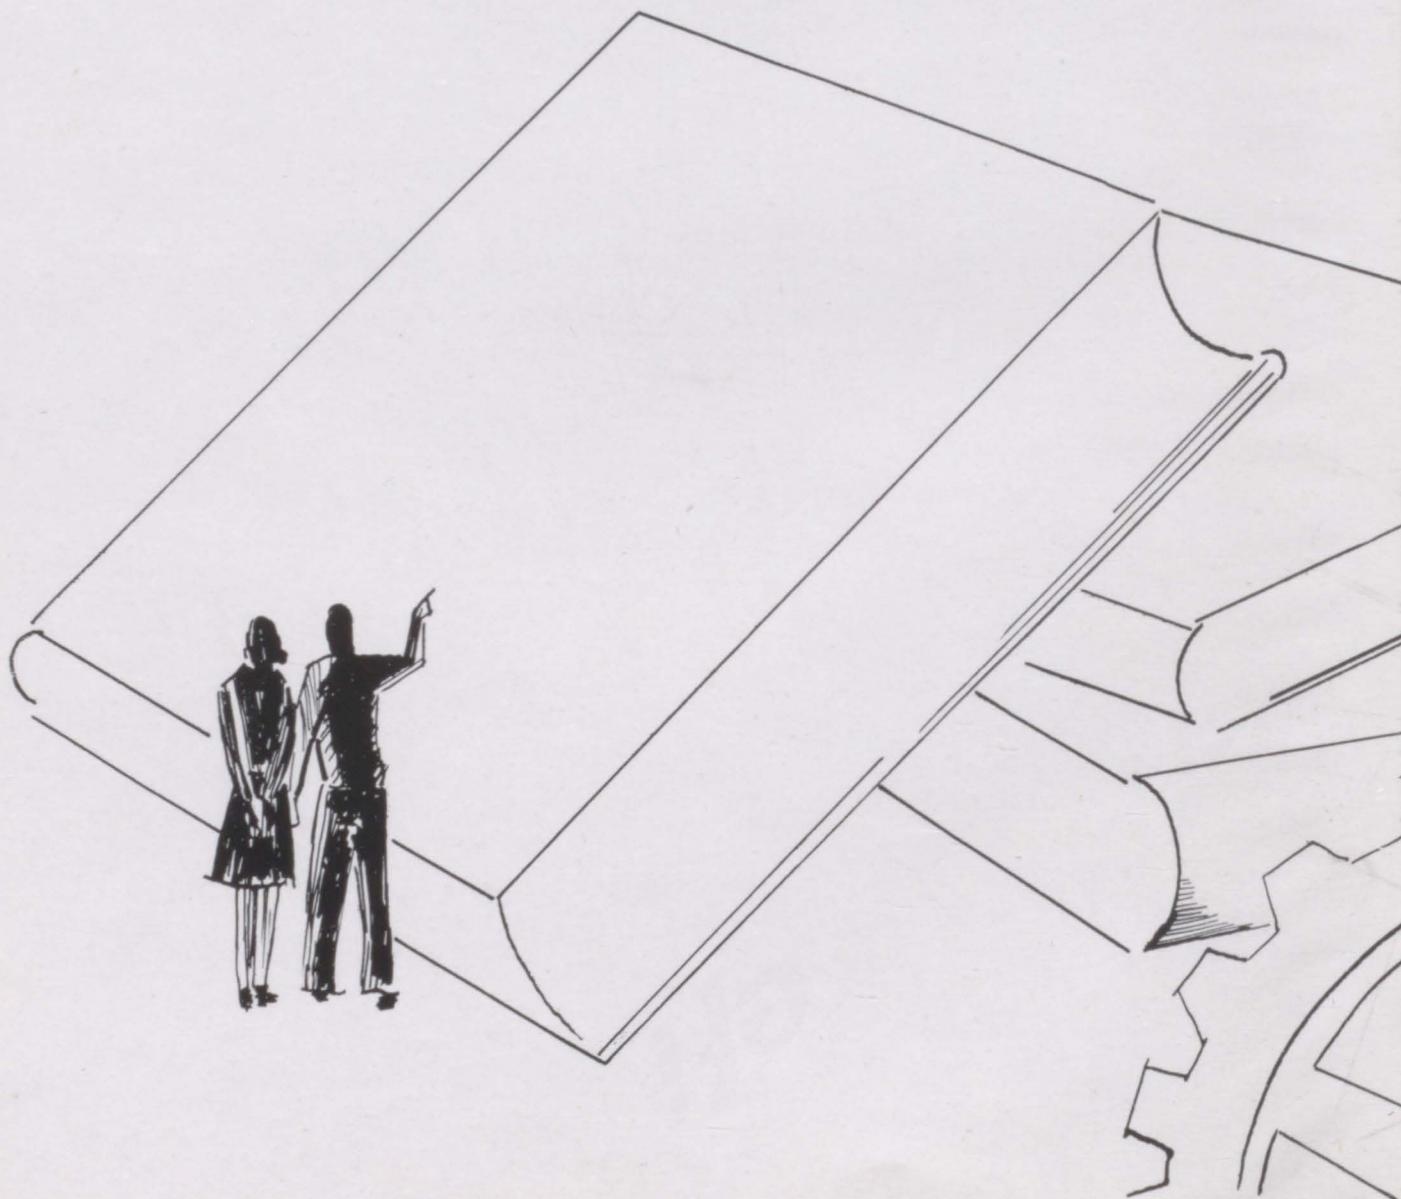

Is Youth Equal to the Task?

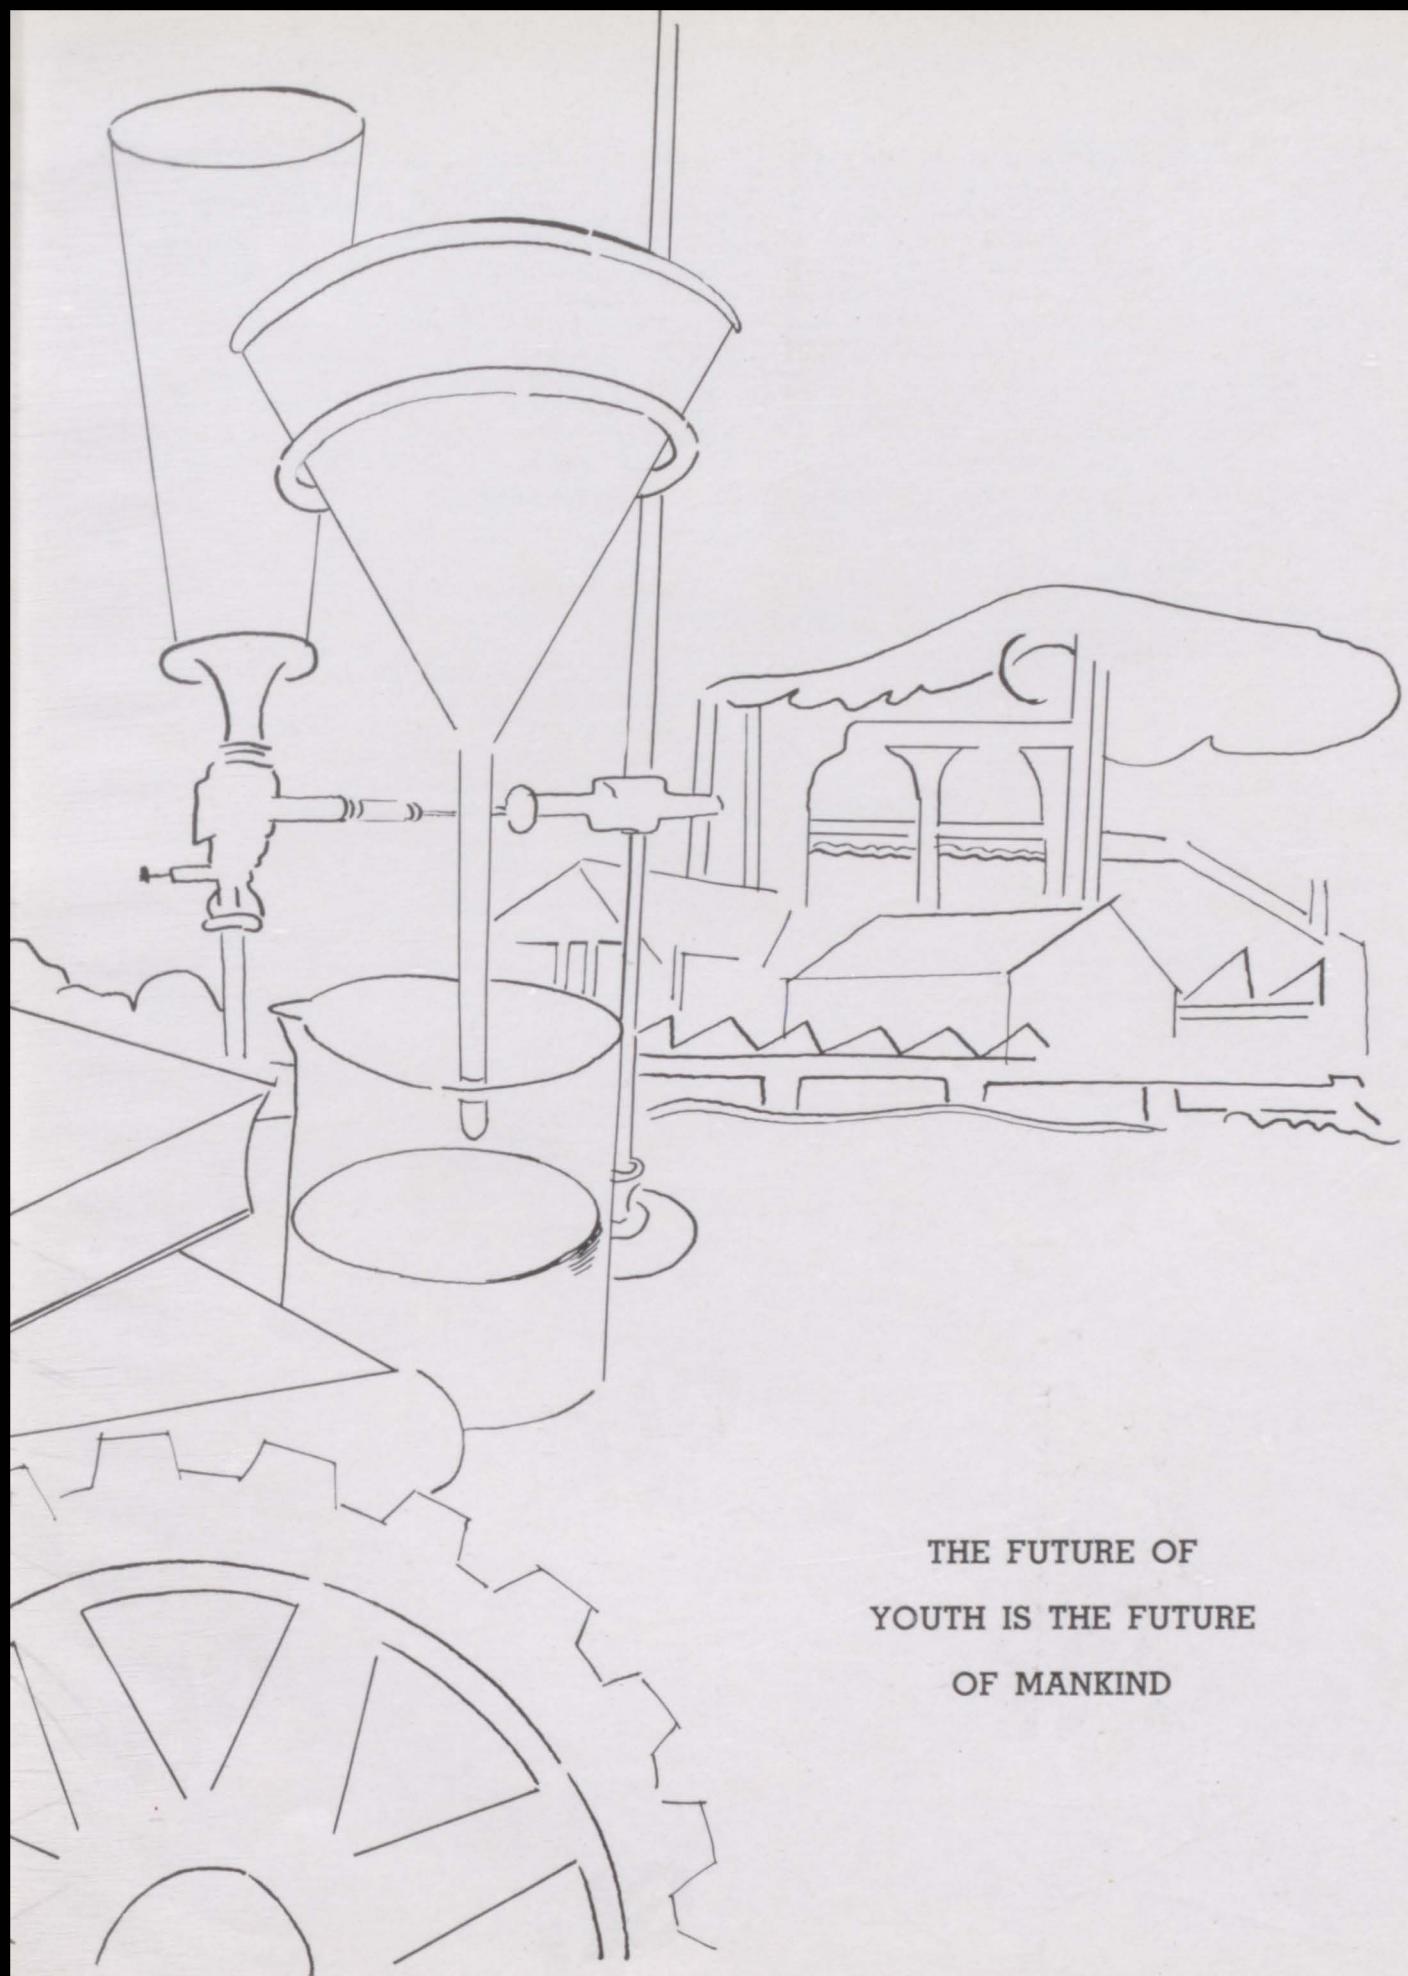

As citizens of Grove City High School, eight hundred of us students have spent this year training ourselves mentally, physically, and socially to become world citizens of tomorrow. Next year, some of us will have become a part of the world citizenry while the rest will continue in their training. But all of us will dedicate ourselves to help rebuild the chaotic world in which we are living. Tomorrow we will have our places in the world; the leaders of our school will be leaders in the community and in the world.

Although some of us will not be leaders, there will be a part for all in forming the great world of the future. We must strive together, both the leaders and those who follow, to attain this world, a world which will make each individual feel proud of the part he plays in building it.

To you—the youth of today, the citizens of tomorrow—the Pine Knot Staff of 1944 dedicates this book.

THE FUTURE OF
YOUTH IS THE FUTURE OF MANKIND

The World of Tomorrow! In this crucial year of 1944 the students, now more than ever before, think and plan for a future that will bring into realization all the hopes and dreams of today. As the doors of Grove City High School close upon us for the last time, we must realize that on our shoulders rests the responsibility of fulfilling these dreams.

Young as we are, the seriousness of this task is being brought before our eyes by seeing our friends go off to war. See that boy in blue? A sailor now. Remember when he carried your books and shyly gave you your first kiss when you were twelve? It doesn't seem possible that he has been on a destroyer in the South Pacific. And Dick—remember watching him when he played center on the basketball team? He looked as though he had grown to six feet of muscle over night and hadn't quite become used to it. Now he is wearing the uniform of a Marine and even though he still looks like an overgrown kid, he has that look in his eyes that makes you glad you're not a Nazi or a Jap. Many of the girls have gone to join in the fight for freedom. Ellen, whose clothes were the envy of every girl in high school, has deserted her unusual clothes for a plain uniform of khaki.

In our school life we are being reminded of the goal that is set for us in the future and are preparing ourselves to meet it. We can already see this goal, and once we reach it, we shall look back and see that each rung of the great ladder was developed and made stable by the teachers in our own school. We shall see where our mathematics, science, languages, and problems of democracy made us stronger and firmer in our decisions. And how our social affairs and physical education trained and developed our minds and bodies to complete our tasks more capably.

Let us dedicate ourselves to follow our boys, those who have gone before and those who will go to blaze a path for freedom, justice, and truth for the entire World of Tomorrow.

C O N T E N T S

ADMINISTRATION

Guiding us toward our goal are Dr. H. W. Traister, Prof. G. H. Crowther, the Board of Education and the teachers. Without their aid we could not hope to attain our success in the future.

CLASSES

In this section we present the four classes—Freshmen, Sophomore, Junior and Senior—all striving to make themselves worthy citizens of the World of Tomorrow.

CLUBS

The clubs of Grove City High School have one aim, to develop us mentally, morally, physically, socially, and spiritually.

ATHLETICS

Preparing us physically to meet the trials of the future world is our athletics. Included in this section are pictures and write-ups of our athletic events.

SERVICEMEN

This section contains pictures of boys in the service who formerly were students in Grove City High School. They are now fighting to preserve our World of Tomorrow.

*A*S we look back on our school life, foremost in our thoughts are the untiring efforts of Dr. H. W. Traister and Prof. G. H. Crowther, who have helped and guided us in preparing ourselves to take our places in the World of Tomorrow. No matter how busy they were with school problems, they were always willing to listen to the students' difficulties and to render their assistance whenever possible. Keeping our welfare in mind, no task was too great or too small as long as they helped prepare us for a well-rounded life.

The task of supervising the education of the boys and girls in Grove City community is under the able supervision of the Board of Education. The Board meets the first Monday of each month to discuss the problems of appropriations and curricula, of the care of the building and the grounds, taxes, and school supplies. Because of their civic pride, G. C. H. S. possesses the enviable reputation as one of the state's finest institutions of learning.

Of the teachers who meet us daily at the doors, we must remember how, with patience and cheerfulness, they guided us through our many trials. We shall remember our friends, the teachers.

Education in the World of Tomorrow

*W*e are grateful for the opportunity of expressing to you what vision we hold for education in the "World of Tomorrow". We are indebted to the faculty sponsor and the Pine Knot Staff for the privilege of presenting some pertinent views in relation to the topic which constitutes the general theme of this yearbook.

In the American community of tomorrow the public school must be in reality an institution of all the people for their enlightenment and for their common good. Its function must be that of making the local community a better place in which to live and work. To do this, the school in the world of tomorrow must have the following distinguishing features.

1. An administration that has its authority from local sources and that works under policies adopted by the representatives of the people in the community. The chief administrative responsibility will be that of providing a financial system from funds supplied jointly from federal, state, and local governments to insure equality of educational opportunity consistent with individual capacity.

2. Teachers who are first of all "real people" with personality, social responsibility and depth of culture, their preparation based previously on rendering a great social service. They will enjoy salaries and security in positions that will permit them full democratic participation in the affairs of the school and community.

3. The school plant will be a model for the community in which it is located, planned to provide facilities for the educational needs of all the people. It should represent the distinctive quality of culture, pride and vision of the people of the community.

4. School records of pupils will be in terms of performance and achievement rather than in terms of teacher marks. They will record growth in achievement and accomplishment for the individual as he matures in the experience of the school and the activities of the community.

5. A method of teaching and learning that is based upon "doing" for specific purposes rather than upon "telling" and "listening".

6. A curriculum that is determined previously and continuously by the needs of the people in the community and not by tradition, or law, or by what some other community does.

7. Educational services will be provided for all the people of the community from the nursery school child to the oldest adult in terms of individual interests, needs and possibilities. This will necessitate that the school program be well balanced for every individual, including training in manual skills and an acquaintance with the culture of his community, his state, his nation, and the world.

8. The community of the future will see to it that work experiences are more effectively co-ordinated as an essential part of the student's program before he leaves school; also, that real life experiences be made a real and vital part of each person's curriculum.

9. Guidance will receive the practical consideration it deserves as the "core" curriculum for every student throughout his school experience. Pupil guidance will be based upon straight thinking about himself and his own problems first, about his local community and about the affairs of his larger community. This type of thinking will hold human values more precious than material values and will magnify our spiritual privileges, responsibilities and duties.

10. An all-year educational schedule will provide for the recreational interests and needs of all age groups represented in the community and will be financed at public expense.

As superintendent of Grove City Public Schools, may I express the hope that boys and girls of our community now serving so valiantly and sacrificially in the armed services of our country to make a "World of Tomorrow" possible, will later make their contribution to secure greater opportunities for themselves and others in Tomorrow's World through increasing, enriching, and extending all worthy educational services.

Sincerely,

H. W. Traister

A Word From the Principal

I am happy to respond to your kind invitation to extend a greeting to the pupils and teachers of Grove City High School in the 1944 issue of the Pine Knot. Due to the excitement and uncertainties of war, we looked forward to the year 1943-44 with more of a sigh than a smile.

It has brought us sighs as we bade farewell to our boys who entered the Service, and as we received the sad news of those who gave their lives for our country. But the year has brought us some reasons for smiles, too. This year a greater proportion of pupils than usual have elected hard subjects in preference to easy ones in their determination to get a good basic training for service in our armed forces, and for their chosen vocations.

The many and varied experiences of pupils as typically reviewed in this volume have resulted in their well rounded development, not only intellectually, but physically, socially, and spiritually. Heartiest congratulations are due pupils and teachers because of these achievements and the resulting developments.

I wish to thank the members of the Pine Knot Staff, and their advisor, Mr. Elder, for the fine work they have done in recording these typical events of school life—the serious and the funny—in class, in assembly, in club, in gym, in corridor, at the game, and at the social. Along with the record of these events they have caught the life and spirit of our School. In years to come, as we leaf through this book we shall live again the days we spent in good old Grove City High School.

Sincerely yours,

G. H. Crowther

In Memory

Let us pause for a moment to pay tribute to two of our fellow classmates who departed from us before they finished the task they had set out to do.

We all remember James McMillin, who left our midst September 30, 1943. We remember his happy smile, his devil-may-care attitude and his pleasing personality which made him many friends. "Jim" was football and basketball manager during his high school career.

Patsy Bumbacco, a boy to whom we all pay tribute, died on February 11, 1944. Patsy had just begun his high school career when he was taken away from us. He will be missed greatly by his classmates.

ONCE again the Seniors will be ushered out of the halls of G. C. H. S. into the world which every graduation speaker declares will be dark and uncertain, and into these same halls will be heard the green but earnest voices of the new Freshmen who are starting to train themselves for world citizenry.

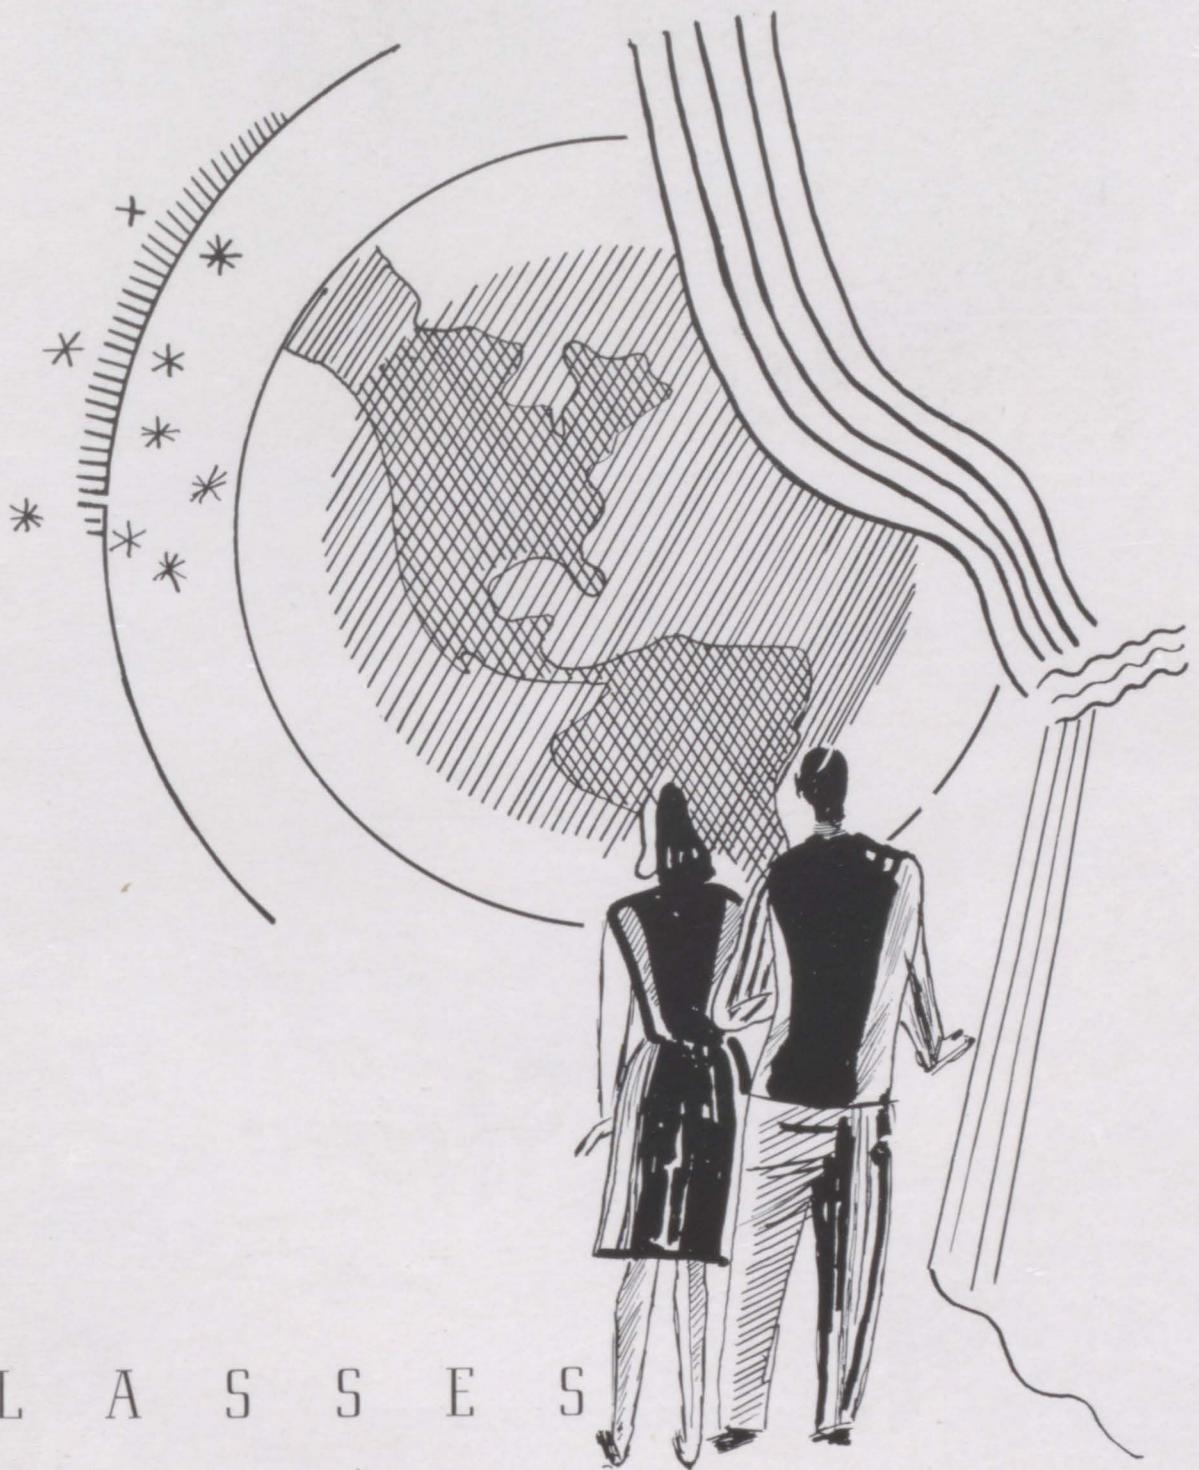

This time the Seniors will not leave with the idea of fulfilling their own ambitions and hopes, but instead will go out into the world to perform the tasks that the war has necessitated. Each one of us is willing to accept this duty knowing that it is for the betterment of generations to come.

Will the world, that we are preparing to meet, be a world of the marvels of aviation and science? If this is so, we have been preparing ourselves to meet this challenge through our classes in mathematics, aeronautics, science, and physical education.

Our training in the languages and the problems of democracy has trained us to cope with problems of international affairs.

As the Seniors depart, their places and responsibilities will be accepted by the underclassmen, who will have observed and profited by the experiences of their senior classmates.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of G. C. H. S., being aware that we shall soon pass through these portals for the last time, and that we shall soon be free, white, and 21, do hereby bequeath to our up-and-coming classmates the following policies:

Dunny and Corney leave a challenge to the next year's football team to keep the trophy within the walls of GCHS.

Snaith and Harry leave Spencer and Labor to continue the fine basketball record that they have made in the past few years.

Wanda Hulbert leaves her dramatic ability to Betty Hassell.

Ada Rose Peden leaves her music ability to Cleo Carson.

Bob Montgomery leaves his place on the high honor roll to Dave Smith.

Sylvia Paganelli her love to trip the light fantastic to Ginger Harvey.

Vince Monteleone leaves his way with the women to Buck Buxton.

Norma Allen leaves her way with men to Jean Allen.

Bob Shelley leaves his Esquire appearance to George Parker.

Nancy McKay leaves her blonde curly hair to Mary Louise Coleman.

That unmistakable scent of perfume that is characteristic of Phyllis Patterson to Dot Montgomery.

Eleanor Perry leaves her perfect posture to Betty Mae Dearborn.

Nancy Breckenridge leaves "Curley" to the fairer sex with hopes that they'll treat him lovingly.

Phyllis Filer leaves her continual friendly personality to her "widdle brudder" Dave.

Chuck McFarland leaves Janie Coulter with this message attached, "Handle With Care."

Esther Ziccardi leaves the sure-as-fate-fact-that-she'll-get-the-last-seat to Henry Zabola.

Russ Smith bequeaths to Rocky Stone that task of getting his tongue back from the cat.

Margaret Vargo leaves what she says, and the way she says it, to Frances Sopher.

Richard Gilliland leaves his newsy life to Tom Judy.

Dick P. Walters and Dick J. Walters depart from us and we are still wondering which is P. and which is J.

Bud Crill leaves the priceless gift, the ability to make friends, to his pretty sister, Lina Marie.

Red Gibson leaves his characteristic red hair to Mac McDougall.

Don Jennings leaves his knack of telling tall tales to Don Ragsdale.

Peter McGinty leaves his "excess" to Ken Robb.

Merle Duffy leaves his "this place stinks" attitude to George Parker.

Nancy Sutton leaves her beautiful assortment of hair flowers to Marilyn Richards.

Beb Montgomery leaves her love of the gym floor and the cords to Marjie Jordan.

Eleanor Moon leaves her unreplaceable usefulness to Fred.

There are several students that should be leaving their outstanding traits to the new senior class, but instead, they are cultivating friendships in other communities. We've missed seeing these faces around our halls: Bill Bennett, Donis Coutts, Bert Brumbaugh, Bill D'Amore, Jane Foster, Dorothy King, the Moffos, Bob Weber, and Ruth Wiseman.

G.C. H. S. is our most outstanding personality. At times, school seems dull, but we are told that once you graduate, you remember each swell time you had, and wish you could live each one over again!

CASANOVA had nothing on Curly Wright, an up-and-coming Frosh, but we were only teasing, Curly. He's true to just one . . . Nancy Breckenridge. He's a new basketball manager and has his trouble keeping his boys out of trouble. We all like his pretty black hair.

HIS red hair gave him a nickname that really stuck. Although just a freshman, he is already a familiar figure around G.C.H.S. Manager of the football squad, he plays basketball on J. V. Pinky is crazy about dancing, and is very good, too!

SMILE, Smile, Smile! This seems to be the motto of one junior by the name of Connie Barber. Connie takes a great interest in all school activities and can be depended upon to do her part. Lots of fun, and oh, how she cheers at the games.

PERSONALITY! Eleanor Sloan is one of the best liked seniors. She's studious and a lot of fun. Eleanor likes basketball very much and is a valuable player. She has made many friends and will continue to do so.

RHYTHM in her feet and a dreamy look in her pretty eyes. She has very lovely blond hair and her clothes show exceptionally good taste. Who? Of course, Patty Sproull.

EASY going, but he doesn't let any grass grow under his feet. Buck Buxton is a junior, and he took a lot of razzing when he played football. He says he likes to "wolf" but we notice that he seems very happy with Anne.

PETITE, demure, and very cute. She likes to dance and has a lot of friends. One of these friends is a fellow by the name of Joe. In case you haven't guessed her name, it's Donna McClelland.

ANNE Augustine is one of our most versatile juniors. She is a member and officer of several clubs, but even with all these activities, she still makes high honors. Anne is very pretty, plays a rugged game of basketball, and is loads of fun.

READ the sports write-ups in the Reporter?? That column is written by our Chuck McFarland. He's very neat—could those clothes come from Eds? Chuck is always busy, but he likes to spend most of his time with Janie Coulter.

ENTHUSIASM is a fine virtue, and we believe it truly belongs to sophomore Willa Williams. Willa goes for everything she enters in a big way. She's known for her continual smile and cheery "HI."

SHY around the girls, but just put Rocky Stone in a football game and watch his speed! Also likes basketball a lot. Never boastful, very friendly, and a good student. You like Rocky the first minute you meet him.

FROM the sophomore class Bertie Hodge catches our eye—did you ever notice her beautiful brown eyes? Often seen with her girl-friend, Shirley Thomas, but more often with Bill Labor.

OUTSTANDING in the freshman class is Bobbie Joe McClymonds who seems to have started out with the right foot—especially in athletics. G. C. H. S. can always use a good athlete and we know Bob is one to do a good job.

ROUGH and rugged on the gridiron, but Joe Emery is as light as a feather on a dance floor. He's as good-natured as they come, and usually has his eyes open for his favorites—blondes.

TWO pretty sisters who rate 1-A with us are Jo and Louise Coulter. Jo, a senior, is unpredictable, but that's what makes her so interesting. Louise, a freshie, has fascinating blue eyes . . . both girls like basketball and swimming . . . have blond hair . . . are favorites among other students.

OFCOURSE you'll all know this junior miss. Very sweet, quiet and bashful 'round the fellas. You've probably noticed her beautiful, blond, curly hair. Now I'm sure you know—Mary Louise Coleman.

MONA Lee—a name that suggests someone with lots of pep, blond curly hair, and a charming way of making friends with everyone. Mona Lee Miles certainly lives up to her name. All this in one little freshie!

ONE thing that always puzzled us is how Herman Butiste can sleep through classes and then recite perfectly. "Chomp", as he is usually called, is a valuable tackle on the football team—he is one swell fella to know.

READY and willing is Barbara Collar, senior from Room 14. Babs is an active member of Literary Club and Sr. Tri-Hi-Y. She is always on hand to do any job, no matter how small or large.

RARELY seen without a friendly smile for everyone is Gene Hoag, and he also has a laugh you'll find contagious. This sophomore is a basketball manager. Short, but oh what nice broad shoulders!

ORIGINAL, awfully cute, very pretty natural curly hair, a good dancer, interested in sports, and we predict that she'll go places—Joanne Carlson.

WITTY—and he can be serious too! Dick "Joe" Filer has nice clothes—and wears them well. He played football, manager for wrestling team, also interested in basketball. Likes his women with lots of "Ginger."

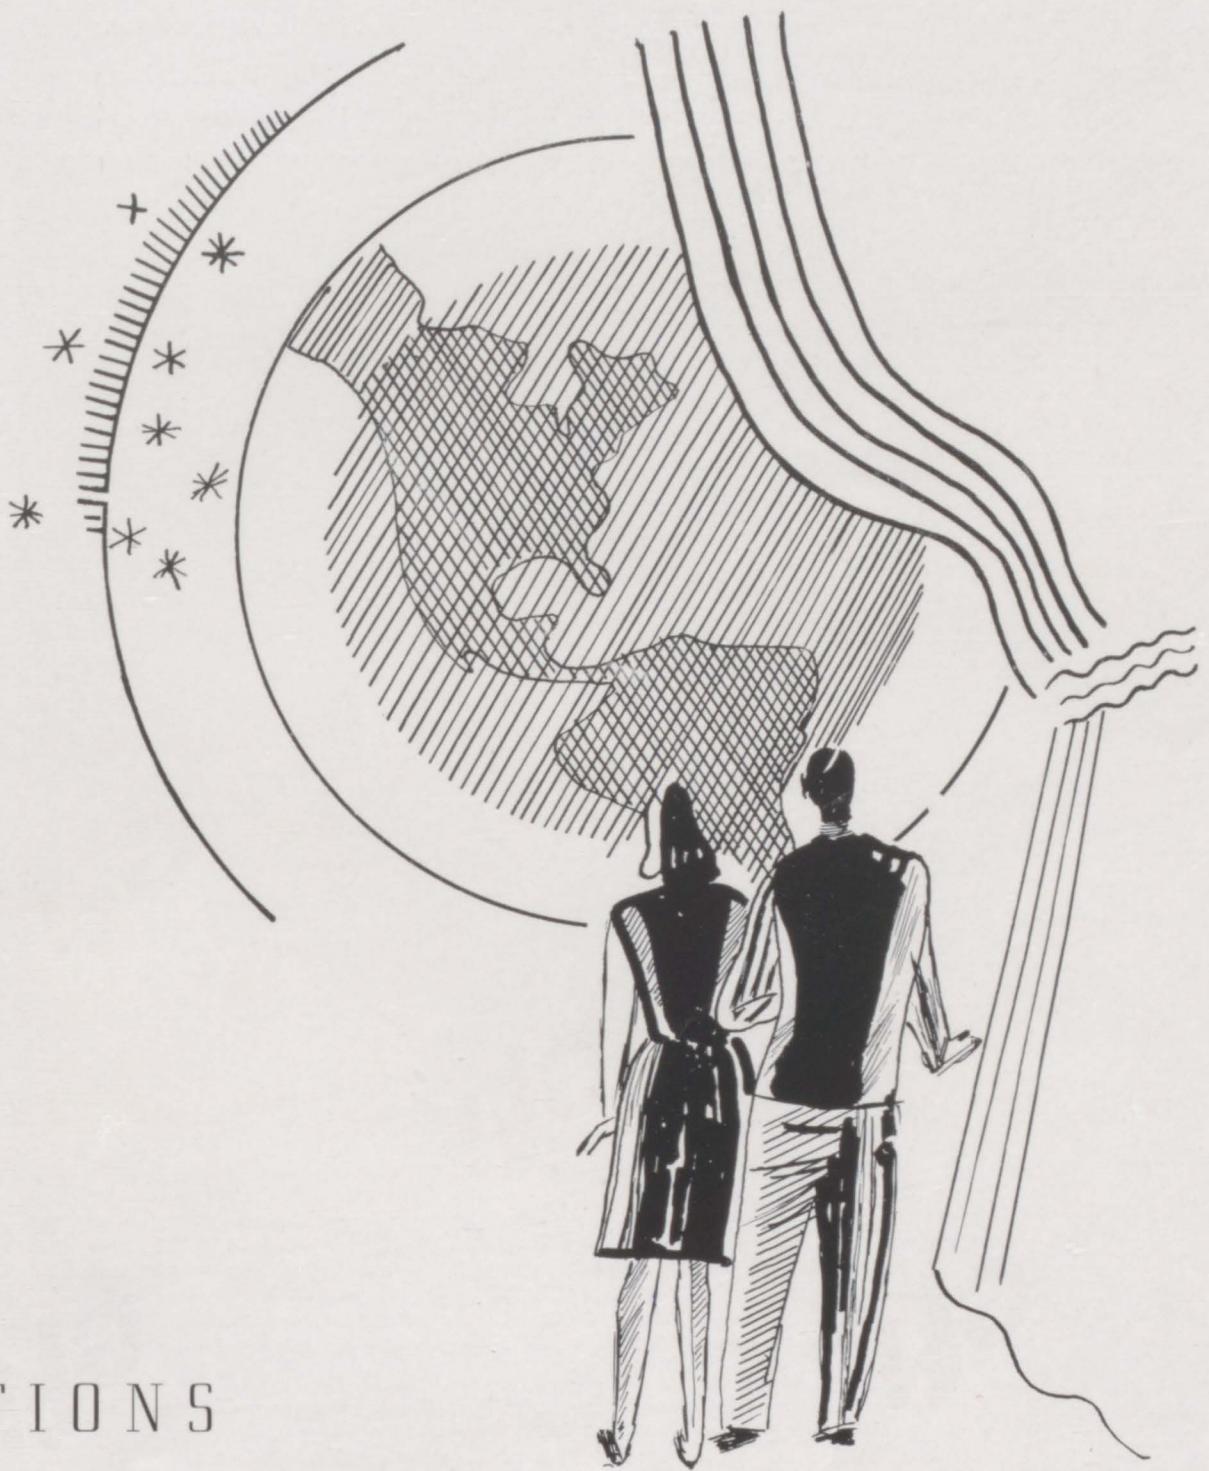

A LL work and no play makes Jack a dull boy.

Aside from tests and homework, students find time to take part in the extra school activities after school hours. There is a wide variety of clubs with programs to meet the individual tastes of the students. The clubs train the students to develop themselves in the characteristics of a well-rounded life mentally, physically, spiritually, and socially.

Learning to work and cooperate with one another will be a prominent task in the world after this war. In these clubs of our school is the source of training for our students to learn the difficult task of getting along peacefully with their neighbors.

The mental, physical, and spiritual training comes naturally with the programs that these clubs present. Games and sports, along with Bible study and guest speakers, make the clubs an outstanding part of our school life.

SENIOR HI-Y

HI-Y, one branch of a national organization, the Y.M.C.A., is primarily religious. Its aim is to create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character.

Along with religion, it endeavors to combine social and civic activities.

During the past year the club has conducted the largest scrap drive ever held in Grove City. Also, it has sent the Grover Star and Christmas gifts to many boys who have gone out from G.C.H.S. into the armed forces of their country.

By participating in various activities, the club tries to develop young men physically, morally, mentally and spiritually. Mr. Smith, who has been the faculty advisor for three years, helps the boys develop these traits.

The Hi-Y also took part in the Bible Study Program, sponsored by the State, and the fellows really cooperated to put it across. Other of their activities are quiz programs, lectures, discussions and basketball. Each week two fellows have charge of a program. This gives all of them an equal opportunity to find out more about the purpose and activities of the club.

JUNIOR HI-Y

*H*ERE we find the upper crust of our freshmen and sophomore boys, and they deserve a lot of credit for their fine ideals of good citizenship and high standards of Christian living. The platform is clean speech, clean sports, clean scholarship, and clean living.

This year the Junior Hi-Y is under the direction of Mr. Skelton, who has started the club on its way again after being inactive for a short time due to the absence of the former sponsor, Mr. Fithian.

At Christmas time the fellows joined with the Junior Tri-Hi-Y and had a good time caroling. After they had finished caroling, they came back to the high school for a party. These two groups go well together for they are both freshmen and sophomores and both clubs belong to a branch of this fine Christian club.

Membership to the club is open to freshmen and sophomore boys who are endeavoring to live up to the high standards of the club. The training they receive here better fits them for the activities of the World of Tomorrow in which each one will be called on to do his share.

JUNIOR TRI-HI-Y

J

HE Jr. Tri-Hi-Y is striving to extend services to the home, school and community; and during the past year, it has done much toward achieving this end. At Christmas time, the girls filled stockings for the Children's Home at Mercer and also sent Christmas cards to the invalids and shut-ins.

Remember that large Christmas tree in the corner at the Christmas Dance? Well, we can thank the Jr. Tri-Hi-Y for that. They decorated it for the front hall of the High School and later presented it to the Pine Knot Staff for the dance.

This year the girls rated two very capable leaders, Mrs. Nutt and Miss Soppitt. This is the largest club in the school and consists of all the freshmen and sophomore girls who want to join it. They must keep their grades up though, and attend every meeting unless they have good excuses.

Again this year the club had a lot of success with the minstrel show which they presented in chapel. Black-faced comedy and tricky dance steps proved tops in entertainment. The weekly programs center around appreciation of different subjects and personality, with some time being spent for special projects, such as making scrapbooks for the U. S. O. At the Carnival, you could see Tri-Hi-Y girls hunting diligently for a certain party to whom a telegram must reach immediately.

Although there is a lot of fun connected with Jr. Tri-Hi-Y, there is also a seriousness which has to do with character building and maintaining high morals that will make its members better citizens in the World of Tomorrow.

SENIOR TRI-HI-Y

N

OW, more than ever, it is essential that we devote part of our time preparing for the future. Sr. Tri-Hi-Y programs deal with new problems which will face high school youth after the close of the war. It stresses the will to win, our duties of today and problems of peace and reconstruction at the war's end.

The girls, under the leadership of Miss Waterman, have done their bit by rolling bandages for Red Cross one Thursday a month and sending packages to service men at Christmas time. Teams of two girls each selected a boy to whom they would like to send a gift, and then fixed him a box filled with all sorts of odd knick-knacks.

The Bible Study Project was started in January and was entitled "Youth Today and Tomorrow." At each meeting they either had a speaker or all took part in the discussion of the topic for the evening. The topics were about today's problems—boy and girl friendships during war, and how character is developed by facing difficulties.

The girls aren't exactly backward in the physical line either. When Athletic Council challenged them to a basketball game, they lost only by a two-point decision. In a return game they were victorious, and still by a two-point margin.

There are certain serious occasions in chapel when it is necessary to honor the fellows from G.C.H.S. who have given their lives in the service of our country. Sr. Tri-Hi-Y has appointed a special committee to be in charge of a short ceremony to be presented in their honor.

LITERARY CLUB

WE are very fortunate to have a club such as this around for it has done much to better our library and get us interested in it. Lit Club sponsors the annual "Book Week" and each member gave a book report in one home room. These reports were given to create an interest in reading the new books in the library.

The last week of February brought on "Leap Week". Now we know whose idea it was for the girls to do the escorting, but anyway it ended up in a lot of fun at the Leap Week Dance sponsored by Lit Club.

Under the capable leadership of Miss Hamilton, the club has done much toward bettering the literary tastes. At the club meetings, much of the time is devoted to book reports, movie reviews, skits and impromptues. From these programs, they also get a basis for planning other programs and really get something out of the meetings. But, more to the social side, we also hear they have a lot of fun at their parties.

By the way, those two skits at the close of the Carnival and also many of the skits presented in chapel are put on by these members.

SCIENCE CLUB

*M*ORE along the scientific line, we find these wizards of science meeting every Wednesday night to see what more they can discover along that line. Although the boys slightly outnumber the girls, the girls can hold their own in all the activities. Each member is responsible for at least one meeting a year.

The programs naturally are based on Science so members can get a better knowledge of it. Our World of Tomorrow is going to need a lot of discoveries in science and these students are finding out now what they can do about it. They have learned some very helpful hints on developing pictures and detecting counterfeit money. These are two of the many subjects covered and each will help them in future work.

Mr. Surrena helps out when it comes to a really tough experiment and gives lectures on Science. When it comes time for a movie, he brings out the film, for it is sometimes easier to understand a subject by seeing it on a screen.

Some of the members put on experiments for the grade school students every week. The experiments are simple enough for all the students to understand, and give them a background for science when they come to high school. This is a good way to arouse an interest for the oncoming students who will have some form of science in high school.

Science Club is a branch of a national organization and is open to all who want to join. The Scientific American Magazine is sent to them and offers topics for discussion.

STUDENT COUNCIL

senting the administration, and the home room representatives meet with the Student Council and discuss activities where teachers and pupils alike are concerned.

The Student Council united with the Grover Star Staff to sponsor the Fourth

War Bond Campaign in our school. Each room set a goal to reach, such as buying a jeep or some of the other parts of one, and did the best they could to reach that goal. The bond drive was a big success, as it was the year before.

The annual carnival, sponsored by the Student Council, has done much toward getting the students acquainted and having a lot of fun while doing it. There isn't any profit in it for them, since that isn't the purpose of the carnival; it is just one of their yearly projects. Their chief aim is to do what they can for G.C.H.S. The Bible used for Chapel was getting pretty well worn and Professor Crowther was presented with a new one by the Student Council. In school, during sessions they have members on hall duty and appoint home room representatives to help them.

The work of the governing body is never finished, for new problems and questions arise all the time to be solved; but the Council has never yet failed the students who elected it.

ART CLUB

*W*HO will do the planning for this future world of ours? Who will design those super highways, streamlined automobiles and airplanes that are so easy to run? Naturally, it requires a lot of skill and imagination. But who would be better fitted to do such things than our future artists? The purpose of Art Club is to stimulate the desire to create and to give one a way of expressing new ideas.

Under the leadership of Miss Shaw, Art Club has been reorganized this year. Although it isn't the largest club in the high school, it has made a good start and is certain to grow. It helped out in the Service Men's Section of the Pine Knot, with the ink plates and arrangement of pictures. Some of the large stage designs were made in the regular meetings. Also were made the posters for the Carnival and National Book Week. Other times they sketch pictures; or, getting off the artistic line a little, they spend an evening bowling.

Art creates originality. This was proved by the clever little Christmas cards they made out of linoleum blocks.

GIRLS' ENSEMBLE

*A*LTHOUGH the Ensemble had no State Championship to win this year, they are still champions in our own hometown and High School. They often sang for chapel, churches, and different commercial organizations, and had a leading part in the Christmas concert. The girls in the Ensemble are noted for their fine, upright characters, and they must be very dependable for there are absolutely no absentees permitted unless it is due to sickness.

The Ensemble makes a very striking appearance in their long, white gowns. For less formal affairs they usually wear dark skirts and white blouses; but regardless of how they are dressed, they still have the same quality of music that we have been so proud of this year and in previous years.

At the end of each year, the girls remaining submit names of other girls who would make good members; those whose voices blend well with the others become members. In the past years, only upper-classmen have been permitted to join Girls' Ensemble, but there have been two freshmen in the last two years who have qualified for the group.

GIRLS' CHORUS

*I*T cannot be truthfully said that good things always come in small quantities, for this certainly doesn't hold true for our Girls' Chorus. They have quality and quantity, both of which add to make our chorus bigger and better. The Christmas concert proved this very definitely. Most of us didn't know we had so much talent until we heard it, for their appearances are less frequent than some of the other groups. When we do hear the Chorus, it does something to us to hear so many voices blending beautifully together. At least, there isn't a shortage of good music in our High School.

A word to the fellows: You'll be sure to find the girl who is "Your Ideal" in a group with as much vim and vigor as this one provides. These girls have more than just musical ability; they have what it takes in other ways as well. There are plenty of them, so take heed, fellows, and don't all rush at once!

Miss Tait has taken over the chorus, and if you want to hear some really good music, wander down past the upper gym during the fourth period. To see them breezing in, you wouldn't think they'd ever settle down, but when they get started, it's hard to get them stopped.

Here and there, on the way home from school, you can hear bits of the songs they had been practicing. The girls never seem to tire practicing a number until they get it right down to perfection.

"MR. AND MRS. NORTH"

BODIES rolled out of closets when the Seniors presented their annual production "Mr. and Mrs. North". The play was adopted from the radio program of the same name. Wanda Hulbert and Norman Crill had the leading rolls with a supporting cast of fifteen seniors.

The play, a mystery comedy, took place in the North's apartment in Greenwich Village where a murder was committed while the Norths were away for the day. On returning home, Pam, Mrs. North, opened a closet door and out fell the body of a strange man! The police were called and the investigation proceeded under the direction of Lieutenant Weigand, Robert Shelley.

A clue or two was unearthed by Mrs. North, of all people, and when she was about to be given some information by a friend who thought he knew who the murderer was——he was killed.

On questioning all the witnesses, Pam found a flaw in Clinton Edward's alibi. It seemed he wasn't where he was supposed to be when the murder was committed and further questioning proved him guilty.

Mrs. North, a witty crack-brained wife, and Mr. North, the innocent amiable husband, supplied the laughs amid a confused police force. The play was under the direction of Miss Maude Jamison and Miss Jean McCoy.

HIGH SCHOOL BAND

IN tune with our times is the G.C.H.S. Band. They are not to be outdone by scrap drives and other things pertaining to the war effort, because we have often heard the Band practicing the "Army Air Corps" or "Marine Hymn" for Bond Rallies or other patriotic programs, thus doing their part by giving us the spirit and enthusiasm that is so necessary during this day. During football season, the band has always been an "old faithful" and we can count on it to liven up the games with its peppy songs and stirring marches.

It's no ordinary band, because just look who directs it. We're referring, of course, to Mr. Ben Marshall, who has had charge of it for the last ten years. Band never gets dull since there are always new programs to be practicing for, not only for our own chapel programs, but rallies of the townspeople as well; apparently they must appreciate it as much as we do.

Every year the schools around this section send representatives to Midwestern Band. This year the school sponsored twelve students to represent us there, and, as in previous years, they did very well.

THE GROVER STAR

GLASH! The success of the Star this year has been something of which Mr. Elder and all the members of the Staff can be proud. They have faithfully covered all the important events that have happened around G.C.H.S. this year. Future writers are certainly going to have to know their stuff! and where would be a better place to start than right in Mr. Elder's Journalism Class? You'll have to admit he must get something across, for the Star, turned out every two weeks, provides a lot of enjoyment and reading material. The Scholastic Roto that has been in the paper a lot lately has added more to our little newspaper.

Bob Montgomery, our worthy Editor-in-chief, and Mr. Elder take official charge of most of the worrying done, although some times you see Bob Gibson, the Managing Editor, or Bill Christie, the City Editor, tearing their hair because they forgot to do something. George Harry makes a good Sports Editor, because he can get the inside dope on basketball and football games. Chuck McFarland and Merle Duffy also keep us posted on what goes on in the sports world.

We don't know where they get it, but they certainly can dig it up! Of course we're referring to the Widget Whispers, namely Nancy and Dally. Phyllis Patterson keeps us informed on what other schools are doing while Jane Thompson and Betty Jablonovsky rack their brains thinking of new features. Nancy Sutton keeps us informed about our Servicemen, and in her little book she keeps all their names and telephone numbers. All the latest jokes are sure to be in Carol's column, but maybe it's Margaret Uber who gives them to her. Who knows?

Head Copy Reader is Ada Rose Peden, who ponders over the Star hunting desperately for mistakes. The Club Editors are Margaret Vargo and Jean Uber. Kenneth Husband takes care of the headlines.

So much for the Editorial Staff. As for our Business Staff, Carmen Marguglio is the Business Manager, Jack Kuhn and Marie Williamson are the Circulating Managers, and Chuck Drennen is the Advertising Manager.

This year the Staff helped sponsor the bond drive just as it sponsored Victory Week last year. The bond drive was a big success and ended up with a dance after the Hickory basketball game.

THE PINE

*W*HAT do you do in the Infantry? You march! You march! You march! And what do you do on the Pine Knot Staff? Naturally, you work! You work! You work! (Part of the time, anyhow). Of course, it's not all work and no play or this would be a dull book, which it isn't, we hope. The P. K. Staff sponsored the Christmas Dance with an honest-to-goodness orchestra, and also has had a lot of fun worrying Mr. Elder as much as possible. Besides these there were many enjoyable times spent by the Staff members in the Pine Knot Room after school.

To Editor Elizabeth Mayes we give honorable mention. It is through her tireless efforts that you are now enjoying this year book. "Bea" has spent a lot of time with Mr. Elder planning and preparing the book and has done more than a fair share of the work, but this seemed of little importance to her when there was a job to be done. It was "Bea", with the help of Jane Thompson and Nancy McKay, who was responsible for writing the foreword, the dedication, and the division pages. "Bea" was always around with a bright word when the going got tough.

Now, for the rest that survived the struggle: It seemed you could always see Janie Thompson, the assistant editor, helping others who were in difficulty. Not far behind her was George Harry doing his bit on the athletic line as assistant sports editor, while Dave Porter, our sports editor, whose sports write-ups are not to be outdone, was right in there pitching. Dave spent many hours at the typewriter getting his stories to perfection, but there were many pleasant jobs, too, such as interviewing Miss McCord about girls' gym.

If there is anything you want to know about the seniors, just ask Nancy McKay. She knows all the answers, being senior editor. Also it is Nancy's job to give you the inside stories about our teachers. Not only these, but she was Mr. Elder's "right hand woman" and was indispensable to the yearbook.

The underclassmen gave Phyllis Filer and Chester DeMarsh their worries. It was their job to identify all the pictures and arrange the classes in alphabetical order which was really a job. But judging from outward appearances, they didn't mind it too much.

KNOT STAFF

Shirley Williams and her assistant, Shirley Mayes, did themselves right proud on the features. It's a tough job requiring a lot of originality and also a lot of time. Our able business managers are Bob Shelley and Chuck Drennen. They are the ones that get the ads that make the yearbook possible. It is their honor to hoard the Staff's precious money.

Hold it! You'd better, or Bob Young won't get a good picture; and that just wouldn't do. Bob is the staff photographer and he is the one who takes all those snaps that you like so well. On Jane Coulter's and Dick Hummel's shoulders fall the job of writing up all the clubs and identifying each person in the club pictures. You would often see them running around asking if someone knew this or that person.

But don't think that anything got by the watchful eye of the "old professor", Mr. Elder, our chief advisor. Things like that just aren't done, thus making him more work; but forgive our faults E. B., you know we all like you 'cause you're such a good guy. And we hope that the student body still likes us after this edition of the Pine Knot. We tried, anyhow.

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

THIS rugged-looking bunch really looks like Superwomen. Hiking, ice-skating, bowling, and playing basketball are their favorite hobbies — especially basketball. They can show Ike's boys how the game is supposed to be played.

The leader of this notorious gang is Miss McCord, who gives physical fitness instructions and helps the girls maintain high ideals of good sportsmanship and fair play in all activities.

Remember the Thanksgiving Dance? Well, Athletic Council was responsible for it. Also, they have taken charge of a chapel program and sponsored the dance at the Carnival.

That snappy looking outfit that drilled on Homecoming Day really made a nice showing in their blue and white outfits. They were trained by Miss McCord and it took a lot of time and hard work to put it across.

Some clubs are literary, others are religious, but this one seems to have a little of everything, particularly in the line of sports. The teachers challenged A. C. to a basketball game and A. C. thought it was a sure thing but it turned out differently than expected when the teachers were victorious. Later in the season A. C. challenged the Sr. Tri-Hi-Y to a game and were winners the first time; in a return game, they were defeated by two points.

ONE of the outstanding sources of entertainment for the students of G. C. H. S. is the athletic program that is encouraged in our school. Not only are the football and basketball contests a source of entertainment, but just as important, they are one of the best methods of building the character of the fellows and girls of our student body. These students give a great deal of their time to the task of making their bodies healthier and their minds keener for their school duties.

Sports are naturally a larger part of the school life to the fellows. As they begin to think and wonder to what branch of the armed forces they will give their services, they feel more confident because they have had the bumps of a football game and have played under the pressure of a basketball game.

All these experiences, they know, will help them, for the games that they played are very similar to the more dangerous game of war, and to the game of life that will have to be played in our post-war world.

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 1943 FOOTBALL SEASON

NEW Castle—Opening the '43 season with a night game at New Castle, the Eagles' 15-game winning streak was snapped as the Red Hurricanes scored in every period to down the Smileymen, 38-0.

Oil City—Recovering from the New Castle defeat in fine fashion, the Eagles defeated a tough Oiler aggregation under the lights 26-0. Every starting backfield man scored a tally.

Franklin—Playing on the home terrain for the first time of the '43 season, the Eagles stopped a scrapping Franklin eleven 12-0, to continue on their way to another District 10 title.

Greenville—Held on even terms the first half, the Eagles came back to romp over the Trojans, 20-0 for their third consecutive win and shutout.

Titusville—Again the Eagles flew high and rolled over the Tigers by the score of 37-0 with Frankie Dunn spearheading the attack by scoring 19 points.

Emlenton—Scoring in every period, the Eagles had things all their own way when they won their fifth game of the season by a tune of 32-0. Only one more hurdle to leap for their fourth consecutive District 10 Class A title.

Sharpsville—By downing the Blue Devils 12-6, the Eagles won the championship for the fourth consecutive year, and gave Coach Bob Smiley a championship team in his first year as head coach.

Meadville—Ending the season in a blaze of glory, the Eagles romped over the Bulldogs 33-6, on a muddy field. Billy Labor lead the Grover attack with 21 points. The Eagles ended the season with one loss and seven consecutive victories.

Second Row—Puntureri, Bell, Carroll, Filer, Moon, Hummel, Limberg, Ewing, Buxton, Dickson, McClymonds, Wilkins, McCarthy, Coach Smiley.

CHAMPS

Coach Bob Smiley, in his first year as head coach of the Eagle team, followed in the footsteps of Lt. Gene Forker and turned out another championship team which won the District 10 Class A title for the fourth consecutive year.

The Eagles, being defeated only once and then by a tough New Castle eleven which is out of their league, faced the Blue Devils of Sharpsville for the fourth consecutive time. They turned the trick again, as they have in the past three years, by scoring 12 points in the second quarter, and downed the Blue Devils 12-6.

The game had everything a football game could have—a perfect day, two evenly matched teams, and a title at stake. It was filled with excitement from the opening kickoff until the final gun; but late in the fourth quarter the Grove City crowd lost its pep and the Eagles forgot to play ball, as they carried Frankie Dunn, Eagle fullback, from the field with a serious neck injury. Then the Blue Devils scored on a pass, the only team to penetrate the Eagle scoring column since the opening game with New Castle.

EAGLETS

Playing a three-game schedule, the Eagle Reserves came through the season with a perfect record, unbeaten, untied, and unscored upon.

When they played host to the Parkers Landing eleven, the Eaglets showed fine promise as they held the Parker boys scoreless and went on to win by the tune of 13-0.

In the return game at Parkers Landing, the Eaglets downed a now-stronger Parker team, 18-0 on a wet, muddy field.

Back on the home field, the Reserves romped over an inexperienced George Junior eleven by the fairyland score of 52-0.

Meadville

The Eagles led all the way to down the Bulldogs in the opener. Snaith led the scoring. Score, 26-20.

Franklin

The Smiley men had little trouble winning the home opener from the Nurseryites. Again Snaith led the scoring. Score, 36-30.

Oil City

After a slow start, the Eagles rallied to defeat a tough Oiler Quintet for their third consecutive win. Score, 21-15.

Sharon

Height and experience were just too much for the Eagles as they fell at the hands of a strong Sharon five. Harry led Eagle scoring. Score, 14-38.

Sharpsville

Playing on even terms the first half, the Eagles' last quarter rally fell short as they were defeated by the Blue Devils. Score, 23-26.

Farrell

A second half spurt carried the Eagles to a surprising victory over the Steelers, Snaith led the scoring parade. Score 32-27.

Greenville

By throwing up an airtight defense, the Trojans scored an easy victory over the Eagles before a capacity crowd. Score, 16-31.

Titusville

The Varsity easily overcame the fighting Titusville High Varsity to climb back into the win column. Snaith led the scoring. Score, 40-23.

Hickory

The Varsity lost a heartbreaker this game. It was close all the way but the Hornets proved too much. Score, 28-29.

Mercer

The Varsity had little trouble winning from their backyard rivals. Snaith led the scoring. Score, 53-26.

Oil City

The Smileymen whipped the Blue and White for the second time of the season. Snaith again led the scoring. Score, 42-33.

Sharpsville

Snaith put on a one-man show as the Eagles defeated the Blue Devils in a thrilling overtime battle. Score, 39-38.

Hickory

The Eagles avenged their first game defeat by taking this game in easy fashion. Snaith led the scoring. Score, 34-19.

Titusville

Even with the advantage of being on their home court, the Titusville five was unable to halt the Grover scoring, and was again beaten by the fighting Eagles. Score, 37-21.

Mercer

The boys from the county seat were whipped again for their second Eagle defeat. Snaith led the Eagle scoring. Score, 40-29.

Franklin

The Grovers were slow in starting and a desperate last quarter rally fell short as the Nurseryites avenged their first defeat. Score, 32-35.

Greenville

The Trojans avenged their setback in football by defeating the Grovers for the second time. Bright and Boliver were too much. Score, 47-54.

Farrell

Ending the season with a victory, the Smileymen downed the Steelers for the second time to finish the season with a record of twelve victories and seven losses. Score, 35-34.

GIRLS' GYM

"Forward rolls now girls" was the familiar cry heard in the girls' gym classes, as Mrs. Beech, substitute gym teacher, sent the so-called "weaker sex" through their tumbling and exercises. The girls played almost every sport in which the boys took part with the exception of football.

During the first six weeks, the High-gals tumbled and took exercises. They even marched—right dress, left flank march, and attention. Volleyball was next on the schedule of Miss McCord, the newly elected gym teacher from Slippery Rock State Teachers College. Although volleyball was enjoyed by the girls, each and every one had an eye peeled for the winter months when they would play basketball.

At last winter set in and the basketballs were taken out of storage. How the girls loved that thrill-packed sport! Each one played as though her life depended on it. Interclass games proved to be the big moment awaited by all girls. In the play-offs, the seniors emerged the victors with the juniors second, sophomores third, and the inexperienced freshmen last.

Miss McCord followed the basketball with dancing, both folk and modern. If you boys want to see something, you should see the girls go through those steps. Oh! Boy!

Climaxing the winter activities was the selection of the Honorary Varsity. This group was selected in a basketball play off, the two competing teams being made up of the school's best female flashes. The winning team, and Honorary Varsity are: Forwards, Beverly Montgomery, captain; Doris Uber; Ethel Porkalab. Guards, Eleanor Sloan, Norma Fisher, Anne Augustine. Substitutes, Marie Crill, Shirley Adams, Faye Anderson.

BOYS' GYM

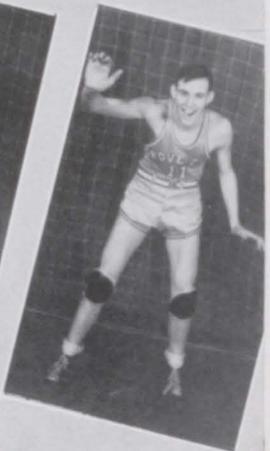

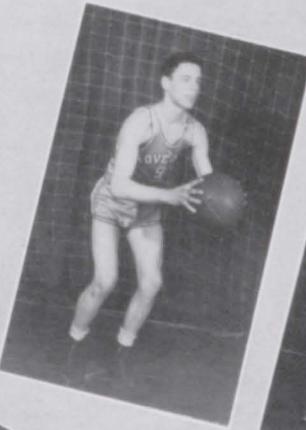

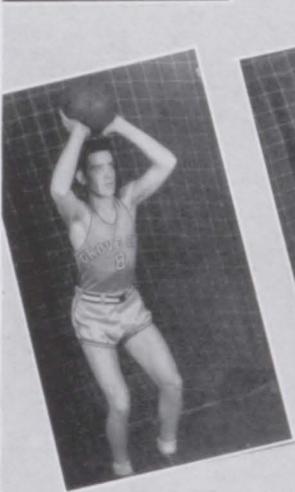

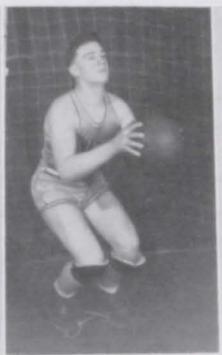

"Hep, two, three, four; hep, two, three, four" echoes the voice of our number-one commando, R. G. Smiley as he puts the male set of G. C. H. S. through their paces of drills in the typical Army manner. Coach Smiley spent many gym periods drilling the boys for preparation to enter the services of our country and for serving in our World of Tomorrow.

Basketball was played after the boys had drilled; later the drilling was eliminated and the entire period was devoted to basketball. When the basketball season ended, the art of self defense took over the sports feature in the gym classes. The first part of the second semester was devoted to wrestling, while the latter half was taken up by learning boxing.

Interclass basketball was a second half feature and found the juniors as victors with a perfect record of three wins and no losses. The sophomores finished in the second place position, with the freshmen and seniors tied for third. Dick Palmer, junior center, led all scoring with a 44-point total for the three games. The juniors were coached by two varsity players, Bob Cornelius, and Bob Snaith.

And so, as the year passed by, we found that Coach Bob Smiley was continuing his job of developing 1-A boys. We are sure that no matter what branch of the service these boys of Grove City high school enter, they will find the training given to them by Coach Smiley very helpful in earning promotions.

First Row: Bill Labor, Homer McDougall, Frank Dunn, Ken Spencer.

Fourth Row: Gene Hoag, Dick Hummel, Bob Paxton.

1—Our Score. 2—Queen's Day. 3—Yeh Gold, Yeh White! 4—Splinters. 5—Who Has the Ball? 6—A Tense Moment. 7—4 o'clock! 8—1, 2, 3, La Conga. 9—To The Rear, March. 10—Johnny Plays Again. 11—Got Him! 12—School Days. 13—Rain Or Shine! 14—G. H. C. and H. P. 15—Always Helpful. 16—Watch The Birdie.

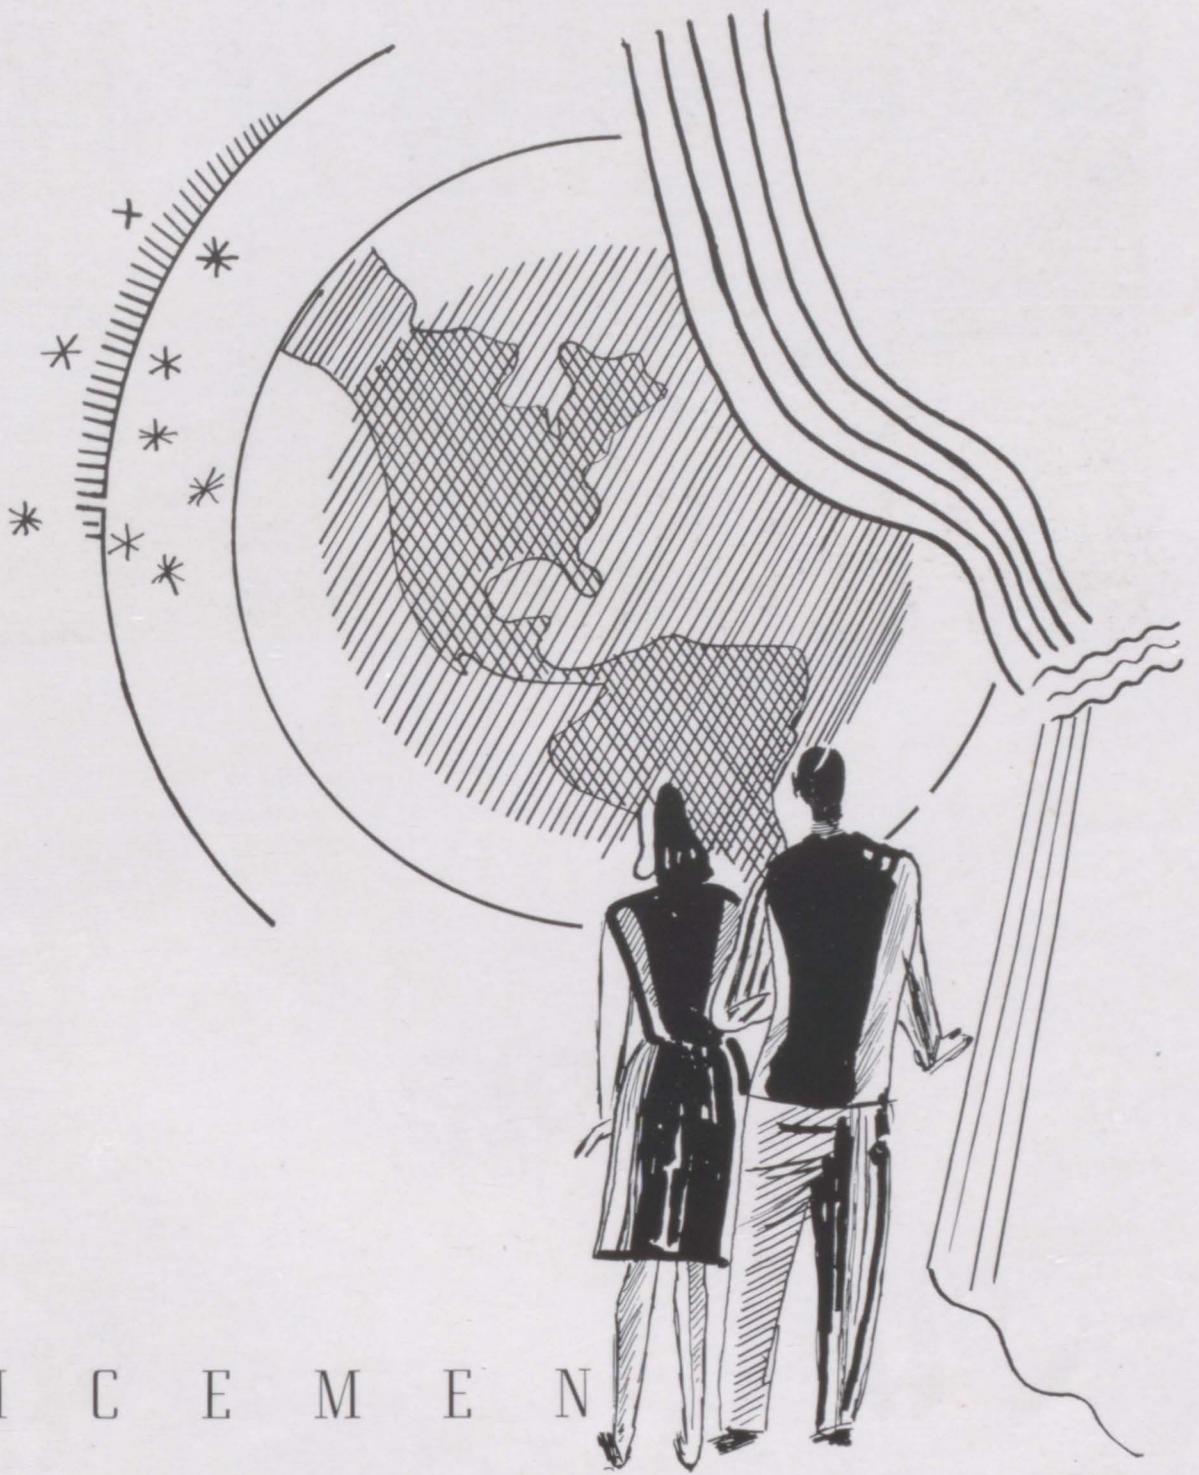

JO this year's Pine Knot there has been added a new section—different from anything that has been included in the yearbook before. This part is given over to a group of boys who have gone from our school and who have set aside their personal ambitions and hopes to go out and "finish a job"—a job of fighting for our homes and our land. They have taken up the burden without thought of it being their war or their fight, just the thought that the honor and dignity of the little town in which they went to school has been challenged by a man who thought he had the best way of ruling the world.

In the minds of the students of our high school are found memories of these fellows and girls who are now wearing Navy blue, Army khaki, or the dress blues of the Marines.

Among these faces are boys we all know. But some of these faces will be missing from the parade when the boys come marching home. Their memories will live on to weld in our minds the fact that it MUST NOT HAPPEN AGAIN!

Did you know . . .

High heels were invented by a short girl who got kissed on the forehead?
A good line is the shortest distance between two dates?

VEGETABLE ROMANCE

Do you carrot all for me? I think you're a peach. Lettuce be more than just good friends 'cause my heart beets for you. I artichoke you when you turnip your nose at me. I think we make a perfect pear. Celery get married?

New Bride: "Honey, I have a confession to make. I've got a cedar chest."

New Groom: "I'm sure glad to hear that. I was wondering what you'd say when you discovered—I have a wooden leg."

SPORTING GOODS

Mr. Nutt: "Explain the formation of dew, Bob?"

"Corney": "Well, the earth revolves on its axis every twenty-four hours; in consequence of the tremendous pace at which it travels, it perspires freely."

Bob Knause: "Hey, Miss Hosack, I ain't got no pen."

Miss Hosack: "Where's your grammar?"

Bob: "She's dead."

Then there's the Scotchman who sprained his ankle squeezing a tube of toothpaste.

Razor Cornelius was walking down the street one day and saw a sign reading, "Smith Manufacturing Company."

"Well, I'll be darned," he said, "I always wondered where all the Smiths came from."

Bob Shelley: "How many subjects are you carrying?"
Don Crooks: "Well, I'm carrying one and dragging three."

Eddie McBride: "Does X equal the same thing in algebra this year as it did last year?"

Betty Lou Elliott, as she got on a bus and called out rather loudly: "I wish that good-looking boy would give me his seat." Five of them stood up.

Bud Magee: "What a crowd! Something happen?"

Bud Thompson: "Man hit by a train."

Bud Magee: "Hurt bad?"

Bud Thompson: "Can't tell. Only found one leg."

COOPER-BESSEMER
SERVE THE NATION
ON MANY VITAL FRONTS

THE COOPER-BESSEMER CORPORATION

MOUNT VERNON, OHIO

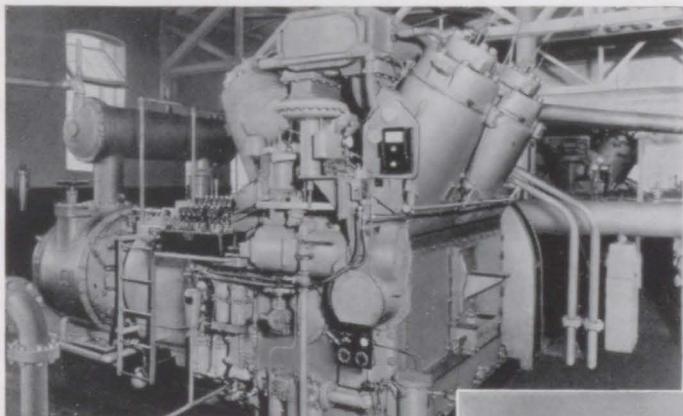

GROVE CITY, PA.

American ingenuity comes through again! And Cooper-Bessemer comes through with huge efficient compressor engines essential to production.

INDUSTRIAL LOCOMOTIVES

Many plants rely on CB powered Diesel locomotives to speedily handle finished and raw materials —a critical phase of war production.

AIR COMPRESSORS

Compressed air lines are lifelines in many vital war industries. Here again Cooper-Bessemer compressors are meeting a wide-spread critical need.

MINE SWEEPERS

The safety of our nation depends largely on these and many fighting ships of other types which owe their power to Cooper-Bessemer Diesels.

"Here's where I cut a good figure," said Norma Allen as she sat down on a broken bottle while ice-skating.

Chuck Drennen: "How far were you from the correct answer?"

Merle Duffy: "Three seats."

A Scotchman was run over by a steam-roller and turned on his side so his pants would be pressed.

Don Jennings: "It used to be three strikes and you're out; now it's three gallons."

She wore a bathing suit that fit like a sunburn.

Carmen: "Show me a tough guy and I'll show you a coward."

Dunny: "Well, I'm a tough guy!"
