shing Pumpkins Class colors: Black-Silver; Motto: You don't fail until you stop trying; Flower: Purple Orchid; Song: Today-Smash Pumpkins

"You can be as successful as you want to be, so don't ever set limits" (S. Lewis).

"If you're headed in the wrong direction, make a U-TURN" (L. Laird).

"Have a good day, everybody" (R. Briggs)!

"The trouble with stretching the truth is that it's apt to snap back" (M. Nikoloff).

As one chapter of our lives comes to an end, a new one begins. Days of joy and frustration fade one into another as time elapses. Just remember that there is a "a time to cry; a time to laugh; a time to grieve; a time to dance" (Ecclesiastes 3:4). Strive forward to a new beginning, and make your dreams a reality.

Winds Of Change

Anticipating the upcoming boys Cross Country race at Districts are seniors, Karen Deitrick and Chris Frizzell.

The Ladies of Camelot

On October 18, 1996, the Homecoming festivities began with the kickoff of the football game. The football team showed their fighting spirit defeating Kennedy Christian with a score of 24 to 7. The evening was also exciting for five lovely girls and their escorts. Queen Brooke Engles and her court consisting of: Tiffany Link, Aubri DelPozzo, Amber Stembal, and Susan Lewis showed high spirits despite the unfavorable weather. This beautiful group of girls created Homecoming memories that shone brightly on a dreary evening.

Fashion

Fashion speaks loudly showing our individuality. Throughout the halls of GCJHS one can see diverse tastes in style. Trends are rampant everywhere. Whether it's a little slinky black dress or just a baggy, faded pair of jeans, the fashionable always stand out. Below: In his ever popular combat boots Sophomore, Josh Milligan takes time to relax with Sophomore, Kelsy McKnight. Josh shows his unique style with his use of monochromatic colors with clashing patterns. Kelsy is wearing a long floral skirt with a simple complimentary t-shirt and sweater combo. They both display a relaxed yet stylish look.

Above: Not forgetting any side of GCJHS, we see Seniors, Lonnie Bess and Luke Laird along with their

Whether outlandish or simply comfortable, a good sense of style be as identifying as a voice or a signature. We must do something in this vast sea of high school students, to show our individuality. Left: Junior, Joni Richardson with her always casual, crisp style. Senior, Rebecca Perry and Sophomore, Carrie Dixon are always comfortable in a simple yet elegant, long, black, tunic style dress. Joni, Rebecca, and Carrie all enjoy the never out of date "chunky" boots look.

Below: In quite a comfortable, relaxed look Freshman, Cara Olson-Sawyer sits back in her baggies, with of course an oversized t-shirt and Sketcher shoes.

Below: Practically everyday Sophomore, Shannon Lightner slips on this cute hat. Showing a sense of style even with simple accessories.

“SHINDI BINDI”

COACH SEDER

The 1996 Eagle soccer team started out the season with a new head coach. Sadly, coach DeSue resigned from the head coaching position after being with the team for all 12 years of the programs existence. The new head coach, Mr. Seder, had been the assistant coach last year. Coach Seder led the Eagles to its second playoff birth and first AA league championship. With most of the 1995 team returning the Eagles had a strong nucleus to start the season. The offense averaged three goals a game, and the defense held opponents to just one goal a game. The Eagles captured the only AA playoff spot during their final game of the season. If they lost or tied the final game they would not have made it to the playoffs. With their destiny in their own hands the Eagles came through. They crushed the G.J.R. Tigers 8-0.

With that win Grove City advanced to meet Mercyhurst Prep in the first round of the playoffs. With two of their starters hurt the Eagles were going to have to play like a team in order to win. When the game began the Eagles were nervous playing in their first playoff game. Mercyhurst took advantage of that and put a goal on the scoreboard in the first two minutes. That goal was like a wake up call for the Eagles. They began to pick up their game and played as a unit instead of individuals. The Eagles out played Mercyhurst for the next three quarters, but could not score, hitting the post or cross bar three times. Mercyhurst added another goal with five minutes left to beat the Eagles 2-0. The Eagles clearly out played them but were just unlucky.

Concentrating on the ball, B.J. Gilbert out jumps the defender for the ball.

Beating the keeper, Luke McKinley scores the game winning shot at Kennedy.

Making a pass with determination, Barrett Sigmund looks to pass to Mike Wilson.

Delaying yet another offender, Tony Bancroft waits for the offender to make a mistake.

Coming out of goal, Sophomore Ryan Surrena kicks the ball out of danger.

Desire To Excel

Walking around, Senior Chris Painter thinks about the upcoming game.

In a strive to score, Sophomore Luke McKinley fires a shot.

Willing to do anything for the team, Sophomore Brian Beil bikes the ball in an attempt to score.

Sprinting after the ball, Freshman Todd Fisher beats a Sharon defender.

READY FOR ACTION. Seniors Tiffany Link and Brooke Engles await the serve.

MAKING THE PLAY. Tiffany Link returns the ball as her teammates are there for back up.

The Grove City Lady Eagles Volleyball team completed their regular season with a 15-6 record. Leading the team through our the season were seniors Brooke Engles and Tiffany Link. Brooke led the team in defense digs and serve recieve. Tiffany lead the team in serving aces. A highlight of the season included the performances at the Wilmington tournament when the Lady Eagles defeated the Wilmington Greyhounds and the Oil City Oilers which brought home a second place finish. Unfortunately a loss near the regular season to Hickory was a low point for the team.

During the season the team made the games intresting. If someone was going to be crazy to get the fans and the team excited then Julie Laird was happy to oblige. Making up her own victory dances some people were sure to get a laugh. Then again Christy was always able to get everyone psyched after one of her kills. Following the last game both Christy Biberich and Brooke Engles were named to the first team All-Conference. In addition Chisty was also named honorable mention All-State. Jenny Coss and Tiffany Link also received honorable mention All-Conference.

As a first year head coach, Dawnielle Minch stated, "We did well this season even though we didn't achieve all of our goals." She also said the seniors were great leaders and they will be missed.

COACH'S QUOTE

"Mediocrity is not an acceptable challenge! GOLF may be the most challenging of all sports. We do have the POTENTIAL! But potential is just a word."

The 1996 golf team started the season before school officially began. The team got off on the right foot by winning their first three matches.

On this year's team were three returning senior lettermen, Rob Hill, Ben Chutz, and Brad Chutz. Brad maintained the number one spot throughout the majority of the season. With only three seniors on the team, Coach Lenny Clarke had to rely on his underclassmen.

There were no juniors on the team, so sophomores Dane Kuhlber, Ryan Bibza, and Brian Youngdahl along with freshmen Kevin McCreary, Craig Otteni, and Eric Hancox had to contribute to the team. They dropped the next four out of five matches with losses against Greenville twice, Hickory, and West Middlesex, only beating the Slippery Rock team.

With the underclassmen in full swing, and the seniors a stroke ahead, the Eagles finished the season by splitting a pair of matches with Sharon and Sharpsville to finish with an 8 - 8 overall season record.

After carefully studying the green, Freshman Kevin McCreary makes it look easy as he putts.

"It was a very enjoyable season. It was great having a large number of girls out for the team and watching them improve throughout the season."

Although their record doesn't show it, the 1996 girls cross country team had a very successful season. With returning state qualifier Melissa Wallace leading the team, the girls won their last two duel meets and ended the season with an eleventh place finish at the District meet, improving last year's record. Much of this success was due to the large number of girls who joined the team this year. For the first time ever, there were enough girls to have a complete junior varsity team.

There were many outstanding individual performances as well. Wallace had a second place

Into the Woods... finish at the MCAC Championships, and was the District runner-up a week later, qualifying her for the State Championships for a second time. At the State meet, she finished thirty-eighth.

The girls not only worked hard, but had a lot of fun in the process, with camouflage t-shirts, war paint, bib runs to McDonald's, initiations, and their new mascot, a skunk.

"It was a very enjoyable season. It was great having a large number of girls out for the team and watching them improve throughout the season," said second year coach, Alan Hough.

TAKING AN EARLY lead in the girls race, Melissa Wallace sets the pace for the girls team.

Coach Hough

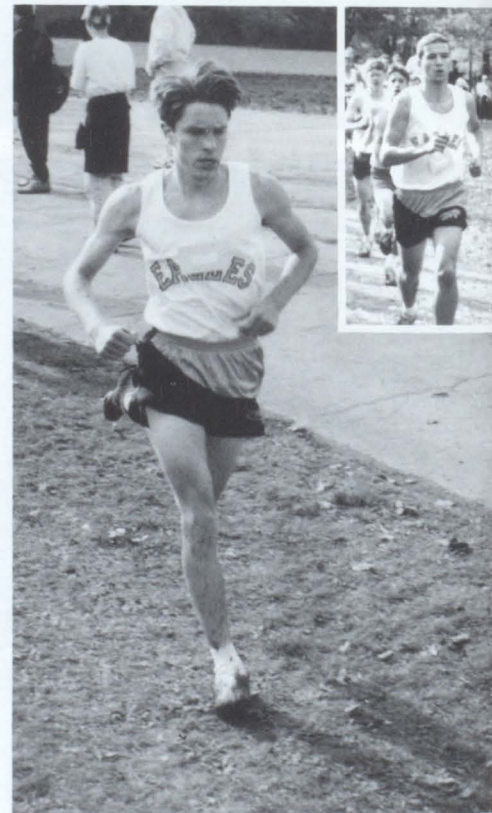

"It was a great season. The guys approached every meet as an invitational, with the goal of doing their best and the goal of winning."

The 1996 boys cross country team went into the season with their eyes set on the state tournament. Having a team that had only lost one senior and coming out of the 95' season being undefeated, MCAC Champions and District 10 champions, a state championship was definitely reachable. With the loss of senior Jon Peterson the boys team gained a few new faces which filled the loss plus more. The boys team traveled through the season and ended their expedition with an undefeated record. The team went on to five different invitationals covering the entire western side of Pennsylvania. Out of all of these match ups the boys only lost once to settle for a second place finish. The MCAC championship came and the boys team won with no competition from other Mercer county teams. The boys placed six men in the top ten to lead the team to another county championship. All conference honors went to Seth Jenny, Lonnie Bess, Steve Sherman, Steve Buck, Kyle Black and Luke Laird. The District 10 meet was sure to follow. The team was excited and ready to go. The team went to war, punished the others that tried to compete and proudly took the District 10 class AA Championship. "STATES"! It was finally here and the boys were pumped and ready to go. The championship was being held at Bucknell University. On a cold November morning the gun sounded and the boys were off to battle. Finishing a proud third in the state meet the season came to an end with many respectable hard working memories to look back on.

BEFORE THE SOUND of the gun, the boys ask God for wisdom, strength and safety throughout the race that lies ahead.

SURPRISE! SENIOR ROOKIE Steve Sherman, made his name known within the league by running in the top five of the Eagles magnificent seven.

Coach's Quote

"We felt our team could play with anybody and be very competitive. Our goal was to make it back to the District 10 playoffs."

Coach Altemus

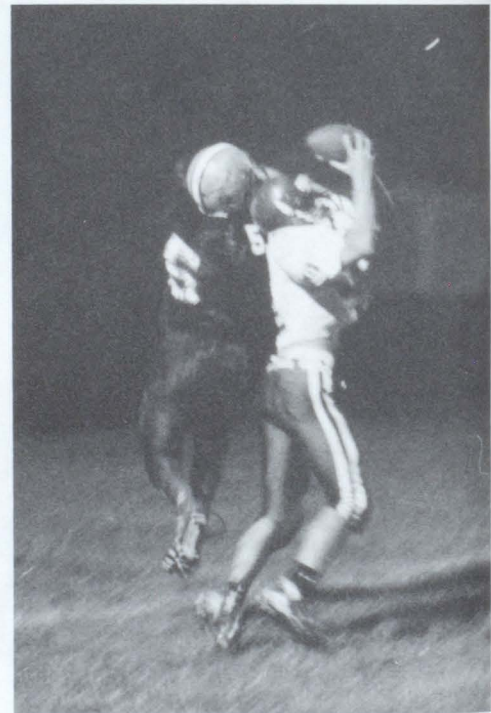

The 1996 Football team, opened the season with a huge victory over Pine Richland. This was a great accomplishment for the team. The history of Grove City Football shows that no team in 10 years has won their season opener. After this big win the football team felt they were ready to return to the District 10 playoffs. The season went on with the team losing the following week. The season was like a roller coaster ride. The team put themselves in a position to make it into the playoffs. They started the road on a positive path beating their backyard rivals Slippery Rock. The rocky path took the team to Mercer. The team fought hard, but came up short. The team still had one more chance. The Eagles had to play Hickory at home to make it to the playoffs. With Senior Kris Knepper as a fullback/defensive end, he was quoted by Coach Altemus as being "outstanding at his positions," and Senior Amos Upshaw as a safety/split end

Coach Altemus said that "Amos was a big time player." With this combination and the other hard workers on the squad, the team had high hopes of winning. With a loss in the fourth quarter to Hickory, the Eagles were stopped from advancing to the playoffs, but left the season knowing what they gave was all they could give and they were proud to be the Eagles.

In the Spirit

Long before the fans arrive, you can find the wrestling cheerleaders practicing mounts, chants, and cheers to get ready for the upcoming match. Serious injuries can occur while cheering as Junior Crystal Miller proved as being possible. Sophomore Carrie Dixon remembers this incident, "They were throwing her in a pitchback and she didn't rotate all the way around and she fell on her head and shoulder. As she sat up she blacked out. 911 was called and an ambulance rushed Crystal to the hospital on a stretcher." Who says cheering isn't a dangerous sport?

What's going on? All spirited out, these girls take a breather while the injured wrestler is attended to.

Balance and Eagle pride are displayed as Senior Kim Carothers stands above the rest. Kim was also a co-captain this year.

Two weeks before the new school year started, the football cheerleaders began to prepare for the football season. The varsity squad consisted of only seven members, yet they led the fans the best they could despite the lack of cheerleaders needed for mounts. Although this year's season was not incredibly eventful, it was a pretty successful one.

As time went on the girls learned several routines which included "Everybody's Everything," "Spirit of America," and their feature "Keep 'em Separated." Although there were several disagreements the girls found a way to end with a successful season of smiles and memories.

Women BEHAVING Badly

The traditional powder puff football game between the junior and senior girls was held Saturday, October 26th, two weeks later than planned, due to poor field conditions after the Homecoming football game. Both teams had practiced and trained for a month before the game, and the competition was intense. Though the junior girls played hard, their efforts could not match the ability and experience of the seniors. The seniors won 18-6, under the steady leadership of co-captains Jody Hancox and Melissa Poole, who scored all of the seniors' points. Jody ran for two touchdowns, and Melissa earned one touchdown. The sole junior touchdown was scored by co-captain Amy Schneider on a punt return. Both teams had outstanding defensive teams and played with fierce intensity.

"The season was a difficult one, but the kids learned a lot".

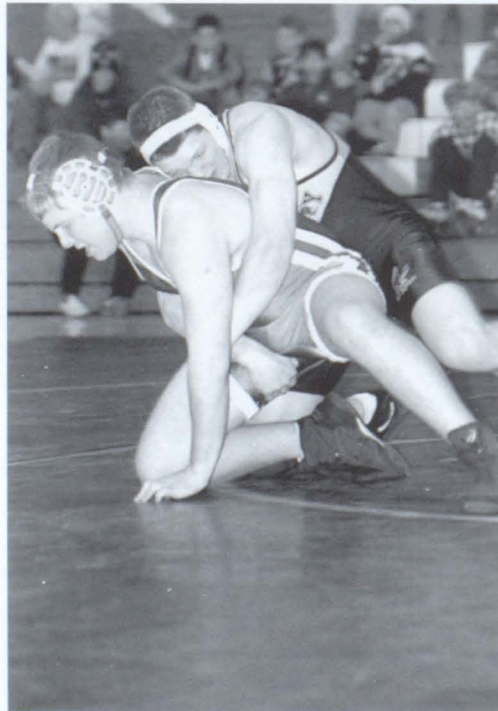

- Coach Ruley

This years season was a difficult one for the wrestling team. The team was young, five of the starters were freshmen. Coach Ruley stated, "the season was a learning experience for us. A high point of the season was the win 39 to 30 over Oil City. This was a triumph for the team since Oil City had beaten them last year. This years team was hurt by injuries. Three starters Will Stillwagon, Ryan Cook, and Tyler Graham were unable to finish their seasons, which added yet another obstacle to the teams season.

The 1996-97 Lady Eagles Basketball team had a successful season. The team ended the season with a 20-5 record and a county championship. Their league record ended up 7-1 and they were able to advance to the District 10 championship playoffs.

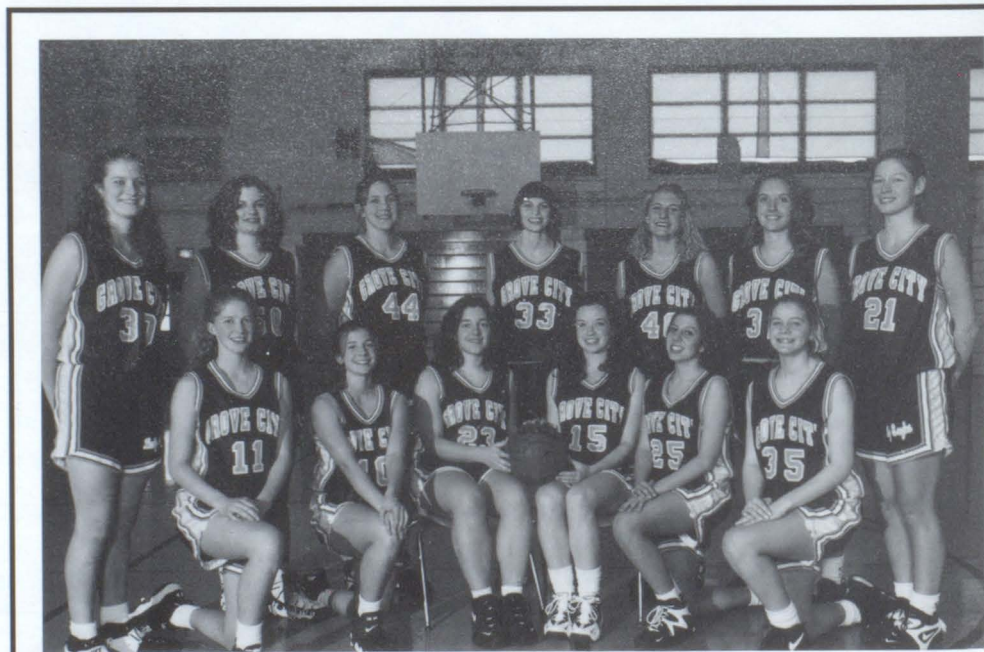

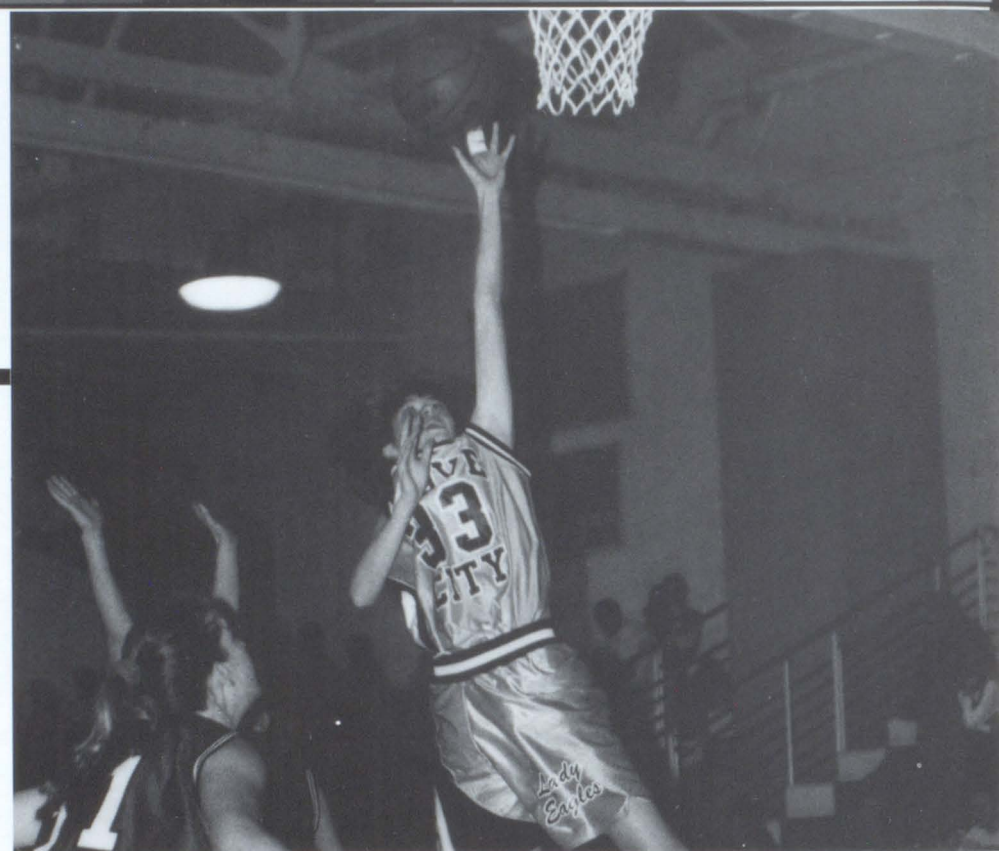

Among any team there are many memorable moments. One that this team is sure to never forget is their game against Kennedy Christian. Great preparation went into the pregame. Having one of the very important starters, Erin Kennedy, ill with the flu, the rest of the team was able to pull together and come out on top for the win. For those of you who don't know the importance of this accomplishment, Kennedy was the last team in the county left in the playoffs. They went to the State tournament this season.

The playoff experience was short lived this year because of a hard loss against the Lady Sailors of Lakeview. Going in at half-time with a one point lead, the Eagles were unable to hold on to that lead to the end. Despite the fact that all the team goals were not reached the season was a learning experience for all.

"Coaches Quote"

"It was a great year characterized by a great bunch of seniors."

Coach Don Fee

Although The Eagles finished the season in playoff bound form, they started slow with a 3-3 record losing to a pair of Quad A schools, and local foe Mercer. The losing stopped there as they went on a 16-0 run, lead by senior Amos Upshaw who lead all around in scoring, rebounding, assists and steals; but a loss to Hickory in the next to last regular season game, forced a tie breaker with the Hornets to decide the MCAC champion. This time the Eagles had their revenge on a Seth Jenny 3-pointer with 2 ticks left on the clock to lead them to a two point victory.

In the playoffs the Eagles won against Titusville and Harborcreek, but fell to General McLane in the District 10 Championship, and to Peters Township in the first round of the state playoffs. "It was a great year, characterized by a great bunch of seniors," said Coach Don Fee who had eight returning seniors. The teams high points were winning their own Christmas tournament against eventual D-10 Quad A champions New Castle, gaining the MCAC championship and earning District 10 AAA runner-up. Congratulations on a great season!

ROCKS THE HOUSE

This year's squads were dedicated to getting the fans excited and revved up. These athletes, under the supervision of Mrs. Davidson worked out after-school the day before each game, practicing dances, bench cheers, and floor cheers. Creativity was definitely shown this season as Coach Davidson could clearly see. While many students join in with the cheerleaders at sporting events, many still treat them as playing an insignificant role and regard them as not being needed. The struggle for cheerleaders will still remain, yet the spirit they display can not be denied.

"Coaches Quote"

Jeff Lumley

"I was pleased with the way the season went, because of improvements by the individuals and only one person qualified for states, but may hit PR's at counties and districts. I am looking forward to next year!"

The 1997 GCHS Boys Track Team despite a losing record of 4-6, they stood strong while putting forth a winning effort. The throwers this year, were much more developed and scored a large sum of points for the team. The distance runners were once again a force in the county and scored many points for the team. The boy jumpers were very talented; ignoring the number competing (3), they continued to do their part getting points to win.

The sprinters also were hard at work gaining points and helping the team win their 4 meets. This was not just a one event team, that worked hard together. Everyone was cheering when they weren't competing, helping others to have their best performances of the year.

PACE! Senior Runners Seth Jenny and Lonnie Bess pace themselves together during the 3200m run.

JUMP! Freshman Andy Peck jumps in hopes of a new personal record.

AHHH! Sophomore Dan Kocher heaves the Shotput into the outfield.

Speed! Steve Sherman leads the field of hurdlers, during the 110's.

Stride it out! Seth Jenny works hard through the 1600m run.

GO! Senior James Schepp watches to see how far his throw in the discus will reach.

Top right: Leading the girl's two mile race, Melissa Wallace brings in a first place finish against her Greenville opponent.

Right: Megan McCarl, Jody Hancox, Jessica Smith, Stephanie Smith, and Julie Laird show that track isn't just about hard work, it's about creating lasting friendships as well.

Left: Junior Megan McCarl sails to a D-10 winning long jump of 17-8 3/4 inches. McCarl also won the triple jump and finished second in the high jump, advancing her to States in all three events.

Bottom right: After throwing a third place in the discus, freshman Nicole Basham (a.k.a. Peachie) awaits the results of her throw.

The 1997 spring season brought much better weather conditions for its athletes than the last season, making it easier to hold practices.

Although the girls had a tough time coming together as a team this year, the individual effort was outstanding. Led by seniors Melissa Wallace and captain Jody Hancox, the girls worked hard and had a successful season individually. At the A.C. Valley invitational, the girls placed third out of twenty-two teams with points earned by Wallace, Hancox, Stephanie Smith, and Megan McCarl.

McCarl had an excellent season, qualifying for States in three events. At the State Meet, she placed third in the long jump, and sixth in the triple jump.

With only twelve to fifteen girls competing at each meet, it was hard for the girls to bring in enough points for a win, especially when competing against teams with up to three times as many girls.

"Although our season was winless, our individual efforts stood out. You can't always look at the stats and make an opinion. The girls gave more heart than any of our opponents and that is more important to me than winning," said Hancox.

COACH'S QUOTE

At the beginning of the season the players made a commitment to work and play hard all year long, they came through on that commitment and it made the season very enjoyable.

-Coach Pat Forese

Short stop Brad Chutz concentrates on the batter, waiting intently for the ball to come his way.

The Eagles started the season off on the right foot, and ended it just the same. Earning the MCAC Championship and becoming the winningest baseball team Grove City High School has ever seen with a 15-5 final record.

Leading the Eagles at the plate was the duo of junior Eric Bell, all time hits(32) and runs(29) leader. Also sophomore Derek Caylor who batted .433% and lead the team with 20 RBI's.

On the mound a trio of juniors led the way for the Eagles. Dave Sansom, Brian Gothe, and Justin Magee were Grove City's main pitchers. Occasional relief from seniors Brad Chutz and Chris Painter, who filled in from their other field positions helped on the mound.

Despite beating out rival Hickory for the MCAC #1 spot, and a lower seeding in District 10 playoffs, the Eagles lost to Corry in the first round of D10 playoffs.

Hurler Brian Gothe follows through on one of his many pitches that proved to be strikes.

Junior Paul Como rounding third base on his way to scoring another run for the Eagle diamond men.

SWINGIN' FOR THE FENCE-Eric Bell swinging with all he's got, just misses this one.

Senior first baseman Ben Chutz fields a ball thrown from a team mate for an easy out.

"I loved this team"

Coach Gilson

The 1996-97 tennis team upheld their winning traditions. They finished with an overall record of 12-1. This year's team was led by senior Tim Hoffecker who played at #1 position, Tim's overall 4 year record was 37-4 doubles. Chris Spiker played at the #2 position. Seniors Matt Bibza and Matt Nikoloff finished undefeated at 3rd and 4th man singles. Bibza finished with a 24-2 record for 3 years. Also, the third doubles team of Senior Rob Hill and Freshman Nate Spiker finished undefeated. This year's team was signified by its depth.

Senior Matt Nikoloff, unravels a killer forehand.

TEAM QUOTES

"You join a team to become a part of something bigger than you are, not better but more. That what we did and had fun doing it."

Chris Frizzle

"My god this year was not just to play softball, but to improve and build for teh future and our team did just that. Our batting average improved to .335 as a team and we held our opponents to .318, so we had more hits than our opponents, but where our losses came was a break down in our defense and pitching."

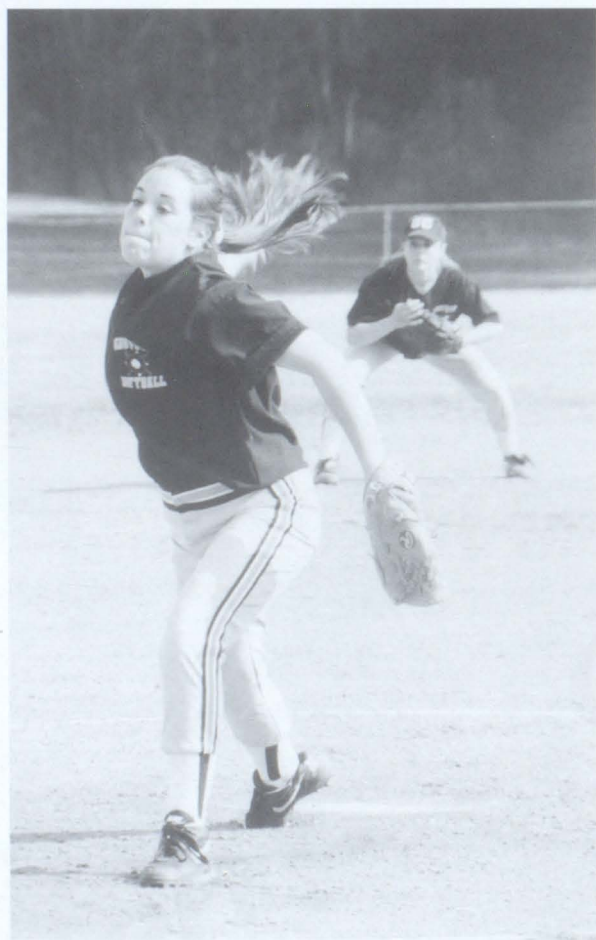

Mrs. Denbow

Even though we didn't win all of our games, we had fun this season and met most of our goals.

Jenny Coss

Back up catcher Jayne Mincey awaits the pitch.

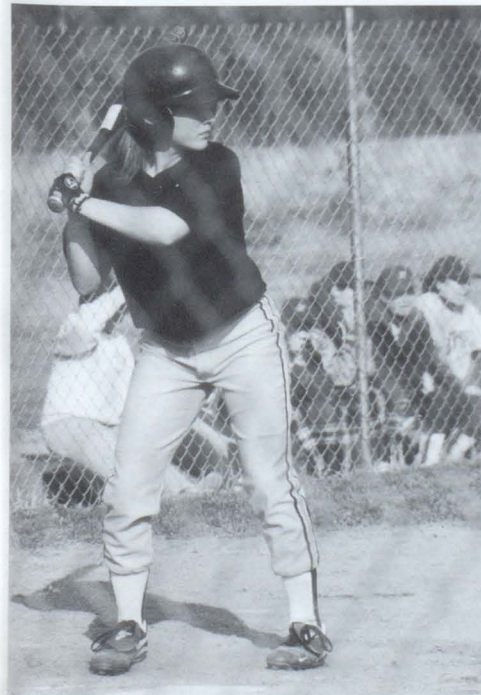

The 1996-97 Lady Eagle Softball team accomplished something no other Grove City softball team has ever done before. Even though this is only their second year as a varsity team, they proved that experience isn't everything as long as you have the heart and desire to excel. They came out as the top seed out of MCAC AA and won their league. This year's team was led by sophomore Ellie Smith who led the team in batting average with a slugging percentage of .516. Next year's team should be very strong due to the fact that only one member of this year's team will be moving on.

PLAY

"Come and meet those dancing feet" was the theme for this year's Spring Musical, 42nd Street. The cast and crew of over 60 people spent 12 long weeks (as compared to the normal eight) to prepare for the tap-dancing extravaganza. It is the largest and most difficult production the GCHS Theater has ever taken on, and some dare say, the most successful. Hard work and dedication was prevalent every where from baby-tap-classes to giving up vacation time for rehearsal.

GCHS's production of 42nd Street was also a smashing hit due to the hard work of the crews, the incredible singing and dancing of the cast and the skillful guidance of Mr. Barron and Ms. Berkey.

Musical Impact puts talent in the spotlight

The GCHS Show Choir, Musical Impact, showcased talent in numerous individuals who put in long hours perfecting the music, moves, and melodies needed to make their performances a success. In its eleventh year of existence, the ensemble performs Christmas shows throughout the community in December and an arrangement of show tunes in the spring.

Members of this year's show choir included: Jeff Barron, Christy Biberich, Mike Collins, David Davis, Betsy Dupree, Josh Gilliland, Sara Gilliland, Teddy Hartle, Rob Herndon, Ben McCarthy, Dan McKnight, David Moore, Erin Otteni, Jeremiah Otto, Amy Phillips, Sheila Purich, Andrea Sack, Erin Schleigh, Beth Seely, Dan Settlemire, Abby Smith, Amber Stembal, Matt Texter, and Marla Voltz. Featured soloists throughout the year were Jeff Barron, Christy Biberich, Mike Collins, Erin Otteni, Amber Stembal, and Matt Texter.

Also contributing to the effort were technical assistants Mike Beck, Chris Elverson, Chris Hartle, Jocelyn Towle, and Abby Voltz.

The Days

To Remember...

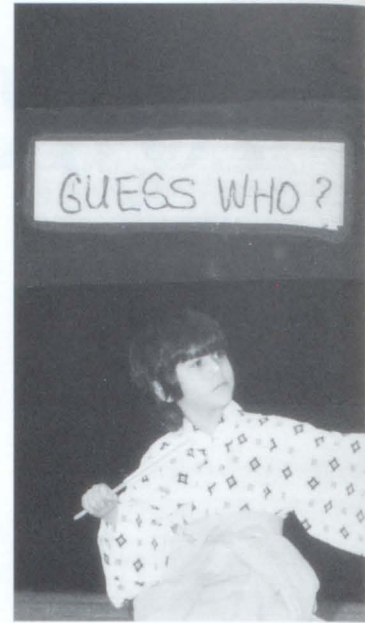

A) Dwayne Wilson
 One day while hunting Dwayne was sitting on a log. All of the sudden "crash". He fell over. He was lying across the log crying for help.

B) Amber Stembal
 You,ve not been Quiet since the day you were born! Keep singing. It's been an honor and a privilege being your parents.

C) Lonnie Bess
 A Shotgun rifle, and a 4-wheel drive, a country boy can survive!

D) Mike Wilson
 When asked if he fought with his brother and sister, Hereplied, "Yes, thats what their for." He got a movie part for that line.

F)

E) Jody Hancox
 We hope that you are aware of how special you are and how proud we are of you. Always believe in yourself and with gods help everything in the world is within your reach.

F) Melissa Rodgers
 When Melissa was one year old she crawled out of the crib and was playing with spaghetti and flour on the kitchen floor, while we were sleeping.

G) Jessica Herndon

H) Rebecca Perry

Do you Recognize These Smilin' Faces?

We were so Cute, What Happened?

C) Johanna Rossi

You always loved to go fast. Remember in T-ball how you passed the base runner in front of you and came into homeplate first! Competitiveness started early.

D) Erin Dixon

Mrs. Noosbaum,

Your happy memories have been our joys; many matthew, cookie kids, Star Wars, princess lea, barrett birthdays, erin rose's bikinis, bazooka horse and clara... Thank you!

C)

A) Seth Jenny

Remember: Broken Leg in a graveyard, Foul shooting at states, Habitat in Mexico, Hooters with Huz, MCAC X-Country Champ & B-Ball.

B) Steve Sherman

Superman, Remember those long waits in front of the dryer, and your convincing story of how green vegetables contained Kryptonite!

A) Amy Kildoo
"Princess", Thank you for all the joy you have given us through the years. We're proud of you.

B) Tiffany Link
Remember on vacation when the family stopped at a restaurant with an ice cream bar. You pulled the lever and the ice cream wouldn't stop!

C) Benjamin Schell

E) Matt Texter
When Matt was four he turned the heater up on his aunt's fish tank, killing the fish. Then he said the dog "Pokey" did it.

D) Christine Frizzell
Your 8th grade party. 2 days of water balloon fights, endless people, shattered glass, toilet paper, ice attacks, horror films and more.

F) Katie Mattocks
When Katie was found standing in front of her potty chair, she turned to her mommy and said, "If boys can do it, so can I!"

G) Daniel Settlemire
Long before Dan sang in musical productions, he was crooning to pop hits like, "I love a nee-nee nuk." (I love a rainy night).

A) Luke Laird

B) Summer Ferringer

You'll always be our little girl. And no matter where life may take you, remember that you are loved.

C) Lawrence Bubeck

He's never quite as innocent as he looks. Behind those blue eyes and sweet smile is trouble and yet a lot of fun just waiting to happen.

D) Mark Huzzy

We should have realized what lay ahead when at two, we caught you on top of a twelve foot scaffolding with your big wheel bike.

E) Brooke Engles

Our "little angel girl." What a joy it has been to watch you grow up. You are the kind of daughter every parent hopes for.

G) Melissa Poole

How's this smile? Just great! Keep a smile on your face and remember that we love you as you go out into this world.

H) Matt Nickoloff

Wanting to make his first bike ride without training wheels a memorable one, Matt rode straight into a brick wall, breaking his nose.

F) Bob Maine

Remember first grade, you said "What did I get myself into, my teacher is fat and no truck." Good luck in college Bob!

A) Todd Doersom

B) Karen Deitrick

C) Dawn Morley

D) Jennifer Bittner

F)

E) Ross Ford

As you head out into the future remember your family loves you. Keep god first in all of your endeavors. . . . And please dress better!

F) Sam Miller

When someone offers you a birthday cake, accept, don't tell them " It's not my birthday".

D) Jill Johnson

As you ride into the future, remember how much we love, respect and cherish you. We are truly proud of you.

H) Shelia Purich

G) Denise Jones

I)

J) Kris Knepper

A) Erin Schleigh

From the beginning you were full of surprises! Hiding in kitchen cabinets, Giggling from the basement steps and delighting us with your comic skills.

C) Matthew Shipton

Your third halloween, you marched in the parade dressed as a little curly tailed pig, carrying a sign "EAT BEEF" Winning first place for the funniest costume.

B) John Fierst

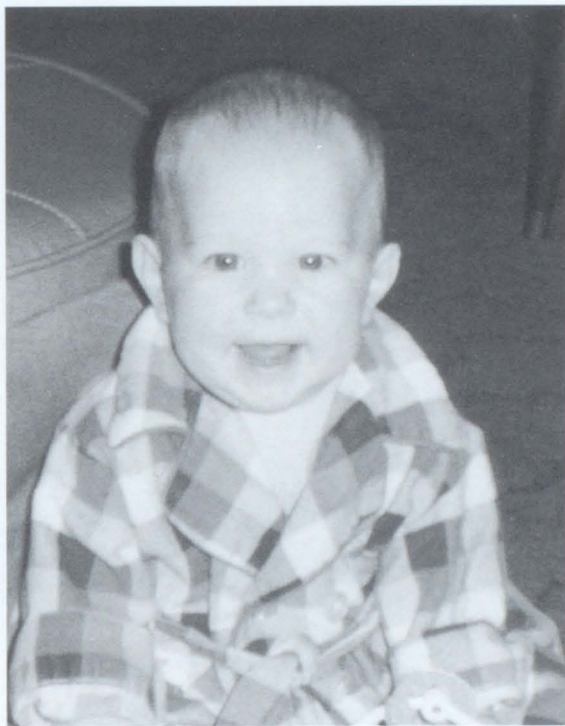

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music he hears, however measured or far away.

D) Heather Patterson

At college, remember to get your sleep, or you might revert to that little girl crying- "I'm not cranky", as we tried not to laugh.

B)

C)

E) Robert Covert

He weighed 12-51/2 at birth. His head was shaped like a pear with caved in sides, not pretty, but still a keeper. And look at him now!

F) Michelle Patterson

Remember, scissors, screendoors, back handsprings, porches without railings, slow moving snowmobiles and fast moving cars. You survived it all and we are proud of the person you've become.

G) Janelle Miller

In the local McDonalds, three year old Janelle eyed a nearby Asian couple intently before asking, "Mom, is that ancient Chinese secret?" Everyone cracked up!

Waiting in agony
pleading with the hands of time
move faster, move faster!
Forever vexed by the complexities of the future,
Our future.
Fears drown out hopes tears say goodbye
A farewell evaporated by the obsession of freedom
So enamored with what is to come
Yet, we do not stop to savor the sweet aroma
The warm contentment of this familiar world this world is all we know...
All we have ever known and now on the verge of our rebirth we see
The reaching arms of our parents
The steady change of seasons
The endearing traditions of this small town
The safety of what we have lived
No more can we take these for granted they are gone like the children we were so look back once more
As we begin our metamorphosis into what will be the future
Our future...

Life After Here

Which is over pleasure or pain?
Perception is everything
When you see life
Will you dance with it or die from it?
Life throws hardships at you sometimes
Many perish, but a select few see past
These little things, and continue living
Tomorrow is a gift you earn today
The lost sheep is not lost
He is only searching for a better place
Which is not here.
We are and always will be his flock.
What now? Does it matter?
I can see your face in my mind.
I may succeed, I may fail
What are my consequences?
If they are not death then I worry no more.
Blossom like a flower that has been groomed all of its life
Or celebrate like a slave set free from bondage.
Whatever your choice, it should be for you.
Keep the bush burning.

class of 1997

Dear Seniors,

So it's finally over! It's amazing to think that the one thing that has dominated much of our time and life over the last twelve years is finished. Because of school, friendships have been made, athletics have been played, and (believe it or not!) knowledge has been gained. Indeed, sometimes it's hard to put all of that behind. Nevertheless, I feel it is fair to say that most of us are ready to move on. Therefore, I urge you, class of 1997, to put your best foot forward and to show the world that even small town kids have some ability. As many of you move into college, I encourage you to work hard and show some discipline. We are very fortunate to be allowed an education, so take advantage of the opportunity. Also, while moving out into the world, don't forget the sense of morality that comes with growing up in a small town. Our nation seems to be turning further and further away from the strong moral foundation that was present at our nation's birth. Therefore I urge everyone to be lights in a dark world, and to not be afraid to maintain those values. As a final note, I wish everyone success in whatever avenue of life they choose to pursue, and pray that God will continue to be faithful unto each one of you.

FACULTY

At Grove City High School we are only so lucky to have such a caring faculty and administration. Even though some teachers had more of an impact on their students than others, each will be remembered. When one leaves GCHS they are filled with the knowledge and capability to face the challenges that may lie ahead of them. So, this one is for you:
